De Proclamatione, mandante deceſſum Magnatum & aliorum a Civitate London. durante Regis Progreſſu.

A.D.1617. Ibid. p. 11. dor.

The Princelie Care, which Wee ever beare towardes the good Governement and Reliefe of our People, ſuffereth noe occaſion to paſſe whereby Wee maie exerciſe and manyfeſte the ſame.

Neither is it unknowen to our loving Subjects, by former Proclamations of this Nature, howe deſirous Wee have alwaies beene to renewe and revive the aunciente and lawdable Cuſtome of this our Kingdome, whereby Noblemen and Perſons of Qualitie were uſed rather to dwell and reſide in the ſeveral Counties of this Realme, wheare their principal Seates and Manſions weare, then to gather to London, and theare to remayn to the Decaye of Hoſpitalitie and the Diſſervice of the Countie.

Wherefore, taking into our Princelie Conſideration that, Wee being now in our Journey towardes our Realme of Scotland, reſorte of ſuch Perſons unto our Citie will bee leſſe needfull, but rather that it is farre more conveniente that they abide and contynewe in their ſeveral Dwellings in the Countrey to perfourme the Duties and Charge of their Places and Service, and likewiſe by Houſekeeping to be a Comforte unto their Neighbours;

A.D.1617. 15 Jac. 1.

Wee doe hereby ſtraightlie charge and comaunde all our Lewetenaunts, except ſuch as be of our Privie Councell or are commanded to attende uppon us in our Journey, and alſoe all Noblemen, Deputie Lewetenaunts, Knightes and other Gentlemen of Quallitie, which have Manſion Howſes in the Countrie, That, within twentie Daies after this our Proclamation publiſhed, they departe with their Wives and famylies oute of our ſaide Cittie of London and the Suburbes thereof, and retourne to their ſeverall Habitations in the Countrey, and there continewe and abide untill the ende of the Sommer Vacation; wherein nevertheleſſe Wee would have this our Commandemente to be underſtood that, ſuch as have neceſſarie occaſion to attende heere in oure Cittie of London for Tearme Buiſynes concerninge their Eſtate, or ſuch as ſhall have other ſpeciall and urgent Occaſions, which they ſhall ſignifie and approve unto our Privie Councell, maie during the twoe next Termes, or during ſuch other times as their Occaſions ſoe to bee ſignified and approved, as aforeſaide, ſhall require, come uppe and remaine within our Cittie of London or the Suburbs thereof, this our Proclamation notwithſtanding: And becauſe Wee have heeretofore founde much Remiſſnes and Neglect in obeyinge our Proclamations, which are ever publiſhed for juſte and polliticque Cauſes, and for the publique Good; Wee doe therefore admoniſhe all thoſe whome theis Preſents may concerne, to beware that Wee have no juſte Cauſe to make them an Example of Contempte for diſobeyinge this oure Royall Commaundemente.

We ther fore, minding to give ſpeedy Redreſs in a matter ſo much concerning Us and our loving Subjects, by the adviſe of our Councill, have fully reſolved and determined, and, by theiſe Preſents, do will and command, that ſuch ſort of Coynes of Gold and Silver ſhall be made by you for our Uſe as were formerly made and coyned by the ſaid Sir Richard Martin and Richard Martin his Son, or either of them, by vertue of our Indentures of the Mynte, bearing Date the Eighteenth Day of May in the tenth Year of our Raign of England Fraunce and Ireland, and of Scotland the five and fortieth, made betweene Us on the one part, and the ſaid Sir Richard Martin and Richard Martin his Son deceaſed, on the other Party, upon the ſame Standerd, with ſuch Cautions Remedies and Conditions as in the ſaid Indentures are more plainly and particulerlie expreſſed:

And our Will and Pleaſure is, and Wee doe hereby ſtraightlie cherge and comand that, as well you our Wardens of our Minte, as all other our Officers Workemen and Miniſters of the ſame Minte, ſhall duelie perform your Duties and Offices in the receiving of Boullion, making of Monyes, and Payments thereof, according to the forme and effect of the ſame Indentures, as you will anſwere the contrary at your Perill;

And for that We are not fully reſolved what Prices We will give for the making of the ſame Coynes of Gould and Silver, our Will and Pleaſure is that yow, our ſaid Wardens of our Mynte, ſhall out of the Prices formerlie allowed to the ſaid Maſters and Workers of our Monyes, pay unto the Melters Monyers and other Workmen and Miniſters which ſhall attend that Service, ſuch Somme and Sommes of Money as by you or either of you, with the Conſent of our aforſaid Officers, or any two of them, ſhall be thought meet; and theſe our Letters Patents for the makyng of our Monys, both of Gould and Silver, in ſuch manner as they were formerly made by vertue of the forſaid Indentures, ſhall be as well to you our ſaid Wardens, as to all other our Officers Workemen and Miniſters of our Mynte, a ſufficient Warant and Diſcharge in that behalf, and which ſhall continew and remain in force untill We ſhall ſignify our Pleaſure under our Sign Manuall or Privy Signet to the contrary.

JAMES, by the Grace of God, King of England Scotland Fraunce and Ireland Defendor of the Faith &c. to our righte truſtie and righte welbeloved Counſellor Sir Francis Bacon Knight our Keeper of our Greate Seal of England, and to our truſtie and right welbeloved Counſellor Sir Julius Ceſar Knight Maiſter of our Rolles, Greeting.

Whereas We have made our Ordynaunce for the conſtituting of Reporters of the Lawe, and paſſed the ſame under our Greate Seale of England in forme following.

It hath well appeared howe careful Wee have beene for the preſerving and maintayning of the Lawes of this our Realme of England by this, That Wee neither have introduced or admitted any Innovations, neither have Wee for our part ſuffred any neglecte or delaye in the Adminiſtration of them, but, by often Conſultations and Conferences with our Judges of the Land, farre more frequente then in anye former time, and by countenanceing them in bearing uppe their Authorite in the Eyes of our People, We have given Lief and Vigour to our ſaid Laws and the Execution of them;

Neverthles our Princelie Care ceaſeth not heere, but Wee are further deſirous that the Effects and Fruits thereof may be derived unto poſterity, in ſuch ſort as that in our time there may be built by the true Knowledge of our Lawes (as it weare) a good and durable Wall about the Rights of our Crowne and People:

Wherefore, fynding that the Common Lawe of England is principallie declared by the grave Reſolutions and Arreſts of the Reverend and Learned Judges uppon the Caſes that come before them from tyme to tyme, and that the Doubts and Queſtions likewiſe which arriſe uppon the Expoſition of Statute Lawe, are by the ſame means cleered and ruled, Wee doe, in our Royall Judgment, perceive and conclude that nothing canne more conduce to the good of our Lawes, then the keeping of that Fountaine cleere without Trouble or Mixture,

In regard whereof We have thought good to revive and renew the auncient Cuſtom of appointing ſome grave and lerned Lawyers to attende our Courts at Weſtminſter, for the reporting of the Judgments and Reſolutions of Lawe which there ſhall paſſe from time to time, whoſe Dutie Wee intende to be to report (though compendiouſle, yet truly and narrativelie) that which paſſeth according to the auncient manner, in ſuch ſort as that the principall Caſe adjudged may be diſcerned from any By-caſes, and the pointe adjudged uppon Debates maie be likewiſe diſtinguiſhed from that which is but an Admittaunce, and which of the By-caſes are put by the Judges as their Opinions, and which are put only by the Sergeaunts or Pleaders their part, ſoe that Authorities of unequall Natures be not confounded, but everie thing maye appeare in the true waight,

Wherefore Wee doe ordaine and eſtabliſhe, for Us our Heires and Succeſſors, that, for all times hereafter, there ſhal be twoe Perſons, by Us our Heirs and Succeſſors to be named and appointed, which ſhall be Reporters of the Law, and ſhall divide their Labours betwixt them ſelves as they think good, and ſhall alwaies attend the Judges of ſuch Courts where the Judgments or Reſolutions ſhall paſſe with their Reports, to the ende they maie be conſidered of and reviewed by the ſaid Judges before they be publiſhed, and likewiſe that they be preſented to our Chauncellor or Keeper for the time being, that Wee maie bee acquainted therewith and ſuch of our Councell as Wee ſhall thinke conveniente.

And Wee do ordaine conſtitute and graunte, for Us our Heires and Succeſſors, that either of the ſaid Perſons ſhall have and receive the yearlie Fee

A.D.1617. 15 Jac. 1. of One hundred Pounds, not doubtinge alſoe but the Judges of all our Courts will countenaunce and reſpect the ſaid Reporters uppon all occaſions, as Men imployed in a Service tending ſo greatlie to the Honor and Preſervation of the Lawes of our Realme, and founded by our Royall Conſtitution.

Theis are therefore to will and require you to cauſe the ſame to be publiſhed and inrolled within our Courte of Chauncerie, and withall to take Order that, as often as there ſhal be anie occaſion of Arguments in our ſaid Courts, to appoint our ſaid Reporters a convenient place for the taking and writing of the ſame.

All which Councellors his Highnes doubteth not but every of them will be at all tymes diligent and willing to doe unto his Majeſtie ſuch Service, to their uttermoſt Indeavours, as ſhal bee to his Highnes contentation and to the diſcharge of their Duties, leaving apart all Reſpects and Affections in all matters, although the ſame may touch their Kynſmen, Freinds, Servaunts or any others, when and as often as they ſhal bee required for their Preſence, and aſſiſtance for the furtherance of Juſtice and his Majeſtie's Service in that behalf; and his Majeſtie's Pleaſure is, that every of the ſaid Councellors ſhall have Voice and Place in all Sittings and Councels, according as they are before in theis Inſtructions named; ſaveing to the Cheiſe Juſtice of Cheſter his Place as anciently hath bene uſed.

And becauſe yt is expedient a convenient nomber of the ſaid Councellors both of Learning and Experience be continualie reſident at the ſaid Councell, for the aſſiſtance of the Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident for the tyme being, for due Adminiſtration of Juſtice and his Majeſtie's Service there, whereof his Highnes hath a ſpeciall Deſire and moſt princely Care; his Majeſtie's Pleaſure is, and hee doth by theis Preſents ordain and appoint, that the ſaid Sir Thomas Chamberlayne Knight Cheiſe Juſtice of Cheſter, Sir Henry Townſhend Knight, Sir Frauncis Ewre Knight and Nicholas Overburye Eſquire, or three of them at the leaſt (whereof the ſaid Chieſe Juſtice of Cheſter to bee one) ſhall give their continuall Attendance at the ſaid Councell for the whole Termes, and two of them at the leaſt for the tymes of the Vacation between the Termes, and not to bee abſent without ſpeciall Lycence of the Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident for the tyme being and Councell, or three of them at the leaſt (whereof the Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident for the tyme being, or in their Abſence or Vacancye the Cheif Juſtice of Cheſter to be one) ſaving for ſuch tymes as any of them ſhall ride their Circuitts in the Vacations between the Termes; and his Majeſtie's Pleaſure is, that this his Directions be duely obſerved as a matter which he ſpecially requireth and commandeth to bee performed: In conſideration of which Service and Reſidency to be thus accompliſhed for his Majeſtie, by the ſaid Sir Thomas Chamberlayne, Sir Henrie Townſhend, Sir Frauncis Ewre and Nicholas Overburie, and for the ſpeciall good Opynion his Highnes conceaveth of them, his Majeſtie is moſt princely and graciouſly pleaſed, and doth by theis preſent Inſtructions allow unto the ſaid Cheif Juſtice all ſuch Fees and Allowances as have been ancyently belonging to the Cheif Juſtice of Cheſter for the time being, and the ſame to be paid to him in ſuch ſort as formerly yt hath been to him or any Juſtice of Cheſter occupying the ſaid Place, and over and beſydes that to the ſaid Cheif Juſtice of Cheſter the Somme of One hundred Pounds by the Year of late Years added, according as by former Inſtructions by Us heretofore given, hath bene allowed, and to the ſaid Sir Henry Townſhend Knight, Sir Frauncys Ewre Knight, and Nicholas Overburye Eſquire, to everie of them the Somme of One hundred Markes by the Year, as an yearly Stipend, to be paid unto them and everie of them yearly at the Feaſts of th'Annunciation of the bleſſed Virgin Marie and Saint Michaell th'Archangell by equal Portions, by the hands of the Clerk or Receivor of his Majeſtie's Fynes there, out of ſuch Fynes and Forfeitures as ſhall yerely there ariſe to his Highnes; and for the better Aſſiſtance of the ſaid Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident for the tyme being and of the ſaid Councell, when yt ſhall ſeem convenient the ſaid Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident for the tyme being, or in their Abſence or Vacancye the Cheif Juſtice of Cheſter and Councell attending, may call unto him or them any ſuch other of the Councell learned as he or they ſhall think convenient; and the ſame Councellors, haveing no Fees certaine by theis Inſtructions, ſhall, for ſo many days as he or they ſhall make his or their Aboade, receave the Fees ſeverally per

Poll

Poll of Sixe Shillings eight Pence per Diem.

And his Majeſtie ſtraightly commandeth that none that nowe is, or hereafter ſhall be, of his Majeſtie's Councell in the ſaid Principallitye and Marches of Wales, ſhall practize or give Counſell in any Cauſe or Suite in that Court, knowing yt to bee there depending, not for Lucre or Gayn give any Counſel for commencing or proſecuting of any Suit or Cauſe in the ſame Court, other then juſtly and lawfully his Majeſtie's Behoof and Sirvice.

And his Majeſtie's Pleaſure ys, that the ſaid Councel ſhall hold their Terms and Sittings at the moſte meet Places for Suitors to reſort unto; that is to ſay, in the Wynter tyme the Seſſions and Syttynges for Michaelmas Terme and Hillary Terme, with the tyme of Vacation between thoſe Termes, ſhall be kept at Ludlowe except cauſe of Sicknes or other urgent or inevitable occaſion ſhall at any tyme move the contrarie; and for the reſt of the Year the aboade of the Lord Preſident and Vice-Preſident for the tyme being and Councell, as well for the Terms as Vacations, may be at the ſaid Town of Ludlowe, or ſuch other good Towns within the Counties of Glouceſter, Worceſter, Hereford and Salopp; or elſewhere within the Lymits of their Juriſdiction as ſhal bee by them thought meeteſt for Suitors to reſort unto:

And the King's Majeſtie's Pleaſure ys, that the ſaid Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident and Counſell; by all lawfull waies and meanes they can, ſhall put their good and effectual Indeavors to examyne ſearch out and repreſſe all Treaſons, Petty Treaſons, Murthers, Rapes, Burglarys, Robberies and other Felonies, and the Acceſſaries to the ſame, which now are or hereafter ſhall ariſe within the Domynion Principality and Country of Wales and the Marches of the ſame, and the Counties of Glouceſter, Worceſter, Hereford, Salopp and Monmouth, the Liberties of his Majeſtie's Duchie of Lancaſter within the Counties aforeſaid, the Cities of Glouceſter, Worceſter and Hereford, the Town of Haverford Weſt, the Countie of the City of Glouceſter and the County of the Town of Haverford Weſt, and within all the Counties, Cities, Townes, Franchiſes and Liberties within the Lymite aforeſaid; and ſhall and may apprehend all ſuch Offendors their Confederates and Receivors, and them to commit to Pryſon there to remayne untill they ſhal be lawfully or by ſufficient Warrant or Authoritie delivered, and as much as in them may lie ſhall, by their Diligence Policie and good Goverment, prevent all and everie of the ſaid Offences by extirpeing and taking away the Cauſes and Occaſions of the ſame.

And his Majeſtie's Pleaſure is, that his Sollicitor for the ſaid Counſell ſhall be continually there reſident, and ſhall write and take Examinations, as well of all Perſons which ſhall be apprehended and accuſed or ſuſpected of or for anie Treaſon or Felonie, as of all other Perſons which ſhall be produced or called to be Witneſſes to prove any ſuch Crime or Offence of Treaſons or Fellonies; and ſhall attend with the ſaid Examinations at all Seſſions and Aſſizes, as occaſions ſhall require, to give evidence for the King's Majeſtie as by the ſaid Counſell ſhall be unto him appointed; and after ſuch Attendance and Service by hym performed, the ſaid Sollicitor ſhall retorn the ſaid Examinations and Bookes to the Courte before the ſaid Lord Preſident and Councell from tyme to tyme, to be there kept ſafely, by the Clerke of the ſaid Councell, amongſt the Recordes of the ſame Court, and ſhall have allowance at the Diſcretion of the ſaid Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident and Counſell, or any three of them, whereof the Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident, or in their Abſence or Vacancie the Chiefe Juſtice of Cheſter to be one, for his reaſonable Charges which he ſhall ſuſtain attending on the Seſſions and Aſſizes; which ſaid Fees and Allowance of Charges for his Travell ſhall be paid yearely unto hym out of ſuch Fynes and Forfeitures as ſhall be taxed or aſſeſſed by the ſaid Counſell.

And his Majeſtie's further Pleaſure is, and his Highnes doth, by theis Preſents, give full Power and Authoritie to the ſaid Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident and Counſell, or any three of them at the leaſt, whereof the Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident for the time being, or the Chief Juſtice of Cheſter to be one, to examyne hear and determyne, as well by Examination of Witneſſes and of the Parties upon Interrogatories, as by all other good waies and meanes by their Wiſdoms and Diſcretions, as heretofore hath been uſed by the ſaid Counſell for the tyme being, all and all manner of Forgeries, Extortions, Briberies, Exactions, Comorthes, and beggynge or unlawfull gathering of Money for any Cauſes or Pretences whatſoever, Mayntenances, Champarties, Imbraſeries, Oppreſſions, Vexations, Conſpiracies, Imbezelling, Raceing or Defacing of any Bills, Pleadings, Orders, Rules, Proceedings or Records of the ſame Court, Eſcapes, Ryotts, Routs and unlawfull Aſſemblies, Forſtalling and Engroſſing, Corruptions, Falſhoods, Frauds, unlawfull Hunting in Foreſts, Chaces, Parks and Warrens, not amending High-waies and Bridges, erecting of Cottages, taking in or keeping of Inmates, keeping of diſordered Alehouſes, and puniſh ſuch Alehouſekeepers, and all other Offences, Contempts, Defaults, Concealments and Miſdemeanors, done or committed againſt the Lawes of this Realm by any Sheriffs, Juſtices of the Peace, Mayor, Bayliffs, Conſtables, Stewards, Eſcheators, Coroners, Gaolers, Jurors, Cryers, Clerkes, or any of the Officers or Myniſters of Juſtice or their Deputies, or anie of them, or by any other Perſon or Perſons of what degree ſoever they be within the ſaid Domynion and Principality of Wales and the Marches of the ſame, and the ſaid Counties of Glouceſter, Worceſter, Hereford, Salop and Monmouth, the Liberties of the Duchie of Lancaſter within the Counties aforeſaid, the Cities of Glouceſter, Worceſter and Hereford, the County of the Citie of Glouceſter, the Towne of HaverfordWeſt and the Countie of the ſame; and to puniſh the ſame according to their Wiſdoms and Diſcretions, as well by Fyne and Ympriſonment as otherwiſe, according to the Quallitie of their Offences, as to them ſhall ſeem meet; And further, the ſaid Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident and Counſell as is aforeſaid, or any three of them at the leaſt (whereof the ſaid Lord Preſident or Vice Preſident for the tyme being, or the Cheif Juſtice of Cheſter to be one) in ſort aforeſaid, ſhall and may, from time to time, duly and diligently enquire or cauſe to be enquired within the Limits of their Juriſdiction as is aforeſaid, of all ſuch as, under pretence and colour of takeing of any Muſters of any Souldiers, or of Proviſion of Armour and Weapons, have unlawfullie aund indirectly exacted or ſhall exact any Sommes of Money or other Guifte whatſoever: And, upon due proofe thereof, the ſaid Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident and Counſell as is aforeſaid, or any three of them (whereof the Lord Preſident or Vice Preſident for the tyme being, or the Cheif Juſtice of Cheſter to be one) ſhall not only conſtrayn ſuch Officer or Officers, Myniſter or Myniſters, or other Perſons whatſoever, to reſtore to the Partie or Parties of whom ſuch Money is unlawfully exacted the double Value of the thing that is or ſhall bee ſoe taken or receaved of him or them, but alſo ſhall puniſh them with Fyne and Ympriſonment according to their Diſcretions and the Laws and Ordynances in that behalfe provyded.

And his Majeſtie's further Pleaſure ys, and his Highnes doth, by theis Preſents, give full Power and Authority to the ſaid Lord Preſident Vice-Preſident and Counſell, or any ſuch three of them as is aforeſaid, to heare and determyne all manner of Perjuries committed within the ſaid Domynion Principalitie and Marches, Counties, Cities, Towns, Places and Lymits aforeſaid, or any of them, in ſuch wiſe as the Lord Preſident and Counſell there for the tyme being might have done, and uſed to do before the Statute made in the fifte Yeare of the Raigne of the late Queen Elizabeth, touching the puniſhing of Perjurie, ſoe that they ſet not uppon the Offendor or Offendors therein leſſe Punyſhment then is contayned in the ſayde Statute.

And whereas divers lewd and malicious Perſons have heretofore, and of late days more and more, devyſed, ſpread abroad, reported or publiſhed many falſe and ſeditious Tales, News, Sayings, Wrytings, Books, Letters and Libells, which amongſt the People have wrought and hereafter may work great Miſchief and Inconveniences, to the intent the like may be avoyded hereafter, and the Inventors and Setters forth thereof may be condignely punyſhed; his Majeſtie's Pleaſure is, that the ſaid Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident and Counſell as is aforeſaid, ſhall have due regard thereof; and that whenſoever any ſuch falſe and ſedycyous Tales, News, Sayings, Writings, Books, Letters or Libells ſhall bee devyſed, reported, publiſhed or diſperſed with any the Lymits or Juriſdictions aforeſaid, That the Publiſhers Diſperſers and Reporters thereof be forthwith ſtayed, and all meanes uſed to attach them all from one toon other untill the firſt Author may be apprehended, and ſuch Offendors ſhall bee duely openly punyſhed by the ſaid Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident or Counſell, or any three of them (whereof the Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident for the tyme being, being, or the Cheif Juſtice of Cheſter to bee one) by Fyne, Ympryſonment, Wearing of Papers and the like, according to their Diſcretion; But if any ſhall offend in ſo high a nature as may tend to the Danger or Diſhonor of his Majeſtie or the State, Then the ſaid Lord Preſident and Counſell ſhall forbear to proceed thereuppon, and ſhall certify his Majeſty or the Lords of his Privie Counſell of the Caſe, and thereupon ſhall doe as they ſhall bee in that behalfe directed.

And whereas divers Perſons of Wales and the Marches of the ſame, and in other the Countreys and Places aforeſaid, have commonly uſed to go as well to Churches as in Fayrs, Markets and other Places of publique Meetinge, in Harneſſe and Privy Coats: The King's Highnes Pleaſure is, that from henceforth no Man ſhall wear either Harneſs or Privy Coate in Churches Fayres or Markets, or any other place of publick meeting, except ſuch as ſhall be lycenced authoryſed or commanded by the King's Highnes or his Honorable Privie Counſell, or by the Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident and Counſell as is aforeſaid, or any three of them (whereof the Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident for the tyme being, or the Cheif Juſtice of Cheſter to be one) or by the publique Officer of the Place where any ſuch Fayre Market or publique Meeting ſhall happen to bee: And in caſe that any Man ſhall do contrary to this Article, That then the Officers and Miniſters to whome it ſhall appertain, where any ſuch Harneſs or Privie Coat is worn, ſhall incontinently ſeaze or cauſe to be ſeazed the ſaid Harneſſe or Privie Coat to the King's Majeſty's Uſe, and then ſend the Perſons wearing the ſame to the Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident and Counſell as is aforſaid, to bee punyſhed by Ympriſonment and Fyne according to the Diſcretions of the ſaid Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident and Counſell for the tyme being, or any three of them (whereof the Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident for the tyme being, or Chief Juſtice of Cheſter to be one) and in caſe the ſaid Officers and Myniſters do omit ſo to do, then the ſaid Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident and Counſell as is aforeſaid, or any three of them (whereof the ſaid Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident for the tyme being, or the Chief Juſtice of Cheſter to be one) after notice and information thereof given, ſhall adreſſe the King's Majeſty's Letters of Comandement to ſuch Officers and Miniſters, commanding them and him to appear before them at a day to be appointed, to anſwer thereunto, and ſhall thereupon proceed to examine hear and puniſh the ſaid Offenders by Fyne and Ympriſonment, according to the Diſcretion of the ſaid Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident and Counſell as is aforeſaid, or any three of them, wherof the Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident for the tyme being, or the Chief Juſtice of Cheſter to be one.

And further his Majeſty's Pleaſure is, and his Highnes doth, by theſe Preſents, give full Power and Authoritie to the Lord Preſident Vice-Preſident and Counſell as is aforeſaid, or any two of them (whereof the Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident for the tyme being, or the Chief Juſtice of Cheſter to be one) to make and cauſe to be made Proclamations in his Highnes Name, as often as they ſhall think good for the better order and quyeting of his Majeſty's Subjects within the Principalitie, Marches, Counties, Cities, Limits and Juriſdictions aforeſaid, and for the apprehending and ſuppreſſing of Malefactors and Miſdoers, after ſuch Tenor and form as they ſhall think convenient, and to puniſh the Offendors for their Contempts againſt ſuch Proclamations by Fyne or Ympriſonment as the Caſe ſhall requyre.

And his Majeſty's further Pleaſure is, and his Highnes doth, by theis Preſents, give full Power and Authoritie to the ſaid Lord Preſident Vice-Preſident and Counſell, or any three of them (wherof the Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident for the tyme being, or the Chief Juſtice of Cheſter to be one) to hear and determyne, and alſo to puniſh all manner of Perſons within all and every the Limits and Juriſdictions aforeſaid, which ſhall be notoriouſly knoun to live contrary to God's Lawes, and the King's Highnes Eccleſiaſtical Lawes, in Inceſt Adultery or Fornycacion, to the Offence and Diſhonour of Almighty God, and to the evil and pernicious Example of his Highnes Subjects; Provided alwaies, and his Majeſtie's Meaning is, that no Perſon ſhall be called in queſtion by the force of this Article for any the Offences aforeſaid: unles the ſame Offences ſhall be alledged and proved to be done or commytted within the ſpace of three Years next before Information therof given, nor that any ſuch Offendor ſhall be examyned upon Oath: Provided alſo, and his Majeſty's meanyng is, that the Ordinary

And his Majeſtie's further Pleaſure ys, and his Highnes doth, by theis Preſents, give full Power and Authority to the ſaid Lord Preſident Vice-Preſident and Counſell, or any ſuch three of them as is aforeſaid, to heare and determyne all manner of Perjuries committed within the ſaid Domynion Principalitie and Marches, Counties, Cities, Towns, Places and Lymits aforeſaid, or any of them, in ſuch wiſe as the Lord Preſident and Counſell there for the tyme being might have done, and uſed to do before the Statute made in the fifte Yeare of the Raigne of the late Queen Elizabeth, touching the puniſhing of Perjurie, ſoe that they ſet not uppon the Offendor or Offendors therein leſſe Punyſhment then is contayned in the ſayde Stature.

And whereas divers lewd and malicious Perſons have heretofore, and of late days more and more, devyſed, ſpread abroad, reported or publiſhed many falſe and ſeditious Tales, News, Sayings, Wrytings, Books, Letters and Libells, which amongſt the People have wrought and hereafter may work great Miſchief and Inconveniences, to the intent the like may be avoyded hereafter, and the Inventors and Setters forth thereof may be condignely punyſhed; his Majeſtie's Pleaſure is, that the ſaid Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident and Counſell as is aforeſaid, ſhall have due regard thereof; and that whenſoever any ſuch falſe and ſedycyous Tales, News, Sayings, Writings, Books, Letters or Libells ſhall bee devyſed, reported, publiſhed or diſperſed with any the Lymits or Juriſdictions aforeſaid, That the Publiſhers Diſperſers and Reporters thereof be forthwith ſtayed, and all meanes uſed to attach them all from one toon other untill the firſt Author may be apprehended, and ſuch Offendors ſhall bee duely openly punyſhed by the ſaid Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident or Counſell, or any three of them (whereof the Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident for the tyme being,

And whereas divers Perſons of Wales and the Marches of the ſame, and in other the Countreys and Places aforeſaid, have commonly uſed to go as well to Churches as in Fayrs, Markets and other Places of publique Meetinge, in Harneſſe and Privy Coats: The King's Highnes Pleaſure is, that from henceforth no Man ſhall wear either Harneſs or Privy Coate in Churches Fayres or Markets, or any other place of publick meeting, except ſuch as ſhall be lycenced authoryſed or commanded by the King's Highnes or his Honorable Privie Counſell, or by the Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident and Counſell as is aforeſaid, or any three of them (whereof the Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident for the tyme being, or the Cheif Juſtice of Cheſter to be one) or by the publique Officer of the Place where any ſuch Fayre Market or publique Meeting ſhall happen to bee: And in caſe that any Man ſhall do contrary to this Article, That then the Officers and Miniſters to whome it ſhall appertain, where any ſuch Harneſs or Privie Coat is worn, ſhall incontinently ſeaze or cauſe to be ſeazed the ſaid Harneſſe or Privie Coat to the King's Majeſty's Uſe, and then ſend the Perſons wearing the ſame to the Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident and Counſell as is aforſaid, to bee punyſhed by Ympriſonment and Fyne according to the Diſcretions of the ſaid Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident and Counſell for the tyme being, or any three of them (whereof the Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident for the tyme being, or Chief Juſtice of Cheſter to be one) and in caſe the ſaid Officers and Myniſters do omit ſo to do, then the ſaid Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident and Counſell as is aforeſaid, or any three of them (whereof the ſaid Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident for the tyme being, or the Chief Juſtice of Cheſter to be one) after notice and information thereof given, ſhall adreſſe the King's Majeſty's Letters of Comandement to ſuch Officers and Miniſters, commanding them and him to appear before them at a day to be appointed, to anſwer thereunto, and ſhall thereupon proceed to examine hear and puniſh the ſaid Offenders by Fyne and Ympriſonment, according to the Diſcretion of the ſaid Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident and Counſell as is aforeſaid, or any three of them, wherof the Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident for the tyme being, or the Chief Juſtice of Cheſter to be one.

And further his Majeſty's Pleaſure is, and his Highnes doth, by theſe Preſents, give full Power and Authoritie to the Lord Preſident Vice-Preſident and Counſell as is aforeſaid, or any two of them (whereof the Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident for the tyme being, or the Chief Juſtice of Cheſter to be one) to make and cauſe to be made Proclamations in his Highnes Name, as often as they ſhall think good for the better order and quyeting of his Majeſty's Subjects within the Principalitie, Marches, Counties, Cities, Limits and Juriſdictions aforeſaid, and for the apprehending and ſuppreſſing of Malefactors and Miſdoers, after ſuch Tenor and form as they ſhall think convenient, and to puniſh the Offendors for their Contempts againſt ſuch Proclamations by Fyne or Ympriſonment as the Caſe ſhall requyre

And further his Majeſty's Pleaſure is, and his Highnes doth, by theis Preſents, give full Power and Authoritie to the ſaid Lord Preſident Vice-Preſident and Counſell as is aforeſaid, or to any three of them (whereof the Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident for the tyme beyng, or the Chief Juſtice of Cheſter to be one) to examine hear and determyne, as well upon Bill exhibited by the Plaintif, and the Anſwer of the Defendant thereunto made uppon Oath, and by Examynation of Witneſſes to be diſcreetly and ſincerely taken, as by all other good waies and meanes by their Wiſdomes and Diſcretions, as heretofore hath been uſed by the ſaid Counſell for the time being, all and all manner of Complaints Petitions and Informations now depending before the ſaid Counſell, or which hereafter ſhall aryſe or grow or be complained of before them, for any cauſe or matter ariſing within the ſaid Domynyon and Principalitie of Wales and the Marches of the ſame, and the ſaid Counties of Glouceſter, Worceſter, Hereford, Salop and Monmouth, the Liberties of his Majeſties Dutchye of Lancaſter within the Counties aforeſaid, the Cities of Glouceſter, Worceſter and Hereford, the County of the City of Glouceſter, the Town of Haverford Weſt and the County of the ſame Town, and within all the Counties, Cities, Towns, Franchiſes and Liberties within the Lymits and Juriſdiction aforeſaid, as well for and concerning Lands Tenements or Hereditaments either of Freehold or Cuſtomary or Copyhold, as Goods and Chattels, for which there ſhall uppon due Proof appear clear matter for the Playntiff to be releived in Equitie and good Conſcience, and that he ys without ordynarie Remedie by the Common Lawe.

And his Majeſtye doth likewiſe, by theis Preſents, give Power and Authority to the ſaid Lord Preſident Vice-Preſident and Counſell, or to anie three of them (whereof the Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident for the tyme being, or Chief Juſtice of Cheſter to be one) yf any Perſon, that hath been by the ſpace of three Years quietly in Poſſeſſion of any Lands Tenements or Hereditaments, either of Freehold Leaſhold or of Cuſtomary or of Copiehold, within the ſaid Domynyons, Principalitye, Marches, Counties, Cities, Towns, Limits and Juriſdiction aforeſaid, ſhall be rioutouſly, forceably, or by fraudulent Practiſe, outed, expelled, put forth or holden out of the ſame, or otherwiſe ſhall be vexed with often and contynuall Suits or Diſturbances; That in ſuch caſes, though the Partie grieved may have ordinarye Remedye by the Common Law, they may, upon Complaint therof made unto them by Bill or Information, take order for the ſtalling quyetting or reſtoring of the Poſſeſſion of the ſame Lands Tenements and Hereditaments, untill the Title or Intereſt of the ſame ſhall be decided or tryed by the due courſe of the Common Law, as by their Diſcretions ſhall be thought fit: Provided, that in ſuch caſes the Surmyſe of the Force, Ryot, or fraudulent Practiſe, or continuall Vexation or Diſturbance may be traverſed, and yf the ſame be not ſufficiently proved by the Playntiff according to his Complaint, then the matter ſhall be diſmiſſed with good Coſts to be awarded to the Defendant, except the Playntif in his ſaid Bill or Complaynt have alſo alleadged matter of Equitye, and ſo proved the ſame as the ſaid Court ſhall ſee cauſe to decree for him therupon, as in the next former Article ys appoynted.

15 Jac. 1.

And his Majeſtie doth further, by theis Preſents, give full Power and Authoritie to the ſaid Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident for the tyme being, (or the Chief Juſtice of Cheſter to be one) to hear and determine according to their Wiſdoms and Diſcretions, all Debts, Detynues, Covenants, Accompts, Aſſumptions, and other perſonall Actyons, aryſyng and growing within the ſaid Domynion, Principalitie, Marches, Counties, Cities, Towns, Lymyts and Juriſdictions aforeſaid, where the Debt in the ſaid Bill or Complaint conteined, or the Damage therin alledged, ſhall not exceed the full Somme of Fiftie Pounds, and which ſhall not any way concern the Title or Intereſt of Freehold Cuſtomary or Copyhold, or Chattel reall, nor wherin any ſuch Title ſhall be put or brought unto Yſſue Tryall or Queſtion; and alſo to hear and determine in like manner, within the Lymits and Juriſdiction aforeſaid, all other Actions perſonall

And his Highnes doth, by theis Preſents, give full Power and Authoritie to the ſaid Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident and Counſell as is aforeſaid, or to any two of them at the leaſt (wherof the Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident for the tyme being, or the Chief Juſtice of Cheſter to be one) to award aſſeſſe and taxe Coſts and Damages, as well to the Playntiff as to the Defendant at their Diſcretions, and to award Executions, and to take order that their Doings Decrees and Orders may be performed and accompliſhed, and to puniſh the Breakers of the ſame according to their Wiſdoms and Diſcretions.

And his Majeſty's Pleaſure is, that all and every Perſon and Perſons, which are to appear before the ſaid Counſel; for any Cauſe or Matter which they are authoriſed to hear by theis his Majeſty's Inſtructions, ſhall be ſent for by a Letter Miſſive, under his Highneſs Signet there remayning, to be granted by any one of the ſame Counſell, excepting ſuch Perſon, being of that Counſell, which ſhall have the Cuſtody of his Majeſtie's Signet there for the time being, yf it be upon an ordinarie Byll, to which Byll the ſaid Counſellor ſhall ſubſcribe his name, to appear at a certain Day and Place to be appointed in and by the ſame Letter, there to anſwer the ſaid Complaint, and to be further ordered as it ſhall ſtand with Right, Equitie, Juſtice and good Conſcience; and, in default of Appearance upon ſuch Letters, they or any of them ſhall ſend forth Letters of Alleadgeance, Attachments, Proclamations, or any other Proceſſe, to be made directed or awarded by their Diſcretion to the Sheriff Conſtable or any other Miniſter, wherby the Party complained uppon may be called or brought to come to his Anſwere, as appertaineth, and as it hath been before time uſed; and, if the Caſe ſo require, to ſequeſter the Lands and Goods in Suite or Queſtion by their Diſcretions, and to preſerve them, and the Profits of them, untill the Court ſhall take further order in that behalf, as by the ſaid Counſell hath heretofore been uſed: And further yf in caſe any Perſon or Perſons, having Habitation or Dwelling, or any Lands or Tenements by Leaſe or otherwiſe within the ſaid Domynyon and Principalitie of Wales, and the Merches of the ſame, and the Counties, Cities, Towns, Liberties, Franchiſes and Places aforeſaid, or any of them, doe or ſhall hereafter, by Covyn, or Fraude, or Deceipt, or otherwiſe, abſent himſelf or go out of the Lymits or Juriſdiction aforeſaid, That then Letters Miſſive, under his Majeſtie's ſaid Signet ſhall be delivered at his Houſe, or the Coppy of the ſame or the Effect thereof ſhall be left there, ſo that the ſame by lyklyhood may come to his Knowlege being ſo ſent for, or if the Proceſs be delivered unto him being out of the ſaid Lymits and Juriſdiction, and if within a certein time after, to be lymitted by their Diſcretions, the Perſon or Perſons ſo ſent for ſhall not appear, The Lord Preſident Vice-Preſident and Counſell, or any three of them (wherof the Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident for the tyme being, or the Chief Juſtice of Cheſter to be one) ſhall by their Wiſdoms and Diſcretions proceed as well to other Proceſſe as to the Hearing and determining of the Matter or Cauſe in Controverſie according to Juſtice and Equitie.

And further his Majeſty's Pleaſure is, and his Highnes doth hereby give full Power and Authoritie to the ſaid Lord Preſident Vice-Preſident and Counſell, in all the Cauſes afore-mentioned, aſſigned to the Examynation or Determination of that Court, to grant award and

And likewiſe his Majeſty's Pleaſure is, and his Highnes doth hereby give full Power and Authoritie to the ſaid Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident and Counſell, or any three of them (wherof the Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident for the tyme being, or the Chief Juſtice of Cheſter to be one) upon juſt cauſe of Equitie to them appearing, either by the Anſwer of the Defendant, or other due means, or upon any other juſt occaſion whereupon the Court of Chauncerie uſeth to graunt Injunction for ſtay of Suits of Law, to award make and graunt Injunctions or Orders for the ſtay of any Proceedings in any Sute Playnt or Action commenced or proſecuted in any temporal Court or Courts, within any Citie or Town corporat within the Limits or Juriſdiction aforeſaid, or in any Court Baron or in any other inferior Temporall Court within the Lymits and Juriſdiction aforeſaid: Provided that by colour therof they do not award grant or make any Injunction or Order for ſtay of any Sute depending in the Courts of Kings Bench, Common Pleas or Exchequer, nor before the Juſtices of Aſſize, or Juſtices of Oyer or Terminer, or Juſtices of the great Seſſions in the Domynion of Wales, or the General Seſſions of the Peace of any Countie within the ſaid Lymits or Juriſdiction aforeſaid.

And, for the avoiding of Corruption and Abuſe in the taking of Oaths and Affidavits in that Court, his Majeſty's Pleaſure is, that all Oaths made for or upon any Cauſe or Matter depending or to be depending in that Court, ſhall be myniſtred by the ſaid Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident for the tyme being, or by ſome of them ſaid fower Counſellors by theis Inſtructions appointed for contynuall Attendance, or by the ſaid Sir Foulke Grevill Knight Secretarie and Clerk of the ſayd Counſell, or his ſufficient Deputy or Deputies, in ſuch ſort as is uſed by the Maiſters of his Majeſty's High Court of Chauncery, and not by any other.

And his Majeſty's Pleaſure ys, That the Purſevants attendant on the ſaide Counſell, or either of them, may apprehend and fetch in ſuch Perſons as ſhall commit any wilfull Contempt againſt any Proceſſe or Order of the ſaid Counſell within the Limits and Juriſdiction aforeſaid; and that, for the better execution therof, the ſaid Purſevants, or either of them, ſhall have a Commiſſion or Warrant, under the ſaid Signet, with ſuch Words of Aſſiſtance contained in the ſame, as to the ſaid Counſell ſhall ſeem expedient, and that all Sheriffs, Mayors, Bayliffs, and other his Majeſty's Officers within the Lymits and Juriſdiction aforeſaid for the tyme being, ſhall be aiding and aſſiſting to the ſaid Purſevants and either of them, according to the Tenor of ſuch Commyſſion or Warrant, uppon ſuch Payne as ſhall be lymitted in the ſaid Commiſſion or Warrant and his Majeſty's high Diſpleaſure; and in caiſe that any Letters Miſſive, or other Proceſſe, be addreſſed from the ſaid Counſell to anie Perſon or Perſons, being or having a Dwelling within the ſaid Lymits and Juriſdictions, to appear before them, and he or they ſhall of purpoſe abſent hym or themſelves out of the ſaid Lymits and Juriſdiction, then upon the ſerving and delivering of Proceſſe to his or their own hands, or leaving the ſame at his or their Houſe or Houſes, ſo as they may have notice thereof, the Partie or Parties, making default and contempt therin, ſhall, uppon his or their Appearances be puniſhed by Ympriſonment and Fine, or otherwiſe, according to the Diſcretion of the ſaid Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident and Counſell as is aforſaid, or any three of them (whereof the Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident for the tyme being, or the Chief Juſtice of Cheſter to be one) and for the better Admyniſtration of Juſtice to all his Majeſty's loving Subjects, it is his Majeſty's Will and Pleaſure, and he doth hereby authorize and command the Lord Chancellor of England, or the Lord Keeper of the Great Seal for the tyme beyng, upon Certificat from the ſaid Lord Preſident, Vice-Preſident, Chief Juſtice of Cheſter, of any Perſon or Perſons willfully and obſtinatly contempning the Authority of that Juriſdiction, forthwith to ſend a Meſſinger for him or them ſo offending, and to attach him or them ſo offending, and to bring him or them before the ſaid Lord Preſident Vice Preſident and Counſell there, to obey perform and fullfill all ſuch Proceſſe Orders and Decrees as ſhall be ſet down awarded or granted againſt them.

And further his Majeſtye willeth and commandeth, that all Matters, as well concerning any the Offences and Miſdemeanors aforſaid, as between Partie and Partie, ſhall be heard and determined in open Court before the Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident and Counſell, as is aforeſaid, or any three of them at the leaſt (whereof the Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident for the tyme being, or the Chief Juſtice of Cheſter to be one) and likewiſe all Orders and Rules, taken before them, or any of them, in any Cauſes, ſhall be likewiſe done in open Court, and not in privat Places out of Court; and that after ſuch Order or Rule of the Court, ſo taken and ſet down by the Regiſter or Clerke to whom yt appertaineth, the ſame ſhall not be altered or reverſed in Subſtance or Matter before that ſuch as weare preſent at the taking of the Order ſhall be made privie, and ſo may ſhew their Opynion and Reaſon concerning the ſame: Provyded alwaies that the other Partie ſhall before be ſent for, by Proceſſe from the ſaid Counſell, to hear what he can ſay to any ſuch Reverſall or Alteration yf it ſhall not appear to the Court that he abſented himſelf of purpoſe to the end the ſame ſhould not be undone; And if any Order be altered or reverſed contrarie to this Direction, the ſame Reverſall or Alteration to be voide.

And foraſmuch as the Lord Preſident and Counſell have, for the Diſpatch of Suitors reſorting to the Court, uſed to ſyt, as well in the Forenoon as in the Afternoon, the Forenoon for hearing of Cauſes reſting at the point of Jugment, and the Afternoon for Rules, and that two daies of the Week; viz. Tueſday and Fryday in the Afternoons, have been appoynted for Motions of Rules to be made by Counſellors at the Bar; and the reſt of the daies in the Afternoon for Rules to be moved by Attorneys, his Majeſtie, for the eaſe of the Court, and good diſpatch of the Multitude, is pleaſed, that for Counſellors Rules, two of the Counſell ſhall ſit in the Afternoon, and for other Rules, one to ſit in the Afternoon, as to the ſaid Lord Preſident and Counſell as is aforeſaid, ſhall be thought meete and convenient, and that ſhall be ſufficient in ſuch caſe, any thing before ſaid to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

And his Majeſty's Pleaſure ys, that the ſaid Lord Preſident Vice-Preſident and Counſell, and every of them, ſhall forbear to hear and determyne any Cauſes of Suits in the vacation Tymes; except it ſhall be for preſent Miſdemeanors which ought to be preſently redreſſed, or for Stallations of Poſſeſſions uppon freſh Interuptions.

And whereas, by expreſs Commandment of the late Queen Elizabeth, a Book of Orders was ſet down and ſubſcribed by the Lords of her Highnes Privy Councell in the nyneteenth Year of her Raign, to be obſerved in that Court; after which, by her Highnes Letters under the Privy Signet, ſhe did qualifie ſome part thereof, and for ſome other part, the ſaid Lords of her Counſell did write their Letters of Tolleration, upon conſideration whereof yt is now his Majeſtie's Pleaſure, that the Lord Preſident for the tyme being and Counſell as is aforeſaid, ſhall obſerve the ſaid Orders with the former Qualifications and Tollerations in all poynts that may ſtand with theſe preſent Inſtructions, and are not changed or altered by the ſame.

And his Majeſtie's Pleaſure is, that a Regiſter ſhall be duely kept by the Clerk of the ſaid Counſell, of all Orders Decrees and Proceedings there, without any further Charge to the Subjects for Entries or Copies than are ſet down in the ſaid Book of Orders made in the nyneteenth Year of the late Queen, which his Majeſtie willeth in this behalf to be obſerved.

And foraſmuch as Complaint is made of ymbezelling of Bookes, raſing and falſifying of Records, Pleadings, Depoſitions of Witneſſes, and Examinations in the ſaid Courte, it is his Majeſty's Pleaſure and Commandement, that the ſaid Records, Books, Pleadings, Depoſitions and Examinations ſhall be carefully looked unto, and eſpecially for Matters of Ymportance; in which Caſes his Highnes Pleaſure is, that the Originalls ſhall be kept in Safetie, and Copies thereof to be made; and for other Matters of ſmall Ymportance, the Attorneys and Clerks allowed, may be permitted to uſe the Records Books and Depoſitions as heretofore hath been accuſtomed; And if any Perſon ſhall hereafter ymbeſyll, raſe, alter or falſify any of the Records, Books, Pleadings, Depoſitions or Examinations of Witneſſes aforeſaid, and the ſame be duly proved, he ſhall for the ſame ſuſtayne Fyne and Ympriſonment, and for his Offence be banyſhed the Court for ever, and never be received again into the Service of that Court.

And his Majeſty doth in like manner order, That the ſaid Lord Preſident Vice-Preſident and Counſell, or any three of them (whereof the Lord Preſident or Vice Preſident for the tyme being, or the Chief Juſtice of Cheſter to be one) ſhall have Power by their Diſcretions to ſet and mitigate Fynes uppon Offendors, and alſo to compound with ſuch as forfeit to his Majeſtie any Bond or Recognizance taken by that Counſell, and thereuppon to diſcharge the ſame by cancelling the Bonds of Recognizance or otherwiſe as ſhall be by them thought fit; but his Majeſty's Will and Pleaſure is, that no Fyne or Compoſition be made or qualified but upon ſome juſt cauſe and due regard had to the qualitie and quantitie of the Offence, the condytion and eſtate of the Parties, and the example that may thereof grow in thoſe Parts; for which Purpoſe there is or ſhall be appoynted a ſufficient Clarke, who ſhall make Entrie into a Book of all Fynes and Compoſitions, and all Bonds and Recognizances taken to his Majeſty's Uſe, and which of them ſhall ſtand forfeited, and ſhall at the end of everie Term bring and ſhew forth the ſame Book before the ſaid Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident and Counſell then attendyng, and the ſaid Clarke ſhall receive all the ſaid Fynes and Compoſition Money, and acknowlege the receipt in the ſame Booke as heretofore hath byn uſed, and thereof ſhall make true accompt before his Majeſty's Auditor or Auditors authoriſed for taking the ſaid Accompt; But, before ſuch tyme as the ſaid Clarks ſhall receive any of the ſaid Fynes, he ſhall enter into Bond, with ſufficient Sureties, of One thouſand Pounds, truely to accompt for all his Receipts, and to pay that which ſhall be found remaining in his Hands upon ſuch Accompts into the Receipt of the Exchequer, within two Months after the ſame Accompts made, and the ſame Clerk ſhall everie Hillarie Term certify a Tranſcript of his Accompt made next before that Term to the Lord Treſorer of England to the End his Majeſtie may be made acquaynted with the true ſtate therof; but before the doing therof the ſame Tranſcript of the Accompt ſhall be examyned and conferred with the orygynal Records of the Fynes Compoſitions and Forfeitures by two of that Counſell (whereof the Lord Preſident Vice-Preſident or Chief Juſtice of Cheſter to be one) to the end yt may appear whether any Abuſe or Deceipt hath been uſed in the ſaid Accompt; and, yf none appear to have been, then they alſo ſhall ſubſcrybe the ſame Tranſcript of the Accompt; but, yf any Deceipt or Abuſe hath been uſed therein, then they ſhall certifye the Lord Treaſurer thereof, and ſhall diſplace the ſame Clarke, and return his and his Sureties Bonds into the Exchequer, whereby the ſame may be put in execution to his Majeſty's uſe.

And to the end that all Fynes Forfeitures Penalties and other Sommes of Money, due and to be due to his Majeſtie in the ſaid Court, may be truelie entered levyed and accompted; his Highneſs Pleaſure is, and he doth require that whenſoever any Fyne ſhall be aſſeſſed or ympoſed by the ſaid Counſell as aforeſaid, or any Penaltie or Forfeiture ſhall accrue there to the Kyng's Majeſtie by Bond Recognizance or otherwiſe, the Regiſter of that Court ſhall forthwith, without Fee or Reward, enter or cauſe the ſame to be entered into the Regiſter Book of the ſaid Court, and the ſame ſhall be forthwith entered into both parts of the Book of Fynes to be made and kept for that Purpoſe, which Book of Fynes, being indented, the one part ſhall remayn with the Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident for the tyme being, or in their Abſence or Vacancie with the chiefeſt of the ſaid Counſell then attending, and the other with the Clerk of the Fynes.

And his Majeſtie's Pleaſure is, that there ſhall be a Duplicate indented made by the Clark of the Counſell and Sollicitor of all ſuch Bonds and Recognizances as ſhall be taken to his Majeſty's Uſe in their Offices, to be delivered to the ſayd Lord Preſident and Vice-Preſident for the tyme being and Counſellors aforeſaid then attending, at the end of every Term, to the intent his Majeſtie may be anſwered for the Forfeitures accordingly.

And his Majeſtie's Pleaſure is, that the ſaid Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident for the tyme being and Counſell as is aforeſaid, or any three of them (whereof the Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident for the tyme being, or the Chief Juſtice of Cheſter to be one) ſhall as often as they ſhall think meete call the Clerk of the ſaid Fynes, Attorney and Sollicitor, Clerk of the Counſell, and Regiſter aforeſaid, and every other Officer of the ſaid Court who hath or ſhall have the charge of keeping of any Book or Bonds of the ſaid Court mentioning or conteyning any Fyne Debt or other Somme of Money due to his Majeſty in the ſaid Court, who ſhall bring the ſaid Books to the Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident for the time being or Counſell as is aforeſaid attending, and the ſaid Counſell, uppon peruſing uſing therof and taking the Examynations of the Porter, and of all others dealing with Fynes there, ſhall give order for the levying of all Fynes, not paide, by Proceſſe from that Court, to be awarded as in other his Majeſty's Courts of Record is uſed, as well againſt the Body of ſuch Perſon or Perſons by whom ſuch Forfeitures or Somme or Sommes of Money ſhall be due, as for and againſt his or their Lands Goods and Chattells, or elſe they ſhall or may extreate the ſame, or ſuch of them as they ſhall think meet, into his Majeſty's Exchequer, there to be levied according to the courſe of the ſame Court, to the intent that his Majeſty may be truly anſwered of the ſaid Fynes, and that the ſame ſhall not remayne in Arrerages as heretofore they have done.

And alſo his Majeſty willeth and commandeth, that whatſoever Offices have been innovated and newly erected, or Fees rayſed ſince the begynning of the twentieth Year of the Raign of the late Queen Elizabeth, without expreſs Warrant of the ſaid late Queen or of his Majeſtie, ſhall be utterlie void, and from henceforth no new Office to be rayſed nor Fees increaſed in the ſaid Court, other than ſuch as ſhall be at any time by his Highnes own expreſſe Warrant in that Behalfe under his Majeſty's Hand allowed.

And his Majeſty's Pleaſure is, That for avoyding of all Corruption to be uſed by any Purveyor or other Officer appointed to provide Cariages for Removes, and for Wood and Fuell, and ſuch other Neceſſaries for the ſaid Counſell, that from henceforth the Country ſhall not be charged with more Carriages then ſhall be requiſite and neceſſary from tyme to tyme for thoſe purpoſes; and therfore his Highnes willeth and commandeth that all ſuch Cariages ſhall be appointed from tyme to tyme by the ſpeciall Warrant of the Lord Preſident for the tyme being and Counſell as is aforeſaid, or three of them (whereof the Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident, or in their Abſence or Vacancye the Chief Juſtice of Cheſter to be one) and no otherwiſe,

And his Majeſty's further Will and Pleaſure is, that if at any time hereafter it ſhall happen that the whole Proviſion cannot be had or made of Fuell Wood and Coal for the Expences of the ſaid Houſhold out of his Highnes Woods, Foreſts, Parkes, Chaces or Demeaſnes, within the Limits and Juriſdiction aforeſaid, that then the Lord Preſident Vice-Preſident or Counſell as is aforeſaid, ſhall, by Warrant ſigned as aforeſaid, give order to the Clerke or Receivor of the Fynes aforeſaid for payment of all ſuch Sommes of Money as ſhall be laid out for all ſuch neceſſarie Fuell Wood and Coal as ſhall want and be bought, and as (together with ſuch Fuell Wood and Coal as can be goten in his Majeſty's Demeaſne Lands, Forreſt, Woods, Parkes and Chaces aforeſaid) ſhall be neceſſarily expended and ymployed in the ſaid Houſhold.

A.D 1617. 5 Jac. I.

And further his Majeſty's Pleaſure is, that a Serjeant at Armes ſhall be readie to give his Attendance upon the Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident, or in their Abſence or Vacancie, upon the Chief Juſtice of Cheſter and Counſell with his Mace, and ſo do his Dutie and Service as the Serjeants uſe to do before the Lord Chancellor and Lord Treaſurer of England, as well by bearing his Mace, as in all other thinges that by the ſaid Lord Preſident and Counſell as aforeſaid ſhall be thought meete and expedient for the Honour of his Majeſtie and furtherance of his Highnes Service, and that he ſhall have allowance of his Diet when he attendeth, and the Diet of one Servant as hath been uſed, and in caſe the ſaid Serjeant will not or ſhall not do his Diligence as ſhall appertayn, then his Highnes Pleaſure is, that the ſaid Counſell, or any three of them (whereof the Lord Preſident, Vice Preſident or Chief Juſtice of Cheſter to be one) ſhall check and defaulke his Wages and Allowances as to their Diſcretion ſhall ſeeme convenient.

And his Majeſty's further Pleaſure is, that two Meſſingers appointed ſhall give there their continual Attendance upon the ſaid Lord Preſident and Counſell as is aforeſaid, and ſhall have their Dyet in the ſaid Houſe, and either of them to have yearly for his Fee Foure Poundes, and in caſe yt ſhall happen any of the ſaid Meſſengers to dye, then the Lord Preſident, Vice-Preſident and Counſell, or any three of them (whereof the Lord Preſident or Vice Preſident, or in their Abſence or Vacancy the Chief Juſtice of Cheſter to be one) ſhall appoint ſome apt Perſon in his Place and ſuch Perſon ſhall have the ſame Office of Meſſinger and Fee of Fower Pounds by the Year with his Diet, and the ſaid Nomynation and Appoyntment being entered into a Booke of Regiſter in the Court there, and ſubſcribed with the Handes of the Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident for the tyme being and Counſell as aforeſaid aforeſaid, or any three of them (whereof the Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident, or in their Vacancye the Chief Juſtice of Cheſter to be one) ſhall be good and effectual to ſuch Meſſenger for terme of his Life, to all Intents and purpoſes, except hee ſhall deſerve by any Miſbehaviour to be removed.

And, foraſmuch as under pretence of Privilege of the Court there hath been encreaſed not only many unneceſſary Suits in Courts, but alſo unneceſſary Suitors, ſuppoſing themſelves to be privileged Perſons, which are not indeed, and thereby having their Suites received without paying of Fees, the Court hath been greatly peſtered, the Officers there much hindred, and is the greateſt occaſion of Retayners and Hangers on of that Court as unneceſſarie Members which hath tended to the Diſcredit and Slander of the ſame: For the Reformation whereof, it is his Majeſty's Pleaſure that, from henceforth there ſhall be no allowance of Privilege for the receiving of ſuch Suits in the name of any Perſon or Perſons, other then ſuch to whom the Privilege of the Court, ſo to be granted, of right belongeth by the courſe and order of the Court in ancient time uſed; viz. to the Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident and Counſell attending the ſame, and their Servants then attending upon them in Houſhold, with the Officers of the Court, and the Officers of the Houſhold allowed by his Majeſty's Inſtructions, with other Myniſters of the Court appointed and allowed for Service of the Court, either by his Highnes Letters Patents, his Majeſty's Inſtructions, or by the Order of the Court, and their Servants then neceſſarilie attending upon them.

And foraſmuch as yt may chance the Lord Preſident to be ſometymes diſeaſed that he ſhall not be able to travell for the Direction of ſuch Matters as then ſhall accurre, or ſhall be called to the Parliament, or otherwiſe ymployed in his Highnes Affairs, or ſhall upon neceſſarye occaſions after ſome of the Seſſions willing to repayr to his Houſe out of the Limits and Juriſdiction aforeſaid; Therfore, to the Intent that the ſaid Counſell may be and remayn evermore full and perfect, and that there may be at all tymes in the Court one Perſon to dyrect all things in ſuch manner and forme as the ſaid Lord Preſident ſhould or might do by virtue of theis Inſtructions; his Majeſty's Pleaſure is, That when the Lord Preſident ſhall be ſo diſeaſed abſent or lett, as aforeſaid, that he cannot conveniently ſupply his rome himſelf, That then he ſhall name and appoint ſuch meet Perſon, being of the Counſell, as by him the ſaid Lord Preſident ſhall be thought meete during his Abſence, and his Majeſty, during the ſaid tyme, doth give unto every ſuch Perſon ſo to be appointed the name of Vice-Preſident, and that, ſo long as he ſhall continue Vice-Preſident, he ſhall have and exercyſe all ſuch Authoritie Power and Juriſdiction as the Lord Preſident himſelf to all Intents and purpoſes: Nevertheles he ſhall no longer contynue or have the ſaid Place, Authoritie, Power or Juriſdiction then during the tyme that the ſaid Lord Preſident ſhall be ſick abſent or letted as aforeſaid; and his Majeſty's Pleaſure ys, that for ſuch time as any of the ſaid Counſell, as is aforeſaid, ſhall occupie the ſaid Rome and Place as Vice-Preſident, that all the reſt of the Counſell, and all other Officers ſhall in all things uſe him in like ſort and with the like Reverence as they be bound by theis Inſtructions to uſe the Lord Preſident himſelf, whereunto his Majeſty doubteth not but every of them will conforme themſelves accordingly; his Majeſty's Pleaſure being likewiſe that the ſaid Vice-Preſident for the tyme being ſhall ſo uſe the ſaid Counſell in all reſpects according to their Degrees and Qualities as is fitting for them, and ſo as by the Example of his Behaviour towards them the Subjects and all Inferiors may eſteem of them with ſuch Reverence as ought to belong to his Highnes Counſellors.

And foraſmuch as the King's Majeſty, conſidering how unmeet yt is that his Highnes Tenants and Fermers ſhould be retained by Wages, Lyvery, Badges, Recognizance, Writings, Oath, Promiſe or otherwiſe without anie other Perſons in anie Countrie; therefore his Highnes expres Pleaſure and Commandment is, That none of his Majeſty's ſaid Counſell that now be or hereafter ſhall be, or any other Perſon or Perſons of what Eſtate degree or condition ſoever they be, ſhall, by any Liveries, Wages, Badges, Recognizance, Writings, Oath, Promiſe or otherwiſe, retayne or entertayne any of his Majeſty's Tenants or Farmers in any ſort, whereby he ſhall accompt himſelf bound to do unto him, or under him, other then as to one of his Majeſty's ſaid Counſell or his Highnes Officer in that behalf, if any ſo be in any manner of Service; And further his like Pleaſure is, that the Lord Preſident Vice-Preſident and Counſell as is aforeſaid, ſhall, in everie of their principall Sittings, give a ſpeciall Charge that none, either Noblemen or Gentleman or other, preſume to reteyn any of his Majeſty's Tenants, charging all his Majeſty's Tenants upon payn of his Majeſty's Diſpleaſure in no wiſe to agree to any ſuch Reteynor with any Man, but only to depend upon his Highnes, and upon ſuch as his Majeſtie ſhall appoint to be his Officers in that behalfe.

Lord

And his Majeſty doth ſtraightly charge and command all and ſinguler Sheryfs, Juſtices of the Peace, Mayors, Bayliffs, Conſtables, Headboroughs, and other Officers and Myniſters, and other his Subjects whatſoever to whom it may appertayne, within the ſaid Domynyon Principalitie and Countrie of Wales and the Marches of the ſame, and the ſaid Counties of Glouceſter, Worceſter, Hereford, Salopp and Monmouth, and the Cities of Glouceſter, Worceſter and Hereford, the County of the City of Glouceſter, the Town of Haverford Weſt and the County of the ſame, and within all and ſinguler other the Liberties, Franchiſes, Lymits and Places aforeſaid, that they be obeying, ayding, attendyng and aſſiſting to the ſaid Lord Preſident Vice-Preſident and Counſell in all things according to theis his Majeſty's Inſtructions, as heretofore in the tymes of his Predeceſſors Kings and Queens of this Realme they have been, as they tender his Majeſty's Diſpleaſure, and as they will anſwer the contrarie at their uttermoſt Perills; For his Majeſty's expreſſe Will and Pleaſure is, that the Authoritie and Juriſdiction of his Majeſty's ſaid Counſell ſhall be in all things obeyed preſerved and continued within the ſaid Domynion, Principalitie, Marches, Counties, Cities, Tounes, Places and Lymits aforeſaid, as fullie and abſolutly and in as large and ample manner and form as at any tyme heretofore it hath been, any doubt, ambiguity, queſtion or exception whatſoever of late moved to the contrarie in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

And, to the end that the ſaid Lord Preſident Vice-Preſident and Counſell may proceed to the Adminiſtration of Juſtice, as well in all Cauſes concerning his Majeſtie or the good and quiet government of his Majeſty's Subjects, in the Principalitie, Marches, Tounes, Cities and Counties aforeſaid, as likewiſe to give convenient Releife to all Suitors, Playntiffs and Defendants in anie Actions, Suits, Complaints or Maters depending or to be commenced before them, and that his Majeſtie's Proceſſe or Commandement may be the more dutyfully obeyed, and that the ſaid Suitors or any others whom the ſaid Lord Preſident Vice-Preſident or Counſell ſhall, by his Highnes Proceſſe call before them, may quietly have acceſſe to, and attend the ſaid Preſident Vice-Preſident or Counſell for Juſtice and Expedition of their Suits in any Place or Places within the Limits aforeſaid, where they ſhall then be Reſident, without any Ympeachment or Moleſtation by Arreſt from anie Court of anie Citie, Town corporate or Juriſdiction where the ſaid Counſel ſhal be then reſident and being; which Privileges are incident to his Majeſtie's High Courts of Juſtice at Weſtminſter, that without the ſame, in manie caſes, they cannot adminiſter his Highnes Lawes, and give that Reliefe to his Subjects that is requiſite; Therefore his Majeſtie's Will and Pleaſure is, that all his Subjects, as well in making their repair to the ſaid Preſident Vice-Preſident or Counſell, either to proſecute or defend any Complaint or Suit, commenced purſued or proſecuted (bonâ fide) without Fraud or Covyn, as likewiſe during the tyme of their neceſſarie aboad to ſtay about the ſame, and in their retorn home agayn, ſhall be privileged and diſcharged from all Arreſts by any Proceſſe or Warrant granted or ſued out, or from any Corporation wherin the ſaid Counſell ſhall be then reſident or being.

And his Majeſty willeth and requyreth the ſaid Lord Preſident and Vice-Preſident, and all others of the ſaide Counſell, that they do duely obſerve and cauſe to be obſerved all the Inſtructions aforeſaid according to the purport and intent of the ſame, letting them know that if they, to whom he hath committed ſo great a Charge and Truſt in this behalf, ſhall in any regard tranſgreſs or omit that hee hath hereby willed and required to be obſerved, that they ſhall not only incur his Majeſty's juſt Diſpleaſure for the ſame, but that they ſhall anſwer thereunto as Men forgetful both of their Duties and Oathes.

And the King's Majeſty's further Pleaſure is, that the Lord Preſident for the tyme being and Counſell as is aforeſaid, or ſuch of the ſaid Counſell as ſhall attend the ſame, ſhall myniſter, as well the Oath of Supremacy, as the Oath hereafter mentioned, unto everie of the ſaid Counſell whenſoever they ſhall be preferred thereunto.

Yow ſhall ſweare.

That, to your uttermoſt Power Wit and Cunnyng, you ſhall be true and faithfull to the Kyng's Highnes our Soveraign Lord, and to his Heires and Succeſſors, and that you do verilie teſtifie and declare in your Conſcience that the King's Highnes is the only Supream Governor of this Realm and of all other his Highnes Domynyons and Countries, as well in all Spirituall and Eccleſiaſticall Things or cauſes as temporall, and that no forraign Prince, Parſon, Prelate, State or Potentate hath or ought to have any Juriſdiction, Power, Superioritye, Preheminence or Authoritie Eccleſiaſticall or Temporall within this Realme, and therefore you do utterly renounce and forſake all forreign Juriſdictions, Powers, Superiorities and Authorities, and do promiſe that from henceforth you ſhall beare Faith and true Allegeance to the Kyng's Highnes his Heires and lawfull Succeſſors, and to your Power ſhall aſſiſt and defend all Juriſdictions, Privileges, Prehemynentes and Authorities graunted or belonging to the King's Highnes his Heires and Succeſſors, or united or annexed to the Imperiall Crown of this Realme; you ſhall not know nor hear any thing that may in any wiſe be prejudiciall to his Highnes or his Commonwealth, Peace and Quyet of this his Highnes Realme; but you ſhall with all Diligence reveal and diſcloſe the ſame to his Highnes, or to ſuch other Perſon or Perſons of his Highnes Privie Counſell as you ſhall think meet and will ſooneſt convey it to his Highnes Knowlege; you ſhall ſerve his Majeſtie truly and faithfully in the room and place of one of his Highnes Councell, you ſhall, in all things to be moved treated or debated in anie Counſell, faithfully and truly declare your Minde and Opynyon according to your Heart and Conſcience, in no waies forbearing ſoe to do for any manner of Reſpect or Favor, Neede, Dread, Diſpleaſure or Corruption; you ſhall faithfully and uprightly, to the beſt of your Power, cauſe Juſtice to be duely and indifferently adminiſtred to the King's Majeſty's Subjects that ſhall have cauſe to ſue for the ſame according to Equitie and order of Lawe; Fynally, you ſhall be vigilant diligent and circumſpect in all your Doings and Proceedings touching the Kyng's Majeſtie and his Affairs, all which Points and Articles before expreſſed, with all other Articles conteyned in theis preſent Inſtructions, and ſigned by the King's Majeſty's Hand, you ſhall faithfully obſerve keepe and fulfill to the uttermoſt of your Power, Wit, Will and Cunnyng.

SOE HELPE YEE GOD.

For the Oath of the Myniſters and Officers of the Court, the ſaid Oath of Supremacye ſhall be mynyſtred unto them, with ſuch other Oath as hath been formerly uſed, or as to the ſaid the Lord Preſident and Counſell as is aforeſaid ſhall ſeeme meete.

And, foraſmuch as it is conveynent that, as well all inferior Officers, and Attendants for Service Counſel or Practiſe, as that other Superiors may be obedyent to the Lawes of the Realme concerning the Service of God and the Profeſſion of the true Chriſtian Religion eſtabliſhed in the Realme, the Lord Preſident or Vice-Preſident, or in their Abſence or Vacancye, the Chief Juſtice of Cheſter and Counſell, ſhall take order that no Perſon, bearing or exerciſing any Office there, or pleading ſollicityng or intermedling with any Suits belonging to that Court, ſhall contynue in any Office or Exercyſe there, except they ſhall willingly take ſuch Oath as is before appointed, and ſhall alſo orderly reſort to the Church and Dyvyne Service, and receave the Communyon according to the Lawes of the Realme and the Injunctions Eccleſiaſticall; or if anie ſhall not aſſent thereunto and perform the ſame, then, after reaſonable tyme given to conform themſelves, they ſhall be ſecluded from any manner of exerciſe of any Service, either by themſelves or by their Deputies, and ſome other meete and conformable Perſon ſhall be admitted by the Lord Preſident for the tyme being and Counſell in their place, untill the Perſons offending ſhall reform themſelves; and the like Order to be taken for the Deputies of any officer, for Declaration of their Obedience as above ys mentioned.

Laſtly, To the intent that his Majeſty's loving Subjects whom yt may concern, inhabityng within the ſaid Principalitie of Wales and the Marches of the ſame, and the Counties, Cities, Towns, Liberties, Franchiſes and other the Places and Lymits aforeſaide and everie or anie of them, may know and be acquainted with his Majeſtie's ſaid Inſtructions by which they are to be governed and whereunto they are to yeild Obedyence; his Majeſtie is therefore pleaſed, and doth by theis Preſents will and command that ſuch

A.D.1617. Pat. 15. J. I. p. 3. n. 5.

JAMES, by the Grace of God &c. To, our right truſty and righte welbeloved, William Lord Compton Preſident of our Councell within the Domynion Principalitye and Marches of Wales, Greeting.

Knowe yee that, for the great and ſinguler Truſt and Confidence that We have in your approved Fidelitie Wiſdome and Circumſpection, Wee have aſſigned, made, conſtituted and ordained, and, by theiſe Preſents, do aſſign, make, conſtitute and ordain you to be our Lieutenante within the Principalitie and Dominions of South Wales and North Wales (our Counties of Glamorgan and Monmoth only excepted) the Marches therunto adjoining, and the ſeverall Counties of Worceſter Hereforde and Salop, and in all corporate and privileged Places within the Limits or Precincts of the Principality, Dominions, Marches and Counties aforeſaide, or anie of them, as well within Liberties as without,

And by theiſe Preſents do give full Power and Authority unto you, that you from tyme to tyme may levie gather and call together all and ſinguler our Subjects of what Eſtate Degree or Dignity they or any of them be, dwelling or inhabiting within the Principalitie, Dominion, Marches or Counties aforeſaid, as well within Liberties as without, meet and apt for the Warres; and them, from tyme to tyme, to try and array and put in readines; and them alſo and every of them, after their Habilities Degrees and Faculties well and ſufficiently from tyme to tyme, to cauſe to be armed and weponed, and to take the Muſters of them from time to time in places moſt meet for that purpoſe after your Diſcretion:

And alſo the ſame our Subjects ſoe arraied tried and armed, as well Horſemen Archers and Footemen, as other Men of Armes of all kinds and degrees meet and apte for the Warres, to lead and conduct, as well againſt all and ſinguler our Enemies, as alſo againſt all and ſinguler Rebells Traytors and other Offendors and theire Adherents againſt Us our Crowne and Dignitie within the ſaide Principalitie and Dominions of North Wales and South Wales, the Marches of the ſame, and Counties and Places aforeſaid and everie of them, from tyme to tyme as often as need ſhall requier by your Diſcretion;

And with the ſaide Eenemies Traytors and Rebelles from tyme to tyme to fight, and them to invade, reſiſt, ſuppreſſe, ſubdue, ſlea, kill and put to Execution of Death by all waies and meanes from tyme to tyme by your Diſcretion.

And to do fulfil and execute from time to tyme all and ſinguler other things, which ſhall be requiſite for the Leavying and Governement of our ſaid Subjectes, for the Conſervation of our Perſon and Peace, ſoe by you in forme aforeſaid to be levied and to be ledd;

And further to doe execute and uſe, againſt the ſaid Enemies, Traytors, Rebells and ſuch other like Offendors and their Adherentes afore-mentioned from tyme to tyme, as neceſſitie ſhall require, by your Diſcretion, the Lawe called the Martiall Lawe according cording to the Law Martiall; and, of ſuch Offendors apprehended or being brought in Subjection, to ſave whom you ſhall thinck good to be ſaved, and to ſlea diſtroie and put to execution of Death ſuch and as many of them as you ſhall think meete by your good Diſcretion to be put to Death.

And further our Will and Pleaſure is, and, by theiſe Preſents, Wee doe give unto you full Power and Authoritie that, in caſe any Invaſion of Enemies, Inſurrection, Rebellion, Riots, Routes or unlawfull Aſſemblies, or any like Offences ſhall happen to be moved in any place of this our Realme out of the Limits of this our Commiſſion, that then, as often as need ſhall requier, by your good Diſcretion, or as you ſhall be directed from Us by any ſpeciall Commandement, you with ſuch Power to be levied within the Limits of your Lieutenancie, as you ſhall think requiſite, or as ſhall be directed from Us as is aforeſaid, ſhall repaire to the place where any ſuch Invaſion, Rebellion, unlawfull Aſſembly, or Inſurrection ſhall happen to be made, to ſubdue repreſſe and reforme the ſame, as well by Battaile or other kinde of Force, as otherwiſe by the Laws of our Realm and the Lawe Martiall according to your Diſcretion.

And further Wee give unto you full Power and Authoritie, for the execution of this our Commiſſion, to appoint and aſſign within the Principalitie and Dominions of South Wales and North Wales, the Marches thereunto adjoining, and the Counties aforeſaid from tyme to tyme to make and appoint Muſter Maſters and Provoſt Martialls, as you in your Diſcretion ſhall thinke convenient, to uſe and exerciſe that Office in ſuch caſes as you ſhall think requiſite to uſe the ſaide Lawe Martiall:

Wherefore Wee will and command you our ſaid Lieutenante that with all Diligence you do execute the Premiſſes with effecte.

And foraſmuch as it may be that there ſhall be juſt cauſe for you to be attendant upon our Perſon, or to be otherwiſe imploied in our Service, wherby this our Service of Lieutenancie committed to your Fidelitie cannot be by you in Perſon executed in ſuch ſorte as Wee have appointed the ſame, Therefore We give unto you, for your better Aide and Aſſiſtance, and for the better Performance and Execution of this ſame our Service, full Power and Authority to appoint aſſign and conſtitute by your Writing, under your Hande and Seale, within everie ſeverall Shire and Countie of the ſaid Principalitie and Dominions of South Wales and North Wales, and the other Counties aforeſaid reſpectivelie (except before excepted) from tyme to tyme, ſo many Perſons of Qualitie, as to you our ſaid Lieutenant ſhall ſeeme meete and convenient, to be your Deputies in the ſaid Shires and Counties and all Corporate and Priviledged Places within the ſame, ſoe as the number of ſuch your Deputies do not in any Shire or Countie reſpectivelie exceede the number of ſixe;

A.D.1617. 15 Jac. 1.

And by this our preſent Commiſſion Wee give unto every two or more of your ſaid Deputies, ſoe being by you appointed and aſſigned as aforeſaid, full Power and Authoritie, in your Abſence, to do and execute in every County where they are deputed and aſſigned to be your Deputies as aforeſaid, and in all Corporate and Priviledged Places within the Limit or Precincts of the ſame Countie, as well within Liberties as without, all and ſuch and ſoe much of every thing and things before, by this our preſent Commiſſion, aſſigned and appointed by you to be done and executed, and ſoe far forth as by you in your ſaid Writings of Deputation ſhall be to them perſcribed and appointed to be done and executed.

And our further Pleaſure and Commandement is that your ſaid Deputies ſhall, immediatly after your Writings of Deputation to them made as aforeſaid, take charge and care to ſee everie ſuch point and thing of this our Commiſſion fully and perfectly executed in your Abſence, as by you in your ſaid Writings of Deputation ſhall be to them preſcribed and appointed to be done and executed; and the better to enhable them ſoe to do, you ſhall deliver to everie two of your ſaid Deputies, ſoe appointed and deputed for the ſaid ſeverall Counties as aboveſaid, a true Tranſcript of this our Commiſſion ſubſcribed with your Hand, and whatſoever you alone being preſent ſhall doe by virtue of this our Commiſſion, or in your Abſence your ſaid Deputies, or anie two or more of them, ſhall doe according to the Tenor and Effecte of your ſaide Writeings of Deputation to be made as is aforeſaid, the ſame ſhall be by theſe Preſents diſcharged againſt Us our Heires and Succeſſors.

A.D.1617. 15 Jac. I.

And further Wee will and command all and ſinguler Juſtices of Peace, Maiors, Sheriffs, Bailiffes, Conſtables, Headborrowes, and all other our Officers, Miniſters and Subjects meet and apte for the Warres, within everie of the ſaid Sheires and Counties and all corporate and priviledged Places within the Limits or Precinctes of the ſaid Sheirs and Counties and everie of them, as well within Liberties as without, to whom it ſhall appertaine, that they and everie of them with their Power and Servants from tyme to tyme ſhall be attendant, ayding and aſſiſting, councelling, helping, and at the Commaundement of you and of your ſaide Deputies, or any two or more of them reſpectivelie as aforeſaid, in the Shires and Counties aforeſaid, and for the execution hereof in all pointes as apperteyneth, as they and everie of them tender our Pleaſure, and will anſwere for the contrary at their utmoſt Perills.

Provided alwaies that this our preſent Commiſſion, or any thing therein contayned, ſhall not in any wiſe extend to the Countie of Glouceſter, the City of Glouceſter, or Countie of the ſame City, or to any of them, or to the Countie Palatine of Cheſter, or to the City of Cheſter, or to any parte thereof, or to the Counties of Glamorgan or Monmouth, or to any of them, or to any parte of them, or any of them.

Articuli ordinati pro meliori Gubernatione mediarum Satrapiarum Comitatuum Northumbriæ, Cumbriæ & Weſtmerlandiæ.

A.D. 1617. Pat. 15 J. I. p. 11. dorſ. FOraſmuch as We doubte not but the great Bleſſing of Almightie God hath been, and ſtill is, perceived and acknowledged by all our loving Subjects to this whole Iſland, in the uniting in our Perſon the twoe famous and auncient Kingdoms of England and Scotland, and by that means in making of thoſe Shires, which were ancientlie the Borders of the ſaid Kingdomes, to be nowe the Middle Shires of this our united Kingdome of great Brittaine.

And whereas our ſpeciall Care hath ever been, ſince our happie Acceſſe to this Kingdome, to have the ſame refourmed and quieted from Slaughter Spoyles and Rapynes, and the Malefactors there to be rooted oute, nevertheles Wee finde by Experience that the diſordered Perſons accuſtomed in fourmer times to live by Rapine and Spoyle, praying daily uppon our good and loving Subjects withoute feare of God or Man, will not be reformed, nor their Inſolencies and Outrages repreſſed withoute ſome newe Supplie of Authoritie to the ordinarie Miniſtration of Juſtice in thoſe Partes;

Wee therefore,

Bending our Cares to have the Slaughters, Spoyles, Robberies, inſolent Outrages, and other Enormities, repreſſed by ſevere and condigne Puniſhment whiche were and ſtill are ſo frequent and common uppon the ſaid late Borders, and now middle Shires of this our Kingdome of Great Brittaine, as in a caſe of State for the avoiding of many Inconveniences,

Have, with the Advice of our Privy Councell, for the ſpeedie Prevention or ſevere Puniſhment hereafter of ſuch ſowle Crymes, ſet down certain Articles herein digeſted, which Wee commaunde all Perſons whome it maie concerne, of what Degree ſoever, to be dewlie executed; And if anie Perſon ſhall be founde wilfullie negligente contemptuous or diſobedient, Wee declare hereby, that ſuch Severitie of Puniſhment ſhall be inflicted uppon him or them, as the Example thereof ſhall terrifie others from committing ſuch contempruous Offences.

First, Whereas in the Parliament houlden at Weſtminſter the eleaventh Year of the Raigne of the late Kinge, of famous Memorie, Henrie the Seaventh; It was amongeſt other things ordayned and Enacted, That the Lordſhippe and Boundes of North and Southe Tyndall, and all Lands and Tenements within the ſame and everie part thereof, ſhould ſtand and be from thenceforth Gildable, and parte of the Shire of Northumberland, and noe Franchiſe ne Infranchiſed &c. Our Will and Pleaſure is that the ſaid Statute and Ordynance be from henceforth, in all and everie the Branches thereof, duelie obſerved and put in execution.

Item, Fynding it neceſſarie that the like Ordinaunce Courſe and Proceeding be preſcribed to be kepte houlden and obſerved in Hexhamſhire; and within the Partes of Riddeſdale, and that parte of Cumberland which is called Bewcaſtle; our Will and Pleaſure is, and of our Power and Prerogative Royal, We do ſtraightly charge and commande that they and every of them, and all Landes and Tenements within the ſame, in whoſe Poſſeſſion ſoever they be, and everie parte thereof, ſtande and be from henceforth in the nature of Gildeable and noe Franchiſe or Enfranchiſed, but that all maner of Writs ſhall runne, and all our Officers, Lievetenant or Lievetenants, Juſtices of Peace, Shiriffes, Eſcheators Coroners, Bayliffes and other Officers and their Deputies, and everie of them, of or within the ſame and everie parte of them, and all other Warraunts and Precepts ſhall be obeyed and of full Authority, by reaſon of this our Proclamation, within the ſaide ſeverall Places and in everie part thereof, touching and concerning onelie all maner of Slaughters, Felonies, Rapynes, and other Miſdemeanors, notwithſtanding any pretence or clayme of Libertie or Fraunchiſe whatſoever: alſoe that noe Perſon or Perſons of what Eſtate Degree or condition he or they be of, that nowe hath or hereafter ſhall have Authoritie or Power in his or their owne Righte, or anie other Mans, to dymitte or let to farme for Year or Years, term of Lyfe or at will, any Lands or Tenements within anye the ſeverall Places aforeſaid, but that the Leaſſee or Leaſſees forthwith, before hee or they take or occupie, by force of any ſuch Leaſe, any Lands and tenements, find good and ſufficient Suertie, at the leaſt two Perſons having Lands and Tenements within ſome of the Places aforeſaid to the full yearlie Value of Fortie Shillings, over and above all manner Charges and Repriſes, by Recognizaunce to Us in Twentie Pounds, before two Juſtices of Peace within the ſeverall Places aforeſaid reſpectively; uppon this Condition, that if the ſaid Leaſſee or Leaſſees, within eighte Daies Warning to them perſonalie or openlie at his or their owne Houſe, or in his or their Pariſhe Churches, given by anie of the ſaide Juſtices of Peace, the Shiriffe, or anie of our Lievetenauntes of anye of the ſaid Places reſpectivelie, or anye other our Officers, perſonallie appeare not before the ſame Juſtices of the Peace, or other our Commiſſioners at any Seſſion or Seſſions or Gaole deliverye, at ſuch Place and Daie within the Item, That all Perſons within the ſaid Middle Shires when Hewe and Crie and other Purſuite ſhall happen to be made after any Felon or Felons or other misbehaved Perſons within the ſame or anye of them, ſhall and doe the uttermoſte of their Power in purſuing taking and apprehending the ſaid Felons and Misbehaved Perſons upon pain of Impriſonment, &c and other Penalties as to Us ſhall ſeem meet.

A.D.1617. 15 Jac. 1.

Item, That noe notorious Offendors or anie Offendors, for Stealthes of Cattell or other things, be let to Baile or Maineprize by anye our Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, or other our Miniſters, but in open Courte or Generall Seſſions, uppon payne that the Perſon ſoe baylinge be put out of the Commiſſion of the Peace, and otherwiſe puniſhed as Wee ſhall directe.

Item, That the multitude and unneceſſarie nomber of Hoſteller Houſes and Maulſters be forthwith repreſſed according to the Lawe, and that for the future the ſaid Juſtices of Peace be carefull and circumſpecte in the Licences that they ſhall make for keeping of anye Hoſtler Houſes or for makeing of Maulte, and for their better Information doe acquainte the Cheife Lordes in the ſame Towns reſpectively where ſuche Hoſteller Houſes and Maultinge ſhall be with ſuch Licences to be granted, and the ſame to be graunted to none but ſuch as are well known to be of honeſt and good Converſation, they findeing two ſufficient Sureties to keep good Order in their ſaid Houſes, and not wittinglie to lodge or intertaine any lewde or ſuſpected Perſons, not to ſuffer any Dicynge Carding or exceſſive Drinking in their Houſes, but in moderate ſore and at ſeaſonable houers, and not otherwiſe uppon paine of Impriſonmente and other Puniſhment to enſue thereuppon.

and Company of Merchauntes the Adventurers in this Voiage; which Directions and Inſtructions our intention is, and ſoe Wee will and require you that you punctually obſerve in all thinges.

Wee doe therefore ſtrictly charge and commaund all and everie Perſon and Perſons, ymploied in this Voiage and ſhipped in the ſaid Shippes, to give all due Obedience and Reſpecte unto you during the ſaid Voiage, and to beare themſelves one towardes another in good Order and Quietnes, for avoiding any occaſion that might breed Mutiny, Quarrells or Diſſention amongſt them to the hinderaunce of the good Succeſſe which is to be hoped for, by God's Providence, of this ſaid Voiage;

And, in defaulte of ſuch Duty and Obedience to be performed towardes you, for the correctinge and quenching of all ſuch Mutinyes, Quarrells and Diſſenſions that may ariſe by the evill and diſorderly Diſpoſition of any ſuch Perſons whatſoever; Wee doe hereby authorize you the ſaid Sir Thomas Dale Knighte, during the ſaid Voiage, or during ſoe long tyme as you ſhall live in the ſaid Voiage, to chaſtice correcte and punyſhe all Offendors and Tranſgreſſors in that behalfe, according to the Qualitye of their Offences, with ſuch Puniſhments as are commonly uſed in all Armyes at Sea when they are not Capital; And for Capitall Offences, as Wilful Murder which is hateful in the Sighte of God, and Mutynie which is an Offence which may tend to the Overthrowe of the ſaid Voiage, Wee doe hereby give unto you the ſaid Sir Thomas Dale Knighte during all the tyme of the ſaid Voiage, or during ſoe long tyme as you ſhall live in the ſaid Voiage, full Power and Authoritie to uſe and putt in Execution our Lawe called Martiall Lawe in that behalf; but that therein you doe expreſly uſe the Councell and Advice of the twoe principall Maiſters, and of the twoe principall Merchauntes appointed for the tyme being, or of any twoe of them, and theiſe our Lettres ſhall be unto you ſufficiente Warraunte and Diſcharge for the doeing and executinge of all and ſinguler the Premiſſes.

And foraſmuch as at this preſent We are in Amity with all Chriſtian Princes, and are unwilling that any our Subjects ſhould give occaſion of Breach or Hinderaunce thereof towardes any our Confederates Freindes or Allies; And becauſe Wee are not ignorante of the Emulation and Envie which doeth accompany the diſcoverie of Countries and Trades, and of the Quarrells and Contentions which many tymes fall out between the Subjectes of divers Princes when they meete the one with the other in forreyne and remote Countries in proſecuting the courſe of their Diſcoveries; and being deſirous that our Subjectes ſhould forbeare to move or begyn any Quarrells or Contentions upon the Subjectes of any our Confederates Freindes or Allies, either in their goeing forth or retorneing from any of their Voyages; Wee therefore doe hereby ſtraictly charge and commaunde you the ſaide Sir Thomas Dale Knighte, and all other under your Governement, that neither in your Voiage outwarde or homewarde, or in any Countrie, Iſland, Porte or Place where you ſhall abide or come during the tyme of your being abroade out of our Kingdomes or Domynions, where you meete with any the Subjectes of the King of Spayne or of any other our Confederates Freindes or Allies, or of any other Nation or People, you doe not attempte or goe about to ſet upon take or ſurpriſe, their Perſons, Shippes, Veſſells, Goodes or Merchandize, or offer any injury or diſcurteſy unto them, except you ſhall be by them firſt thereunto provoked or driven, either in the juſt Defence of your owne Perſons, Shippes, Veſſells, Goods or Merchandize; by any theire diſturbance or hinderaunce whatſoever in your quiett courſe of Trade, or for recompence and recoverie of the Perſons, Shippes, Goodes and Merchandize of any of our Subjectes that are or have beene alreadye in or neare the Eaſt Indies, or for any other juſt cauſe of your defence or recompence of Loſſes ſuſteined: In which caſes, ſoe excepted, yf you attempte ſurpriſe and take the Perſons, Shippes and Goodes of any Prince or State, by whoſe Subjectes you ſhall ſuſteine any Wrong or Loſſes in manner aforeſaide, you ſhall not for any ſuch Acte or Actes grounded upon the occaſions above mentioned be in daunger or ſubjecte to the Perill and Penalties of our Lawes:

And whereas, by our Letters Patentes, graunted to the ſaid Governours and Company of Merchauntes of London trading into the Eaſt Indies, Wee have ſtrictly charged and prohibited all other our Subjects of what condition ſoever to trade viſite or frequente by way of Merchandize into the ſaide Eaſte Indies, or into any the Iſlandes or Portes thereof, upon payne and forfeiture not onely of their Goodes and Merchandize, but alſo of their Shippes and Furniture thereof; Wee therfore, by theiſe Preſents, doe alſoe give full Power and Authority to you, yf in this Voiage either outward or holmeward you doe meete with any the Shippes or Goods of any our Subjectes, other then ſuch as are ſet out or ſpecially lycenſed or permitted thereunto by the Governours and Company aforeſaid, to arreſt take and ſeize the Shippes and Goodes of all and everie of them, and of all other our Subjectes ſoe offending, the one halfe or the value thereof, upon indifferent Apprizement, to be reſerved to our Uſe, and the other halfe thereof to be converted to the Uſe of the Governours and Company aforeſaid.

And whereas the Governours and Merchauntes aforeſaid have a further propoſe, after the accompliſhing of the aforeſaid Voiage into the Eaſte Indies, to uſe your further Service for ſome tyme in viſitinge their ſeverall Plantations and Places of Reſidence, and in ſetting ſuch Orders both in the ſame and in ſuch other Places as they ſhall directe you unto, for the Benefit of their Trade and Trafficque; Wee alſoe, allowing of their intentions and propoſes therein, doe ſtrictly hereby charge and commaunde you to followe ſuch Inſtructions and Directions in that behalfe as you ſhall receive from the ſaid Governours and Merchauntes aforeſaid, and in noe wiſe to contrarie the ſame as you will aunſwere the ſame at your Perill.

And foraſmuch as our ſaid Subjectes the Merchauntes and other the Governours of this Voyage, out of Providence and Foreſight yf any Mortality either by Sicknes or otherwiſe (which God forbidd) ſhoulde befall the ſaide Sir Thomas Dale Knighte, have made choice of our truſty and welbeloved Subjecte Captaine William Parker to ſucceed the ſaid Sir Thomas Dale Knight in the Charge of Captaine and Cheife Commaunder of all the Perſons ymployed in this Voiage, as aforeſaid, Wee doe alſoe, in caſe ſuch accident ſhold happen, allowe and approve of their choice in that behalfe; and doe hereby give full Power and Authoritye unto you the ſaid Captain William Parker to doe and execute all and everie thing and things incident to the Charge of Captaine and Cheefe Commaunder of all the Mariners and other our Subjectes ymployed in the Voiage aforeſaid, in as ample manner and forme, to all intentes and purpoſes as is before committed and ymployed upon the ſaid Sir Thomas Dale Knighte: And theiſe our Letters ſhall be alſoe ſufficient Warraunte and Diſcharge, to you the ſaid Captaine William Parker, for the doeinge and executing of all and ſinguler the Premiſſes as aforeſaid,

Whereas, by the happie Unyon of the Kingdomes of England and Scotland in Subjection and Allegiaunce, by the Providence of Almightie God, under one imperiall Crowne in our Roiall Perſon, the Lawes or Uſages of the late Marches or Borders, inſtituted or tollerated while they ſtood ſeparate and devided under ſeverall Kinges for the Peace and tranquilitie thereof, are utterlie fruſtrate and expyred, and yett manye of bothe Nations, dwelling neere the late Borders or Marches, doe contynue their former godles lawles and diſordered courſe of Life, whoe by the ordinarie and ſeperate Proceedings of either Countrie cannot, as the neceſſitye of the Cauſe requireth, be either ſoe ſpeedilie broughte to the Knowledge of God and Obedyence of Us and our Lawes, which Wee cheiflie deſyre; or being ſuch as will not be reclaymed cannot ſoe ſuddainelie cut off by the Sworde of Juſtice from infecting others, as by joyninge certaine of our loveing Subjects of bothe Nations in one Commiſſion for that purpoſe whome God hath alreadye conjoyned togither as Members of one Bodye under one Heade: And foraſmuch as one of the greateſt Cauſes of their Offences is hope of Impunitye, and the greateſt Motive of their Hope is, after Murders, Felonies, Ryotts, Rowtes, unlawfull Aſſemblies, and other greate Offences commytted in one Kingdome, to eſcape Puniſhmente by flying into the other, Wee, foraſmuche as the ſaid Lawes and Uſages of late Borders and Marches are nowe vaniſhed and aboliſhed, and for that it appertayneth unto our Kinglie Office to care and provide that all our loyall and obediente Subjects maye live in Peace and Tranquillity without feare of Robberie Rapyne and Spoile or Daunger of their Lives, and that Murderers Felons and other Delinquents maie be puniſhed according to Our Lawes reſpectivelie in that behaulfe, Wee have therefore, to take awaie all ſubterfuge, and quentche all ſparkes of any hope of eſcape from Puniſhmente in ſuch as ſhall offend, to joyne together in one Commiſſion certaine of eache Nation for the Eſtabliſhmente and Preſervation of our Peace in thoſe Partes, and for the utter ſuppreſſing and preventinge of all ſuch exorbitant Offences and Diſorders, or elſe for the apprehending and ſending of ſuch Offendors as ſhall perſiſte in their Wickedneſs to the Country or Place where they offended, there to receive their condigne Puniſhmente for their Demeritts according to the Lawe and Juſtice reſpectively in that behalfe.

Knowe yee therefore that Wee, truſting in your Wiſdomes Fidelities and Diſcretions, have conſtituted authoriſed and appointed you to be oure Commiſſioners, and, by theis Preſents, doe give full Power and Authority unto you (and everie five or more of you) to convene and aſſemble together and conſulte when and wheare and as often as you (or any five or more of you) ſhall thinke fit, uſing therein all poſſible Expedition that may bee, howe and by what meanes our Peace maie be

And further our Will and Pleaſure is, and, by theis Preſents, Wee doe give unto you our ſaid Commiſſioners, and everie one or more of you, full Power and Authority from time to time and at all times, by all lawfull wayes and meanes, and with all poſſible Expedition, as well to eſtabliſhe preſerve and keepe our Peace within the ſaid Countries, Shires, Sheriffdomes, Stewartries, Townes and Pariſhes, and eache and everie of them, and alſoe to apprehende all ſuch Malefactors and Delinquents within the ſaid Counties, Shyres, Shiriffdomes, Stewartries, Towns and Pariſhes, or anye of them, and to commytte them to Priſon or to other ſafe Cuſtodie;

And further, to ſend or to deliver them to ſuch place and places, within any of the ſaid Countyes, Shires, Shiriffdomes, Stewartries, Townes and Pariſhes in either of our ſaide Kingdomes, wheare they maye receive Juſtice according to their Demerits and oure Lawes and Statutes reſpectivelye in that behalfe;

And further, for the ſpeedie ſuppreſſing of the ſaid Offendors, Wee doe, by theis Preſents, charge and commaunde the ſeverall Sheriffes Bayliffes and other Officers of everie the ſaid Kingdomes, Counties, Shires and Places, for the time being, to whome the Charge and Cuſtodie of the ſame reſpectivelie appertayneth, to aſſiſte you and everie one of you, according to our Lawes reſpectivelie in that behaulfe, with the Powers of the ſeverall Counties, Shires, Shireffdomes, Stewartries, Townes and Pariſhes aforeſaid, as often as you, or anye one or more of you as is aforeſaid, ſhall require the ſame; and alſoe to aſſiſte and ſtrengthen your ſelves, or anie one or more of you as is aforeſaid, withe ſuch Forces of Men and Horſemen as Wee ſhall, from tyme to tyme as occaſion ſhall ſerve, aſſigne unto you in that behaulfe, and uſe the ſame as you, or any one or more of you, ſhall thinke fitt, as well for the Preſervation of our Peace in the Counties, Shyres, Shiriffdomes, Stewartries, Townes and Pariſhes aforeſaid, and each and everie of them, as for the apprehending of any of the Malefactors or Delinquents within the ſame, to the end they maie be conveyed and broughte to the ordinarie Tryall and Judgment of our Lawes reſpectivelie made and provided in that behalfe;

And that our Will and Pleaſure herein expreſſed may take the more ſpeedy effecte, Wee doe, by theis Preſents, give full Power and Authority to you, or anye one or more of you, to doe and execute all and everie other lawful or neceſſarie Acte and Actes, Thing and Things whatſoever, which you, or anye one or more of you as aforeſaid, ſhall thinke fit and neceſſarie for the doeing and ſpeedie Execution of this our Commiſſion, and whatſoever you, or anie one or more of you, ſhall doe or cauſe to be done, by vertue of this our Commiſſion, and according to the tenor and effect of the ſame, touching the execution of the Premiſſes or anie parte thereof, theis Preſents ſhall be to you, and everie one or more of you, a ſufficiente Warraunte and Diſcharge in that behalfe againſt Us our Heires and Succeſſors:

And further, Wee will and commaund all and ſinguler our Sheriffs, Juſtices of Peace, Bailiffes, Conſtables, Headboroughs, and other our Officers Miniſters and Subjectes to whome it maie or ſhall appertaine, that they and everie of them, ſhall not onlie by all poſſible waies and means to their uttermoſte endeavour, have eſpeciall care in and aboute the dewe execution of their ſeverall Authorityes and Powers according to the Duties of their ſeverall Places, and the Truſt Wee have repoſed in you for ſuppreſſing and preventing of the ſaid Inconveniences Offences and Diſorders, but alſoe that they and everie of them be helping ayding and aſſiſting to you, and everie one or more of you as is aforeſaid, in the execution thereof, as they and

And further, our Will and Pleaſure is, that theis our Letters of Commiſſion ſhall be in due manner made and ſealed, as well under our Great Seale of England as under our Greate Seale of Scotland, withoute any other or further Warraunte from Us to be had or obtayned in that behalfe; for which purpoſe Wee have alſo cauſed a Duplicate hereof to be made to paſſe under our Greate Seale of Scotland.

A.D. 1618. Pat. 15. J. 1. p. 11. n. 3.

James, by the Grace of God, King of England Scotland Fraunce and Irelande Defendor of the Faithe &c. to our right truſtie and right welbeloved Councelor, William Lord Knollis Viſcounte Wallingford Maſter of our Courte of Wardes and Liveries, and to our Truſtie and welbeloved, the Councell of the ſame Courte, and to the Maſter and Councell of the ſaid Courte for the time being, Greeting.

Whereas it dothe appeare by common Experience, in the courſe which hathe bene healde ſithence the firſte Erection of our Courte of Wards and Liveries, that partelie, by the Slacknes of the Friends of the Wardes, upon the Deceaſe of the Parents or Aunceſtors, whoe have forborne to offer tymelie Compoſition, ſometimes with an opynion that noe Title could be founde for Us, and ſometimes with purpoſe to ſuppreſſe the ſame, and partlie by the Suite of other Men, the Cuſtodie of the Bodies and Landes of our Wardes have beene commytted to ſuch Perſons, ſome for one reſpecte ſome for another, as, notwithſtanding the Care and Providence of you the Mayſter and Councell of our Courte, to binde them in greate Bondes and Covenaunts for the well Education of the Children and Preſervation of their Inheritaunce, have beene careles of their Education, married ſome in meane places, commytted Waſtes and Spoiles uppon their Lands, and in the ende have exacted greater Sommes of Money for the Marriages of ſuche Wardes then they ought to have donne in reaſon and equitie, notwithſtanding any their Diſburſements whatſoever for paſſinge or procureinge the ſame:

And whereas alſoe Wee have beene infourmed by you the Maiſter of the ſaid Courte that, by reaſon of the greate Difficulties that have beene founde by the Courte, uppon ſighte of Offices and Surveighes onelie to downe Compoſitions of Wardſhippes and Leaſes of Wardes Lands, with ſuch equalitie and moderation betweene Us and our Subjects as were juſte and reaſonable, and that throughe wante of due Information in that behaulfe much of the Profit that might have beene raiſed for Us have beene diverted to divers Suitors and Committees, whoe by obſcureing the trueth of the Wards Eſtates, and by miſinfourmyng of the Courte therein, have reaped greater Profit than was intended, if you could by ordinarie meanes have come by the Knowledge of their Values, ſoe as both Wee have received leſſe than otherwiſe Wee ſhould have done, and the Wardes found little Eaſe in manye Caſes;

Wherefore,

For the preventing of theis and the like Inconveniencies, and to the end that our loving Subjects maie ſtand aſſured that Wee deſire nothing more than that their Children and their Lands, that ſhall fall unto Us by reaſon of Wardſhipps, mighte after their Deceaſe be committed to their neareſt and truſtieſt Friends, or to ſuch as they by Will or otherwiſe ſhall commytte the Charge unto uppon ſuch valuable Conſiderations as are juſt and reaſonable. And to the intente that the Parents and Aunceſtors maie departe in greater Peace in hope of this our gracious Favour, and their Friends maie ſee their Children broughte up in Pietie and Learning, and maie take ſuch care as is fit for the Preſervation of their Inheritaunce if they will ſeeke the ſame in tyme, and by ſuch means as are fitte and conveniente.

Wee have thought good hereby to require you the Maiſter and Councell of our ſaid Court, and the Maiſter and Councell of the ſaid Court for the tyme being, that, in diſpoſeing and committing of the Cuſtodie of the Bodies and Landes of ſuch our Wardes, whoſe Aunceſtors have deceaſed ſince Januarie laſt paſt, or ſhall dye from and after the Date of theis Preſents, and of ſuch Ideotts and Lunatickes and their Eſtates as ſhall fall unto Us from henceforthe, you ſtrictlie and carefullie obſerve theis our Directions followinge.

Firste, That noe Graunt or Promiſe be made of the Cuſtodie of the Bodie of anye Warde, nor anye Compoſition for the ſame, until the ende of one Monthe nexte after the Deathe of the Aunceſtor of the Ward, to the end that that the neereſt and truſtieſte Friendes of the Aunceſtor, or other Perſon nomynated by the Aunceſtor in that behalfe, maie in the meane time become Suitors for the ſame, amongeſt whome choyce maie be made of the beſt and fitteſt; alſoe you ſhall doe your beſte indeavoures to infourme youre ſelves as perticulerlie as you maie by Commiſſion ſurveigh or otherwiſe of the Wardes of Eſtates, as well of his Inheritaunce as of his Goods and Chattells, and of the deceaſed Aunceſtor, and of all other due Circumſtances conſiderable, to the ende the Compoſitions maie be ſuch as maie ſtande both withe our reaſonable Profit, and with the abilitie of the Heires Eſtate; that all Sales and Compoſitions for the Wardeſhipps of the Bodies and Leaſes of Landes be made by the Maiſter of the ſaide Courte, and by ſuch Perſons as are authorized by Statute in that behaulfe;

Nevertheles the Surveighors of the Liveryes, the Atturney of the Wardes, Receivor and Auditors, or anye foure of them, withoute the Maiſter, maie treate with anye to bringe the ſaide Wardſhipps and Leaſes to a Price openlie in the Councell Chamber of the Courte of Wardes, and acquainte the Maiſter therewith, in whoſe Power it ſhall be to allowe or diſallowe of the ſame, according to the ſaide Statute that noe Wardſhipps of the Bodie or Lande ſhall be given or granted to anie Perſon or at his Suit in waie of Rewarde or Benifitt, but the beſt Price and Valewe that ſhall be offered ſhall be taken to our Uſe, ſoe as always the neereſt and truſtieſt Freindes, or the Perſons nominated by the Aunceſtor, they ſeeking the ſame in tyme convenient, as aforeſaid, and makeinge fitte Offer for it, be preferred and Conſideration had of the Wardes Eſtate, and of all due Circumſtances conſiderable in ſuch caſes;

That Leaſes of Wardes Landes be made withoute a Fyne for the beſte improved yearelie Rente ſhall be offered, Conſideration being had of all due Cawtions, as aforeſaide;

That fellable Woodes and Fines of Coppieholds of Inheritaunce be alſoe reaſonably valewed and demyſed with the Landes for the beſt yearlie Rente, as aforeſaid, with Proviſion for fellable Woops;

That the Leaſees fell them by fitt Portions;

That Fines of Coppieholds for Lives be made and raiſed to our Uſe, when and as often as the Courte ſhall thinke good, by certaine perticuler Commiſſioners to be appointed by the Maiſter and Councell of our ſaid Courte, which Commiſſioners ſhall be charged to make the beſte of ſuch Coppieholds to be graunted, and truelie to be aunſweared unto Us, into our Receipte of our ſaid Courte, of all ſuch Sommes withoute Frawde or Covyn as by them ſhall have beene received, due Conſideration being had of their Paynes and Expences;

That all Petitions for Compoſitions of Wardſhipps and Leaſes be preſented and ordered at the Councell Chamber of the Courte of Wards, at the ſeverall Sittings for the Wards.

That everie ſuch Petition doe expreſſe the ſeveral Counties wherein the Aunceſtor died ſeized of Lands.

That the Rate and Somme agreed uppon, by the Commiſſioners for the Compoſitions of anye Warde or Leaſe, doe ſtand and be not abated in the Compoſition, neither in the Fyne nor Rente.

That noe Office be founde within the Yeare after the Deathe of the Aunceſtor againſt Us, or a Meane Tenure of Us, not beinge Knightes Service for any Warde within Age, untill the Feodarie or Eſcheator doe firſte acquainte the Courte for further Dyrections therein which the Feodarie is enjoyned to doe with all convenyente Expedition.

That not onlie everie Committee and Leaſſee, but every Aſſignee of anye Committee or Leaſſee, ſhall take the Oathe; videlicet &c. and for that purpoſe everie Committee and Leaſſee and Aſſignee ſhall be ſworne, wether he taketh it to his own Uſe or to the Uſe of anye other; to th'ende they may bothe take the Oathe in the Countrie, ſoe that the Oathe maie be trulie and fullie taken by the Committees Leaſſees and Aſſignees, and the Parties committing truſte to anye other.

That everie Feodarie and Eſcheator, before the thirde returne of everie Tearme, ſhall certifie into the Courte a Note of all Offices founde in the Vacation nexte before, and wether a Tenure be founde for Us in Capite or by the Knightes Service, and the Names of the Aunceſtors and Heyre and his Agez;

That the Oathe be taken or by thoſe that are Committees or Leaſſees uppon neglecte in hæc verba.

I A.B. doe ſweare, that neither I nor anye other to my knowledge, or as I believe, or have hearde, have or hathe taken any Courſe, or uſed any Practice or Combynation, directlie or indirectlie, by my ſelfe or any other, with anye Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, to ſtay or hinder the Proſecution of or for the Compoſition for the Wardſhippe of the Bodie of D. C. or the Leaſe of anye of the ſaide Wardes Landes, with anye purpoſe or intente whatſoever that the ſaid Wardſhippe and Leaſe, or either of them, by ſuch Neglecte and Default of Proſecution might come to mee, or to anye other to my uſe, or by my Meanes or Procurement, or to my Knowledge.

SOE HELPE MEE GOD.

That you obſerve the like Rules, Orders, Cawtions and Conſiderations, as well for our Profit as otherwiſe, in committing and diſpoſing of the Lands, fellable Woods, Fynes of Coppyhoulds of Inheritaunce, or for Lives of Ideots, as by theis Preſents are preſcribed for Wards reſpectivelie, according to the nature of the caſe, giving to their Friends that will take charge of them ſuche competent Allowance for their Maintenaunce out of the Eſtate of ſuch Ideots as the ſame will beare;

But touching Lunatickes, let noe Compoſition be taken for the committinge of them and their Eſtates, but let ſuch care be had therein as they be freelie committed to their beſte and neareſt Friendes that canne receive noe Benefitte by their Deathe, and the Committees bounde to aunſwere not onlie the Values founde by Office, but the verie juſte Value of their Eſtates uppon accompte for the Benefitte of ſuch Lunaticks if he recover, or of the nexte Heire, due regard beinge hadd to the Paynes and Chardges of ſuche Committees in keepynge maynteyninge governinge and curinge of the ſaide diſtracted Perſons.

And becauſe oure purpoſe in this Courſe which nowe is taken ys to rayſe, with as little Greevaunce as maie bee to our lovinge Subjects that reaſonable Benefitte which oughte to come unto Us by the Mariages of our Wards, and by the Leſſees of their Landes, whereof a greate parte hathe bene diverted by the Grauntes to Commitees and otherwiſe, Wee doe hereby declare that it is not our meaninge to chaunge the courſe that hathe beene formerlie helde and uſed in fyndeinge Offices, nor to preſſe the rayſinge or ymproveinge of anye Values or Rates in anye Inquiſitions, neither will Wee have the Rentes whiche ſhall be reſerved uppon ſuch Leaſes, nor any ſuch Certificates Infourmations or Inſtructions as ſhall by any meanes bee given or appeare of the Values of ſuche Wardes Lands or Eſtates, to be tranſcripted or tranſmitted to anye other Courte, Office, Place or Perſon, admitted or uſed as Preſidente Evidence or Inducement to charge our Subjectes in anye other Payments nowe or hereafter anſwerable unto Us our Heires or Succeſſors, or for any other Cauſe.

And furthermore Wee doe hereby requyre and authorize you that you give order that everie Perſon that ſhall proſecute ſuche Compoſition for the Cuſtodie of a Warde Ideot or Lunaticque, or Leaſe of their Land or other Eſtate, ſhall before any Graunte of the Bodie or Leaſe of the Lands be delivered unto him under the Seale of our ſaide Courte, take his Corporall Oath in open Courte, or by Commiſſion, if the caſe ſhall ſoe require, before three Commiſſioners at the leaſt, whereof one to be a Juſtice of Peace, to be certified and returned into the Court before the Deliverie of ſuch Graunte or Leaſe in manner and forme following; videlicet,

I A. B. doe ſweare, that neither I, nor anie other to my knowledge have, or hath given or promiſed, procured or conſented to give or be given anye Guifte or Rewarde, directlie or indirectlie, unto any Officer or Officers of the Courte of Wardes and Liveries, or to any other Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, for procuringe any Prefermente to compounde before another, or for mitigation in the Price of Paymente in any Compoſition or Contracte made or to be made for the Wardſhippe of the Bodye of J. S. his Majeſtie's Warde, and the Leaſe of anye of the ſayde Wardes Landes, or for anye of them, or for the mittigation of the yearelie Value of the Lands of anye ſuche Warde, and that I will not give, nor anye with mye conſent ſhall give, or conſent to be given, anye Guifte or Rewarde, directlie or indirectlie, for the Cauſes aforeſaide or anye of them.

SOE HELP MEE GOD.

Nevertheles Wee are well pleaſed and contented, that if any Wardſhipp Leaſe of Land Meane Rates before or after full Age, nowe bee or hereafter ſhall be concealed from Us, or if noe Suite ſhall be made within one Yeare nexte after our Tennauntes Deathe for ſuch Wardſhippe or Leaſe; or if, uppon be found againſt Us, or the fynding of the Office unneceſſarilie protracted after the Year expired, without juſt cauſe allowed by the Courte; that, in ſuch caſes, the Maiſter may admitte any fitte Perſon whatſoever that ſhall make offer to diſcover our Rights ſo concealed or ſought to be concealed or ſuppreſſed, uppon good matter of proofe ſhewed for Us and approved by the Courtes to proſecute the fynding of an Office, and to paſſe the ſaid Wardeſhip Leaſe or Mean Rates, without reſtrayning or bynding the ſaid Courte or the Partie proſecuting, according to the directions above mentioned; but that the Maiſter of the ſaid Court maie, according to the Parties Travell, Expences, Adventure and Service donne unto Us, reward him, by graunt of ſuch Wardſhip Leaſe or meane Rates in ſuch ſort as others maie be incouraged to imploy themſelves in the like Service; and all Deviſes and Practizes to deceive and defraud Us of our due and juſt right be better prevented, any thing in theis our Inſtructions and Directions to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Provided alwaies, and We do hereby declare it to be our Will and Pleaſure that, where it ſhall appear to you that nither Wee nor our Progenitors have enjoyed any benifit by Wardſhip, Liverie, Primer Seiſyn, Releiſe, Reſpite of Homage, Fynes or Meane Rates of anye Landes within the ſpace of threeſcore Years laſt paſt, where ſuch Benifitte oughte to have come to the Crowne, if ſuch Tenure had bene acknowledged, in ſuch caſe We are pleaſed to give to you Power and Authoritie to remit and releaſe all ſuch Benifit and Profit as have or ought to have accrewed unto Us or our Progenitors by reaſon of any ſuch Tenure, allowing to ſuch Perſons as have proſecuted in our behalfe ſuch part thereof as ſhall ſeem good in your Diſcretion, not exceeding a thirde parte of the whole, as the ſame ſhall be found by Inquiſition, ſaving to Us our Heires and Succeſſors the Right and Inheritaunce of our Tenure, and ſaveing our Prerogative and Benifit and Profit of ſuch Tenures, of Us or our Progenitors, as doe expreſſelie appeare by matter of Record; and alſoe ſuch as have been created or otherwiſe come unto Us within the ſame time of threeſcore Yeares;

And nowe, as Wee have ſoe ſufficientlie directed you as Wee make litle doubte but you will be carefull of our Profit in the execution of your place, ſoe neverthelеſſe Wee let you knowe heereby that, ſeeing our owne Judgment tells Us that there maie fall into your Conſiderations manye Circumſtaunces which muſt guide you in aſſeſſing the Fynes for the Marriages of our Wardes and renting of their Lands, ſome ariſing either oute of the broken Eſtate of the deceaſed, want of Proviſion for his Wife, his greate Charge of Children unprovided for, Infirmitie or Tendernes of the Heire, Uncertaintie of the Title or Greatnes of Incombrances uppon the Land, ſoe as ſome Heire that maie in reſpecte of his Degree or Blood or Liveing in opynion of the Worlde be judged to deſerve a greater Rente or Fyne then ſome other Perſon more obſcure, maie yet in regarde of the Cauſes above mentioned, or ſome other of like ſort be leſſe fit to have any great Charge laide uppon him, Wee doe therefore, notwithſtanding anye thing conteyned in theis our Inſtructions, give you full libertie that as theis or anye other the like conſiderations ſhall offer themſelves unto you, you maie uſe that good Diſcretion and Conſcience which is fit in mitigating or abateing the Fynes or Rentes upon the ſaid Grauntes or Leaſes to the Releife of ſuch Neceſſities, ſoe alwaies as care be taken that by anye ſuch pretences that Profitte, which ſhoulde accrewe to Us, be not diverted to anye others that ſhall ſeek to drawe to themſelves a private Benifitte oute of this our gratious Care and Conſideration.

A.D. 1618. 15 Jac. I.

Laſtlie, our Will and Pleaſure is, and Wee doe hereby directe and authorize you the Maiſter and Councell of the ſaid Court, and the Maiſter and Councell of the ſame for the time beinge, that, with the Advice of our Judges Aſſiſtaunts of our ſaid Courte, you diligentlie examine ſearche oute and refourme all fraudulente Deviſes and Practiſes deviſed or to be deviſed and put in ure to deceive or defeate Us of our Wardſhips, or Leaſes of our Wards Landes, or of any juſte Due or juſte Benifitte belonging unto Us by reaſon of our Tenures.

A.D.1618. Pat. 15. J. 1. p. 15. n. 12.

JAMES, by the Grace of God, King of England Scotland Fraunce and Irelande Defendor of the Faithe &c. to all Juſtices of Peace, Mayors, Sheriffs, Bailiffes, Conſtables, and all Officers Miniſters and Subjectes of Us our Heires and Succeſſors to whome it ſhall or maie appertaine, and to everie of them, Greetinge.

Whereas Wee are informed that amongſte forraine Nations there are faire curious and artificiall Deſcriptions Plotts and Mappes made and ſet forth of their principall Cities and Townes of greateſt Noat, which, being exactlie drawne out in Mettall and printed off, are diſperſed and ſent abroad into all partes, to the greate Honor and Renowne of thoſe Princes in whoſe Domynions they are; and that of our Cittie of London being the cheife and principall in this our Kingdome of England, there hath never been made or taken any true or perfecte Deſcription, but falſe and meane Draughts, cut out in Wood, and ſoe diſperſed abroade to the greate Diſparagemente and diſgrace of ſoe famous and Worthie a State.

And whereas our lovinge Subjecte Aron Rathborne Gentleman Practitioner in the Mathematiques hath a great deſire to take a perfecte Survaie, as well of the ſaid Cittie of London, as of divers other places within this our Kingdome of England hereafter mentioned, and to make ſuche exacte Plots Mappes and Deſcriptions thereof as hath not been hitherto performed by anie; and hathe humblie beſought Us that Wee would be graciouſlie pleaſed to graunte unto him our Royall Lycence and Priviledge (the want whereof as Wee are informed hath been the Cauſe that hitherto ſoe curious and lawdable a Work hath been neglected) as well for the ſole making and ſetting forth of ſuch Mappes and Plots, as of ſuche Deſcriptions and Books as hee ſhall deviſe or ſet forth in waie of relation of anie the Places hereafter mentioned within this our Realme and other our Domynions for ſome reaſonable tyme, to the end hee maie reape the Fruites of his Travell Charges and Expences to be ſuſteyned in and about the Premiſes.

Whereas, by the happie Unyon of the Kingdomes of England and Scotland in Subjection and Allegiaunce, by the Providence of Almightie God, under one imperiall Crowne in our Roiall Perſon, the Lawes or Uſages of the late Marches or Borders, inſtituted or tollerated while they ſtood ſeparate and devided under ſeverall Kinges for the Peace and Tranquilitie thereof, are utterlie fruſtrate and expyred, and yett manye of bothe Nations, dwelling neere the late Borders or Marches, doe contynue their former godles lawles and diſordered courſe of Life, whoe by the ordinarie and ſeparate Proceedings of either Countrie cannot, as the neceſſitye of the Cauſe requireth, be either ſoe ſpeedilie broughte to the Knowledge of God and Obedyence of Us and our Lawes, which Wee cheiflie deſyre; or being ſuch as will not be reclaymed cannot ſoe ſuddainelie cut off by the Sworde of Juſtice from infecting others, as by joyninge certaine of our loveing Subjects of bothe Nations in one Commiſſion for that purpoſe whome God hath alreadye conjoyned togither as Members of one Bodye under one Heade: And foraſmuch as one of the greateſt Cauſes of their Offences is hope of Impunitye, and the greateſt Motive of their Hope is, after Murders, Felonies, Ryotts, Rowtes, unlawfull Aſſemblies, and other greate Offences commytted in one Kingdome, to eſcape Puniſhmente by flying into the other, Wee, foraſmuche as the ſaid Lawes and Uſages of late Borders and Marches are nowe vaniſhed and aboliſhed, and for that it appertayneth unto our Kinglie Office to care and provide that all our loyall and obediente Subjects maye live in Peace and Tranquillity withoute feare of Robberie Rapyne and Spoile or Daunger of their Lives, and that Murderers Felons and other Delinquents maie be puniſhed accordinge to Our Lawes reſpectivelie in that behaulfe, Wee have therefore thought good to take awaie all ſubterfuge, and quenche all ſparkes of any hope of eſcape from Puniſhmente in ſuch as ſhall offend, to joyne together in one Commiſſion certaine of eache Nation for the Eſtabliſhmente and Preſervation of our Peace in thoſe Partes, and for the utter ſuppreſſing and preventinge of all ſuch exorbitant Offences and Diſorders, or elſe for the apprehending and ſending of ſuch Offendors as ſhall perſiſte in their Wickedneſs to the Country or Place where they offended, there to receive their condigne Puniſhmente for their Demeritts according to the Lawe and Juſtice reſpectively in that behalfe.

WHereas by our eſpeciall Commaundement there hath bene of late compiled in the Latine Tongue, by the Colledge of Phiſitions of London, a Booke intituled Pharmacopæia Londinenſis, preſcribinge and directinge Apothecaries the generall formes, as well of diſpenſinge and compounding of all ſorts of Medicines and Phiſicall Receipts, or Diſtillinge of Oyles and Waters and ſuch like Extractions, togither with the true Weights and and Meaſures wherby to make them, which heretofore have bene variouſly and differently compoſed and made according as Mens ſeverall Fancies have led them, to the great Danger of our Subjects in their Lives and Health:

And whereas, for the better Reformation of the Abuſes heretofore practized in compounding of Medicines, Wee thought fit to incorporate the Apothecaries of London into one Body; forbiddinge all others within London, or ſeaven Miles thereof, to put to ſale any Phiſicall Compoſitions except they were or ſhould be Members of the ſaid Company;

And whereas, through the great Care and Induſtry of the ſaid Colledge, the ſaid Pharmacopæia Londinenſis is now perfected and ready for the Preſſe, and is a Worke greatlye tendinge to the publick Good of our Subjects, and We myndinge that all Falſhood, Differences, Varieties and Incertayneties in makeinge or compoſinge of Medicines and diſtilling of Oyles or waters, hereafter be utterly taken away and aboliſhed, and that, in the tyme to come, the manner and forme preſcribed by the ſaide Booke ſhould be generally and ſoly practiſed by Apothecaries in their compoſitions of Medicines and Diſtillations of Waters, for all ſuche things as are therein named and preſcribed.

We therefore, deſirous in all things to provide for the comon Good of our Subjects, and intending to ſettle and eſtabliſhe the generall Uſe of the ſaide Booke in this Realme of England ſoe laboriouſly and exactly compoſed by the ſaid Colledge, doe hereby ſignifie and declare our Royall Will and Pleaſure to be, and doe hereby ſtraightly require, charge and command all and ſinguler Apothecaries, within this our Realme of England or the Domynions thereof, that they and every of them, ymmediately after the ſaid Pharmacopæia Londinenſis ſhall be printed and publiſhed, doe not compound or make any Medicine or Medicinall Receipt or Preſcription or diſtill any Oyle or Waters or other Extractions, that are or ſhall be in the ſaid Pharmacopæia Londinenſis mentioned and named, after the wayes or meanes preſcribed or directed by any other Bookes or Diſpenſatories whatſoever, but after the only manner and forme that is or ſhall be directed, preſcribed and ſett downe by the ſaid Booke, and according to the Weights and Meaſures that are or ſhall be therein lymitted, and not otherwiſe, except it ſhall be by the ſpeciall Direction or Preſcription of ſome learned Phiſition in that behalfe.

And further our expreſſe Will and Pleaſure is, and we doe hereby Straightly charge and command, that noe Perſon of any Art or Profeſſion other then Apothecaries, and ſuch as are or ſhall bee free of the ſaid Company, ſhall putt to ſale any phyſicall Compoſition preſcribed in the ſaide Booke, nor any other Medicine within our ſaid Citty of London, or ſeaven Miles compas therof, uppon payne of our high Diſpleaſure, and to incurr ſuch Penaltyes and Puniſhement as may be inflicted uppon Offenders herein for their Contempt or Neglect of this our Royall Commaundement; whereof in a caſe of this nature We ſhall be very ſenſible;

Willinge and commaunding alſoe hereby all Mayors, Sheriffes, Juſtices of Peace, Conſtables, Bayliffes, Headboroughes, and other our Officers and Miniſters, to be aidinge and furtheringe to thoſe unto whome it doth concerne in the due execution of this our Royall Pleaſure and Commaundement as they will anſweare the contrarye at ther uttermoſte Perrills.

Whereas divers Jeſuits, Seminary Prieſtes, and other Preiſtes or Perſons Eccleſiaſticall or Religious, made or ordayned according to the Order or Rites of the Romiſhe Church, ſince the begininge of the Raigne of our late deare Siſter Elizabeth late Queene of England, being corrupted and brought upp ſeditiouſly beyond the Seas or elſwhere, have afterwardes bene ſent into this our Realme, or imployed under cullour of Religion to withdrawe the Hartes of our loving Subjects from their Allegiance towardes Us, with whom notwithſtandinge Wee have not proceeded ſoe ſeverely as by our Lawes We might, and as their Demerits juſtly deſerved, hoping that in tyme they might ſee their unnatural and diſloyall Courſes and reforme themſelves;

And foraſmuch as We now underſtand that not onely manye of theſe Jeſuits, Semynary Preiſtes, and other Preiſtes and Perſons aboveſaid, being at large, but alſoe divers of them being in Priſon, deſiſte not, as much as in them lyeth, from the ſeduceing of divers and many of our Subjects, but alſoe do enter into divers Practizes againſt Us and our State, and now, thorough our Moderation and Clemency, are growne to ſoe greate Inſolency and Wilfulnes as, although ſome of them be impriſoned, yet they can hardly be kept in order;

And furthermore, underſtanding that divers other Jeſuits, Seminary Preiſts, and other Perſons aboveſaid, have come and daily doe come from the parts beyond the Seas into this our Realme of England and other our Domynions to the like intent, and to ſeeke, as much as in them lyeth, to ſowe Sedition and to ſtirr upp Rebellion within the ſame our Realmes and Dominions, and likewiſe that there be divers others, as well Wandering and Maſſing Preiſts:

In conſideration of all which eminent Dangers and Inconveniences, albeit by one general and free Conſent, as it were with one Voice, of our whole Parliament, repreſenting the whole Body of the Realme, it hath bene ordayned and enacted by Authority of the ſame, amongſt other things, that all and every the Statutes theretofore made in the Raigne of the late Queen, of famous Memory, Elizabeth againſt Jeſuits Seminary Preiſtes, and other Religious or Eccleſiaſtical Perſons aboveſaid, ſhoulde be put in due and exacte Execution, We nevertheles, contynuing our ſaid gratious Inclination towards them, deſireing if God ſo pleaſed their Converſion and Amendement, and repoſeing great Truſt and Confidence in you the ſaid Lords and others of our Privy Councell, do, for Us our Heirs and Succeſſors, give full Power Warrant and Authority, by vertue of theſe Preſents, unto you, or any ſix or more of you (whereof you the ſaid Lord Archbiſhoppe of Canterbury, Lord Chauncellor, Lord Treaſorer, Lord Privy Seal, or any of you of our Principall Secretaries to be twoe) from tyme to tyme, and at all tymes hereafter, by Writings under the Hands of you, or any ſuch ſixe or more of you as is aforeſaid, to exile and baniſh out of and from theſe our Realmes of England and Ireland, and all other our Domynions belonging to the ſame, ſoe many Jeſuits, Seminary Prieſts, and other Religious or Eccleſiaſtical Perſons aboveſaid, as nowe are in any ſort indicted convicted or attaynted of or for any High Treaſon, or other Offence whatſoever, and alſoe all other Jeſuits, Semynary Prieſtes, and Perſons Eccleſiaſticall or Religious aboveſaid, nowe being in Priſon, and alſoe all Jeſuits, Semynary Prieſts, and other Perſons Eccleſiaſtical or Religious aboveſaid, that now are, or hereafter ſhall come or be within the Realme of England, whether they ſhall happen to be in Priſon or out of Priſon, as to you, or any ſixe or more of you (whereof you the ſaid Lord Archbiſhopp of Canterbury, Lord Chauncellor, Lord Treaſorer, Lord Privy Seale or one of you of our Principall Secretaries to be two) ſhall be thought convenient or fit to be ſoe dealt withall, and that to be ſoe done either generally or particularly, and in ſuch order manner and form, and under ſuch Conditions Preſcriptions and Limitations as you, or any ſuch ſix or more of you as is aforeſaid, ſhall ſet down in Writing, ſigned with the hands of you, or any ſuch ſix or more of you as is aforeſaid, according to the ſeveral qualities of their Conditions and Offences.

And we doe further ſignify and declare that our Pleaſure is, and We doe by theſe Preſents graunt, that every ſuch Perſon and Perſons, which ſhall be ſoe thought fit and convenient, as is aforeſaid, to be exiled or baniſhed, ſhall, by force of theſe Preſents, be exiled and baniſhed in ſuch manner and forme, and under ſuch Conditions Preſcriptions or Limitations as you, or any ſuch ſix or more of you as is aforeſaid, ſhall ſet downe in Writing as is aforeſaid.

And We doe further give full Power and Authority by theſe Preſents unto you, or any ſix or more of you (whereof you the ſaid Lord Archbiſhopp of Canterbury, Lord Chauncellor, Lord Treaſorer, Lord Privy Seal, or one of you of our Principall Secretaries to be twoe) to ſignify and declare in Writing, ſigned as is aforeſaid, to each and every Gaoler or Keeper of Priſons under whoſe Cuſtody any ſuch Perſon or Perſons, ſoe to be exiled or baniſhed, now is or hereafter ſhall be, that he ſhall deliver out of his Cuſtody the ſame Perſon or Perſons in ſuch order manner and forme as you, or any ſuch ſixe or more of you as is aforeſaid, ſhall thereby preſcribe and appoynt.

A.D.1618. 16 Jac. 1.

And our Will and Pleaſure is, and We doe by theſe Preſents graunt, that every ſuch Signification Declaration and Direction in that Behalfe ſhall be, by force of theſe Preſents, a ſufficient Warrant and Diſcharge to every ſuch Gaoler and Keeper of Priſon for the Delivery of every ſuch Perſon out of his Cuſtody, ſoe it be done according to ſuch Signification and Direction as is aforeſaid.

And our Will and Pleaſure is, and We do by theſe Preſents graunt unto you, and every of you, that theſe Preſents, or the Inrollment Exemplification or Duplicate thereof ſhall be, as well unto you and every of you, as to all other our Juſtices Miniſters and Officers, to whome by the order and Direction of you, or any ſuch ſixe or more of you as is aforeſaid, in manner and forme aforeſaid, or otherwiſe it ſhall or may appertayne, a ſufficient Warrant and Diſcharge for the doeing executinge and performinge of every matter and thinge in any wiſe aboute touchinge or concerninge the Premiſſes or any of them, in ſuch order and ſorte as by you, or any ſuch ſixe or more of you as is aforeſaid, ſhall be ordered ſet downe or preſcribed; and We doe will and ſtraightly charge and commaund, by theſe Preſents, all our Judges, Juſtices, Sheriffs, Lieutenants, Bayliffs, Conſtables of any our Caſtles, Gaolers, Miniſters and Officers, and all other our Subjects to whome it ſhall apperteyne, that they and every of them be aideing and aſſiſtinge to the due performance and execution of the Premiſſes, and that they and every of them do allowe of and performe the ſame in every reſpect according to the purport effect and true meaning of theſe Preſents; and theſe Preſents, or the Exemplification Inrollment or Duplicate thereof, ſhall likewiſe be unto them and every of them a ſufficient Warrant and Diſcharge, without any other Warrant from Us our Heires or Succeſſors in that behalfe in any wiſe to be had or obteyned.

And our Will and Pleaſure is, and We doe by theſe Preſents ſtreightly charge and comaund that a true Note and Certificate be from tyme to tyme made and certified, by one of our Principall Secretaries for the tyme being, of and concerninge all your Doeings and Proceedings in that Behalfe, into our Courte comonly called the King's Bench, there to be entred and inrolled of Record, by the Clarke of our Crown

Greeting.

Whereas Wee,

By our Letters Patents under our Greate Seale of England, beareing Date at Weſtminſter the ninth Day of Februarie in the twelveth Yeare of our Raigne of England Fraunce and Ireland, and of Scotland the eight and fortith, directed to, our right truſtie and right welbeloved Coſins and Councellors,

And to our truſtie and right welbeloved Councellor,

Sir Fulke Grevill Knight Chauncellor and Undertreſurer of our Exchequer,

Did requier and authoriſe them, or any three or more of them (whereof our High Treaſurer of England to be one) to make a newe Inventorie or Booke of remaine of our Jewells then remayning in our ſecrete Jewell Houſe in the Tower of London, and to examine the ſaid

A.D. 1618. 16 Jac. 1.

ſaid remayne with the former Bookes thereof, and to make newe Bookes to be ſigned by Us, and did alſoe thereby will and require that, after they had ſet downe all our Jewells then remaining in the ſecrete Jewell Houſe, they ſhould alſo in the ſame Books likewiſe continue and ſet downe al ſuch Jewells of the ſame ſecret Jewell Houſe as have bene by Us, or by our Commaundement at any tyme heretofore, delivered to our deere Wife the Queene, mentioning the ſame to be remayning in her Cuſtody and Poſſeſſion :

Nowe knowe yee that,

As well in regarde of ſome Alterations of our ſaid Jewells in our ſecrete Jewell Houſe in the Tower of London, as of other Diſpoſalls of ſome part thereof by our expreſs Pleaſure and Commandment, We hould it very meet and fitting to have a new Remain taken of all our Jewells now remayning in our ſecret Jewell Houſe aforeſaid, after ſuch Alterations and Diſpoſings as is before mentioned, and that new Books may be made thereof and examined with the ould Books formerly made, to the end, the ſame being perfected and ſubſcribed by Us, and We certefied of the ſaid Alterations and Diſpoſals, the ſaid ould Books may no longer be of force to charge our Commiſſioners thereby,

Our Will therefore and Pleaſure is, and We do by theis Preſents requier and authoriſe you, or any fower or more of you, preſently to begin with makeing a new Inventorie or Book of Remayn of the Jewells now remayning in our ſaid ſecret Jewell Houſe in the Tower of London, examining the ſame Remayn with the former Books made thereof by our former Warrant under our Great Seal of England, bearing Date the ſaid ninth Day of Februarie in the twelveth Year of our Raigne of England France and Ireland, and of Scotland the eight and Fortieth ; and thereoſe to make new Books of the ſaid Remain now to be taken to be brought unto Us, and to be ſigned by Us, in which ſaid Books We alſo hold it fitting, as We did in the former, that you likewiſe continue and ſet down all thoſe Jewells of the ſame ſecret Jewell Houſe as have bene by Us, or by our Commandment, at any tyme heretofore before the Date of theiſe Preſents delivered to our deere Wife the Queene, mentioning the ſame to be remayning in her Cuſtodie and Poſſeſſion.

A.D. 1618. 16 Jac. 1.

And whereas alſoe, our truſtie and right welbeloved Councellor, James Lord Hay now Maſter of our Wardrobe and Gentleman of our Robes, hath at ſondrye tymes heretofore received ſondrie our Jewells, as well of our ſaid ſecret Jewell Houſe to be in readines for our uſe and wearing at Feſtival Times, and other ways when our Pleaſure was to call for the ſame, as alſoe ſondrie other our Jewells for our like uſe and weareing, being noe part nor any parcell of the charge of our Jewells of our ſaid ſecrete Jewell Houſe in the Tower of London, but remayning with him and in his Charge as Gentleman of our Robes, or Maſter of our Great Wardrobe, and which have bene diſpoſed away by our Commandment, and are not now in his Cuſtody ; We thinking alſo fit and neceſſarie that a like Remayn might be taken of all the ſaid ſeverall kindes of Jewells remayning in his Cuſtodie, We do hereby alſo requier and authoriſe you, or any fower or more of you as aforeſaid, to take the Remayn of all the ſaid Jewells committed to his Cuſtodie; and to examine what is become of them, and how and in what manner the ſame have bene diſpoſed of, and to cauſe a perfite Book of the ſaid Jewells remayning to be made and preſented unto Us, and alſo to certify unto Us in Writeing how thoſe are wanting (if any ſuch be) have bene diſpoſed of, to the end that, as well he the ſaid Lord Hay, as the commiſſioners for our ſecret Jewells of our ſaid ſecret Jewell Houſe, may be diſchardged as is meete and convenient reſpectively of all ſuch as have bene diſpoſed by Us or by our Commaundement; and this our Commiſſion ſhall be unto you, or any fower or more of you for the doeing and performing of all and ſinguler the Premiſſes a ſufficient Warrant and Diſchardge in that behalfe.

JAMES, by the Grace of God &c. to all to whom theſe Preſents ſhall come, Greeting.

Whereas our welbeloved Subject John Gilbert, through his greate Induſtrie Travaile and Charge in forraigne Kingdomes and Countries, hath attayned invented and founde out a certaine new Engine or Inſtrument, called or termed a Water Plough, for the taking upp of Sand, Gravell, Shelves Banckes out of the River of Thames, and other Havens, Harbors, Rivers or Waters, wherewith they are choaked, for the freer Paſſage and Safety of Shipps and other Veſſells; and whereas our ſaid Subject hath, at his like Induſtrie Travaile and Charges, invented another Engine or Inſtrument for the raiſing of Waters in a greater quantitie, and to a greater height, then heretofore hath bin knowne or practiſed in theſe our Realmes; which ſaid Engin for rayſing of Waters is to be moved and driven either by ſome Current or Streame of Water, or, for want thereof, by ſtrength of Horſes, and is very neceſſarye for the drawing and draining of Coal Pits and other Mines.

And whereas it is ſuppoſed, that the ſaid ſeveral Engines are the proper Invention of the ſaid John Gilbert, and are likely to prove of good and neceſſary uſe for the Service and Benifit of this our Realme:

Know yee therefore that Wee,

Tendring the common Good and Benifit that may redounde hereby to our ſaid Realme and Subjects, and intending to reward and recompence the Induſtrie Travell and Charges of the ſaid John Gilbert, beſtowed and expended in and about the inveſtigation and fynding out of the ſaid Inventions Engins or Inſtruments above mentioned; and the better to encourage other of our Subjects in ſuch lawfull and commendable Labours and Indeavours as may tend to good Uſe and Service in this our Realme, without juſt cauſe of Greivance to anie our Subjects, at the humble Petition of the ſaid John Gilbert, and in conſideration of the yerelie Rent in and by theſe Preſents reſerved and payable to Us our Heires and Succeſſors,

Of our eſpecial Grace, certain Knowledge and meere Motion, have given and graunted, and, by theſe Preſents, for Us our Heirs and Succeſſors, doe give and graunte full and ſole Licence, Power, Priviledge and Authoritie unto the ſaid John Gilbert his Executors Adminiſtrators and Aſſignes, that he the ſaid John Gilbert his Executors Adminiſtrators and Aſſignes onely, and none other, by him or themſelves, or by his or their Deputies, Servants, Workemen or Agents, at all tymes and from tyme to tyme, for and during the term of yeres hereafter in and by theſe Preſents graunted, ſhall and may, within this our Realme of England and Dominion of Wales, freelie and and lawfully make, forme, erect and frame the ſaid Engine or Inſtrument called a Water Plough, or by what other name the ſame ſhall be called, or ſoe many of the ſame as he ſhall think meete, for taking upp of Sandes, Gravell, Shelves or Bankes out of the ſaid River of Thames, and other Havens Harbors or Rivers, wherewith they are hindered or choked; and alſoe the ſaid other Engine or Inſtrument to be moved or driven by ſome Current of Water, or in default thereof by the Strength and Labor of Horſes, for the rayſing of Waters and drawing and drayning of Colepitts and other Mynes herein before mentioned: And the ſame Engines and Inſtruments, ſo to be made formed and framed, ſhall and may lawfullie and ſolye exerciſe, uſe and ymploye to and for the intents and purpoſes aforeſaid within our ſaid Realme of England and Dominion of Wales, and in everie part thereof, to and for his and there moſt Benifit Profit and Advantage; and the ſaid Sands, Gravell, Banks or Shelves, by the uſe and helpe of the ſaid Water Plough ſo to be taken upp as aforeſaid, to land and lay on Shore, or otherwiſe to diſpoſe of at his or their Will and Pleaſure, and for his and there beſt Benifit and Advantage.

And that he the ſaid John Gilbert his Executors Adminiſtrators and Aſſignes, by him or themſelves, or his or there Deputies, Servants, Workemen or Agents, after the ſame ſeverall Engines and Inſtruments or either of them ſhall be by him or them made formed and framed as aforeſaid, ſhall and may lawfullie for his and their Benifit, and at his and their Wills and Pleaſures, within this our Realme of England and Dominion of Wales, graunte or diſpoſe of the ſame to anie Perſon or Perſons that ſhall bee deſirous or willing to have or uſe the ſame for anie the intents and purpoſes aforeſaid.

And,

To the ende that the ſaid John Gilbert his Executors Adminiſtrators and Aſſignes may have and enjoye the full and ſole Benifit and Commoditie of the making, forming, framing, uſing and diſpoſing of the ſaid ſeverall Engines or Inſtruments, by him deviſed and invented as aforeſaid, within our ſaid Realme of England and Dominion of Wales for the terme of Yeres by theis Preſents graunted, as a Recompence which We intend the ſaid John Gilbert for his Labor Induſtry and Charge expended and imployed in and about the Attaynement of the Premiſſes:

To have, hold, uſe, exerciſe and enjoye all and everie the ſaid Licenſes, Powers, Priviledges and Authorities, Benefits, Profits and other the Premiſſes, unto the ſaid John Gilbert his Executors Adminiſtrators and Aſſignes, from the Date of theſe Preſentes for and during the terme, and unto the ful ende and terme of one and twentie Yeres from thence next enſuing fullie to bee compleate and ended;

A.D. 1618.
Pat. 16. J. I. p. I. dorſ.

WHereas We, uppon conſideration of the great Inconveniences daily ariſeinge by the multitude of new Buildings, from tyme to tyme erected, in and nere our Citty of London, and out of the tender Care we have of the Welfare of our loving Subjects, have publiſhed ſundry our former Proclamations, as well for reſtrayninge of newe Erections not meete to be tolerated, as for preſcribing a Forme of Building in caſes where the ſame might without Inconvenience be permitted; and yet there hath not enſued thereupon ſuch Reformation as our Care might expect: But the exceſſe of newe Buildings and Erections hath daily more and more encreaſed, and is ſtill like ſo to do; whereby, and by the immoderate Confluence of People thither, our ſaid Citty, and the Places adjoyning, are and daily will be more and more peſtred, all Victualls and other Proviſion endeared, Malefactors incouraged, the Citty, and Parts adjoining, for Vaſtnes thereof, being not with any ordinary Care or Proviſion of Officers to be governed, the health of our Subjects endangered, and other parts of our Realme unpeopled, which Inconveniences have grown to this height partly by neglect of our Directions in that behalfe, and partly by the Abuſe of ſundry Licenſes, Tolerations and Diſpenſations, ſome of which have bene graunted by others without ſufficient Warrant or Authority from Us, and others, which have been graunted by Us, are not only defective in Lawe, both in reſpect of the misobteyning of the ſame uppon untrue Suggeſtions and otherwiſe, but alſoe in the execution thereof have been ſo farr abuſed and ſtreyned beyond our intention and all moderate bounds, that, in our princely Care and Zeale to the good of our People, We may not omitt to uſe all lawfull meanes for a due reformation of theſe ſoe greate Inconveniences;

And therefore, it being conſonant to Lawe uppon ſoe juſt Grounds to revoake and make voide all the ſaid Licences, We do hereby ſignify and declare our Will and Pleaſure to revoake and determyne, and doe hereby, as much as in Us lyeth, from henceforth revoake and determyne all and ſingular Licences made or graunted for the erecting building or ſetting upp any Houſes or Buildings within our ſaid City of London, or within twoe Myles of any the Gates of the ſaid Citty, contrary to our intention herein expreſſed;

And we doe hereby charge and commaund that noe Perſon or Perſons whatſoever ſhall, at any time hereafter, preſume to erect or build any manner of Houſe or building whatſoever within our ſaid Citty of London, or within twoe Miles of any the Gates of the ſame Citty, either within Liberties as without, by force of any ſuch Lycence revoaked, or by any other cullor or pretext whatſoever, except the ſame be uppon an ould Foundation of an Houſe or building erected and finiſhed before the Feaſt of Saint Michaell th'Archangell in the thirteenth Yere of our Raigne over this our Realme of England, nor to erect any Dwelling Houſe uppon the Foundation of any Barne, Stable, Shed, or other building not formerly uſed for Habitation; But that they and every of them doe, from henceforth, utterly ſurceaſe and deſiſt from all manner of Erections and Buildings whatſoever to be made, except they be uppon ould Foundations as aforeſaid, which We will not ſhall be exceeded or inlarged in the ſetting upp of ſuch new Building:

And further, that all and every Perſon and Perſons which, at any tyme hereafter, ſhall erect build or ſett upp within any the Limitts Places or Precincts aforeſaid, any manner of Houſes or other Buildings whatſoever, ſhall make and build the ſame of ſuch height, and in ſuch manner and forme as herein is expreſſed;

That is to ſay,

Every whole Story of and in ſuch Houſes and Buildings, and all and every the Roomes of ſuch whole Story ſhall be of the height of ten Foote of aſſiſſe at the leaſt, and every halfe Story of and in ſuch Houſes and Buildings ſhall be of the height of ſeaven Foote and a halfe of aſſiſe at the leaſt; and that the Forefront and utter Walles and Windows thereof ſhall be of Brick, or of Brick and Stone; and if the ſaid Building do not exceede twoe Stories in height, then the Walles thereof ſhall be of the thickneſs of one Brick and halfe a Brick Length from the Ground unto the uppermoſt parte of the ſaid Walles; and where the Building ſhall be above height of twoe Stories, the Walles of the firſt Story ſhall be of the thicknes of twoe Bricks length, and from thence unto the uppermoſt part of the Wall of the thicknes of one Brick and half a Brick's length; and that in building of the ſaid Houſes there ſhall be noe Jutties or juttinge Windows either upon Tymber Joyſts or otherwiſe, but the Walls to go direct and ſtreight upwards; and, att the ſetting of a Water-table to be made alſoe, the Lights in the Windowes of every whole Story to be of more height then breadth, to the end there may be a ſufficient peece of Bricke betweene the Windowes for Strength; and likewiſe the Windowes of every half Story to be made ſquare every way or neere thereabouts: And laſtly, that all Shopps in every principall Streete of Trade to be made with Pillaſters of hard Stone or Brick cutt in Wedges archwiſe, uppon payne that all Perſons directly or indirectly neglecting or diſobeying this our Proclamation, or doing any thing contrary to the tenor thereof or of any part thereof, ſhall endure and abide ſuch Cenſure in our high Court of Starchamber as ſhall be adjudged againſt them for their Offences, and as Contemners of our Royall Comaundment.

And We doe alſoe ſtraightly charge and comaund all and ſinguler Mayors, Sheriffs, Juſtices of Peace, and all other our Officers and Miniſters, that they and every of them uſe all Diligence to ſee the Premiſſes well and duly performed, and doe by all lawfull waies and meanes hinder and reſtraine all Proceedings and Attempts to the contrary of our Pleaſure herein declared; and if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall, by cullour of any ſuch Licence, Tolleration or Diſpenſation as aforeſaid, doe or attempt anye thinge contrary to this our Proclamation, the ſaid Maiors, Sherifs, Juſtices of Peace, and other our Officers and Miniſters, ſhall nevertheles proceede in the execution of this our Royall Commaundement untill, upon due Examination of the Validity of the ſame Licences, Tollerations or Diſpenſations, they ſhall receive other Direction from Us or our Privy Councell.

De Proclamatione concernente Legatum Hiſpaniæ.

A.D.1618. Pat. 16. J. 1. p. 1. dorſ.

WHereas We have been moved, and with much inſtance ſolicited by the Miniſters of our deare Brother the King of Spaine, to pardon and remit unto the Offendors in that outragious and ſeditious Aſſaulte which was made upon the late Spaniſh Ambaſſadour's Houſe at the Barbican, the Paines and Puniſhments unto which they are adjugged, being farre too gentle for their Demerits, We have bene pleaſed at the laſt to yield unto ſuch their Requeſt; But this We would not doe, neither did We think it to ſtand with our Honor to doe it, without a publike Declaration, as well of our juſt Indignation for that which is paſt, as of the Severitie wherin We are reſolved to be inflexible, whiche the like Offendors are to expecte hereafter; this which We now doe being contrarie to our oune Reſolution and Mercy upon that Interceſſion aforeſaide, We finde it therefore very ſtrange, and are ſenſible of it as an intollerable Indignitie unto the Scepter of Monarchy, which hould that our Citie of London, which in all Antiquetie hath bene named the Kings Chamber, where all thinges ſhould paſſe in Quiett and with Obedience and Ordor, ſhould turne, like the wild Borders, as they were in former times ſubjecte to Uproares and Tumultes, and that the Prentiſes, which ought to be conteyned with the leaſt becke of theire Maiſters, ſhould turne Outlawes as if they had ſhaken off the Yoake of Lawe and Government; and We let them know that, if att any tyme it ſhould ſoe fall out that Blood ſhould be draune, or Slaughter made of any of their number, though it were by Malice Violence and Injurie, yet may not they uppon Perill of their Heades gather together in riotous and tumultuous manner for theire Revenge or Quarrell, for that were no better then diffidence of our Juſtice and extorting the Sword out of our Handes, but their Duetie is to ſeeke to the Maior of London and to other their Mageſtrates, and our Miniſters reſpectively for Protection and Juſtice, which God willing We ſhall be alwayes readie and reſolute to miniſter unto them to their full Contentment and Satisfaction, much leſſe ought they upon a vaine and headles Bruit, by occaſion of a ſuppoſed Hurte done, and that by Accident and Miſchaunce, to have runne together in Tumult, with Outcryes and Violence in ſuch an inſolent and ſeditious manner: But that which doth further in a high degree aggravate their Offence was, that this furious Aſſault was uppon the Houſe oſ an Ambaſſador, which by the Lawe of Nations is held ſacred, and wherein the Majeſtie of Kinges whome they repreſent is intereſſed and violated; And therfore this being upon ſoe eminent a Place and Perſon, if Wee ſhould not be carefull to prevent the like in time to come, Wee doe playnely diſcerne in our Princely Providence that, uppon many caſual Events (which it lies not in the Wit of Man to foreſee) People may runne in Tempeſts together, and the Scumme of the Suburbes may joyne to the Youth and Prentiſes of the Cittie, and proceede from Fury to Pillage, and fill all thinges with Miſchief and Combuſtion.

Wherfore We doe ſtreightly charge and command all the Inhabitants of oure Citie of London and of the Liberties thereof, and alſoe of the Suburbes and Confines of the ſaid Cittie, that, uppon noe Occaſion, Quarrell, Injury or Provocation whatſoever, they doe aſſemble themſelves in any forcible manner, but reſorte unto Juſtice, which ſhall never faile them, and in caiſe they otherwiſe doe, Wee ſhall by theiſe mutinous and furious Commotions and Inſurrections of People be forced to do that which Wee ſeldom doe (and but in caſe where ordinarie Juſtice would come too late or too ſhort) that is, to commaund that the Offenders be executed by Martial Law withoute delay or other formallitie of proceeding: And nevertheles Wee doe in ſtraight manner charge and commaund, as well the Mayor and other Governors of our Cittie of London and the Liberties thereof, as the Lieutenante of our Countie of Middleſex, and all and every of our Juſtices of the Peace, and all other Officers and Conſtables and the like, as

And for the better Execution of our Will and Pleasure herein, Wee doe by these Presents, for Us our Heires and Successors, give full Power and Authoritie unto the said William Alley his Executors Administrators and Assignes, Deputie and Deputies, and every or any of them, taking with him or them or any of them a Constable or other Officer of the place where it shall happen, during the said terme of Seaven Yeares, to enter into all and every the Warehouses, Workehouses, Shops, and Dwelling Houses or other Places of all and every Stationer, Printer, Bookseller, Bookbinder, or other Person or Persons whatsoever within any parte of our Dominions, as well within Liberties as without, where he the said William Alley his Executors, Administrators, Assignes, Deputie or Deputies, or any of them, shall suspect that the said Booke or any part or parcell thereof may be found, and the same to search, [illegible] they or any of them shall find any such Book, or any Epitome or Abridgment thereof, or of any part or parcell thereof, be or shall be [illegible] printed, imported, uttered, sold or put to sale contrary to the true meaning of this our Grant, that then it shall and may be lawfull to and for the said William Alley his Executors, Administrators, Assignes, Deputie and Deputies, or any of them, to seize take and carry away the same to the use of Us our Heires and Successors, the one Moytie whereof Wee doe hereby, for Us our Heires and Successors give unto the said William Alley his Executors Administrators and Assignes, and the other Moitie or the Benefit or Value thereof We will shall be distributed amongst the poor People of the Parish [illegible]

The

And to every of them,

Greeting.

Whereas our late deare Siſter Queen Elizabeth upon the lamentable and piteous Complaints and Supplications of divers her loving Subjects being Priſoners in the Priſones of the Kings Bench and Fleete, in Commiſeration of their Diſtreſſes, by the Advice of her Privy Counſell did, by her Commiſſion under the Greate Seale of England, bearing Date the twentieth Day of Aprill, in the eight and twenteth Yeare of her Reigne, authoriſe certaine Commiſſioners therein mentioned for the ordering and compounding of the Controverſies and Cauſes betweene the ſame diſtreſſed Priſoners and their Creditors, and ſuch others by whome they were deteyned Priſoners or in Execution, and to doe divers other things, in the ſame Commiſſion continued in force from the Date thereof untill the Deceaſe of the ſaid late Queen Elizabeth.

And whereas for that certaine Clauſes contained in the ſaid Commiſſion have ſeemed unto ſome to be derogatory to the common Lawes of this our Kingdome, and alſo for that by coullor of the ſaid Commiſſion which was intended for the charitable Releiſe of poore miſerable and diſtreſſed Perſons, ſundry refractory and obſtinate Debtors, which rather wanted Will then means to ſatisfy their juſt Debts, tooke occaſion to moleſt and trouble their Creditors; Wee, whoſe Princely Care and Vigilancy alwaies watcheth to prevent all occaſions of Inconvenience to our loving Subjects, eſpeciall ſuch as tend to the Breach of our Laws, have hitherto forborne the renewing of the ſaid Commiſſion, which our Forbearance, as it hath wrought a good effect by diſcouraging of obſtinate and wilfull Debters that ſeeke nothing more then Evaſions to avoid the Payment of their juſt Debts, ſo it hath bene found by Experience that, for want of that, or ſome other like charitable courſe for the Releiſe of ſuch as are truly and indeed poore, diſtreſſed and miſerable, and want meanes to ſatisfie their Creditors, hath been an occaſion to peſter and fill our Priſons with the Bodies of thoſe Perſons whoſe Impriſonmente canne noe waie avail their Creditors, but rather is an hinderance to the Satisfaction of their Debts, for that, during the tyme of their Reſtrainte, they are in noe wiſe able to goe aboute or attende their lawfull Buſynes, but muſte of force conſume themſelves and that little they have miſerably in Priſon:

Wee therefore, upon due conſideration had of the Premiſſes, by the Adviſe of our righte truſtie and righte welbeloved Councellor Sir Frauncis Bacon Knight our Chauncellor of England, and alſoe of divers of our principall Judges of our Courts of Weſtminſter, have thought fit and determined to preſcribe and direct ſuch a moderate courſe, as that neither the Inſolency of wilfull and obſtinate Debters ſhould be thereby encouraged to the Derogation of our Lawes, nor yet our Grace and Clemency be wanting unto ſuch to whome it ſhall be meete to extend the ſame.

Knowe yee therefore that Wee, of our eſpeciall Grace, certaine Knowledge and meere Motion, have made, conſtituted and appointed, and by theſe Preſents doe make, conſtitute and appointe you to be our Commiſſioners, and doe hereby give and graunte unto you, or any three or more of you, full Power and lawful Authority at all and every tyme and tymes from henceforth ſo often as to you, or any three or more of you as is aforeſaid, ſhall ſeeme convenient and needfull, within or during the tyme of Eaſter Tearme, Michaelmas Terme and Hillary Terme; or any of them, or within ſeaven Days before the beginning or after the ending of every of the ſaid Termes reſpectively, and not otherwiſe, to aſſemble and meete together, in ſome ſuch convenient place in or neare our Citty of London as you, or any three or more of you, ſhall think fit, for the Execution of this our Commiſſion, and before ſuch your meeting by Warrant under your Handes, or the Handes of any three or more of you (whereof ſome of the Judges of the Courte, by or from which ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners ſhall bee committed, to be alwaies one) upon reaſonable Warning, and at the Charges of the Priſoners, to call before you, as well ſome Perſon ſufficiently inſtructed for and on the behalfe of ſuch diſtreſſed Priſoners as now are or hereafter ſhall happen to be impriſoned in our ſaid Priſones of Kinges Benche and the Fleete or either of them, by reaſon of or for any Action of Debte, Action upon the Caſe, Treſpas, Detinue, Trover, or other perſonall Action, Judgment ment or Execution, whereof the Debt or Execution ſhall not exceed the Sum of Two hundred Marks; as alſo the Creditors and ſuch others as have the Benifit of the Actions, Suites, Judgments or Executions for which they are deteyned in Priſon, and the Executors, Adminiſtrators and Attorneys of every of them, and all other Perſons whatſoever to whome it ſhall appertayne, of ſome Perſons ſufficiently authoriſed and inſtructed for and on their behalfe, whome Wee doe hereby commaund to appeare before you upon ſuch your Warrants, either in their owne Perſons or by ſome other ſufficiently inſtructed and authoriſed on their behalfe, and at ſuch your Meeting to receive the Supplications and Complaints of the ſaid diſtreſſed Priſoners, and by all lawfull waies and meanes to inform your ſelves, as well of the due Debt, Damage and Duetye for which ſuch Action, Suite, Plaint, Judgment or Execution is or ſhall be proſecuted, obteyned or gotten, as of the certaine Eſtate and Hability of the Priſoner how to pay and diſcharge the ſame; and thereuppon by all good and lawfull waies and meanes to treate, perſwade, mediate and procure Compoſition and Agreements with the Creditors, or other Perſons which have or ſhall have the Benifit of ſuch Actions, Suites, Judgments, or Executions; wherein our Pleaſure is, that ſome of the Judges of the Courte by or from which the ſaid Priſoner or Priſoners ſhall be committed, ſhall be privy and conſenting to the concluſion of ſuch Compoſitions and Agreements; and that ſuch of you our ſaid Commiſſioners as ſhall ſo goe about ſuch Compoſitions, ſhall do your beſt endeavour that the poor Priſoners by your means and mediation may be releived, and have ſuch reaſonable Yeares, Dayes and Tymes of Payment for ſuch of their Debts and Damages as they ſhall be preſently able to ſatisfie: and with ſuch Securitie for Payment thereof as in Equitie and good Conſcience, having reſpecte to the Ability of the Priſoner, and the Charge of Wife and Children, and other Incidents in ſuch pious Caſes conſiderable, by you ſhall be thought fit.

Straightly charging and commaunding you and every of you that, for the better Expedition and further Accompliſhment of our charitable Intent and Will in remedying the grievous Diſtreſſes of our ſaid poor Subjects and diſtreſſed Priſoners, you, or ſome ſuch three or more of you as is aforeſaid, doe from tyme to tyme, when and as often as it ſhall be needfull, within the tymes before lymitted and not otherwiſe, aſſemble your ſelves together in ſome ſuch convenient place as is aforeſaid, as you tender our Pleaſure; And if any ſuch Creditor or Creditors, or other Perſon or Perſons for whoſe Debts, Coſts or Damages ſuch diſtreſſed Priſoner or Priſoners ſhall remaine in Priſon as aforeſaid, ſhall refuſe upon your ſaid Precepts or Warrants to appeare before you, or to ſend ſome other Perſon or Perſons, ſufficiently authoriſed and inſtructed, to treate and conclude with you as aforeſaid, then you, or any three or more of you as aforeſaid, (whereof ſome ſuch Judge as aforeſaid to be alwaies one) upon due Conſideration of the nature and quality of ſuch Refuſal and Contempt, ſhall and may take ſuch Order for Puniſhment of the ſame, and for procureing ſuch Perſons Apparance as to Juſtice ſhall appertaine:

And that you, or ſuch three or more of you (whereof ſuch Judge as aforeſaid to be one) ſhall and may uſe all lawfull waies or meanes to cauſe ſuch Creditors and other Perſon and Perſons to yeild to and perform ſuch moderate and reaſonable Compoſitions and Agreements as by you, or any ſuch three or more of you (whereof ſuch Judge as is aforeſaid to be one) ſhall be thought meete;

And for that our meaning is to be aiding and aſſiſting with our Grace and Favour to the Myſteries and Calamities of ſuch as are truely poore and diſtreſſed, and not to ſuch as lye in Priſon rather for Wilfullnes and Obſtinaſy and out of Reſolution to retaine large and ample Eſtates to themſelves, by hindring their juſt and honeſt Creditors; therefore We do hereby ſtraightly charge and commaund you and every of you, that in all your Proceedings by vertue of this our Commiſſion you be very circumſpect and carefull to trye and fynd out ſuch wilfull and obſtinate Perſons, and in noe wiſe ſuffer them or any of them to pertake of our ſaid Grace or Mercy which Wee hereby intend unto them that are and ſhall be willing with their whole Eſtate, bonâ fide and without Fraude, ſo farr as it will extende, to ſatisfie their juſt Debts and Damages for which they ſhall be ſo deteyned in Priſon, ſome tender Conſideration being had of themſelves, A.D.1618. 16 Jac. 1. ſelves, their Wives and Children, and unto ſuch poor and miſerable Perſons as have not wherewith to ſatisfie their Debts, but ſhall be conſtrained miſerably to periſh in Priſon, except in Pittie they ſhall be releived.

Know yee that it is noe ſmall Contentment unto Us that, within theis ſixteene Yeares of our Raigne over our Kingdome of England, there have been more publique Workes neer and about our Citie of London undertaken and finiſhed then in Ages heretofore; wherefore being given to underſtand that there are in the Weſt part of the Suburbes of our Cittie of London certaine Groundes, commonlie called and knowne by the Name of Lincolnes Inn Fields, lyeing and ſcituate in a place much planted round about with the Dwellings and Lodgings of Noblemen and Gentlemen of Qualitie, as well of the Innes of Courte or others; which if they were reduced into faire and goodlie Walkes would be a matter of greate Ornament to the Citie, Pleaſure and Freſhneſs for the Health and Recreation of the Inhabitants thereabouts, and for the Sight and Delight of Embaſſadors and Strangers coming to our Court and Cittie, and a memorable worke of our time to all Poſteritie.

We have taken it into our princely Care to order and directe, by Authoritie of our Royall Commiſſion, how the ſame may be moſt ſpeedely, ſubſtantially and gracefully accompliſhed and performed, as well by removeing and repreſſing all Nuſances and inconvenient Buildings which confine upon the ſame, as by the ordering and contriveing of the Grounds themſelves in ſuch ſorte as may be moſt for Comlines and Beautie; and therefore Wee have aſſigned you to be our Commiſſioners, and by theis Preſents doe give unto you, or any fower or more of you (whereof Wee will you our ſaid Lord Chauncellor of England, Lord Privie Seale, Lord Chamberlaine, or Earle of Arundell to be one) full Power and Authority to ſurvey the ſaid Feilds, and by Oath or otherwiſe to enquire of all and every the Nuſances and Annoyances therein, as well thoſe that have happened ſithence any of our Proclamations made againſt multiplicity of Building by erecting of Houſes, pety Tenements and Cotages, contrary to the ſaid Proclamations, and peſtring of Houſes there with multitude of Inmates and Lodgers, as alſoe to enquire accordinglie of all other Nuſances, Inconveniences and Annoyances whatſoever, whereby the Ayre in thoſe Partes now is or in tyme may be corrupted or made unwholſome, and the ſame to demoliſhe, pull downe and reforme according to your Wiſdomes and Diſcretions, and therein nevertheles to take ſuch order that all and every the Owners of the ſaid Cloſes, Feildes, Grounds, Tenements, Cottages, and other Erections there, and all and everie the Farmors and Poſſeſſors of them or any of them, may according to an indifferent Valuation of the ſame by Oath or otherwiſe to be enquired of, in reaſonable ſorte be compounded withal (due reſpecte being firſt had that the Contempte and Breache of our ſaid Proclamations be not neglected) for all their and everie of their lawfull Eſtates, Titles, Termes of Yeares and Intereſts in the ſaid Cloſes, Feildes, Grounds, Tenements, Cottages, Erections, or any of them, and that the ſaid Cloſes and Groundes, commonlie called Lincolnes Inne Feildes, according to your Wiſdomes and Diſcretions, may be framed and reduced both for Sweetnes, Uniformitie and Comelines into ſuch Walkes, Partitions or other Plottes, and in ſuch ſorte, manner and forme, both for publique Health and Pleaſure, as by the ſaid Inago Jones is or ſhall be accordingly drawne by way of Mapp or

And for that ſoe good and publique a Worke cannot, according unto our Royall Meaning and Intention, be effected without great Charge and the helpe of many Handes, whereby all Charges are leſſened and made light, We will and require you, or any fouer or more of you (whereof We will you our ſaid Lord Chauncellor, Lord Privie Seale, Lord Chamberlaine, or Earle of Arrundell to be one) to certifie unto Us in Writing the Names of all and every the Perſons inhabiting within the Pariſhes next adjacent unto the ſaid Feilds; videlicet, Saint Martines in the Feilds, Saint Gyles in the Feildes, Saint Marie Savoy, Saint Clement, Saint Andrew, Saint Dunſton, and Saint Brides, that are able to contribute to the ſaid Charge, with an Eſtimate what they and every of them are willing or may well afford to give to ſoe worthye a Worke, as alſoe the Names of ſuch as are Refractorie and denie to contribute to the ſame.

And to th'ende that the ſaid Worke may preſentlie be undertaken, and with all convenient ſpeed finiſhed, We will and our Pleaſure is, that you, or any fower or more of you (whereof Wee will you our ſaid Lord Chauncellor, Lord Privie Seale, Lord Chamberlaine, or Earle of Arrundell to be one) doe nominate and appoint in every of the ſaid Pariſhes one or more ſufficient Perſons reſiding within the ſaid Pariſhes, to be Collector or Collectors for the gathering and collecting of all and everie the Contribution Money that reſpectively ſhall be given towardes the ſaid Worke within the ſaid Pariſhes or any of them (except in the twoe Innes commonly called Serjeants Inn, the fowr Innes of Courte, and the eight Innes of Chauncerie) A.D.1618. 16 Jac. De Proclamatione ad reſtringendum Occiſſionem Carnis tempore Quadrageſimali.

A Proclamation for reſtraint of killing and eating of Fleſhe this next Lent, to be executed as well by the Lord Mayor within the Cittie and Suburbes of London, and by the Officers of the Liberties and Exempt Places in and about the ſame, as by Order to be preſcribed throughe all the Counties of this Realme, to the Juſtices of Peace, Lords of Liberties, and Officers of Corporate Townes.

A.D.1619. Pat. 16. J. 1. p 3 dorſ.

WHereas We have been informed of the greate Diſorders heretofore, and eſpecially the laſt yeare, committed in killing and eating of Fleſh in the tyme of Lent, chiefly in the Citty of London and the confyneing Partes, and what Negligence or rather Contempt hath been ſhewed in the Execution of ſuch Directions as have in former Yeares been conceived and publiſhed; by our expreſs Commandment, for a Rule of Order and Moderation and the due Obſervance of ſoe neceſſary a Conſtitution, as might beſt ſuite with the policy of State and the Lawes and Statutes of this our Realme.

It is therefore our Royal Will and Pleaſure, that a more ſevere and ſtrict courſe ſhall be now uſed, for the preventinge of ſuche ill Conſequents as may enſue, by the Liberty taken of all ſorts of People, and the little difference made betweene this and other tymes in the uſe of thoſe things which were prohibited, and are to ſerve for a Supply for the whole Year following.

And therefore Wee doe ſtraightly chardge and commaund all Perſonnes to whome it may appertaine, to ſee theis Orders following duely obſerved and putt in Execution, uppon Paine of our high Diſpleaſure and ſuch Penalties as by the Lawes of this our Realme of England may be inflicted uppon Perſons offending againſt the ſame.

Firſt, whereas it appeareth that the cheifeſt cauſe of theis Diſorders hath grown from the Licenſes that have been graunted to Butchers to kill and utter Fleſh contrary to Lawe, and that it is plaine that noe Mayor, Juſtice of Peace, or other Perſon of what Degree or Quality ſoever, cann graunt any Licence in this kinde, and that the Lordes and others of oure Privy Councill

Councill doe, by oure Direction, forbeare to graunt any ſuch Licence or to give way thereunto;

Our Will and Pleaſure is, uppon the Penalties provided by Law, and ſuch further Puniſhment to be inflicted upon the Offenders as ſhall be thought meete, that noe ſuch Licence be graunted for the killing or uttering of Fleſh, and that no Butcher, or other Perſon whatſoever, do kill utter or putt to ſale any Fleſhe contrary to the Lawes eſtabliſhed and provided in that behalfe.

And for the avoiding of ſuch Inconveniences as have riſen by Diſorders in this kind, The Lord Mayor of our Cittie of London, and every other Officer and Juſtice of Peace ſhall call before them, and ſend for any of the Servaunts of any Inhoulders, Victuallers, Cooks, Tavernors and Keepers of ordinary Tables, and ſuch others that utter Victuall, to examine them uppon their corporall Oathes what Fleſh is or hath been during the Lent Seaſon dreſſed, killed, uttered or eaten in their Houſes, which if they ſhall refuſe to doe, then to committ to Priſon the ſaid Defendants, ſoe refuſing uppon their Oathes to declare the Truth.

That the Lord Mayor ſhall alſoe now preſently before Lent, or at the beginning thereof, cauſe all Inhoulders, Keepers of ordinary Tables, Victuallers, Alehouſe Keepers, and Tavernors within the Citie and Liberties thereof, to appear before him, or ſuch Perſonnes as he ſhall appoint meete for that Purpoſe, and ſhall take Bonds with ſufficient Suerties of every one of them in good Sommes of Money; videlicet one Hundred Pounds of the principall, and the Suerties Thirty Pounds a pece to our uſe, not to dreſſe any Fleſh in their Houſes this Lent tyme for any reſpect nor ſuffer it to be eaten; The like Bonds with Suerties ſhall be taken of the like Perſons uppon like Penalties, by the Juſtices of Peace of our City of Weſtminſter and the Liberties thereof, and every of the ſaid Bonds to be certefied into our Exchequer.

And for the Butchers and others that come with Victualls of Fleſh out of the Country to the Citty, oure Pleaſure is that the Lord Mayor ſhall cauſe certaine Perſons to watch all the Gates and other places in the Suburbes where Fleſh may be brought in View, and ſearch and to intercept the ſame, and if any of thoſe Watchmen ſhall be found negligent and corrupt in his chardge, then he to be committed to Priſon during the whole Lent.

And to the end the Fiſhermen may imploy themſelves to Sea with better Incouragement then heretofore, and that the Fiſhmongers maye furniſh themſelves with ſuch Store from tyme to tyme hereafter as ſhall be expedient, as well for the proviſion of the City, as for ſelling the ſame at reaſonable Rates, we will that they take notice of this our Commandment and conſtant Reſolution for the obſervance of Lent and fiſh Dayes, both now and hereafter, as by law is reqnired.

And, foraſmuch as the Uſe and Libertie now taken is ſoe farr declined from the Abſtinence and Moderation of former tymes, as inſtead of faſting and forbearing Suppers uppon Fridayes both in Lent and other tymes, which heretofore was duly obſerved, there is now nothing more uſuall then to make ſpeciall choice of Fryday Nights for Suppers and Entertainment, as Wee are certainly informed, and to marke out thoſe Dayes for Ryott and Exceſſe, to the greate Offence and Scandall of our Government, for the avoiding whereof, as We think it fit that every Man ſhould be a rule of order to himſelfe in his own Houſe, as well in reſpect of the publique as of his private Eaſe and Commodity, ſo do we ſtraightly charge and command all Inholders, Keepers of ordinary Tables, Victuallers, Alehouſekeepers, and Tavernors not to make any Supper for any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever uppon Fryday Nights, either in Lent or out of Lent, nor to ſuffer any Meat to be then dreſſed, uttered, ſould or eaten in their Houſes, uppon ſuch Puniſhment as is due to thoſe that ſhall contemne oure Royall Pleaſure and Commandment.

And as theſe Orders are to be executed in the Cittie of London and places neare to the ſame, ſoe is it our Pleaſure and Commandement that our Juſtices of peace in all Shires of this our Realme within their Rule, and all other Officers in Townes Corporate or in any Liberties within their precincts, ſhall cauſe the ſame to be obſerved and performed in like manner, with like order for the Bonds to be taken to our Uſe, and certified unto our Exchequer, and that noe manner of Tolleration Favour or Connivency be uſed by any Juſtice of Peace or other Officer contrary to the true meaninge of this our Proclamation, as both they that ſhall preſume wittingly ſoe to tollerate the Offence, A.D.1619. 16 Jac. 1. Offence, as alſoe the Partye himſelfe ſoe offendinge, will anſwer the ſame at their uttermoſt Perrills; it beinge our expreſs Pleaſure that our Lawes in this caſe ſhall be hereafter ſeverally executed uppon all Offendors whatſoever.

Given at Newmarkett, the nine and twentith Day of January, in the ſixteenth Yeare of our Raign of England France and Ireland, and of Scotland the two and fiftieth. A.D.1619. 16 Jac. 1.

De Proclamatione ad Prohibendum Exchambium Pecuniæ.

A Proclamation prohibiting the Exchange of Moneys for Profitt, the making of Plate of any of his Majeſtie's Coynes, and the exceſſive Uſe of Gould and Silver Foliate.

A.D.1619. Pat. 16. J. 1. p. 3. dorſ. WHereas his Majeſtie, by his Proclamation bearing Date the fowrteenth day of May, in the tenth Yeare of his Raigne, for the better ſtaying of Treaſure within this Realme, and alſoe for the procuring and inviteing of the ſame to be brought, as well into his Kingdom as to his Mynt, did ſett the Prices of forraigne Gould and Silver in their ſeverall Species, as by the ſaid Proclamation more at Lardge appeareth.

His Majeſtie finding the ſame Proclamation not ſoe duely obeyed and obſerved as it ought to be, doth hereby require and commaund that the ſaid Proclamation being ſtill in force, be for the tyme to come more ſtraightly putt in Execution; not intending nevertheles hereby to revoke or diſchardge anie Liberty which the Eaſt India Company, being a Company that deſerveth ſoe well to be upheld and incouraged, hath or ought to have by the lawful uſe and practiſe of their Charter, and for that the drawing of Moneys into the Goldſmiths hand, by tourning Silver into Gold uppon Profit of Exchange, doth make it the more ready to be ingroſſed into the Merchants hand for Tranſportation to Mynts abroade, and for that ſuch Profit to be taken upon change of Moneys is prohibited by Lawe.

His Majeſtie doth further ſtraightly chardge and commaund, that noe Perſon or Perſons whatſoever ſhall, from henceforth, give receive or take any manner of Gain Profitt or Advantage for the exchang of any Gould or Silver Moneys of anye his Highneſs Realmes, or currant within the ſame, above the Rates for which the ſame are now currant within the ſaid Realme, uppon Payne of the Forfeiture of the ſame Moneys ſo exchanged, and the Partye ſoe offending to ſuffer ſuch further Penalties and Puniſhments as by the Lawes and Statutes of this Realme, or by his Majeſties Prerogative Royall may be inflicted in that behalfe.

And furthermore, the better to keepe the Gould and Silver of this Kingdom not only within the Realme from being exported, but that it may alſoe be continued in Moneys and Coyne, for the uſe and commerce of his Majeſtie and his loving Subjects, and not turned into any dead Maſſe of Plate, nor exhauſted and conſumed in Vanities by building, and the promiſcuous uſe of Gould and Silver foliate, which have beene in the Reignes of divers Kings of this Realme ſeverally provided for and prohibited.

De Proclamatione, prohibente Carnem tempore Quadrageſimali edendam.

A Proclamation forbidding the eating of Fleſh in Lent or on Fiſhdayes appointed by the Lawe.

A.D.1619. Ibid. WHereas Wee, by our Proclamation given at Newmarkett, the nyne and twentieth Day of January laſt, have declared our Royall Pleaſure, for Reformation to be had of that exceſſive Liberty now uſually taken, by all ſorts of People, to kill and dreſſe Fleſh during the Seaſon of Lent, and at other Dayes and Tymes prohibited, contrarye to our Lawes, wherein Wee have preſcribed certain Orders, which, being well obſerved, will meet with many of thoſe Abuſes which Experience hath diſcovered to fall out; all which Wee doe hereby ratifie and confirme, and ſtraightly enjoyne all our Officers whome it may concerne dilligently to attend the Execution of the ſame.

Now, foraſmuch as uppon further Advyſe and Conſideration had of the inveterat Growth of this evill Cuſtome, which by Sufferance and Impunity is become ſo common, as it requireth more then ordinary care to ſuppreſſe the ſame, the Reſtraint of killing and dreſſing of Fleſh, which was the chiefe Scope of our former Proclamation, not being a ſufficient Remedy to cure the Miſchiefe unles there be better care taken alſoe to ſuppreſſe the unlawfull and inordinate eating of Fleſh on Dayes and Tymes prohibited, wherewith our Subjects have accuſtomed themſelves rather for Delicacy then Neceſſity;

It is therefore our Royall Will and Pleaſure, and accordingly We doe hereby ſtraightly prohibite and forbidde all our Subjects, of what Degree or Quallity ſoever within this our Realme, to eat any maner of Fleſh in the tyme of Lent, or any other Dayes now uſually obſerved as Fiſh Dayes, without a ſpeciall Lycence firſt obteyned from the Buſhopp of the Dioceſs, or ſuch other as by the Lawe have Power to give Licence in that behalf, which Wee will and commaund ſhall be ſparingly graunted, and in caſes of neceſſity onely, upon pain of oure high Diſpleaſure, and to be proceeded againſt by our Attorney Generall in our Court of Starchamber, as Contemners of our Royall Commandement, and upon ſuch further Penalty as by the Lawes and Statutes of this our Realme may be inflicted on thoſe that ſhall willfully offend in this kind:

Further chardging and commanding the Lord Mayor of our City of London, the Juſtices of Aſſiſe in their ſeverall Circuits, the Mayors and chief Officers of all other Citties and Townes corporate, Juſtices of the Peace, Lords of Liberties, and all other Officers and Miniſters

A.D.1619. 16 Jac. 1. Miniſters within the ſeverall Counties of this our Realme, that they and every of them fully obey this our Pleaſure, and cauſe and compell the ſame to be obeyed and executed by others, without any manner of Tolleration Favour and Connivency, as they whoe ſhall preſume willingly to offend themſelves, or to tollerat the Offences in others will anſwere the ſame at their uttermoſt Perills.

And laſtly, for the more due Puniſhement of Inhoulders, Keepers of ordinary Tables, Victuallers, Alehouſe Keepers, Tavernors and ſuch like, whoe ſhall forfeit their Bonds or Recognizances by dreſſing of Fleſh, or ſuffering it to be eaten in their Houſes this Lent tyme;

And, to the end that the ſame be as well taken in due forme of Lawe, as duly certefied in our Exchequer, wee do will and require all Juſtices of Peace, as well within Liberties as without, that at ſuch tyme as they ſhall meete within their Diviſions for the taking of ſuch Bonds and Recognizances, that they give notice to the Clarks of the Peace, or their Deputies to attend them for that purpoſe, of whom we will require a ſtrict Accompt for the legall taking and retourning of the ſame Bondes and Recognizances into our Exchequer, the ſaide Clarks of the Peace and their Deputies, taking for the making and for certifieing of the ſame Recognizances of every Inkeeper, Vintner, Ordinary Keeper, and Cooke the like Fee of two Shillings ſix pence as hath bene accuſtomed to be taken by the Clarke of the Peace for our County of Middleſex for every ſuch Recognizance, and of every Alehouſkeeper the Fee of twelve Pence onely and no more. A.D.1619. 16 Jac. 1.

Given at our Pallace of Weſtminſter, the ſixt Day of February, in the ſixteenth Yeare of our Raigne of England France and Ireland, and of Scotland the twoe and fiftith.

De Proclamatione ſuper Structuris circa Civitatem London erectis.

A Proclamation declareing his Majeſtie's further Pleaſure for matter of Buildings.

A.D.1619. Pat. 16. J. 1. p. 5.

WHereas, in the ſecond Yeare of our Raigne of Great Brittaine, for divers Reaſons of State and the generall Good and Safety of this our Common Wealth, we did cauſe our Proclamacion to be publiſhed for Reſtrainte of newe Buildings, and for reedifying ould Houſes with Brick or Brick and Stone within our Cittye of London and twoe Myles of the Gates thereof, which hath been ſeconded by divers other our Proclamacions made and publiſhed, as well in the fifte and ſixt as in the ninth and ſixteenth Yeares of our Raigne, all which many Perſons, out of a private Reſpect of theire owne Gaine, without Regarde of our Commaundements, or the generall and common Good ſoe often mencioned in the ſaid Proclamacions, have taken the Boldnes to violate, ſo as, contrarie to our Diſpoſicion, wee have bene enforced for Prevention of the groweing Evill to cauſe due Proceedings to be held againſt ſome of the Offendors againſt our Proclamacion in our High Courte of Starchamber, where Order hath been given for demoliſhing the Houſes of divers Offendors in that kinde, and of others whoe have built upon newe Foundacions, wherein wee finding the Number of Offendors to be ſoe many as, if we ſhould have proceeded againſt all of them in all ſuch exemplarie Forme of Juſtice, wee ſhould have cauſed greate Devaſtacion in our Cittie of London and the Places adjacent thereunto; Nevertheles, the Offences being alike, it could not ſtand with the Rule of our Juſtice to make ſome Examples of our Diſpleaſure and lett others paſſe with Impunitie;

Wee were therefore graciouſly pleaſed to graunt a Commiſſion lately to certaine Perſons of Truſt, giveing them Power to call before them ſuch as had offended againſt our ſaid Proclamacions, and for us and on our behalfe to compounde with them for theire Offences, thereby to deterr them and others for adventureing the like in tyme to come;

And whereas ſome mechanicall Perſons, inhabiting in or about our Cittie of London, whoe to worke their own Endes in point of Profitt, have bene the principall occaſion of ſo great Deformitie in Buildings, by Reaſon of ſoe many baſe Tenements and Cottages of late Yeares erected within the Suburbes of our ſaid Cittie, which we are pleaſed to make our Chamber, and whereunto ſoe many States and Nacions have Recourſe by theire dayly Repayer unto us, ſoe the ſame Perſons, or others of worſe condicion; fynding themſelves checked or reſtrained by the Direccions given in our laſt Proclamacion for the building with Brick doe endeavour to poſſeſſe by kind of infection ſpred into the Mindes of many our good and well diſpoſed Subjects; That the Ende of ſuch our Royall Commaundement ſhould be extended to ſome pecuniarie Diſpenſation or wholy to be releaſed uppon Suites to be made unto us, wee, minding nothinge leſſe, have thought fit to declare our ſelves.

A.D.1619.
16 Jac. 1.

And our further Pleaſure herein is, that wee are ſoe farr from giveing any Tolleracion or Releaſe in that kinde, as wee are reſolved, as well out of many Reaſons of State conduceing to our Honor and the Honor of our Poſteritie as for the publique Preſervation of our People from the Daunger of Fyer, conſtantlie to uphoulde and continue our late Preſcript for building with Brick or Stone, and not otherwiſe, nor in any other Forme or Manner then in this preſent Proclamacion is preſcribed, which, the better to manifeſt our full and abſolute Pleaſure therein, wee have cauſed to be again renewed and remembred to our People whom it may concerne;

And wee, haveing bene lately mooved by ſome of our Commiſſioners imployed in this our Service for ſome further Grace and Favour to be extended to ſuch of our Subjects as now are or ſhall be willinge to conforme themſelves, and to reedifye their Dwelling Houſes with Brick or Stone, and to waive and avoyde that noyſome Peſter of Bulkes Stalles Sheds Cants Jutties, wherewith our Streetes are in all places ſoe much cumbred and annoyed, that it taketh awaye the Bennifit of Ayre, Sweetnes and Decencie of the ſame, and that wee would be pleaſed to inlardge their Authoritie for the ſettinge fourth of the Foundation or Grounde of everie one that ſhall ſoe conforme in ſuch Sorte as may beſt beautifie the Streate where ſuch Buildings are, and may encourage thoſe that will newe build theire Howſes and hould Uniformitie through the whole Raunge of ſuch Streete or Streets where ſuch Buildings are, whereunto wee graciouſly inclyning have, by our Commiſſion under our Greate Seale of Englaund, given them ſuch Power and Authoritie in that behalfe as ſhall ſeeme good to their Wiſdomes and Diſcretions, and as may agree with the Conveniencie and Decencie of the Place, and the Wideneſs of the Streete where ſuch Building or reedifying ſhall be.

Laſtly, to th'end that from henceforth noe more or further Tolleracion or Connivency be uſed towardes them that ſhall contemptuouſly oppoſe our Royall Commaundement in building, or ſhall ſeeke by Deviſes and Shiftes to avoyde the Direccion thereof onely by makeing newe the lower Storie of any Dwelling Houſe of Tymber, or by leaveing the lower Storie ſtanding, doe new build the upper Parte of theire Houſes with Tymber, or doe inlardge any Parte of theire Houſes towardes the Streete with Jutties or Cant Windowes or otherwiſe, Wee hereby commaunde our Attorney Generall that he from tyme to tyme, uppon Certificate of ſuch, or any other Caſe of Offence in building contrarie to our ſaid Proclamacions to be made from our ſaid Commiſſioners, or any fower or more of them, under theire Handes in writeing, doe procede, for Us and in our Name againſt ſuch Offendors, and everie of them, as well by way of Bill or Informacion to be exhibited into our High Courte of Starchamber, as otherwiſe uppon the Examinacion and Confeſſion of the ſaid Offendors or any of them, taken before our ſaid Attorney according to the Courſe and Preſidents of our ſaide Courte in like Caſes.

And wee further will and commaunde the Lord Mayor of the Citty of London and the Aldermen and Recorder of the ſaid Cittye for the tyme being, and alſoe all and everie our Juſtices of Peace Bayliffs Conſtables Headboroughes and all other our Officers and loveing Subjects, as well within Liberties as without, within our Counties of Middleſex and Surrey, to be ayding and aſſiſting to our ſaid Commiſſioners and every of them in the due Execucion of our Pleaſure herein, as they and every of them will be accomptable for the ſame when we ſhall requier it.

And, to the ende that our Subjects, within the Places and Lymitts aforeſaid may be the better forewarned and taught to performe theire Obedience in the Premiſſes, which we ſtraightly will and requier att theire Handes, our expreſſe Will and Pleaſure is, that in erecting of new Buildings hereafter, everie whole Storie of and in ſuch Houſes and Buildings, and all and everie the Roomes of ſuch whole Storie ſhall be of the Height of tenn Foote of Aſſiſe att the leaſt, and everie halfe Storie of and in ſuch Houſes and Buildings ſhall be of the Height of ſeaven Foote and a half at the leaſt, and that the forefront and outward Walles, and the Jambes Heads and Soyls of the Windows ſhall be of Brick, or of Brick and Stone, and the Windows being of Timber not to be put in until the Jambs and Heads aforeſaid be finiſhed and beare of themſelves, and if the ſaid Buildinges doe not exceede twoe Stories in Height, then the Walles thereof ſhal be of the thickneſs of one Brick and halfe a Bricks length from the Grounde unto the uppermoſt Parte of the ſaid Walles, and where the Building ſhal be of the Height of two Stories, the Walles of the firſt Storie ſhal be of the thickneſs of twoe Brickes length; and from thence unto the uppermoſt Parte of the Wall of the Thickneſs of one Brick and half a Bricks Length; and that in building of the ſaid Houſes there ſhal be noe Jutties or Jutting or cant Windowes, either uppon Tymber Joyſtes or otherwiſe, but the Walles to goe direct and ſtraite upwardes, and at the ſetting of a water Table to be made, alſoe the Lights of the Windowes of everie whole Storie to be of more Height then Breadth, to the end the Roomes may receive Ayre for Health, and that there may be a ſufficient Peere of Brick betweene the Windowes of everie halfe Storie to be made ſquare every Way, or neere thereabouts; and laſtly that all Shoppes in everie principall Streete of Trade to be made with Pillaſters of harde Stone or Brick, and the Heades of the Shopp Windows cutt in Wedges Archwiſe to ſuſtaine the Wall about it, and for Ornament of the Streetes.

Given att Newmarkett the twelfe Day of March, in the ſixteenth Yeare of our Raigne of England Fraunce and Ireland, and of Scotland the twoe and fiftieth.

James, by the Grace of God &c. To the Commiſſioners for the Treaſury of Us our Heires and Succeſſors for the tyme being,

And to the Threaſurer, Chancellor, Underthreaſorer, Chamberlaynes and Barons of the Exchequer of Us our Heire and Succeſſors for the tyme being,

To the Executor or Executors of Sir John Swynnerton Knight deceaſſed, Sir William Garwaie and Sir Nicholas Salter of London Knight,

And to all others the Farmors and Collectors of Us our Heires and Succeſſors of the Subſidies, Impoſts, Sommes of Money and other Duties, due or payable or to be due or payable of or for any kinde of Wynes,

And to all other the Officers Miniſters and Subjects of Us our Heires and Succeſſors, to whome theiſe Preſents ſhall come, Greeting.

Whereas Wee by our Letters Patents, ſealled with our Great Seal of England, bearing Date at Weſtminſter the nyne and twentieth Day of April in the twelveth Year of our Reigne of England France and Ireland, and of Scotland the ſeaven and fortieth, reciteing as therin is recited, did for the Conſiderations in the ſaid Letters Patents expreſſed, give and grant unto our right truſty and wellbeloved Councellor, James Viſcount Doncaſter, by the Name of James Lord Hay, then Keper or Maiſter of our Greate Wardrobe and Gentleman of our Robes, and to his Succeſſors Keepers or Maiſters of the Great Wardrobe for the tyme being, and his or theire Aſſignes, from and after the ſeaven and twenteth Day of September next enſueing the Date of the ſaid Letters Patents, as well one Annuity or yearly Somme of Thirteen thouſand Pounds of lawfull Money of England by the Yeare, as alſoe one other Annuity or yearly Somme of five thouſand Pounds of lawfull Money of England by the Yeare:

To have, hold, perceave, receive, take and enjoy the ſaid two ſeverall Annuities or yearly Sommes of Thirteen thouſand Pounds and Five thouſand Pounds, and either of them, to him the ſaid Lord Hay and to his Succeſſors Keepers or Maiſters of the Great Wardrobe for the tyme being, and his and their Aſſignes, untill We our Heires and Succeſſors by our Letters Patents under the Great Seal of England ſhould ſignify our Pleaſure to the contrary thereof, peaceably from tyme to tyme, from the ſeaven and twenteth Day of September then next enſuying the Date of our ſaid Letters Patents yearly and every Year during the continuance of the ſaid Graunt, the ſaid Annuity or yearly Somme of Thirteene thouſand Poundes in maner and forme following; videlicet, at each Feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangell Six thouſand Pounds, and at each Feaſt of the Annunciation of the bleſſed Virgin Mary Seaven thouſand Pounds, or within forty Dayes next after either of the ſaid Feaſts; and the ſaid Annuity or yearly Somme of Five thouſand Pounds at the Feaſts of Saint Michaell the Archangell and the Annunciation of the bleſſed Virgin Mary by equal and even Portions, or within fourty Days next after each of the ſaid Feaſts;

The ſaid Annuity or yearly Somme of Thirtine thouſand Pounds by the Yeare, to be perceived, received, taken and had as aforeſaid, at the ſeverall and reſpective Feaſts Days or Tymes aforeſaid, out of the Subſidies, Impoſts, Sommes of Money, Rents and other Duties then due or payable, or thereafter to be due or payable unto Us our Heires or Succeſſors, for or in reſpect of French, Gaſcoigne and Rheniſh Wynes, and at and by the hands of the Collectors or Farmors of Us our Heires or Succeſſors for the tyme being of the ſaid Subſidies, Impoſts, Sommes of Money, and other Duties then due or payable, or to be due or payable, of or for any of the ſaid kindes of Wynes, or, in default thereof, at the Receipt of the Exchequer of Us our Heires and Succeſſors, by the Hands of the Treaſurer Undertreaſurer and Chamberlaines of the ſaid Exchequer, or ſomme of them, out of the Treaſure of Us our Heires and Succeſſors from tyme to tyme for the tyme being, remayning in the Receipt of the ſaid Exchequer; and the ſaid Annuity or yearly Somme of Five thouſand Pounds by the Yeare, to be perceived, received, taken and had as aforeſaid, at the ſeveral and reſpective Feaſts Dayes or Tymes aforeſaid, out of the Subſidies, Impoſts, Sommes of Money, Rentes, and other Duties due or payable, or to be due or payable, payable unto Us our Heirs or Succeſſors, for or in reſpect of Wynes comonly called Sackes, Canaryes, Hollocks, Cutes, Teynts, Muskadells, and other Spaniſh Wynes, and Wynes comonly called Sweete Wynes, or for or in reſpect of all, every, or any of them, at and by the handes of the Collectors or Farmors of Us our Heires or Succeſſors for the tyme being of the ſaid Subſidies, Impoſts, Duties, and other Sommes of Money then due and payable, or to be due or payable of or for any of the ſaid kyndes of Wynes laſt mentioned, or, in default thereof, at the Receipt of the Exchequer of Us our Heires and Succeſſors, by the hands of the Treaſurer, Undertreaſurer and Chamberlaynes of the ſaid Exchequer, or ſome of them, out of the Treaſure of Us our Heires and Succeſſors from tyme to tyme remaining in the Receipt of the ſaid Exchequer, as by our ſaid Letters Patents, amongſt divers other thinges therein contayned, at large appeareth.

Know yee that we, for divers Conſiderations us herunto moving, doe hereby, for us our Heires and Succeſſors, will, ordayne, conſtitute and appoynt, and doe hereby ſignify and declare our Pleaſure and Meaning to be, that the ſaid ſeveral Annuities or yearly Sommes of Thirteen thouſand Pounds and Five thouſand Pounds, or either of them, ſhall not be had, held, perceived, received, taken or enjoyed by the ſaid James Viſcount Doncaſter, or by the Keeper or Maſter of the Greate Wardrobe for the tyme being, or his or their Aſſignes or any of them, by force of the ſaid recited Letters Patents, at any tyme hereafter, but that the ſaid Letters Patents, bearing Date the ſaid nine and twenteth Day of Aprill, and all Annuities, Payments, Grants and Things whatſoever therein contained, ſhall from henceforth be voide, fruſtrate, ceaſe and determine.

And whereas the ſaid Viſcount, before the Feaſt of Saint Michaell the Archangell laſt paſt, did ſurrender unto Us the Office of Keeper and the Cuſtody of our ſaid Great Wardrobe, which Office ſithence the ſaid Surrender, and before the ſaid Feaſt of Saint Michaell the Archangell laſt, we have by our Letters Patents under the great Seale of England, for the Conſideracions therin expreſſed, Graunted unto our truſty and wellbeloved, Sir Lionell Cranfeild Knight, nowe Maſter of our Court of Wards and Liveries;

Nevertheles,

Foraſmuch as the ſaid Viſcount hath undergone the whole Charge expended, as well in our ſaid Great Wardrobe as for our Robes Apparell and other neceſſaries for the Uſe of our Perſon for the Year ended at the Feaſt of Saint Michaell the Archangell laſt paſt, and the ſaid Sir Lionell Cranfeild did not deale or meddle with the Execution of any Matter concerning the ſaid Office, or receive any Somme or Sommes of Money for or in reſpect of the ſame before the ſaid Feaſt of Saint Michaell the Archangell laſt paſt,

Wee do hereby ſignify and declare our further Intent and Meaning, and do alſo, for Us our Heires and Succeſſors, will graunt and commaund, that neither the ſaid Sir Lionell Cranfeild nor his Heires Executors Admyniſtrators or Aſſignes, nor any of them, ſhall at any tyme hereafter in any ſorte be accomptable chargeable or anſwearable unto us our Heires or Succeſſors, for or in Reſpecte of any Matter or Thinge whatſoever, touching or concerning the ſaid Office of Maſter or Keeper of our ſaid great Wardrobe done acted or paſt before the ſaid Feaſt of Saint Michaell the Archangell laſt, but ſhall be thereof for ever hereafter fully and clearly acquitted exonerated and diſcharged by Virtue of theiſe preſents, the ſaid Letters Patents or Graunt made to the ſaid Sir Lionell Cranfeild of the ſaid Office, or any other thinge to the contrary notwithſtandinge; and that the ſaid Viſcount ſhall have and receive, and be charged with, all Sommes of Money aſſigned by Acte of Parliament unto the Maiſter of the Greate Wardrobe for the tyme being, which were payable at or before the Feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangell laſt.

And foraſmuch as it is not yet certeynly known, before Accompt in that behalfe made, what the Charge of our Wardrobe and Roabes for the ſaid Yeare, ending at the Feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangell laſt paſt, and for ſome Yeres preceding and not yet accompted for during the tyme the ſaid Viſcount contynued Maſter or Keeper of our ſaid Wardrobe, doth and will amount unto, our Pleaſure is, that the ſaid Viſcount ſhall forthwith accompt with us, as well for the ſaid Year ended at the ſaid Feaſt of Saint Michaell the Archangell laſt, as for all other preceeding Yeres not yet accompted for in which he hath been Keeper or Maſter of our ſaid Greate Wardrobe, and that the Accompt for the ſaid Year ended at the Feaſt of Saint Michaell the Archangell laſt paſt ſhall be paſſed in the Name of the ſaid Viſcount alone, without the ſaid Sir Lionell Cranfeld; and if, by or upon the ſaid Accompt or Accompts in that Behalf to be yeilded or made, it ſhall truly appeare or be found the Sommes by the ſaid Viſcount already diſburſed for the Cauſes aforeſaid, ſhall not in every, or, any ſuch Year reſpectively, wherein he hath been Maſter or Keeper of our ſaid Great Wardrobe, amount to the Somme of eighteene thouſand Pounds, and ſuch other Sommes of Money as he is or ſhall be chargeable with, aſſigned by Acte of Parliamente or otherwiſe, That then the Surpluſage thereof, remayning in the Hands of the ſaid Viſcount over and above every ſeverall Yeares Charge, ſhall be by him his Heires Executors or Adminiſtrators repayed to the uſe of us our Heires and Succeſſors at the Receipt of the Exchequer, but if by or uppon ſuch Accompt or Accompts of the ſaid Viſcount, in that behalf to be yealded or made, the ſaid Charge ſhall truly appeare and be ſound to ariſe or amount unto more than the ſaid Somme of eighteene thouſand Pounds, and ſuch other Sommes of Money as he ſhall be chargeable with aſſigned by Act of Parliament or otherwiſe, in every or any of the ſaid Yeares yet unaccounted for, that then, and ſo often in ſuch Caſe ſoe much lawfull Engliſh Money as the ſame Charge ſhall appeare to ariſe or amount unto more then the ſaid ſeverall Sommes, as aforeſaid, in every or any of the ſame Years, ſhall be forthwith by our ſaid Commiſſioners, or by the Treaſurer, Chauncellor, Undertreaſurer and Chamberlayne of our ſaid Exchequer for the tyme being, well and truly ſatiſfied and payed to the ſaid Viſcount his Executors or Aſſignes, out of the Treaſure of Us our Heires and Succeſſors remayneing in the ſaid Receipt at Weſtminſter and theiſe our Letters Patents, or the Inrolment thereof, ſhall be, to the ſaid Commiſſioners Treaſurer Chauncellor or Undertreaſurer and Chamberlaynes of our ſaid Exchequer for the tyme being, a ſufficient Warrant and Diſcharge in that behalfe.

And whereas our Intent and Meaning was, and yet is, that the ſaid Viſcount Doncaſter would ſtill contynue Gentleman of our Roabes, and make Proviſion of our Roabes Apparell and other neceſſaries for the uſe of our own Perſon, notwithſtanding our ſaid Grant made to the ſaid Sir Lionell Cranfeild, and notwithſtanding the Proviſion of the Roabes Apparrell and other neceſſaries for the uſe of the Perſon of us or our Predeceſſors hath been heretofore made by the Keeper of the ſaid Great Wardrobe, or may be reputed or taken to be part or parcell of or belonging unto the ſaid Office of Keeper of our Great Wardrobe.

And whereas the ſaid Annuytees of Thirtene thouſand Pounds and Five thouſand Pounds per Annum, amounting together unto Eightene thouſand Pounds per Annum, weare by our firſt mentioned Letters Patents graunted unto the ſaid Viſcount, as well in reſpect of the Proviſion of our ſaid Roabes Apparell and other Neceſſaries for the uſe of our Perſon, as in the reſpect of the other Charges of our Great Wardrobe:

Our Pleaſure was and is, that the ſaid James Viſcount Doncaſter ſhould and ſhall from the Feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangell laſt paſt, for and towards the provideing and prepareing of our Roabes and Apparell, and other Neceſſaries for the uſe of our Perſon, have and receive yearly the Somme of Fower thouſand Pounds, and that the ſaid Sir Lionell Cranfeild, and ſuch others as ſhall ſucceed him in the Place or Office of Keeper of the Great Wardrobe, ſhould and ſhall from that tyme alſo, for and towards the Charges and Expences of the ſaid Wardrobe have and receive Fowerteen thouſand Pounds per Annum over and above the Aſſignements in that behalfe made by Act of Parliament, and that the ſaid yearly Somme of Fowerteen thouſand Poundes from and after the Feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangell laſt paſt ſhall be yearly and every year, and from tyme to tyme, accompted for by the ſaid Sir Lionell Cranfeild, and the ſaid Annuity or yearly Somme of Fower thouſand Pounds ſhall be yearly and every Year, from and after the ſaid Feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangell laſt paſt from tyme to tyme accompted for by the ſaid Viſcount Doncaſter according to our further Pleaſure herein after expreſſed; and that as well the ſaid Annuity or yearly Somme of Fower thouſand Pounds payable to the ſaid Viſcount Doncaſter, as alſo the ſaid yearly Sum of Fowertene thouſand Pounds payable to the Maſter or Keeper of our Great Wardrobe ſhall be ſeverally and reſpectively payed in hand by way of Impreſt or Advance, to the end the Proviſions

A.D 1619. 17 Jac. 1. incident to theire ſeverall Places may be provided the more huſbandlike and better cheap; according to which our intent the ſaid Sir Lionell Cranfeild hath, by virtue of our ſaid firſt mentioned Letters Patents, and before this our Revocation of them, received the Somme of Eight thouſand and five hundred Pounds by way of Impreſt or Advance for the half Yeare, to be ended at the Feaſt of the Annunciation of the bleſſed Virgin Mary now next coming, as well in reſpect of, and for, and towards the Expences of the ſaid Great Wardrobe, as for Proviſion of our Roabes and Apparell, of which Somme he hath payed unto the ſaid Viſcount the Somme of Two thouſand Pounds for and towards the Proviſion of our Roabes and Apparell for the ſame halfe Year to be ended at the ſaid Feaſt of th'Annunciation of the bleſſed Virgin Mary next commeing; which Somme of Two thouſand Pounds is to be accompted for by the ſaid Viſcount, and the reſidue, being Six thouſand five hundred Pounds, is to be accompted for by the ſaid Sir Lionell Cranfeld:

And therefore our Pleaſure is, and We do hereby, for Us our Heires and Succeſſors, graunt that the ſaid Sir Lionell Cranfeld his Heirs Executors or Adminiſtrators, ſhall not at any tyme hereafter be chargeable or accomptable with or for the ſaid ſomme of Two thouſand Pounds payed to the ſaid Viſcount, but ſhall for ever be acquited and diſcharged thereof, and the ſaid Viſcount his Heirs Executors and Adminiſtrators ſhall be chargeable and accomptable for the ſame, our ſaid firſt mentioned Letters Patents, or any thing therein, or any thing in theiſe Preſents contayned, or any other matter or thing whatſoever to the contrary notwithſtanding.

And, for the more full effecting of our Will and Pleaſure herein, and for the Conſiderations aforeſaid, and for divers other good Cauſes and Conſiderations Us hereunto moveing, of our eſpeciall Grace, certeyne Knowlege and mere Motion, we have given and granted, and, by theiſe Preſents, for Us our Heires and Succeſſors, do give and grant unto the ſaid Sir Lionell Cranfeild, now Maſter of our Court of Wards and Liveries and Keeper or Maſter of our Great Wardrobe, and to his Succeſſors Keepers or Maſters of the Great Wardrobe for the tyme being and his or theire Aſſignes, as well one Annuyty or yearly ſomme of Thirteene thouſand Pounds, as one other Annuyty or yearly ſomme of One thouſand Pounds of lawfull Money of England by the Yeare;

A.D.1619. 17 Jac. 1.

To have, hould, perceive, receive, take and enjoy the ſaid Annuyties or yearly ſommes of Thirteene thouſand Pounds and One thouſand Pounds to him the ſaid Sir Lionell Cranfeild, and to his Succeſſors Keepers or Maſters of the Greate Wardrobe for the tyme being, and his and theire Aſſignes, untill We our Heirs or Succeſſors, by Letters Patents under the Great Seal of England, ſhall ſignify our or theire Pleaſure to the contrary, the ſaid Annuity or yearly ſomme of Thirteene thouſand Pounds to be perceived, received, taken and had out of the Subſidies, Impoſts, Sommes of Money, Rents and other Duties due or payable, or to be due or payable unto Us our Heires or Succeſſors for or in reſpect of French, Gaſcoigne and Rheniſh Wines, or for or in reſpect of all every or any of them, at and by the handes of the Farmors or Collectors of Us our Heires or Succeſſors for the tyme being of the ſaid Subſidies, Impoſts, Sommes of Money, and other Duties due or payable, or to be due or payable, of or for any of the ſaid kynde of Wynes, or, in default thereof, at the Receipt of the Exchequer of Us our Heires or Succeſſors, by the handes of the Commiſſioners for the Treaſury, the Treaſurer Undertreaſurer and Chamberlaynes of the ſaid Exchequer, or ſome of them out of the Treaſure of Us our Heires and Succeſſors, from tyme to tyme remayning in the Receipt of the ſaid Exchequer, at two Feaſts or Tearms in the Year; that is to ſay, at the Feaſt of the Annunciation of the bleſſed Virgin Mary Seven thouſand Pounds, and at the Feaſt of Saint Michaell the Archangell Six thouſand Pounds yearly, or within forty Dayes next after either of the ſaid Feaſts; the firſt Payment to be made at the Feaſt of the Annunciation of the bleſſed Virgin Mary now next enſueing, or within forty Dayes after the ſame Feaſt; and the ſaid Annuity or yearly Somme of One thouſand Pounds to be perceived, received, taken and had at the Feaſts of the Annunciation of the bleſſed Virgin Mary and Saint Michael the Archangell yearly and every Year by equall Portions, or within forty Days next after either of the ſaid Feaſts, out of the Subſidies, Impoſts, Sommes of Money, Rents, and other Dueties due or payable, or to be due or or payable unto Us our Heires or Succeſſors, for or in reſpect of Wynes comonly called Sackes, Canaries, Hollocks, Cutes, Teynts, Muskadells and other Spaniſh Wynes, and Wynes comonly called Sweete Wynes, or for or in reſpect of all every or any of them, at and by the handes of the Farmors or Collectors of Us our Heires or Succeſſors for the tyme being of the ſaid Subſidies, Impoſts, Sommes of Money, and other Duties, due or payable, or to be due or payable, of or for any of the ſaid kinde of Wynes, or, in default thereof, at the Receipt of the Exchequer of Us our Heires and Succeſſors, by the hands of the Commiſſioners for the Treaſury, the Treaſurer, Undertreaſurer and Chamberlains of the ſaid Exchequer, or ſome of them, out of the Treaſure of Us our Heires and Succeſſors from tyme to tyme remaining in the Receipt of the ſaid Exchequer; the firſt Payment thereof to be made at the Feaſt of the Annunciation of the bleſſed Virgin Mary now next enſueing, or within forty Days next after the ſame Feaſt.

And knowe ye alſoe that We, intending that this our Graunt may take the better effect, have graunted, and by theiſe Preſents, for Us our Heires and Succeſſors, do graunt, that the ſaid Farmor or Farmors, Collector or Collectors, or their Receivor or Receivors of the Subſidies, Impoſts, Somes of Money, and other Dueties of all and every the ſaid kinde of Wynes reſpectively, and other the Perſon and Perſons that are or ſhall be charged or chargeable to Us our Heires or Succeſſors for or by reaſon of the ſame, or any of them, their Executors Adminiſtrators and Aſſignes, and every of them reſpectively, ſhall and may deteyne from Us our Heires and Succeſſors in theire owne hands, to be by them their Executors Adminiſtrators or Aſſignes, payed and delivered over to the ſaid Sir Lionell Cranfeild, or to his Succeſſors Keepers or Maſters of the Greate Wardrobe aforeſaide for the tyme being, or to his or their Aſſignes reſpectively, according to the true intent and meaning of theſe Preſents and not otherwiſe; the ſaid Annuities or yearly ſommes of Tirteene thouſand Pounds and One thouſand Pounds herein before mentioned to be granted to the ſaid Sir Lionell Cranfeild and his Succeſſors Maſters or Keepers of the ſaid Great Wardrobe for the tyme being, and every part and parcell thereof reſpectively, dureing the contynuance of this our preſent Graunt, any Reſervation, Covenant, Proviſo, or other thinge whatſoever in any Indenture or Indentures or Letters Patents contained or to be contayned, or any Bond or Bonds or other matter or thinge whatſoever had made or done, or to be had made or done, to the contrary hereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding; and that all and every the ſaid Farmor or Farmors of Us our Heires or Succeſſors of the ſaid Cuſtomes, Subſidies, Impoſts, Sommes of Money, and Duties, ſhall nevertheles have, hold, receive and enjoye all the Benefit of all and every their Graunt and Graunts according to the true meaning of their ſeveral Letters Patents Grants and Demiſes thereof to them made and to be made, and of every or any of them, and of theiſe Preſents, in ſuch ſorte as if the ſame Sommes of Money had been payed at the Receipt of the Exchequer of Us our Heires and Succeſſors at Weſtminſter, to the uſe of Us our Heires and Succeſſors, and the ſame Annuytyes, herein before mentioned to be had and taken by the ſaid Sir Lionell Cranfeild and his Aſſignes, and by the Keeper or Maſter of the ſaid Great Wardrobe aforeſaid for the tyme being and his Aſſignes, being ſoe payed to him or them according to the intent of theiſe Preſents, neither the ſaid Farmor or Farmors, or other Perſon or Perſons aforeſaid, nor any of them, theire or any of theire Sureties, or the Heires, Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſignes of them, ſhall incurr any Penalty Loſſe or Forfeiture unto Us our Heires or Succeſſors by reaſon of Non-payment of the ſame to Us our Heires or Succeſſors;

And therefore we do by theſe Preſents, for us our Heires and Succeſſors, further authorize will and require, as well the Executor or Executors of the ſaid Sir John Swynerton as the ſaid Sir William Girroway and Sir Nicholas Salter, now reſpectively Farmors, and all others that hereafter for the tyme being ſhall be Farmor or Farmors of the ſaid Subſidies, Impoſts, Sommes of Money and other Duties of the ſaid kyndes of Wynes or in Caſe the ſaid Subſidies, Impoſts, Sommes of Money and other Duties, or any of them, be or ſhall be out of the Farme, the Collector or Collectors of the ſaid Subſidies, Impoſts Sommes of Money and Duties, or other Officer or Officers to whom it may appertaine for the tyme being, A.D. 1619 17 Jac. 1.

being, and every of them reſpectively, to pay the ſaid Annuityes or yearly Sommes of thirteen thouſand Pounds and one thouſand Pounds and every Part and Parcell of them and every of them, unto the ſaid Sir Lionell Cranfeild and to the Maſter or Keeper of the ſaid Great Wardrobe for the tyme being or his or theire Aſſignes, according to the true Intent and meaning of theſe Preſents;

And we do further, for Us our Heires and Succeſſors, by theiſe Preſents ſtraightly charge commaund will require and authorize the Commiſſioners for the Treaſury of us our Heires and Succeſſors for the tyme being, and the Treaſurer, Undertreaſurer, Chamberlaynes and Barons of the Exchequer of Us our Heires and Succeſſors for the tyme being to give full Allowance thereof accordingly, and that they and every of them, for the better ſecureing of our ſaid Farmors and Collectors from tyme to tyme hereafter, uppon Requeſt of the ſaid Farmors or Collectors or any of them, and uppon the ſhewing of any Acquittance or other wrighting under the Hands of the ſaid Sir Lionell Cranfeild, ſoe longe as he ſhall be Keeper or Maſter of the ſaid Great Wardrobe, or any other Keeper or Maiſter of the ſaid Great Wardrobe for the tyme being, teſtifieing or acknowledging the Receipt of any Somme or Sommes of Money of, for, or in Reſpect of the ſaid Annuities or yearly Sommes of thirteene thouſand Pounds and one thouſand Pounds herin before mentioned to be to him and them given and graunted or any Part of them or either of them, to cauſe Tallies to be leavied ſtriken and delivered at the ſaid Exchequer purporting the Payment of the ſaid Annuityes, or ſuch Part of them or either of them as ſhall be mentioned to be received in any ſuch Acquittance or writing by the Keeper or Maſter of the ſaid Great Wardrobe for the tyme being as is aforeſaid, in ſuch ſorte as if the ſame had or ſhould have been payed by the ſaid Farmor or Farmors, Collector or Collectors into the Receipt of the Exchequer to the uſe of us our Heirs and Succeſſors in currant Money of England, or, in Default of the ſaid Farmor or Farmors, Collector or Collectors, their Executors Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns or any of them, or other Officers aforeſaid, to make or cauſe to be made Payment of the ſaid Annuityes and of every Part and Parcell of them and either of them, unto the ſaid Sir Lionell Cranfeild or his Aſſignes, or to the Keeper or Maſter of the Great Wardrobe for the tyme being or his Aſſignes, out of the Treaſure of Us our Heires or Succeſſors there remayning or to be remayning, according to the true Meaning hereof, and theſe Preſents, or the Inrollment or Exemplification thereof, ſhall be in every Reſpect, to all Men to whom it ſhall appertayne, a ſufficient Warrant and Diſcharge for the Payment Allowance doeing and performing of all and ſinguler the Premiſſes according to the true Meaning of this our Grant, without any further or other Warrant or Declaration of the Pleaſure of Us our Heirs or Succeſſors in that behalf to be had procured or obtayned; any former Agreement Reſervation or Bond heretofore had or made to the contrary notwithſtanding.

JAQUES, par la Grace de Dieu, Roy de la Grande Bretaigne France & Ireland Defenſeur de la Foy &c. a tous ceulx qui ces Preſentes verront ou oyront, Salut.

Comme ainſi ſoit que pour diverſes & grandes Conſiderations tendentes au Bien & repos comun, nous aurions trouve bon de Renouveller la Correſpondence & Alliance Defenſive reciproque, la quelle avions faicte & conclue avecque pluſieurs Electeurs Princes & Eſtates Uniz en Alliance, come il appert par le Traicte d'icelle, en Date de vingt huiectieſme de Mars l'An mil ſix cent & douze ſtilo veteri.

Scavoir faiſons que ſur la Propoſition faict a celle fin au Nom des dict Seigneurs Electeurs Princes & Eſtats Uniz, par le Sieur Chriſtophre Burggrave & Baron de Dona, Ambaſſadeur de noſtre treſcher Filz Frederick Count Palatin du Rhin Prince Electeur, &, pour le preſent, Vicaire & Adminiſtrateur du Saint Empire es Paiis du Rhein de Sueve & du Droitt Franconien Duc de Bavier &c. come ayant Pouvoir de par tous les aultres Electeurs Princes & Eſtates ſuſdictes, & ſur le meſme Fondement; aſcavoir, pour la Conſervacion de la Paix & le Repos commun de toute la Chriſtiente, & pour la manutention de la Grandeur & Autorite du Saint Empire de la Majeſte Imperiale, & des Conſtitutions Privileges & Droicts du dit Empire, come auſi pour l'affirmiſſement de la dit Union ſi juſtement fondee, & de Droict des Princes pretendentes au Juliers Cleves &c. nous avons renouvelle & eſclare le dit Traicte en la maniere & ſoube les Condicions enſuivants, LA DICT ALLIANCE ſera Defenſive & reciproque entre Nous nos Royalmes & Subjectes, & de entre des dicts Sieurs Electeurs Princes & Eſtates & leurs Territories & Subjects.

Cas advenant qu'a cauſe del Union faicte entre les Subdicts Electeurs Princes & Eſtats & des Conſequences & Dependances d'icelle, ou a cauſe de l'Aſſiſtance & Secours que les dicts Sieurs Electeurs Princes & Eſtats ont donne, ou cy apres pourront donner pour la conſervation de la legitime Poſſeſſion Droicts & Juſtice de la Cauſe des Princes intereſſes en la Succeſſion les Duches de Juliers, Cleves Montes & appertenances d'iceulx, ils ſeroient Aſſailliz ou Moleſtes par voye de Faict ou autrement, contre l'ordre de la Juſtice & Conſtitutions de Saint Empire, Nous promettons & Nous obligeons de les aſſiſter ſecourir & defendre contre quelcunque qui ſe ſoit; come de meſme les dicts Electeurs Princes & Eſtates s'obligent que ſi Nous nos Royalmes & Subjects ſoyons Attacques ou Inquietes, ſoit par Mer ſoit per Terre, qu'ils nous Aſſiſteront auſi & Secoureront ſi promtement que faire ſe pourra.

Nous promettons & Nous obligeons donner aux dicts Sieurs Electeurs Princes & Eſtats, eſtants Aſſailliz comme deſſus, le Secours de Quatre mil Hommes a Pied armes & fourniz a la Guerre come il appertient, ou a cauſe que la Solde, pour l'entertenement des Gens de Pied en Alemaigne, eſt beacoup plus haulte que ne porte la Liſte ordinaire de la Solde de nez Soldats telle Somme d'Argent que la Solde de Quatre mil Hommes pourra porter, ſelon l'eſtate & formulaire auſſy annexe au Traicte precedent, de la part des dicts Siegneurs Electeurs & Princes Uniz faict, ſuyvant le reglement de leur Milice des Charges & Entretenements des Gens de Pied, avec leurs Officiers & Choſes neceſſaires a la Guerre, demeurant tous jourz au nôtre choix d'Envoyer l'un ou l'atre.

Les dicts Electeurs Princes & Eſtates Uniz promettent & ſe obligent de nous Secourir & Aſſiſter, eſtant Aſſailliz par Mer ou par Terre en quelcun de nos Royaulmes, de Deux mill Hommes a Pied armez & fourniz a la Guerre, ou d'aultent en Argent que la charge d'iceux mantenera, ſelon le ſuſdict eſtat des dicts Electeurs & Princes d'envoyer l'un ou l'autre.

Les dicts Gens de Guerre, ſoit de l'un ou de l'autre part, ſeront commandes par un Chef ou pluſieurs, qui ſe ſubmitteront au Chef ou General de la partie aſſiſtee, pour eſtre employez par le dict Chef au plus grand advantage du Service de la dicte Partie; la dicte Aſſiſtance & Secours, tant de l'un

Quant a la Tranſportation par Mer des dicts Gens de Guerre, d'autant que les dicts Sieurs Electeurs & Princes ne ſont pas pourveus de Navires, nous nous chargerons d'icelles.

Rembourſement ſera faict de toutes Charges des Levees Entretenement & aultres Frais des dicts Gens de Guerre, ou d'aultant d'argent qui ſera fourny, ſoit au l'un ou au l'autre partie, ſuivant les dicts Liſtes, & ce dedans trois ans apres la Charge faicte, ſi ce n'eſt qu'il ſoit aultrement convenu par nouveau Traicte.

Et d'aultant que Nous & les dicts Princes avons des aultres Alliances Defenſives, & particuliers avec la France & Provinces Unies des Pais bas; Cas advenant que l'un d'iceulx fuſt Aſſaillie auparavant que Nous fuſmes requiſes des Princes de Nous pour le Secours accorde en ce Traicte, ou entendu qu'eſtants deſia entres en Guerre pour la defenſe de quelques uns des aultres Confoederez, les Contractanz ne ſeront obligiez que donner reciproquement la moitie du Secours cy deſſus ſpecifie.

A.D. 1619. 17 Jac. 1. Semblablement, ſi Nous chez Nous ou les Princes ſeront aſſailliz chez eux, Nous ſerons tous les deux non ſeulement excuſez & diſcharges d'envoyer aulcun Secours dehors, mais auſſy pourront l'un & l'autre rapeller le Secours apparavant envoye dedans trois mois apres que la Significacion en aura eſte deuement faicte.

Les dicts Electeurs Princes & Eſtats ne pourront faire aulcune Alliance avec quelqu'aultre Prince & Eſtate, au prejudice de ceſte cy; ce que Nous promettons auſſy de ne faire point de noſtre part.

Cett Alliance durera ſix ans, & les Succeſſeurs reciproquement, tant de Nous que des Princes, ſeront compris en ce Traicte, & ſera en la liberte des Contractants & de leurs Succeſſeurs, de convenir de la Prorogation de cett Alliance un an avant expiracion du dict terme de ſix ans; que l'Alliance deſia contractee, ou par Nous, ou par les dicts Electeurs & Princes avec des aultres Princes ou Eſtatz quelconquez, ne ſoit nullement violee chargee ou prejudiciee, par ce Traicte en ſort que ſoit; tous les quelles Articles, ainſi Renouvelles & Eſchairies, nous approuvons ratifions & promettons, en Foy ac Parole de Roy, tant par Nous que par nous Heretiers & Succeſſeurs, de les garder obſerver & entretener, & les faire garder obſerver & entretenir inviolablement de point en point ſans jamais aller in veuet au contraire.

En teſmoinge de quel Nous avons ſigne ces Preſentes & noſtre main propre, & a icelles faict mettre & appoſier noſtre Grand Scel d'Angleterre.

qui ſera en leur pouvoir, comme auſſy ilz feront tenir ou porteront promptement & fidelement les Lettres & Comptes les uns des autres.

LE COMMERCE ET TRAFFIC ſera libre es Indes Orientales, tant pour la Compagnie d'Angleterre q'pour celle des Provinces Unies, tellement que chaſcune des dictes Compagnies y pourra employer a ſon compte ſepare & particulier tel Fonds & Capital q'bon luy ſemblera.

ET pour de commune Main procurer le bien & ſoulagement du Commerce, on fera tout Debuoir de reigler & diminuer les Daces & Impoſitions extraordinaires & exceſſives, 'qui y ont n'agueres eſte miſes, comme auſſy on fera ceſſer la pratique & liberalite des dons & preſens.

ON TASCHERA de reduire par commun Advis es Indes toutes Marchandizes a un Pris raiſonnable, & en la vante ou debit qui ſe fera par deca en ces Royaumes & Provinces Unies, de celles qui ſeront acheptees es dictes Indes a un meſme Pris & Taxe commune, on conviendra de temps d'un certain Pris au deſſoubz, du quel il ne ſera licite aux uns ny aux autres de les Vendre.

ET pour prevenir toutes Jalouſies & Differents qui pourroyent naiſtre a l'advenir, les Commis de part & d'autre, adviſeront & s'accorderont par enſemble d'un Pris modere, ſelon qu'ilz eſtimeront convenir pour l'achapt de Poiures a Bantam & autres Lieux de Java Major, demeurant la liberte du Commerce es autres Quartiers des Indes comme auſſy au dit Java Major, pour le regard des autres Marchandizes ſuivant le Troiſieſme Article, &, a ceſt fin, ſeront Ordonnees & Commiſes certaines Perſonnes expertes pour les achepter, & l'Achapt en eſtant faict de ceſte facon ilz ſeront partagez egalement par Moitie aux uns & aux autres.

LA COMPAIGNIE ANGLOISE aura libre exercice & jouiſſance de Traffic au Lieu de Palicate, & portera la Moitie de la Diſpence pour l'entretennement du Fort & Garniſon qui y eſt a commencer au temps de la publicacion qui ſe fera de ce Traicte en ces Quartiers la.

ES ISLES des Moluques Bauda & Amboyna, le Commerce ſera par commun Advis tellement reigle, que la Compagnie d'Angleterre y Jouira de la Troiſieſme Partie de tout le Traffic, tant pour l'apport & vante des Marchandizes au ſuſdites Iſles, que pour les Fruits & Marchandizes qui y croiſſent, & s'en tranſportent, & ceux des Provinces Unies auront les deux autres tiers.

ET pour le regard de l'Achapt & Diviſion des dits Fruits & Marchandizes, les principaux Commis & Facteurs des deux Nations Reſidents par dela, les achepteront au Prix courant, & diviſeront reſpectivement par ſort la Portion contingente aux uns & aux autres, &, a ceſte fin, auront libre acces & demeure es Forts & Magaſins des uns & des autres.

ET dautant qu'un Commerce & Traffic ſy eſlongue, & ſi important ne ſe peut aſſeurer ſans une vigoureuſe Defenſe, icelle ſe fera par le fourniſſement & entretennement de vinght Navires de Guerre, Moitie de l'une, Moitie de l'autre Compagnie; le quel nombre, ſi on le trouve expedient, ſera y apres augmente ou diminue par commun advis ſelon l'exigence des occaſions & occurrences, & ſeront chacun des dits Navires du Port de 6 a 800 Thonneaux, garnis chacun de 150 Hommes, de 30 Pieces de Canon, & autres Munitions neceſſaires, & ſera la Groſſeur du dit Canon portant Bales du Poids de huict a dixhuict Livres.

ET le Conſeil de la Defenſe adviſera quel Nombre de Galeres Fregates & autres petits Vaiſſeaux, ſera en outre neceſſaire pour laſte Defenſe.

LES Fortereſſes & Garniſons qui ſont es Iſles des Moluques Bauda & Amboyne ſeront entretenues des Daces & Impoſitions qui ſe leveront ſur tous Fruits & Marchandiſes, qu'on tranſportera des ſuſdites Iſles; les quelles Daces & Impoſitions ſeront taxees ſelon l'Ordonnance du Conſeil comun de Defence, & receves par les Commis de part & d'autre, & deſlivrees de temps en temps, autant qu'il ſera neceſſaire aux Treſoriers des Compagnies, pour en payer les Soldats.

Pour avec ordre eſtablir & mieux adminiſter ceſte Defenſe, il ſera erige un Conſeil de Defenſe compoſe de huict Perſonnes des premiers & principaux Officiers, eſtans par dela; les quelles ſeront priſes & eſlues en Nombre egal, tant de l'une que de l'autre Compagnie, & Preſideront par tour.

CE CONSEIL ordonnera de ce qui concernera le faict de la Defenſe commune par Mer, & diſtribuera les Navires de Guerre en telz endroits qu'il trouvera neceſſaire.

A.D. 1619. 17 Jac. 1.

COMME AUSSY il reiglera les Daces & Impoſitions qui ſeront neceſſaires pour le entretenement des dits Forts & Garniſons d'iceux, & ſera authoriſe de faire rendre compte aux Recepueurs des dites Impoſitions.

LES NAVIRES DE GUERRE demeureront touſjours es Lieux qui leur ſeront aſſignez, & ſuiveront les Mandements du dit Conſeil de Defenſe, ſans eſte employez a tranſporter Marchandiſes en ces Royaumes ou Provinces.

NEANTMOINS pourront les dites Navires, pendant qu'ilz ſeront es Indes, eſtre quelques fois employez a porter des Marchandiſes d'un lieu a autre pour le Service de leurs Compagnies reſpectivement, ſi le dict Conſeil le trouve bon & non prejudiciable a la Defenſe.

ET, en cas de neceſſite, il ſera permis au dit Conſeil d'employer auſſi les Navires Marchants en tel nombre, & pour tel temps, qu'il trouvera neceſſaire au faict de la Defenſe.

LA PERTE ET DOMMAGE qui arrivera par quelque Rencontre occaſionnee pour la Defenſe commune, ou bien en a lant ou retournant de la Defenſe, ſe portera egallement & ſera repare a communs frais, comme auſſy le Gaine & Priſes qui ſe feront, vieudront au Proffit commun.

LE MESME s'obſervera pour le regard des Navires Marchants eſtans employez en meſme occaſion, & durant c'eſt employ la Solde & les Vivres des Matelots ſeront aux Diſpens communs des deux Compagnies; &, en conſideration du divertiſſement que par iceluy ilz auront ſouffert en leur Commerce, ilz recepuront en outre telle Recompenſe qu'il leur ſera adjugee par le dit Conſeil de Defenſe.

MAIS, ſi aucun Navire de Guerre eſtant a la Rade en ſon Quartier, ou en y allant, ou en revenant, recoit quelque Perte par Tempeſte, ou autre malheur, laſte Perte ne ſe communequera point, ains demeurera toute entiere ſur la Compagnie a qui appartiendra le dit Navire.

ET pour prevenir les Diſputes qui pourroient naiſtre ſur la valeur des Navires perdus, ou grandement endommagez, le Conſeil de Defenſe fera l'eſtimation de tous les Navires de Guerre & autres avant que de les Employer pour la Defenſe commune.

LES FORTERESSES, tant d'un que d'autre part, demeureront es mains de ceux qui les poſſedent preſentement.

A.D. 1619. 17 Jac. 1.

ET d'autant qu'il a eſte meu Queſtion touchant le baſtiment de quelques nouvelles Forteresſes, que la Compagnie Angloiſe a juge leur eſtre neceſſaires pour la ſeurete de leurs Gens & Biens a eſte convenu que la dite Queſtion demeurera en ſurſeance pour le Terme de deux ou trois ans, a fin qu'apres avoir deuement recogneu & adviſe par enſemble combien de Forteresſes quelles & en quelles Places ſeront dela en avant neceſſaires, alors laſte Queſtion ſe puiſſe reſumer, & tellement accomoder qu'elle puiſſe reuſſir au contentement commun & reciproque des uns & des autres.

QUANT aux Forts qui ſeront acquis es Moluques, ou en aucuns autres Quartiers des Indes, par l'Induſtrie & Forces Communes des deux Compagnies, ilz ſeront egalement poſſedez gardez & entretenus conjoyntement, avec des Garniſons de l'une & l'autre Compagnie, qui y ſeront en nombre egal, ou bien ilz ſeront partagez egalement entre les deux Compagnies, ſelon l'advis du Conſeil de Defenſe eſtant par dela.

ON FERA conjoyntement debuoir d'ouvrir & eſtablir le Traffic libre en la Chine & autres Quartiers des Indes par telles Voyes & moyens que le Conſeil commun trouvera eſtre expedient.

AUCUNE des deux Compagnies ne previendra ny exclurra l'autre a l'advenir, ſoit par moyen de Fortificacions ou de Contracts que l'on voudroit faire cy apres d'aucune Partie des Indes, mais tout le Traffic ſera libre & commun a l'une & à l'autre en chaque Endroit d'icelles.

COMME auſſi il eſt convenu que, ſans le conſentement de l'une & l'autre Compagnie, aucuns autres, n'eſtans point du Corps d'icelles, ne ſeront admis a la participation du Benefice du preſent Traicte; & au cas qu'aucuns des Subjects de ſa dite Majeſte ou de ſuſdits Seigneurs Eſtats n'eſtant point du dict Corps, voluſſent entreprendre aucune choſe au prejudice de ce que deſſus, ou des Privileges d'aucune des dits Compagnies; Ceux des dits Compagnies s'esforceront conjointement ou ſeparement de les en empeſcher & de maintenir reſpectivement les Privileges d'icelles Compagnies, & ſeront ſa dite Majeſte de la Grand Bretagne & les dits Seigneurs Eſtats ſuppliez de ne vouloir authoriſer l'Erection d'aucune autre Societe pour s'immiſcer au Traffic & en la Navigation des dits Indes durant le terme de ce Traicte.

Whereas We taking into our Princelie Conſideration that divers good and neceſſarie Proviſions have byne heretofore made, as well by Acte of Parliament as otherwiſe, for the well Garblinge of Spices and Druggs, to the intent that the Subjects of this our Realm ſhould not be occaſioned to uſe any unwholſome Spices or Druggs to the ympayring of their Health, or to buy the bad inſtead of the good to the ympairinge of their Subſtance;

And that the Druggs (called Tobacco) being of late Years grown frequent in this our Realme and other our Dominions was daylie ſould ungarbled, whereby more inconvenience groweth and ariſeth to our loving Subjects then by any other Druggs whatſoever;

And being alſoe informed that the many and ſundry Abuſes practized and committed by Marchantes, Maſters of Ships and others, in concealing and uttering the ſaid Tobacco without paying any Ympoſt or Cuſtome for the ſame, greate Loſſe and Damage accreweth to Us notwithſtandinge any Lawes Statutes or other Courſe heretofore taken;

For preventinge thereof Wee did, by our Letters Patents under our Great Seal of England, bearing Date at Weſtminſter the five and twentieth Day of Maye laſt, prohibit and forbid that noe Perſon or Perſons ſhould be at any time after the Daye of the Date of the ſaid Letters Patents within our Realm of England, the Dominion of Wales, and Port and Towne of Barwicke, or any of them, or within our Realme of Ireland, or any part of them or any of them, by himſelfe or themſelves, or his or their Servants or Factors or any others, directlie or indirectlie, ſell or put to Sale, or attempt preſume or goe about any manner of way to ſell or put to Sale, either in Groſſe or by Retayle, any Tobacco of what ſorte kinde or groweth whatſoever, before the Cuſtome and Ympoſte therefore due were paide, and the ſame Tobacco were viewed diſtinguiſhed and ſealed by the Officer or Officers of Us our Heires and Succeſſors in that behalf to be conſtituted and appointed, as by our ſaid Letters Patents, amongſt divers other things therein contayned at large appeareth.

And whereas afterwardes, to the intent our Will and Pleaſure in the Premiſſes might be the better knowne to all our lovinge Subjects whom yt may concerne, Wee did, by our Proclamation bearing Date the tenth Day of November laſt paſt, notefie publiſhe and declare the ſame our Pleaſure, willing and commaunding that all and everie the Premiſſes therein mentioned ſhould be from tyme to tyme in everie reſpect dulie performed executed and obſerved according to the true intent and meaning of the ſame our Letters Patents, as by our ſaid Proclamation more at large appeareth: Wee, continewing our former Reſolution and Purpoſe to provide for the Health and Welfare of our loving Subjects, have determined ſoe to proceed in the effectinge thereof, that the badd and unwholſome Tobacco maye be ſevered diſtinguiſhed and diſcerned, and yet the good receive noe prejudice, to the hindrance of the ſale of the Comoditie, and prejudice of the Marchante.

Know ye now that We, repoſinge aſſured Truſt and Confidence in the Learning Skill and Experience of you the ſaid Sir William Paddy, Mathewe Gwynne, Simon Harvey, Thomas Bourne, Richard Aſhcrofte, Thomas Hampſon, Richard Bacon and Edmond Phillipps, have aſſigned and appoynted you to be our Commiſſioners, and doe hereby, for Us our Heirs and Succeſſors, give and graunt full Power and Authoritie unto you, or any five or more of you (whereof one of you to be a Phiſition, one other a Marchant, one other a Grocer, and one other an Apothecarie) to aſſemble and meet together in ſuch convenient place and places as you ſhall think meet; and, upon ſerious and adviſed conſideration of all neceſſarie circumſtances incident to that buſines, to conceive make ordayn treat digeſt and ſet down ſuch and ſoe many good and fit Ordinances Orders and Directions in Writing for the manner of garbling and diſtinguiſhing of the aforeſaid Drug called Tobacco, according to the true intent of our ſaid Letters Patents and Proclamation, within our ſaid Realms of England and Ireland and the Domynion of Wales, and Port and Town of Barwicke, as to you ſhall be thought moſt convenient, whereby the Goodnes or Badnes of the ſaid Tobacco may be diſcerned, and the Deceipte and

And further We doe give full Power and Authority unto you, or any three or more of you as is aforeſaid, from

tyme

tyme to tyme during our pleaſure, to hear all and every the Offences and Offendors aforeſaide, and to proceede againſt them and every of them, either according to the forme of the Lawe Eccleſiaſticall, or ſummarily according to the grave Wiſdomes and Diſcretions of you, or any three or more of you as is aforeſaide, and likewiſe to order and determyne the ſame, uſeing and inflicting ſuch Cenſures and Puniſhments only as are hereafter mentioned and preſcribed;

And if you, or any ſuch three or more of you as is aforeſaide, ſhall find by Confeſſion of the Partye, or other ſufficient proof, any Perſon or Perſons to have offended in the Premiſſes or any of them, or refuſing to obey, or performe your Orders, Decrees and Commandements in any things touchinge the Premiſſes or any part thereof, that then you, or any three or more of you as is aforeſaid, ſhall have full Power and Authority, and we doe hereby give unto you, and every three or more of you as is aforeſaid, full Power and Authority in that behalfe to puniſh the ſame Perſon or Perſons ſoe offending, by Cenſures Eccleſiaſticall, or by reaſonable Fyne and Impriſonmente according to the quality and quantity of their Offences, or by all or any the ſaid meanes according to your Diſcretions: And when any Perſon ſhall be convented or proſecuted before you, or any three or more of you as is aforeſaid, for any of the Offences above expreſſed, at the inſtance and ſuite of any Perſon promoting the Office in that behalf; that then you, or any three or more of you as is aforeſaide, ſhall have full Power and Authority, by theſe Preſents, to award ſuch Coſts and Expenſes of the Suite, as well to and againſt the Partye that ſhall preferre and proſecute the ſame Offence, as to and againſt any Party or Parties that ſhall be convented, according as the Cauſes ſhall require and to you in Juſtice ſhall be thought reaſonable; and if the ſaid Coſts and Expenſes, ſo by you taxed or aſſeſſed as aforeſaid, be not paid according to your Order in that behalf, then it ſhall and may be lawfull to and for you, or any three or more of you as is aforeſaid, and we do by theſe Preſents give and grant to you, and every three or more of you as is aforeſaid, full Power and Authority in that behalfe, to cauſe ſuch Perſons to be arreſted and apprehended which refuſe to pay the ſaid Coſts and Expenſes, and to commit them to Priſon, there to remayne till they have ſatisfied the ſame.

And foraſmuch as yf one commit an Offence of Eccleſiaſtical Cognizance in one Dioceſſe or peculiar Juriſdiction, and afterwards depart and remayne in another Dioceſſe or Juriſdiction, before any Suit be therefore commenced or proſecuted in the place where the Offence was committed, he is unpuniſhable by any Ordinary Juriſdiction Eccleſiaſticall, we therefore, to provide that Offendors in theſe Caſes may not eſcape without due Puniſhment, do give Power and Authority unto you, or any three or more of you as is aforeſaid, upon the Certificate and Complaynt thereof to you, or any three or more of you as is aforeſaid in that behalfe, firſt made by the Ordinary of the Dioceſſe, or Judge of the Peculier where the Offence was committed, to ſend for by Letters miſſive, or to cauſe to be apprehended and brought before you, or any three or more of you as is aforeſaid, by Proceſſe of Attachment if need be in manner and forme aforeſaid any Offendor, or any Perſon charged or ſuſpected to have offended in any Cryme of Eccleſiaſtical Cogniſance, other then thoſe which are before particulerly mentioned; And when any ſuch Offender, or Perſon charged or ſuſpected to have offended in any ſuch Cryme as aforeſaid, ſhall appear or be brought before you, or any ſuch three or more of you as is aforeſaid, to ſet downe ſuch Orders from time to time as you, or any three or more of you as is aforeſaid, ſhall in your Diſcretions think meet; Which ſaid Orders, ſo by you, or any three or more of you as is aforeſaid, to be made as aforeſaid, ſhall be to this effect only; That the ſaid Offenders or Perſons charged or ſuſpected to have offended as aforeſaid, ſhall perſonally appear and anſwear to the ſaid Crymes, according to the Lawes Eccleſiaſticall of this Our Kingdom, before the Ordinary or Judge Eccleſiaſticall of the place where the Offence was committed.

And likewiſe we give unto you, and to every ſuch three or more of you as is aforeſaid, full Power and Authority to take ſufficient Bonds or Recognizances, to Our Uſe at your Diſcretions, of all and every the ſaid Offenders or Perſons charged or ſuſpected to have offended as aforeſaid, for the performance of the ſaid Orders as aforeſaid;

A.D. 1620. 18 Jac. 1.

And yf the Offenders or Perſons charged or ſuſpected to have offended as aforeſaid ſhall refuſe to perform your ſaid Orders in manner and form aforeſaid, or to give Bonds to Our Uſe for the performance of the ſaid Orders as aforeſaid, then it ſhall and may be lawful for you, or any three or more of you as is aforeſaid, and we do give unto you, or any three or more of you as is aforeſaid, by theſe Preſents, full Power and Authority in that behalf to puniſh them and every of them by reaſonable Impriſonment according to your Diſcretions.

And further we doe give unto you, or any three or more of you as is aforeſaide, full Power and Authority to take and ſeize, or cauſe to be taken or ſeized ſuch Children and other Perſons which from tyme to tyme ſhal be carryed or conveyed, or ready to be carryed or conveyed into any the Parts beyond the Seas, to the Intente to be there brought upp in Romiſh Religion as aforeſaide, and likewiſe to take and ſeize, or cauſe to be taken and ſeiſed, ſuch Money and other Things which ſhal be appointed to be carried or conveyed into any the Parts beyond the Seas, to and for Mayntenance either of the ſaid Children and other Perſons ſoe carryed, or ready to be carried and conveyed as aforeſaid, or of any other Perſon or Perſons brought upp or remayning in the foreſaide Semynaries or Schooles of Romiſh Religion, and the ſaid Children and other Perſons, which ſhal be taken as is aforeſaid, to deteyne them in ſafe Cuſtody till ſome good Order may be taken for them.

And alſoe we doe give unto you; or any ſuch three or more of you as is aforeſaid, full Power and Authority to ſeize or cauſe to be ſeized all maſſing Stuff Reliques or other like ſuperſtitious things, and to deface the ſame, and cauſe them to be defaced in ſuch manner as from thenceforth they may not ſerve for any ſuperſticious Uſe, without deſtroyeing the Subſtance thereof except otherwiſe it cannot be defaced.

And foraſmuch as, ſince our laſt Commiſſion for Cauſes Eccleſiaſtical graunted under our Greate Seale of England to ſome of you and others, there hath been divers lamentable Complaynts and Petitions delivered, as well to our ſelfe as to our Privy Councell, by many Wives againſt Husbands wherein they have ſuggeſted that without any juſt Cauſe of Offence given by them to their ſaid Husbands in that behalfe, and notwithſtanding that ſome of them have brought to their Husbands great Advancements, Yet, by their Husbands cruell and barbarous Uſage and Breach of the Bonds of holy Wedlocke and other their ungodly Demeanors, they have bene either caſt of or left by their Husbands, or forced to fly from them or leave their Cohabitation without fit Mayntenance given unto them, and that the Ordinary Eccleſiaſticall Courts did not afford them timely and fit meanes of Relief for ſundry Reaſons, and eſpecially becauſe their Neceſſities require above all other Caſes of Grievance a ſummarie Hearinge, and ſpeedy Reliefe being otherwiſe often in Danger to periſh for Want; we therefore, to th'End that, as well our ſelf as our Privy Councell daily ymployed in the higheſt Affaires of State, might be freed of this particular, and alſoe that the juſt Complaynts and diſtreſſed Eſtates of ſuch Wives, in the Caſes aforeſaid, may be with all convenient Expedition heard determyned and relieved in a certayne Court whereunto in that behalfe they may ordinarily repayer for Juſtice; doe give unto you, and every three or more of you as is aforeſaid, full Power and Authority by theſe Preſents in that behalfe, upon every ſuch Complaynt made unto you, or any ſuch three or more of you as is aforeſaid, in all and every the Caſes aforeſaid, by any Wife, or in the behalfe of any Wife againſt her Husband to ſend for by Letters miſſive, or to cauſe to be apprehended and brought before you, or any ſuch three or more of you as is aforeſaid, by Proces of Attachment yf neede be in Manner and Form aforeſaid, all and every ſuch Husbands which, either by their cruell and barbarous Uſage, or by the Breach of the Bonds of holy Wedlock or other their ungodly Demeanor, have or ſhall caſt of or leave their Wives, or force or give their Wives juſt Cauſe to flye from them or leave their Cohabitation. And when any ſuch Husband or Husbands ſo offendinge, or charged or accuſed as aforeſaid to have offended in the Caſes aforementioned, ſhall appeare or be brought before you, or any ſuch three or more of you as is aforeſaide, to proceede to the Examination thereof by all and every the lawful Waies and Meanes before mencioned with all convenient expedition, according to the grave Wiſdomes and Diſcre-

Diſcrecions of you, or any ſuch three or more of you as is aforeſaid;

And we doe further give Power and Authority unto you, or any five or more of you (whereof the ſaid Lord Archbiſhopp of Canterbury, Lord Chauncellor of England, Lord High Treaſorer of England for the tyme being, Lord Privy Seal, the Biſhopp of London, Biſhopp of Wincheſter or Biſhopp of Ely to be alwaies one) finally to hear and determyne in Manner and Forme aforeſaid the ſaid Complaynts and Accuſacions made by or on the behalfe of, any Wife againſt her Husband in the Caſes aforeſaid, and yf you, or any ſuch three or more of you as is firſt above mentioned, ſhall not be able by your godly and grave Councells and Perſwaſions to reconcile the ſaid Husbands and Wives, and cauſe the ſaid Wives to remitt and forgive the Wrongs which theire ſaid Husbands have offred unto them and to live togither with their Husbands as Man and Wife ought to doe, then you or any five or more of you (whereof the ſaid Lord Archbiſhopp of Canterbury, Lord Chauncellor of England, Lord High Treaſorer of England for the tyme being, Lord Privy Seale, the Biſhopp of London, the Biſhopp of Wincheſter, Biſhopp of Ely, Biſhopp of Rocheſter, Sir John Bennett, Sir William Bird or Sir Henry Marten to be alwaies one) to ſett down ſuch Orders from tyme to tyme, as you, or any ſuch five or more of you as is aforeſaid, ſhall in your Diſcrecions thinke meete for the competent and reaſonable Alimonie and Mayntenances of every ſuch Wife for ſo long time as you ſhall think meete, and during the tyme of her and her Husbands neceſſary living aſunder, and for the defrayeing of the Expences of Suit which every ſuch Wife hath or ſhall be at in the proſecuting of the ſaid Cauſe againſt her ſaid Husband in the Caſes aforeſaid:

And likewiſe we doe give unto you, and every ſuch five or more of you as is aforeſaid full Power and Authority to take ſufficient Bonds or Recognizances, to our Uſe at your Diſcrecions, of every ſuch Husband ſoe accuſed as aforeſaid as well for his and theire Appearance from tyme to tyme before you or ſuch of you reſpectively in manner and forme aforeſaid, as alſoe for the Performance of all and every your Order and Orders made in the behalfe of the ſaid Wives as aforeſaide; which Bonds or Recognizances, if they refuſe to enter into, or ſhall refuſe to performe your ſaid Orders, then we give unto you, or any ſuch five or more of you as is aforeſaid, full Power and Authority in that behalfe to puniſh the ſame Perſon or Perſons ſoe refuſing, or not performinge the ſame by Cenſures Eccleſiaſtical, or by reaſonable Fyne and Impriſonment, or by all or any the ſaide meanes according to your Diſcrecions.

And whereas there were divers Cathedrall and Collegiate Churches, Grammar Schools and other Eccleſiaſtical Corporations erected founded and ordeyned by the late King, of famous Memory, King Henry the eight, and by the late King Edward the Sixt, and by the late Queen Mary and the Lord Cardinall Poole, and alſoe by the late Queen Elizabeth, where there are either noe Ordinances Rules and Statuts at all or the ſame are altogither imperfect, or ſome of them made at ſuch tymes as the Crowne and Regyment of this our Realme was ſubject to the forraigne uſurped Authority of the Sea of Rome, ſoe as they cannot ſtand with the preſent State, being in divers Poynts uncertayne contrary divers and repugnant to the Dignity and Prerogative of our Crowne, the Lawes of this our Realme, and the preſent State of Religion nowe eſtabliſhed within the ſame, we therefore doe give full Power and Authority to you, and to every ſixe or more of you (of whom we will the Lord Archbiſhopp of Canterbury, and the Biſhopps of London, Wincheſter, Exeter, Rocheſter, Lincolne, Ely, Bath and Wells, Norwich Coventrie and Litchfeild, Chicheſter Glouceſter Saliſbury, Oxon and Briſtoll, nowe and for the tyme beinge, alwaies to be one) to cauſe and commaund in our name all and ſinguler the Ordinances Rules and Statuts of all and every the ſaid Cathedrall and Collegiate Churches, in Grammar Schooles and other Eccleſiaſtical Corporations, together with their ſeverall Letters Patents and other Writings toucheing or in any wiſe concerning their ſeveral Directions and Foundations to be brought and exhibited before you, or any ſix or more of you as is aforeſaide, and uppon the Exhibiting and diligent and deliberate View Search and Examynation of the ſaid Statuts Rules and Ordinances Letters Patents and Writings as is aforeſaid, to purge alter and reforme the ſame, and alſoe where no Statuts are extant at all, or the ſame defective and unperfect, to deviſe and ſett down ſuch good Orders Statuts and Ordinances as you, or any ſixe or more of you as is aforeſaid ſhall think meet and convenient, to be by Us confirmed and ratified allowed and ſett forth for the better Rule and Order of the ſaid ſeverall Churches, Erections and Foundacions, and the Poſſeſſions and Revenues of the ſame, and as may beſt tend to the Honor of Almighty God, the Encreaſe of Piety Vertue Learneing and Unity, and the pollitique Weale and Tranquillity of this Realme.

And further know ye, that we doe name aſſigne authoriſe depute and appoynt, and by theſe Preſents, doe give full Power Authority and Juriſdiction to you, and every three or more of you (whereof the Lord Archbiſhopp of Canterbury, the Biſhopps of London, Wincheſter, Exeter, Rocheſter, Lincolne, Ely, Bath and Wells, Norwich, Coventrie and Litchfeild, Chicheſter, Glouceſter, Salisbury, Oxon and Briſtoll, now and for the time beinge to be one) to tender or miniſter the Oath comonly called or known by the Name of the Oath of Supremacy, expreſſed and ſett forth in the ſaid Act of Parliament made in the ſaid firſt Yere of the Raigne, of the ſaid late Queen Elizabeth; intituled,

JAMES, by the Grace of God &c.
To our right truſty and welbeloved Councellor,
Frauncis Lord Verulam Lord Chancellor of England,
And to our right truſty and right welbeloved Coſins and Councellors,
Lodowick Duke of Lenox, Lord Steward of our Houſhold,
George Marques of Buckingham Lord High Admirall of England,
William Earle of Pembroke Lord Chamberlayne of our Houſhold,
Thomas Earle of Arundell,
And to our right truſtie and right welbeloved Councellor,
John Lord Digbye our Vicechamberlayne,
And to our right truſtie and welbeloved Councellors,
Sir Robert Naunton Knight one of our principall Secretaries of State,
Sir George Calvert Knight one other of our principall Secretaries of State,
Sir Fulke Grevill Knight Chauncellor and Undertreaſorer of our Exchequer,

Sir Lionell Cranfeild Knight Maſter of our Court of Wardes and Liveries, Greetinge,

Whereas ſundry Complaints have beene made unto Us that divers Perſons pretending the Execution of ſeverall penal Lawes and Statutes of this oure Realme of England heretofore made, againſt Popiſh Recuſants and other Offendors of ſeverall Natures, as well by Informacions in the Name of our Attorney Generall, as otherwiſe in their own Names exhibited in our Courts of Kings Bench, Common Pleas and Exchequer, have made private Compoſitions with the Parties without any Lycence in that behalfe obteyned, and likewiſe have diſcontinued and lett fall divers Suits after great Vexation Terror and Charge of our Subjects to theire manifeſt Wrong and Oppreſſion, and to the Abuſe of our ſaid Lawes, and Diſhonor of our State and Government, yet little or no Benifitt at all hath redounded unto Us by any of the ſaid Informations, the ſaid Informers only or chiefly reſpecting theire own particular Profitt, and uſing our and our Attorneys Names the better to cullour their diſhoneſt and indirect Proceedings.

And whereas alſoe we are informed, that divers Purſevants or Meſſengers and other Perſons of like Imployment, under Cullour of certain generall or dormant Warrants to them directed from our Commiſſioners Eccleſiaſticall, and ſometimes from our Privy Councell and others in Authority under Us, for the apprehending and takeing of Jeſuits Seminary Prieſts and other ſuſpicious Perſons puniſhable by our ſaid Lawes and Statutes of this our Realme of England, and for doing of other thinges mentioned in the ſaide Warrants, have comitted and done very many Outrages Abuſes and Miſdemeanors as well in ſearching the Houſes of divers our honeſt and well affected Subjects without juſt Cauſe of Suſpition, and takeing and ſeizeing Goods Plate and Jewells, no way tending to Superſtitious Uſes, yet pretending them to be Goods of Jeſuits and others, whome by their ſaid Warrants they were authorized to ſearch for and apprehend, as alſo in releaſing, diſcharging, and wilfully ſuffering ſundry Jeſuits and other Popiſh Prieſts and dangerous and evill affected Perſons, after they have bene apprehended and taken, to eſcape from the ſaid Purſevants or Meſſengers and others imployed in the Service aforeſaid for Bribes and Rewards underhand given unto them, whereby not onely great and notorious Scandal is raiſed uppon our Government as well Eccleſiaſtical as Civill, but alſo Offendors of that nature, finding it to be but a pecuniary Redemption, are much incouraged to continue in their former Obſtinacy and Diſobedience; we hold it therefore moſt fitt, for the Honor of Us and our Government, that ſome ſpeedy Order be taken for the Puniſhment of thoſe that have already offended in that kind, and for Reformacion of the like Abuſes and Offences of that Nature hereafter.

Know therefore that We, truſting in your Fidelities and Wiſdomes, have aſſigned and appointed you to be our Commiſſioners, and by theſe Preſents do give full Power and Authority unto you, or any five or more of you, from tyme to tyme and at all tymes, when and as often as you think fit and expedient, by all lawfull wayes and meanes whatſoever, to enquire diſcover and find out what and how many ſuch Informacions within ſeaven Yeares laſt paſt have been exhibited in all or any our ſaid Court or Courts? by whome? and for what Cauſe? and what and howe many Compoſitions have bene thereuppon made perticularly, either with or without Licence, by the ſaid Space of ſeaven Yeares laſt paſt before the Date of theſe Preſents? by whome the ſame were made? and to whoſe Benifit and Availe? and what Some and Somes of Money have bene taken thereby or paid to any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever uppon for or by Reaſon of any ſuch Information or Compoſition? and what and howe much thereof hath been paid to our Uſe and to whoſe Handes reſpectively? to the end that we may know what Benefitt we have received by ſuch Proceedings uppon Information during the tyme aforeſaid.

And likewiſe to examyne diſcover and find out as aforeſaid what and what manner of Vexations Extortions Abuſes Wrongs and Miſdemeanors have bene heretofore, within the ſaid Space of ſeven Yeares laſt paſt, committed and done, as well by any Informer or Promoter, Informers or Promoters, Relator or Relators in the Proſecution of the ſaid Informations, as by any Purſevant or Purſevants, Meſſenger or Meſſengers, or any other Perſon or Perſons whatſoever imploy-

And further our Pleaſure is, and we do by theſe Preſents ordeyn and eſtabliſh, for Us our Heires and Succeſſors, that all and every ſuch Leaſes, Letters Patents, and Grants as by you, or any ſuch fower or more of you as is aforeſaid, ſhall be concluded or graunted to any Perſon or Perſons, and paſſed in our Name, and under any of our Seals in any ſuch manner order and form as is in theſe Preſents preſcribed and appointed, according to the tenor of this our Commiſſion, the ſame and every of them ſhall be as good, avayleable and effectuall in the Law to all intents conſtructions and purpoſes, againſt Us our Heires and Succeſſors, to and for the Aſſurance Benefit and Commodity of all and every ſuch Perſon and Perſons to whom the ſame ſhal be graunted according to the tenor thereof, as if the ſame had paſſed under our Warrant ſigned with our own Sign Manuell, Signet, Privy Seal or Great Seal of England aforeſaid, any former Letters Patentes, Order, Acte of Parliament, Proviſion, Proclamation or Reſtraynt, or any other thing matter or cauſe whatſoever to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding: And theſe our Letters Patents, or the Exemplification or Inrollment thereof, ſhall be as well unto you our ſaid Commiſſioners, as to the Lord Chauncellor of England, and Keeper of the Great Seal of England, and Privy Seal, for the tyme being, and to our principall Secretaries, and Chauncellor of our Exchequer, for the tyme being, and every of you and them reſpectively, for the doing and executing of the Premiſſes before mentioned or any part of them, a full and ſufficient Warrant and cleer Exoneration and Diſcharge, againſt Us our Heires and Succeſſors.

And for the better Accompliſhment and Performance of this our Commiſſion, we will and commaund our Attorney and Sollicitor Generall, the Remembrancer of our Exchequer, the Clerk of the Pipe, Auditors and other Officers and Myniſters of our ſaid Exchequer and elſewhere whatſoever they be, that they and every of them ſhal be Attending, Councelling, Ayding and Aſſiſting to you and every of you, in the Execution of the Premiſſes from tyme to tyme, as the occaſions of our Service ſhall require.

And whereas a great part of our annual and certeyn Revenew in Lands and otherwiſe, hath of late been anſwered unto our Crown by a needeles Circumference and Circuit through the Hand, and by the Overſight of a multitude of Surveyors, Collectors, Bailiffs, perticular Receivors, Meſſengers and other perticuler and inferior Officers and Myniſters, which Courſe appeareth to be not only chargeable for the ſuperfluous number and needles uſe of them, but alſoe full of Daunger and Loſſe, by reaſon, as well of the many Practizes, Subtilties, Pollicies and Deceiptes, as alſo of the often decaying and non ſolvency of the ſaid Officers, which cannot well be prevented in ſuch a multitude of Perſons, in regarde whereof we are reſolved, as well to cutt off the unneceſſary Charge and great Loſſe now and heretofore ſuſtayned thereby, as for the better ſecuring of our ſaid Revenue hereafter from the manifolde Arrerages Concealments Decayes and Supers, nowe cauſed by theſe many Officers, to reduce the ſame into our Coffers more ymediatly and directly, wherein we ſhall endevour no newe thing, but only renewe the auncient practice and courſe of our Exchequer; We doe therefore hereby require and commaund, and give Power and Authority unto you our ſaid Commiſſioners, or any ſuch fower or more of you as is aforeſaid, as well by viewe of any Records Rolles Evidences or Writings, as by any other ways or means whatſoever, to informe your ſelves of all the Mannors Lands Tenements or other Hereditaments belonging to Us within the Survey of our ſaid Exchequer, whereof the Rents Yſſues and Profits are comitted to the Collection Bringing in or Receipt or Overſight of any private or peculiar Surveyors, Baylieffs, Collectors, perticular Receivors or Officers, and not within the imediate Charge or Receipt of the Generall Receavors of the ſeverall Counties of this our Realme of England and Dominion of Wales, and what yearely Fees or other Allowances are payd and allowed to the ſaid Surveyors Bayliffs Collectors perticuler Receivors and Officers of ſuch Poſſeſſions, and thereupon to conſider of propoſe and ſet down by what wayes and means the ſaid Rents Iſſues and Profits, nowe in the Charge Collection or Overſighte of the ſaid Surveyors Bayleiffes Collectors, perticuler Receivors and Officers of the ſaid Poſſeſſions, may be reduced into the imediate Charge of the Generall Receivors of the ſaid Counties reſpectively, or payd ymediately into the Receipte of the Exchequer, or by ſuch other ſafe and convenient way as ſhall ſtand with the Preſident of former tymes, or may be beſt for our Service may be brought into our Receipt for our beſt Eaſe and Profit, and to putt the ſame wayes and meanes in preſent and in exact Execution; And likewiſe to give Order for the diſcharging of ſuch of the ſaid Fees or Allowances heretofore payd and allowed to the ſaid Surveyors, Bayliffs, Collectors, perticular Receivors and Officers of the ſaid Poſſeſſions, at ſuch meete tymes, and in ſuch manner and forme as to you, or any ſuch fower or more of you ſhall be thoughte meete: And theſe Preſents, or the Inrollment or Exemplification thereof, ſhall be unto you our ſaid Commiſſioners and every of you a ſufficient Warrant and Diſcharge in that behalfe.

And whereas, in the tyme of the Raign of the late Queen Mary ſometime Queen of England, it was, upon Adviſe and Conſultation of the Lords and others of the Privy Councell thought meet and neceſſary, that the Uſe and Imploymente of the generall Receivors of her Revenewe might be altogether ſpared, and the Charge tranſlated to the Sheriffs of the ſeverall Countyes of this Realme, or that there ſhould be no more Receivors or other Officers then were needfull, and that the ſuperfluous Charge, as well upon the Land charged, as otherwiſe allowed in Fees and Charges of Rydings and ſuch like, ſhould be diſcharged, and yett nevertheles ſithence that tyme, not only the nomber of the ſaid generall Receivors are increaſed, butt the Charge of the Auditts and Rydings ſtill contynued, wherein alſo we have great cauſe ſo farr as may ſtand with conveniency to ſeek Eaſe and Abatement of Charge, our further Will and Pleaſure therefore is, and we do hereby comand that you, or any ſuch fower or more of you as is aforeſaid, do take into your Conſiderations the Reſolutions upon theſe Points preſcribed in the tyme of the ſaid late Queen Mary, and upon deliberate Conſideration thereof had, wee do further hereby require and give Power and Authority unto you, or any ſuch fower or more of you as is aforeſaid, to ſett down and preſcribe what courſes, wayes and meanes are fitt to be uſed for the reduceing and imediate bringing in of ſo much of our ſaid Revenewe of our Caſtles, Honors, Lordſhips, Mannors, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, as conveniently may be, to be payed imediatly into the Receipt of the Exchequer, or whereby the ſaid Revenue may be otherwiſe ſafely diſpoſed of to be brought in for our beſt Eaſe and leaſt Charges, and the number of the ſaid generall Receivors may be taken away or at leaſt abridged; and alſo to ſett downe and direct by what good meanes the Charge now uſed to be expended upon Rydings and Auditts may be abated, ſo as we may be accquitted of all unneceſſary Charges in bringing in the ſaid Revenue according to the Proviſion of former tymes, and as neer as may be to the auncient Courſe of our Exchequer or otherwiſe as ſhall be moſt requiſite for our Service, and to putt the ſame wayes and meanes in Execution, and likewiſe to deviſe execute do and perform any ſuch other neceſſary Act and Acts, whereby all ſuperfluous and unneceſſary Charge in collecting receiving and bringing in of our Revenue, either annuall or caſuall, certeyne or uncerteyne, may be taken away, and the Service of all needles Officers and Myniſters ſpared, as to you, or any ſuch fower or more of you as is aforeſaid, ſhall in your Wiſdomes and Diſcretions be thought meet:

For doing of all ſuch Acts according to this our Pleaſure herein declared, theſe our Letters Patents, or the Inrollment or Exemplification thereof, ſhall be unto you and every of you a ſufficient Warrant and Diſcharge.

And foraſmuch as we have bene informed that our Crown, through the Negligence Connivency and Abuſe of divers inferior Officers and their Deputies, hath ſuſtayned great Loſſe and Prejudice, as well in Spoil and Waſt of Woods, Incrochments upon our Lands converting the Demeſnes of our Crown into Coppiholds of Inheritance, in altering the Fines of Coppyholders, which were and ought to be uncertein to Fines certeyne, allowing of decayes of Rents turning Lands that have bene in charge into Concealments, and other like Diſheriſons and Abuſes, and alſo by ſuffering great Sommes of Money to be overlong unanſwered, whereby the ſame are grown deſperate, and by transferring and ſetting divers Supers and Arrerages of our Revenue from the Officers to the Farmors and Tennaunts where the Money hath been or have bene levyed by the Officers, by continuing the Payment of Penſions many Yeares when they ought not to have bene anſwered, by making unjuſt Repriſes Allowances and Defalcations by which and other indirect meanes, ineſtimable Loſſes and Concealements have accrued to the Crown, which could not have happenned if the true Courſe of accompting within our Court of Exchequer had bene obſerved according to the Lawes of this Realme and the auncient Courſe of the Courte; wherein alſo we holde it juſt honorable and neceſſary to procure Satiſfaction and Reformation,

And whereas we have bene likewiſe informed that, by like Negligence and Default of inferior Officers, ſundry erronious and abuſive Courſes have bene practiſed and putt in ure in the Offices of our Remembrancer, the Lord Treaſurers Remembrancer, in the Office of the Clarke of the Pipe, in the Offices of the ſeverall Auditors of the ſaid Court, and in the reſt of the Offices in our ſaid Court of Exchequer, we do hereby give full Power and Authority unto you, or any ſuch fower or more of you as is aforeſaid, as well by Examination of any Witnes or Witneſſes or other Perſon or Perſons, uppon Oath or without Oath, and by View of any Rentalles, Court Rolles, Surveyes, Books, Writings, Records, Accompts, Declarations of Accompts, or other Evidences, as by any other wayes or meanes which to you, or any ſuch fower or more of you, ſhall be thought convenient, to inquire ſearch diſcover and fynd out what Spoyles and Waſts of Woods have bene made at any time heretofore in any of our Foreſts, Chaſes, Parkes, Lands, Grounds or Poſſeſſions? and what Incrochments have bene made uppon any our ſaid Lands or Poſſeſſions? what Demeſnes of or belonging to our Crown have bene unduly and without good Warrante converted into Coppiholds of Inheritance? what Fynes of Coppiholders which were or ought to have bene uncertayne have bene made or allowed to be certeyne? what Lands which have bene in Charge have bene turned into Concealments? what decayes of Rents have bene allowed? what Penſions or Annuityes have bene conti-

continued and payed when they ought not to have bene payed, and howe long the ſame were ſo continued? what Arrerages and Supers are behind unpaid and remaining unanſwered unto Us, and who ought to be charged or are chargable with the Payment of the ſame Arrerages and Supers? And alſo what other Deceipts Corruptions Negligences or other unjuſt or undue meanes, or unwarrantable Acts have bene uſed committed done or putt in practice in the ſaid Offices or any of them, tending to the dimyniſhing withdrawing preventing diſcharging and concealing or witholding from Us any Rightes Duties Sommes of Money or Profits belonging unto Us, or to the diverting or altring our Eſtate Right or Title, or in any other wiſe tending to our Damage or Hindrance, or to the Prejudice of the Publique, and by whom and in whoſe Default and with whoſe Conſent Privity or Procurement, and for whoſe Benefit Advantage and Avayl the ſame were or have bene done? And what hath bene or is the true and juſt yearly Value or other Value of the Premiſſes ſo dyminiſhed withdrawn prevented concealed diſcharged withhoulden diverted or altered? And what Damage the ſame hath bene Unto Us? And what Benefitt and Advantage any other hath made thereby? And of all and every other matter circumſtance and thing in any wiſe concerning the Premiſſes as to you, or any ſuch fower or more of you, ſhal be thought convenient.

And likewiſe to conſider and finde out by what juſt lawfull honorable and due meanes and wayes Recovery Reſtitution or Satisfaction may be made unto Us concerning the Premiſſes, and our former Eſtate Right and Title to ſuch of the Premiſſes as have bene diverted withdrawn or altered may be reſtored and reduced, and to putt all and every the ſaid waies and means in due and exacte Execution.

And theſe Preſents, or the Inrolment or Exemplification thereof, ſhal be unto you and every of you a ſufficient Warrante and Diſcharge in that behalfe.

And to the end our Will and Pleaſure herein may be the better effected, we do hereby give full Power and Authority unto you, or any ſuch fower or more of you as is aforeſaid, to cauſe all and every Perſon and Perſons, as well ſuch as are ſuppoſed or ſuſpected to have offended in the Premiſſes, their Servants and Agents, as any others, to bring and ſhew before you, or any ſuch fower or more of you as is aforeſaid, all and ſinguler ſuch Letters Patents, Warrantes, Surveyes, Rolls, Accompts, Records, Orders, Bookes, Entryes or other Noates or Writings whatſoever, remayning in their or any of their Cuſtody, which you or any ſuch fower or more of you, ſhall think fitt to be produced, whereby the Truth in the Premiſſes may be the better and more plainly found out and diſcovered.

And to the end no Perſon may have juſt cauſe to complayne or to be grieved at your Proceedings in this behalfe, our pleaſure is that, when and ſo often as any Examination of any Perſon or Perſons ſuch as aforeſaid, ſhal be by Vertue of this Commiſſion taken uppon Oath, that then and ſo often, uppon requeſt made by the Parties whom the ſame ſhall concerne, you, or any ſuch fower or more of you, may examyne the ſame, or any other Perſon either upon Oath or otherwiſe, for the Defenſe of ſuch Perſon or Perſons making ſuch Requeſt, yf you, or any ſuch fower or more of you, upon due Conſideration ſhall think it juſt and fitt.

And foraſmuch alſo as we have bene further informed that, contrary to the Lawes of this Realme and the auncient Cuſtome of our Court of Exchequer, the Receivors of our Revenue though called thereunto, have not of late tymes bene ſworn to their Accompts, nor ſhewed or joined their Tallies in our ſaid Exchequer uppon the Declarations of their Accompts, and alſo that the Accompts and Declarations of Accompts of Receivors Bayliffs and other Miniſters have not bene viewed determyned and ingroſſed as they ought, but left with the Auditors and never delivered into our ſaid Exchequer, as alſo that the double of Court Rolles, Rentalles, Surveyes, and other Evidences of our Crowne which ought to be duly retorned into our Exchequer, and there ſafely kept for diſcovery of Abuſes and Preſervation of the Rightes of our ſaid Crown, have bene embezelled withdrawn and kept back and not delivered into our ſaid Court to be there ſafely kept as they ought, with divers other Negligences and Abuſes whereby the Loſſes and Prejudice to the Crown formerly recited have bene principally occaſioned, and much grievance to our

Subjects which might have bene prevented if the true Courſe of our Exchequer herein had bene obſerved; for Reformation of which Abuſes, and any others of the like nature for the preſente, and to make Diſcovery of ſuch Rights and Dutyes as have bene withdrawn from Us, as well in reſpect of our Lands as of the ſaid Accompts, and to prevent the like hereafter, we do hereby require and commaund and give Power and Authority unto you, or any ſuch fower or more of you as is aforeſaid, to ſett down ſuch Orders, Courſes, wayes and Meanes as to you, or any ſuch fower or more of you as is aforeſaid, ſhal be thought meet, as well for the bringing into our Exchequer of all Rentalles, Court Rolles, Surveyes, Accompts and Declarations of Accompts of Receivors, Bayliffs and others Myniſters and Accomptants, as well which now, as which at any time hereafter of Righte, and by the Laws of this Realme and the courſe of the ſaid Court of Exchequer, ought to be tranſmitted or brought into the ſaid Exchequer, and for the Delivery of them into the Cuſtody of ſuch Perſon and Perſons to whom the Cuſtody thereof properly belongeth; and for the joyning of Tallies in the ſaid Exchequer by our Receivors and other Accomptants, and that the ſaid Receavors may be ſworne to their Accompts as heretofore hath been uſed if you, or any ſuch fower or more of you, ſhall find the ſame convenient,

A.D.1620. 18 Jac. 1.

As alſo for the doing or performyng of any other matter or thing whereby the ſaid Court of Exchequer may be reduced, as much as in you lyeth, to the auncient and true Courſe in all Pointes, and Satisfaction made to Us of ſuch Rights and other Dutyes as by the ſaid undue and unwarrantable Courſes have bene withdrawne from the Crown, and to putt the ſame wayes and meanes in Execution: And theſe our Letters Patents or Commiſſion, or the Inrollmente or Exemplification thereof, ſhall be unto you and every of you a ſufficient Warrant and Diſcharge in that behalfe.

And laſtly our Will and Pleaſure is, that this our Preſent Commiſſion ſhall continne in force, and we do hereby authorize you, or any ſuch fower or more of you as is aforeſaid, to proceed in the Execution thereof, and of all and every matter and thinge therein conteyned, from tyme to tyme and as often as you, or any ſuch fower or more of you, ſhall think conveniente, albeit the ſame Commiſſion be not from tyme to tyme contynued by adjornement.

Commiſſio ſpecialis pro Thoma Coventry Milite de exercendo Officium Attornati Generalis.

A.D.1620. Pat. 18. J. I. p. 3. dorſ. JAMES by the Grace of God &c. to our truſtie and welbeloved Thomas Coventry Knight our Sollicitor Generall, Greeting.

Whereas, upon Information and Complaynte that Sir Henry Yelverton Knight our Attorney Generall had misbehaved himſelf in his ſaid Office contrary to the Duty of his ſaid Place, and the Truſt repoſed in him, to the great great Damage and Diſheriſon of our Crown, we, out of our princely Care to obſerve juſt and honorable Proceedings, did direct and appoint that the truth of the ſaid Information, and nature and qualities of the Miſdemeanors informed ſhould be examined conſidered and certefied unto Us by divers of our Privy Councell; And albeit the ſaid Committees proceeded therein with great Adviſement, and divers times heard the Defences of our ſaid Attorney, and made report thereof to Us, yett, ſuch was our Tendernes and Moderation that we forbear to proceed further, untill the nature of the ſaid Miſdemeanors had bene imparted to the Body of our Privy Councell;

And wheras, upon deliberate Adviſe with our ſaid Counſail, it was thought fit that a judiciall Proceeding ſhould be had againſt our ſaid Attorney by Information of our Court of Starchamber for the ſaid Miſdemeanors and Offences, wherein be ſhould be received to defend himſelf as well as he could, and therefore We, holding it expedient that our ſaid Attorney, againſt whom ſuch a Proceeding was to be had, ſhould be ſequeſtred from the Execution and Exerciſe of the ſaid Place, by our Letters Patents under our Great Seal of England, did require our ſaid Attorney utterly to forbear the Exerciſe and Execution of the ſaid Office, or to do any thing incident thereunto, untill by writeing under our Great or Privy Seal we ſhould declare our Pleaſure to the contrary; And we did likewiſe thereby require our Chauncellor of England, and all and ſinguler Judges and Juſtices of any our Courts and every of them, not to permit or ſuffer our ſaid Attorney Sir Henry Yelverton to intromit in the Exerciſe of the Place of our Attorney Generall, or to doe any Acte or Thinge for or by reaſon of the ſaid Office or Place untill wee ſhould have declared our Pleaſure as aforeſaid,

Nowe,

Foraſmuch as it is requiſite, not only for the commencing and expediting of the ſaid Cauſe by Information in our Court of Starchamber, but for Diſpatch of our manifold and weighty Buſſineſſes and Affayres in our ſeverall Courts, that ſome able and meet Perſon ſhould proviſionably be deputed and appointed during ſuch Sequeſtration and our Pleaſure therein, to perform and execute the ſaid Office and ſuch Authorityes, Dutyes and Services as are incidente to the ſame, ſoe as nither our ſelf may receive Damage, nor our Subjects delay in our or their ſeverall Buſineſſes and Affayres for want of an Attorney Generall;

We repoſing aſſured Truſt and Confidence in your Fidelity and Circumſpection, have aſſigned and appointed you, and by theſe Preſents do give and graunt to you full Power and Authority to exerciſe and execute the Office and Place of our Attorney Generall in all and ſinguler Matters wherein our Attorney Generall might deal and intermeddle from tyme to tyme, untill by our Letters under our Greate or Privy Seale we ſhall ſignify our Pleaſure to the contrary, and to do execute and performe all ſuch Acts and Things, and to exerciſe all and ſinguler ſuch Powers and Authorityes as our Attorney Generall before the ſaid Sequeſtration ſhould or might lawfully have done, executed, performed or exerciſed, in as large and ample manner as our Attorney Generall might do, execute, performe or exerciſe the ſame; ratefying and allowing all and whatſoever you ſhall do in that behalfe by Vertue of theſe Preſents.

And we do hereby will and require all and ſinguler Judges and Juſtices of all and ſinguler our Courts, and all other our Officers, Miniſters and Subjects whom it may concerne, not only to admit and accept of you to all Intents and Purpoſes in Liewe and Place of our Attorney Generall, to do, execute, perform and exerciſe all and ſinguler the Premiſſes in form aforeſaid, but alſo to be ayding and aſſiſting unto you in the due Execution thereof.

Proclamatio ſuper abuſu Herbæ Nicotianæ.

A Proclamation for Reſtraint of the diſordered Trading of Tobacco.

A.D.1620. Pat. 18 J. 1. p. 19. dorſ.

WHereas We,

Out of the diſlike we had of the uſe of Tobacco, tending to a generall and new Corruption both of Mens Bodies and Manners, and yet nevertheles houlding it of the two more tollerable that the ſame ſhould be ymported amongeſt many other Vanities and Superfluities which came from beyond the Seas, then permitted to be planted here within this Realm, thereby to abuſe and miſimploy the Soile of this fruitfull Kingdome;

Did, by our Proclamation, dated the thirtieth Day of December nowe laſt paſt, ſtraightly charg and commaund all and everie Perſon and Perſons, of what Degree or Condition ſoever, that they or any of them, by themſelves their Servantes, Workemen or Laborers, ſhould not, from and after the Second Day of February then next following, preſume to ſowe ſet or plant or cauſe to be ſowen ſet or planted, within this our Realme of England and the Dominion of Wales, any ſort or kinde of Tobacco whatſoever, and that they or any of them ſhold not maintaine or conteynue any old Stockes or Plantes of Tobacco formerly ſowen or planted, but ſhold forthwith utterly deſtroy and roote up the ſame:

And whereas we have taken into our Roiall Conſideration, as well the great Waſte and Conſumption of the Wealth of our Kingdomes, as the endangering and imparing of the Health of our Subjectes by the inordinate Liberty and Abuſe of Tobacco, being a Weed of no neceſſarie Uſe, and but of late Yeares brought into our Dominions, and being credibly informed that divers Tobacconiſts and other mean Perſons, taking upon them to trade and adventure into the Partes beyond the Seas of Tobacco, to the intent to foreſtall and ingroſs the ſaid Comodity upon unmerchantlike Condition, doe tranſport much Gould, Bullion and Coyne out of our Kingdomes, and do barter and vent the Staple Comodities of our Realme at under Values, to the intent to buy Tobacco, to the Diſcreditt of our native Marchandizes, and extream enhanſing of the Rates and Prizes of Tobacco, and the great Diſturbance and Decay of the Trade of the orderly and good Merchants;

We, taking the Premiſſes into our Princely Conſideration, and being deſirous to put a Remedy to the ſaid Inconveniences, which we have long endevoured, though with leſs effect then we expected, have reſolved to make ſome further Redreſs by reſtraining the diſordered Traffique in that Comodity, and reduceing it into the Handes of able Perſons that may manage the ſame without Inconvenience, whereby the generall Abuſe may be taken away, and the neceſſarie Uſe, if any be, may be preſerved;

Wee doe therefore, not only by theſe Preſents, ſtraitly charg and comaund that our ſaid Proclamation reſtraineing the Planting of Tobacco be in everie reſpect obſerved and performed, according to the tenor thereof, upon the Penalties therein contained, but alſo that no Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, Engliſhmen, Denizens or Strangers, other then ſuch as ſhal be authorized and appointed thereunto by Letters Patents under our Great Seal of England, doe import or cauſe to be imported into this our Realme of England or Domynion of Wales, or any part of them or either of them, any Tobacco of what nature kinde or ſort ſoever after the Tenth Day of July next enſueing the Date hereof, from any the Partes beyond the Seas upon paine of Forfeiture to Us of all ſuch Tobacco ſoe to be imported contrarie to the true meaneing of theis Preſents, and upon ſuch further Paines and Penalties as by the Lawes and Statutes of this Realme, or by the Severity or Cenſure of our Court of Starrchamber may be inflicted upon the Offendors for Contempt of this our Royall Comaunde:

And likewiſe that no Maſter Marchant or Purſer of any Shipp or other Veſſell, do at any tyme or tymes, after

Nowe,

Foraſmuch as our ſaid Commiſſioners, in Reſpect of theire contynuall ymploymente in matters of State and other our weighte Affayres, cannot ſo often attend the Execution of the ſaid Commiſſion as may bring our ſaid Service to effecte with ſuch Conveniency and Expedition as the Weighte and Neceſſitye thereof requireth, unles our ſaid Comiſſioners may bee furthered and aſſiſted therein by ſome Perſons of Underſtanding, Diligence and Truſte, to whom wee may committe the Labour Care and Paynes of finding out, diſcovering and prepareing of all thinges by our ſaid Commiſſion appointed to be executed, and to preſent their Labours and Indeavours to our ſaid Commiſſioners, whoe may thereby bee inabled with leſſe Intermiſſion of our greateſt Affayres to proceed to execution of our ſaid Commiſſion, and to the full and abſolute ſetlinge of all ſuch thinges as are thereby appointed, accordinge to the Power thereby given to them.

Knowe yee therefore that we repoſing aſſured Truſt and Confidence in the Experience, Diſcrecion and Circumſpection of you the ſaid Sir Allen Appeſlye, Sir Gyles Mompeſſon, Sir Francis Blundell, Sir Henry Spillar, Robert Pye and Chriſtopher Vernon, have aſſigned and appointed you to be our Commiſſioners, and we do hereby give and graunt unto you, or any three or more of you, full Power and Authoritye from tyme to tyme, by all good ways and means you may, to diſcover and find out, according to ſome fit eſtimate and proportion the Values of all and ſinguler the Fynes as well of Freeholders as Coppiholders upon Alyenation, Surrender or Diſcent, Herriotts, Releeifes, Eſcheates, Perquiſitts and Profittes of Courtes, Wayfes, Eſtrayes, Goods and Chattells of Felons, ariſing and groweing due to Us, as well within our Honors, Lordſhippes, Caſtles, Mannors, Poſſeſſions and Hereditaments, as elſewhere within this our Realme of England and Domynion of Wales, and being within the Survaye of our Court of Exchequer, to what Value the ſame do or may amounte, communibus Annis, or otherwiſe, and alſo to conſider and adviſe of meete Rentes, Ymprovements, and fitt Cautions, Covenants and Conditions, upon which the ſame may be demiſed and lett to farm for our beſt Benefitte and Avayle, and alſo to commune and treat with ſuch Perſon and Perſons to whom you ſhall thincke fitt, the ſame Fynes, Herriotts, Releeifes, Eſcheats, Perquiſittes, and Proffittes of Courts, Waifes, Eſtrayes, Goodes and Chattles of Felons, may be demiſed, for and concerning Leaſes and Demiſes to be thereof made unto them, att uppon and under ſuch Rentes Improvements Covenants Cautions and Conditions, and according to the Purport and true Intent of the ſaid former Commiſſion before mentioned, and thereuppon to certifye to our ſaid principall Commiſſioners named and authorized in or by our ſaid other Comiſſion before mentioned, your whole Doeinges and Proceedinges, to the end that, uppon mature Conſideration thereof, or of any other or further Matter, Thinge or Circumſtance, they may as juſt Cauſe ſhall require, and as they, or any ſuch fower or more of them, as in the ſaid Commiſſion is appointed, ſhall thinck meet, proceed to the making and concluding of full and abſolute Bargaines, Contracts, Grauntes, Demiſes and Leaſes according to the Purporte of the ſaid former Commiſſion to them directed.

And we do alſo by theis Preſents require and commaunde, and give Power and Authoritye unto you, or any three or more of you as is aforeſaid, as well by viewe of any Recordes Rolles Evidences or Writinges, as by any other waies or meanes whatſoever, to informe your ſelves of all the Mannors Landes Tenements or other Hereditaments belonginge to Us within the Survey of our ſaid Exchecquer, whereof the Rents Yſſues and Profitts are committed to the Collection bringinge in or Receipt or Overſighte of any private or particuler Surveyors Bayliffes Collectors particuler Receivors or Officers, and not within ymmediate Chardge or Receipte of the Generall Receivors of the ſeverall Counties of this our Realme of England and Domynion of Wales; and what yearelie Fees or other Allowances are paide and allowed to the ſaid Surveyors Bayliffes Collectors perticuler Receivors and Officers of ſuch Poſſeſſions, and thereuppon to conſider of, propoſe and ſette down by what waies and meanes the ſaid Rentes Yſſues and Proffittes, now in the Chardge Collection or Overſighte of the ſaid Surveyors Bayliſſes Collectors particuler Receivors and Officers of the ſaide Poſſeſſions, may bee reduced into the immediate Chardge of the Generall Receivors of the ſaid Counties reſpectively, or paide ymmediatelie into the Receipte of the Exchecquer, or by ſuch other ſafe and convenient waies as ſhall ſtande with the Preſident of former Tymes, or otherwiſe as ſhall bee moſte conveniente for our Service may bee broughte into our Receipte for our beſt Eaſe and Profitt; And to certifie your Doeinges and Proceedings in all and every the Premiſſes to our ſaid principall Commiſſioners, authoriſed by our ſaid former Commiſſion, to the ende that they, or any ſuche fower or more of them as is aforeſaide, may take due and mature Conſideration thereof, and maye cauſe the ſame wayes and meanes to bee putt in full and exacte execution, if they ſhall ſoe thinke it meete, and may alſoe give order for diſchardginge of ſuch of the ſaid Fees or Allowances heeretofore paide and allowed to the Surveyors Bayliſſes Collectors, perticuler Receivors, and Officers of the ſaide Poſſeſſions, at ſuche meete tymes, and in ſuche manner and forme, as to our ſaid principall Commiſſioners, or any ſuche fower or more of them, ſhall be thought meet, according to the tenor of their ſaid Commiſſion.

And whereas, in the tyme of the Raigne of the late Queen Marye ſometyme Queene of England, it was uppon Advice and Conſultation of the Lords and others of the Privye Councell thought meet and neceſſary, that the Uſe and Imployment of the Generall Receivors of her Revenue might bee altogeither ſpared, and the Chardge tranſlated to the Sheriffes of the ſeverall Countyes of this Realm; or that there ſhould be no more Receivors or other Officers then were needful, and the ſuperfluous Chardge, as well uppon the Land chardged as otherwiſe allowed in Fees and Chardges of Ridinges and ſuch like, ſhould be diſchardged, and yet nevertheles ſince that tyme not only the nomber of the ſaid generall Receivors are increaſed, but the Chardge of Auditts and Rydinges ſtill contynued, wherein we have great Cauſe, ſo farr as may ſtand with Conveniency, to ſeek Eaſe and Abatement of Chardge;

A.D.1620. 18 Jac. 1.

We do therefore require and commaund, and give full Power and Authoritye to you our ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of you, to take into your Conſiderations the Reſolutions uppon theis Pointes preſcribed in the tyme of the ſaid late Queen Marye; and uppon deliberate Conſideration thereof had, we do hereby further require and give Power and Authoritye unto you, or any three or more of you, to conſider and adviſe what Courſes Waies and Meanes are moſt fitt to be uſed for the reduceing and immediate bringing in of ſo much of our ſaid Revenewe of our Caſtles, Honors, Lordſhippes, Mannors, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, as convenientlye may be, to be payd ymmediatlie into the Receipte of the Exchequer, or whereby the ſaid Revenewe may bee otherwiſe ſafely diſpoſed of to be brought in for our beſt Eaſe and leaſt Chardge, and the Nomber of the ſaid Generall Receivors may be taken away or at leaſt abridged;

And alſo by what good meanes the Chardge now uſed to be expended upon Rydinges and Audytts may be abated ? ſo as we may be acquitted of all unneceſſary Chardges in bringinge in the ſaid Revenue according to the Proviſion of former tymes, and as neer as may be to the auncient Courſe of our Exchequer; and thereupon to make Certificate to our ſaid principall Commiſſioners authorized by the ſaid former Commiſſion of your whole Proceedings heerein, that the ſame maye be putt in Execution if our ſaide Commiſſioners ſhall thinck yt fitt,

And whereas alſo we did, by our ſaid Letters Patents or Commiſſion, give full Power and Authoritye unto our ſaid principall Comiſſioners therein named, or any ſuch fower or more of them as is aforeſaid, as well by Examination of any Witnes or Witneſſes, or other Perſon or Perſons, uppon Oath or without Oath, and by View of any Rentalls, Court Rolls, Surveys, Books, Writings, Records, Accompts, Declarations of Accompts, or other Evidences, or by any other Wayes or Meanes which to them, or any ſuch fower or more of them as ys aforeſaid, ſhould be thought convenient to enquire, ſearch, diſcover and find out what Spoyles and Waſts of Wood had been at any tyme before the Date of the ſaid Comiſſion made in any of our Forreſtes, Chaces, Parkes, Landes, Groundes or Poſſeſſions ?

What Landes that had been in Chardge had been turned into Concealements? What Decayes of Rents had been allowed? What Penſions or Annuityes had been contynued and paid when they oughte not to have been paid, and how long the ſame were ſo contynued? What Arrerages and Supers were then behind unpayde and remayning unanſweared unto Us and who ought to be chardged or are chardgeable with the Payment of the ſame Arrerages, and Supers? And alſo what other Deceiptes, Corruptions, Negligences or other unjuſt or undue meanes or unwarrantable Actes had been uſed, committed, done or putt in Practice in the Offices, of our Remembrancer, the Lord Treaſurers Remembrancer, the Clerk of the Pipe, or in any other Office within our ſaid Courte of Exchequer, tending to the diminiſhing withdrawing preventing diſchardging concealing or withoulding from Us any Rights, Duties, Sommes or Money or Profits belonging to Us, or to the divertinge or altering our Eſtate, Right or Title in any wyſe touchinge or concerninge the Premiſſes? and by whome, and in whoſe Default, and with whoſe Conſent, Privitye or Procurement, and for whoſe Benefitt, Advantage and Avayle the ſame were or had been done? And what had been or then was the true and juſt yearely Value or other Value of the Premiſſes ſo diminiſhed, withdrawne, prevented concealed, diſchardged, withoulden, diverted or altered? And what Damage the ſame had been unto us? And what Benefitt or Advantage any other had made thereby? And of all and everie other Matter, Circumſtance and Thing in any wiſe concerning the Premiſſes, as to our ſaid principall Commiſſioners, or any ſuch fower or more of them as is aforeſaid, ſhould be thought convenient;

And likewiſe to conſider and finde out by what juſt lawfull honorable and due meanes and waies Satisfaction may be made unto Us concerning the Premiſſes, and our former Eſtate, Right and Title to ſuch of the Premiſſes, as had been diverted, withdrawne or altered, might be reſtored and reduced?

Know ye further that We, do herein alſo give full Power and Authority unto you, or any three or more of you as ys aforeſaid, by all or any of the wayes or means aforeſaid, to examine, ſearche, diſcover and find out all and everie or any of the ſaid Offences, Matters, Premiſſes and Thinges whatſoever, and all Circumſtances concerning the ſame, in as ample manner as our ſayde principall Commiſſioners, by Vertue of the ſaid Commiſſion herein firſt mentioned, may, might or ought to do in every Reſpect concerning the ſaid Examination and Diſcovery thereof and preſcribing Waies and Meanes for Satisfaction for the Offences and reduceing our Title ſo as aforeſaid altered, withdrawne or diverted and thereuppon to certifie your Doeinges and Proceedinges in the Premiſſes to our ſaid principall Commiſſioners, to the Intent they may proceed further therein as they ſhall think meet; nevertheles our Pleaſure is that you proceed not to any Examination upon Oath, but with the Allowance in writing of our ſaid principall Commiſſioners by the ſaid former Commiſſion authorized, or ſuch fower or more of them as aforeſaid.

And whereas we did in and by our ſaid Commiſſion, reciting further as therein is recited, require and comaund, and give Power and Authority unto them, or anye ſuche fower or more of them as is aforeſaid, to ſett down ſuch Orders Courſes Waies or Meanes as to them, or any ſuch fower or more of them, ſhould be thought meet, as well for the bringing into our Exchequer of all Rentalles, Court Rolles, Surveyes, Accomptes and Declarations of Accomptes of Receivors, Bayliffs, and other Miniſters and Accomptants, as well which at the tyme of the making of the ſaid Commiſſion, as which at any tyme then after of right, and by the Lawes of our Realm, and the courſe of the ſaid Court of Exchecquer, ought to be tranſmitted or brought into the ſaid Exchecquer, and for the Delivery of them into the Cuſtody of ſuch Perſon and Perſons to whom the Cuſtody thereof properly belongeth, and for the joyning of Tallies in the ſaid Exchecquer by our Receivors and other Accomptants, and that the ſaid Receivors might be ſworn to their Accomptes as thentofore had been uſed: And alſoe for the doeing and performing of any other matter or thing whereby the ſaid Court of Exchequer might be reduced (as much as in them did lye) to the auncient and true courſe in all pointes, and Satisfaction made to Us of ſuch Rightes and other Duties as by the ſaid undue and unwarrantable courſes had been withdrawn from the Crown; Our further Will and Pleaſure is, and we do by theis Preſents give full Power and Authority unto you, or any three or more of you, from tyme to tyme to conſider and adviſe of ſuch Orders Waies and Means as you, or any three or more of you ſhall thinck meet, for bringing in the ſaid Rentalles, Court Rolles, Surveyes and Accomptes, and doeing any other of the Premiſſes laſt mentioned, leaving nevertheles the concluſion direction and putting of the ſaid Wayes and Meanes in Execution unto our ſaid principall Commiſſioners before mentioned, according to the Tenor of the Commiſſion to them graunted, uppon your Certificate to be made unto them in that behalf, ſo farre forth as ſhall appear unto them convenient,

And to the end that no Perſon may have juſt cauſe to complayn or to be greived at your Proceedinges in this behaulf, our Pleaſure ys, that when, and ſo often as any Examination of any Perſon or Perſons ſhall, by vertue of this Commiſſion, be taken uppon Oath, and then and ſo often, uppon Requeſt made by the Parties whom the ſame ſhall concern, you or any three or more of you as is aforeſaid, may examyne the ſame, or any other Perſon, either uppon Oath or otherwiſe uppon their Defence, if you upon due conſideration had ſhall thinck it juſt and fit: And theis our Letters Patents or Commiſſion, or the Inrollment or Exemplification thereof, ſhall be unto you and every of you a ſufficient Warrant and Diſchardg for the doeing and executing of all and ſinguler the Premiſſes according to the true intent and meaning of theis Preſents.

And, for the better help of you our ſaid Commiſſioners to proceed in the Execution of theis Preſents, Wee do hereby require chardge and command our Remembrancer of our Exchequer, the Lord Treaſurers Remembrancer, Clerkes of the Pipe, our Audytors, and other our Officers, their Deputyes and Clerkes, and every of them, that they and everie of them, ſhall and do from tyme to tyme, not only quietly and peaceably permit and ſuffer you our ſaid Commiſſioners, or any of you, or ſuch other Perſon or Perſons as ſhall under the Handes of any fower or more of our ſaid principall Commiſſioners be thereunto nominated and appointed, to ſearch in and thorough all or any Bookes Recordes or Writings in any of their ſeverall Offices and Cuſtody, for all ſuch matters as ſhall be neceſſary for the Explanation or Diſcovery of any thing tending to the Execution of this our Commiſſion, and to be further ayding and aſſiſting unto you, and them therein, but alſo from tyme to tyme, to make and write, or cauſe to be made and fair written, under the Hands of our ſaid Officers their Deputies or Clerks or ſome of them, and to deliver unto you our ſaid Commiſſioners or ſome of them, or to ſuch other Perſon or Perſons as aforeſaid for our Service heerein, true Coppies of all ſuch Records, Books, Entries or Writings, or of ſo much thereof, as by you our ſaid Commiſſioners or any of you, or by any other ſuch Perſon and Perſons as aforeſaid, to be nominated and appointed by our ſaid principall Commiſſioners, or any fower or more of them, ſhall be deſired and required, without payment of any Fees, Somme or Sommes of Money, for or in reſpect of the ſame.

And laſtly, our Will and Pleaſure is, that this our Commiſſion ſhall contynue in force, and we do hereby authoriſe you our ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of you, to proceed in the Execution thereof, and of all and every matter and thing therein conteined, from time to time as often as you, or any three or more of you, ſhall thinck convenient; albeit the ſame Commiſſion be not from tyme to tyme contynued by Adjournement.

Commiſſio ad reprimendum Pyratas.

A.D.1620. Pat. 18. J. 1 p. 14. dorſ.

JAMES by the Grace of God &c. To all our Juſtices of Peace, Mayors, Sheriffes, Bayliffs, Conſtables, Headboroughes, and to all other our Officers, Miniſters and Subjectes to whome theſe Preſentes ſhall come, Greeting.

Whereas of late Years ſundrie grievous Complaintes have been made unto Us by divers our loving Subjectes, Merchauntes and others, of our City of London and other Outportes and Counties of this our Realme, that ſuch hath been and is the Daunger and Loſs they daily ſuſtaine by Pyrates and Sea Robbers, both in their Shipping and Goodes, as alſo in the Perſons of their Servantes, Factors, and Mariners, who, falling into the Power of that wicked Crewe, are either cruelly murthered or brought to extreame and intollerable Servitude, by which means they are ſo diſcouraged in their Trade as the Commonwealth is in Daunger greatly to ſuffer by the Decay of Entercourſe, and eſpecially in the Partes of the Levant, where the ſaid Pyrates haunt for the moſt parte, if ſome Remedie be not in the mean tyme, and that ſpeedily applied,

We, haveing thereupon given a gracious Heareing unto their ſaid humble Complaint, and knoweing the Conſequence of ſuch a growing Evill, and how well yt becometh Us, as a Chriſtian and juſt Prince, to ſecure our Subjectes in their lawfull Trade, and even for the common Intereſt of Chriſtendome to roote out thoſe Enemies of Mankind by all the meanes poſſible unto Us, have therefore reſolved of a ſharpe and ſpeedy Proſecution againſt the ſaid Pyrattes at Sea or elſewhere ſoever they ſhall be found, and to that End and Purpoſe have appointed, and by theis Preſents we do appoynte and authorize our truſtie and welbeloved Servant Sir Robert Maunſell Knight our Viceadmirall of England, to have the Rule and Government, and to be for this tyme the Admirall and Captain Generall of certaine of our Shippes and Pinaces and of divers other Shippes and Veſſels of our Subjects in Company with our ſaid Ships, as by Order of our High Admirall of England, and by our Commaundement, the ſaid Sir Robert Maunſell ſhall take with him in his Companie for our Service which we have eſpecially appoynted to be done att the Seas according to ſuch Inſtructions and Directions as we have given him.

And to the end he may be furniſhed of all manner of neceſſaries that ſhal be needful or ſhall thereunto appertaine, We therefore let you weete, that we have authorized and appoynted, and by theis Preſentes do give full Power and Authoritie unto the ſaid Sir Robert Maunſell and to his ſufficient Deputie or Deputies, whereſoever he ſhall have need, to preſs and take up for our Service for the furniſhing of any ſuch Shippes or Veſſells as ſhall be under his Chardge in any Place uppon our Coaſt of England or Ireland, any Marriners, Souldiers, Gonners or other needfull Artificers and Workmen, to be imployed in our Service committed to his Chardge.

And further we do give full Power and Authoritie unto the ſaid Sir Robert Maunſell to receive and take into his Chardge, Order, Rule and Government all ſuch our Shippes, and all other Shippes as are by our Commandment appoynted by our High Admirall of England to go under his Charge, with all their Companies of Marriners, Gonners, Souldiers and all others to them belonging, and all ſuch others as he ſhall have Cauſe to call unto him for his Aſſiſtance and our better Service,

And we do likewiſe by theſe Preſents give full Power and Authoritie to the ſaid Sir Robert Maunſell all and ſinguler the ſaid Companies, Marriners, Gonners, Souldiers and all other Perſon and Perſons of whom he ſhall have Chardge as aforeſaid, to rule commaunde and govern, and to chaſtice, correct and puniſh for any Offence or Offences to be committed, as the Greatneſs and Quallitie of the Fault requireth; that is to ſay, for any Treaſon to Us or any the ſaid Shippes or People in them, or for any wilful Murther, or for any notable Muteney, the ſame being truly and juſtly proved, the ſaid Sir Robert Maunſell ſhall have full Power to execute and take away their Life or any Member in form and Order of Martiall Law, and for all other leſſer Offences, to puniſh as in his Diſcrecion he ſhall think beſt, and as are commonly uſed in all our Armies by Sea and Land.

And we do alſo by theis Preſentes authorize the ſaid Sir Robert Maunſell to do perform and putt in Execution all other thinges which by our Inſtructions, ſigned with our Hande, he is directed and appoynted to do execute and performe, ſtraightly chardging and commaunding all and ſinguler Perſons to whom it ſhall appertain, to be ayding and aſſiſting to the ſaid Sir Robert Maunſell or his Deputies reſpectively in the Execution of the Premiſſes according to our Pleaſure before herein expreſſed.

Proclamatio contra Tenentes Seditioſos.

A.D.1620. Pat. 18. J. I. p. 19. dorſ.

WHereas it hath been often tymes by Decrees and Judgments at Law declared and ſetled, that Tennant Rights, ſince the moſt happy Union of theis two renowned Kingdomes of England and Scotland in our Perſon, are utterly by the ancient and foundamentall Rule of Law of this our Kingdom of England extinguiſhed and aboliſhed, being but Dependances of former Seperation and Hoſtility, and that there is the like ſetled Rule and conſtant Practize in Scotland ſince the Union, and yet nevertheles divers Suits are continually raiſed and proſecuted in our Court of Juſtice here in England, grounded uppon the ſaid Claime of Tennaunt Right or Cuſtomary Eſtate of Inheritance under that Pretence, whereby not only the Memorie of the ſaid Tennaunt Right is contynued which ought to be damned to a perpetuall Oblivion, but alſo both Parties do ſuſtain needles Charge and Impoveriſhment in queſtioning of that which is beyond all Diſpute, which may alſo in Regard of Combynation of Tennantes and generall Taxes to purſue their Landlord upon a common Purſe, open a Way to turbulent and ſeditious Attempts.

We, out of our Princely and never intermitted Care to avoyd theis Inconveniences aforeſaid, have both recommended the Matter to all our Judges to ſupreſs and ſurceaſe Striffs and Suits of this Nature, and have alſo given expreſs Charge and Comaundement to all the principall Officers and Miniſters of our ſelves and our deareſt Son the Prince, that in our own Lands, and likewiſe in thoſe of our dear Son the Prince, neer or bordering uppon Scotland, where ſuch Tennant Right have been claimed, they do let all Eſtates, whether for Lives or Yeares, be it for Fyne, or Ymprovement of Rent by Indenture onely and not otherwiſe, to the end to ceaſe and diſcontynue the ſaid Claim;

And further, to the end the ſame Courſe may be uniform and generall amongeſt our loving Subjects, we do by theis Preſents wiſh and expect from all our loving Subjects in thoſe Partes, that they ſhall follow and conforme themſelves to the ſame Example for leaſing ſuch Lands in manner aforeſaid. But herewithall We do ſtrictly commaund that no Entry in any Court Roll hereafter, either of our own Honours or Mannours, or of the Princes, or of any of our Subjectes do mention any Eſtate termed of Tenant Right or Cuſtomarie Eſtate pretended for Border Service; on the other ſide our expreſs Pleaſure is, that good and dutifull Tenantes, who ſhall willingly ſubmitt themſelves to ſuch Eſtates, be uſed with all Favor and Moderation, which we doubt not but the Landlord will do, yet if any ſhall be found to do the contrarie, our Courts of Equity ſhall ever be open and reddy to over rule ſuch Landlords, as on the other ſide both our Courts of Law and Equity ſhal be to bridle and eject all ſuch unreaſonable Tennants as ſhall withſtand it.

A Proclamation for ſetling the Company of Apothecaries and reforming Abuſes.

A.D. 1620. Ibid.

WHereas, out of our Roiall Care for the Health and Preſervation of our Subjects, we thought fitt, upon great Advice to ſeparate the Apothicaries of London from the Company of Grocers, and ſundrie others whereof they had formerly been Members, for it was convenient that that Company ſhould have a ſpeciall Relation and Dependancy upon the Colledge of Phiſitians, and in that Reſpect differed from the generall Caſe of other Companyes, and thereuppon did by our Charter, under our great Seal of England, incorporate the Apothecaries into one Bodie diſtinct and ſeparate from all other Societies in London, whereby we did alſo inveſt them with divers Powers and Privileges for the rectifying and well ordering of that Art and Faculty which formerly had been promiſcuouſly aſſumed and taken up by ſondrie Emperickes and unexpert Perſons with no ſmall Danger to the Lief and Bodies of our Subjects;

And whereas the ſaid Company of Apothecaries, according to the Power to them given by our ſaid Charter, have made and ſett downe, by the Adviſe of the learned Phyſitians, ſoundrie good and wholſome Actes and Ordinances for the good Government of the ſaid Company, and for Redreſs of the Abuſes heretofore practiſed in that Art, which ſaid Ordinances have been ſince duly approved by our Chancellor of England, late Treaſurer, and the Cheif Juſtice of our Bench, according to the Statutes in that caſe provided:

And whereas by our Proclamation, dated the ſix and twentith Day of Aprill in the ſixteenth Yeare of our Raigne, we declared our Roiall Pleaſure touching a Booke compiled by the Colledge of Phiſitians of London, nowe the ſecond tyme reviewed corrected and ymprinted, entitled, PHARMACOPOEIA LONDINENSIS, whereby to avoide the various formes of compounding Medecines then uſed according to each Man's fancie, we required all Apothecaries to compound and make their Medicines or Medicinable Receiptes, and to diſtill all Oiles Waters and Extractions therein mentioned, after thoſe waies and meanes onely preſcribed by the ſaid Booke, by which Proclamation alſoe, the better to ſecure our Subjects from the Danger of unſkilfull Artiſtes, we ſtraightly comaunded that noe Perſon of any Art or Profeſſion, other then the ſaid Apothecaries ſo incorporated, ſhould put to ſale any Phiſicall Compoſition preſcribed by the ſaid Book, or any other Medicine within the City of London or ſeven Miles thereof.

We therefore, mynding that our ſaid Charter and Proclamation, together with the ſaid Ordinances and laſt imprinted Booke ſhould be hereafter fully and duly obſerved, have thought fit eſtſoones to expreſſe our ſelf and Royal Pleaſure therin, hereby ſtraightly charging and comaunding that noe Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, ſhall ſell compound or make any Medicine or Medicinable Receipt, nor ſhall ſell or diſtill any Oyles Waters or other Extractions to put to Sale within our

City of London, or ſeven Miles thereof, but ſuch Apothecaries onely, as either nowe are or hereafter ſhall be Members and Freemen of the ſaid Company, and ſhall imbrace the Benifit of our ſaid Charter, and conform themſelves thereunto, and to the Ordinances of the ſaid Company, and ſhall take the Oath thereby appointed to everie Member thereof for the Obſervation of the ſaid Ordinances and Practiſe of the ſaid Art, upon paine of our high Diſpleaſure, and ſuch Penalties as by the Lawes and Statutes of this our Realme, or by our Prerogative Roiall maie be inflicted on ſuch Offendors in our High Court of Starchamber for their Contempt of our Will and Comaundement in a caſe of this nature and conſequence, wherein we will expecte and require all ſtrict Conformity and Obedience.

And nevertheleſſe, foraſmuch as an Order upon deliberate Hearing hath beene lately conceaved and ſet downe, between the Grocers and Apothecaries of London, by vertue of a Reference from Us to our Chauncellor of England, the Earle of Suffolke our late Lord Treaſurer, the Lord Steward of our Houſhold, the Earle of Kelley, the Chauncellor of our Exchequer, our twoe Cheif Juſtices, our Attorney and Sollicitor Generall, to whom we referred the hearing ordering and ending of ſoundrie Differences, for the ſettling and reconciling of the ſaid Differences between the ſaid Grocers and Apothecaries:

To the end therefore that all Complaintes and Differences between them may hereafter be fully and finally determyned, we do hereby ratifie and confirme the ſaid Order, and do likewiſe declare and explain that our ſaid Charter, Proclamation and former Reſtraint ſhal be put in Execution according to the Lymitations and Qualifications of the ſaid laſt Order, which we have given Direction forthwith to be inrolled in our Courte of Chauncerie;

A.D. 1620. 18 Jac. 1.

And do further ſtraitly charge and commaund all and everie Perſon and Perſons whatſoever whom it may concern, that they and everie one of them, dulie obſerve the ſame, under the like Penalties herein before mentioned, and that no Perſon of what Condition ſoever preſume hereafter, by Petition or otherwiſe, to move or trouble Us for Alteration of the ſaid Order or any Part thereof being ſo deliberately and adviſedly ſett down as aforeſaid, we being fully reſolved with our ſelf ſeverely to puniſh all ſuch Perſons which out of their contentious or refractory Spirit ſhall attempt to infring the ſame uppon any Collour or Pretext whatſoever.

And laſtly will and require all Majors, Sheriffes, Juſtices of Peace, Bailiffes, Conſtables Headboroughes and other our Officers and Miniſters to be ayding and aſſiſting to the Maſter, Wardens and Aſſiſtants of the Apothecaries of London in the Execution of this our Service, as they tender the ſame, and will anſwer for the contrarie.

A.D.1620. Pat. 18. J. 1. p. 5. dorſ. JAMES, by the Grace of God &c. to our truſtie and welbeloved Servaunt Thomas Mynne Eſquire, our Knight Harbinger, and to all others to whome theſe Preſents ſhall come, Greetinge.

Whereas we are given to underſtand that in the Town and Pariſh of Narbury, or one of them in our Countie of Stafford, there are certaine Royall Mynes of Silver, or which have in them good quantities of Gould or Silver, which of right belong to Us by our Prerogative Royall, whereof good Profit and Benifit is likelie to ariſe unto Us if the ſame be carefully and well ordered.

Know ye that We, repoſing aſſured Confidence in the Underſtanding Care Circumſpection and Diligence of you the Said Thomas Mynne, have given and graunted, and by theſe Preſents doe give and graunt unto you the ſaid Thomas Mynne full Power and Authoritie, by your ſelf your Servants Labourers and Workemen, from tyme to tyme and at all tymes convenient, for Us and to our Uſe, to ſearch, digg open, drayne or convey Waters, or otherwiſe worke for all manner of Mynes or Owers of Gould or Silver, or other Mynes which ſhall have in them any Gould or Silver, or any Ower of Gould or Silver, as well within our owne Landes Groundes or Poſſeſſions, as the Landes Groundes or Poſſeſſions of any other Perſon or Perſons within the ſaid Town and Pariſh of Narburie or either of them, or in any Place or Places thereto neare adjoyning, as well within Liberties as without, where by probable Conjecture you the ſaid Thomas Mynne ſhall thinke or perceive there ſhall be any manner of Ures or Owres ſimple and pure or mixt and compounded that ſhall beare Goulde or Silver, or out of which Goulde or Silver may be extracted or produced: And all ſuch Owre, ſoe by you the ſaid Thomas Mynne, your Servants or Workmen to be diſcovered founde out and gotten, by vertue of theſe Preſents, from tyme to tyme to bring away and convey through any the ſaid Lands, Groundes or Poſſeſſions, without the Contradiction of Us or of any other Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, unto ſuch Place and Places as you the ſaid Thomas Mynne ſhall aſſigne and appoint, to the end the ſame, and the Richnes and Worthe thereof, may be tried, that afterwardes thereupon we may give ſuch further Order for further working in the ſaid Mynes as we ſhall think moſt fit for obteyning the Benifit thereof, which ſolely belongeth unto Us by our Royall Prerogative.

And therefore we do hereby require charge and command all and ſinguler our loving Subjects, Owners, Poſſeſſors, Tenants or Occupiors, of any the ſaid Landes Groundes or Poſſeſſions, wherein you the ſaid Thomas Mynne ſhall be deſirous or have occaſion to digg open or worke for any ſuch Mynes or Mineralls or Owers as aforeſaid by virtue hereof, and all others whatſoever; that they quietlie and peaceablie permitt and ſuffer you the ſaid Thomas Mynne, your Servants Workemen or Labourers, to have ingreſſe egreſſe and regreſſe into their ſaid Lands Grounds or Poſſeſſions for the purpoſe aforeſaid, and there to ſearch, digg open, draine or convey Waters, or otherwiſe worke for any of the ſaid Mynes Mineralls or Owres of Goulde or Silver, or other Owre that ſhall beare or yealde Goulde or Silver, and the ſame to trye out, convey and carry away to the purpoſe aforeſaid, in ſuch manner and forme, and by ſuch deviſes wayes and meanes as you the ſaid Thomas Mynne your Aſſignes or Servants ſhall thinke moſt fit for our beſt Service in the Premiſſes, and this upon paine of our high Diſpleaſure, and ſuch Puniſhment as by our Lawes may be inflicted uppon Contemners of our Royall Commaunde.

And to the end all our loving Subjects may be the more ready and willing to permitt and ſuffer yow the ſaid Thomas Mynne, your Servants and Aſſignes, to execute this our Service, we do hereby declare and ſignifie our meaning to be that, notwithſtanding that free and abſolute Power which remayneth in our ſelf to take the Benefitt of ſuch Royall Mynes, yet yow ſhall from tyme to tyme give moderate and reaſonable Satisfaction to the Poſſeſſors and Owners of any Landes, Grounds or Places which you ſhall digg or break upp, for any Dammage to be ſtuſtained thereby, or els in tyme convenient, after yow have made an end of digging and ſearching, there to lay and leave their Grounds in good Manner and Sorte, ſo as our ſaid Subjects may have no juſt Cauſe to be grieved for any Dammage donne unto them by yow or by your Default.

Whereas of late Years ſundrie grievous Complaintes have been made unto Us by divers our loving Subjectes, Merchantes and others, of our City of London and other Outportes and Counties of this our Realme, that ſuch hath been and is the Daunger and Loſs they daily ſuſtaine by Pyrates and Sea Robbers, both in their Shipping and Goodes, as alſo in the Perſons of theire Servantes, Factors, and Mariners, who, falling into the Power of that wicked Crewe, are either cruelly murthered or brought to extreame and intollerable Servitude, by which means they are ſo diſcouraged in their Trade as the Commonwealth is in Danger greatly to ſuffer by the Decay of Entercourſe, and eſpecially in the Partes of the Levant, where the ſaid Pyrates haunt for the moſt parte, if ſome Remedie be not in the mean tyme, and that ſpeedily applied,

Wee, having thereupon given a gracious Hearing unto their ſaid humble Complainte, and knowing the Conſequence of ſuch a growing Evill, and how well yt becometh Us, as a Chriſtian and juſt Prince, to ſecure our Subjectes in their lawfull Trade, and even for the common Intereſt of Chriſtendome to roote out thoſe Enemies of Mankind by all the meanes poſſible unto Us, have therefore reſolved of a ſharpe and ſpeedy Proſecution againſt the ſaid Pyrattes at Sea or elſewhereſoever they ſhall be found;

To which End and Purpoſe we did lately, by our Letters Patents or Commiſſion, under our Greate Seale of England, appointe and authoriſe our truſtie and welbeloved Servant Sir Robert Maunſell Knight our Viceadmirall of England, to have the Rule and Government, and to be for this tyme the Admirall of certaine of our Shippes and Pynaces, and of diverſe other Shippes and Veſſels of our Subjects in Companie with our ſaid Shippes, as by Order of our High Admirall of England, and by our Commaundement, the ſaid Sir Robert Maunſell ſhould take with him in his Companie for our Service, which we have ſpeciallie appointed to be donne at the Seas, accordinge to ſuch Inſtructions and Directions as we have given him, giving by our ſaid Letters Patentes or Commiſſion to the ſaid Sir Robert Maunſell diverſe Powers and Authorities for governinge and orderinge the ſaid Voyage, as by our ſaid Letters Patents or Commiſſion may appear.

Nowe,

Foraſmuch as our ſaid Service is of great Waight and Importance, both for our own Honor and the Good of our People; and foraſmuch as not only the common Frailtie and Condition of Men, but the extraordinarie Caſualtie incident to ſuch Services haſtening ſometimes Death and ſometimes mortall Sicknes and other Diſaſters, giveth Us juſt Cauſe to uſe all Chriſtian and good Providence, that in caſe any ſuch ſhould befall the ſaid Sir Robert Maunſell, yet in a Service of ſuch Conſequence we ſhould not be diſappointed, or our Shippes and Subjects committed committed to his Charge and Government endangered for want of a Governor, Knowe yee that wee for the Conſiderations aforeſaid, have conſtituted and appointed, and by theſe Preſents wee doe conſtitute appoint and authorize, our truſtie and welbeloved Sir Richard Hawkins Knight, in caſe the ſaid Sir Robert Maunſell ſhall happen to die, or by any mortall Sicknes Impriſonment or otherwiſe ſhall be diſabled to governe, to have the Rule and Government, and to be the Admirall of all our Shippes and Pynnaces, and of all other Shipps and Veſſells of our Subjects in Company with our ſaid Shipps, as by our high Admirall of England and by our Comaundment, the ſaid Sir Robert Maunſell ſhall have with him in his Company for our Service, which we have ſpeciallie appointed to be done at the Seas according to ſuch Inſtructions and Directions as we have given him.

And further, we do give full Power and Authoritie unto the ſaid Sir Richard Hawkins, in ſuch Caſe of Death, mortal Sicknes, Impriſonment or other occaſion diſabling the ſaid Sir Robert Maunſell from governing, to receave and take into his Chardge, Order, Rule and Government all ſuch our Shippes, and all other Shippes as are by our Commaundment appoynted by our ſaid High Admirall of England to go under the Charge of the ſaid Sir Robert Maunſell, together with all their Companies of Mariners, Gunners, Souldiers, and all others to them belonging, and all ſuch others as the ſaid Sir Robert Maunſell, by vertue of our ſaid Letters Patents or Commiſſion ſhall take unto him for his Aſſiſtance and our better Service,

And we do likewiſe by theſe Preſents give full Power and Authoritie to the ſaid Sir Richard Hawkins all and ſinguler the ſaid Companies, Marriners, Gonners, Souldiers and all other Perſon and Perſons of whom he ſhall have Chardge as aforeſaid, to rule commaunde and govern, and to chaſtice, correct and puniſh for any Offence or Offences to be committed, as the Greatnes and Quallitie of the Fault requireth; that is to ſay, as for any Treaſon to Us or any the ſaid Ships or People in them, or for any wilful Murther, or for any notable Mutinie, the ſame being truly and juſtlie proved the ſaid Sir Richard Hawkins ſhall have full Power to execute and take away their Life, or any Member, in Form and Order of Martiall Law, and for all other leſſer Offences, to puniſh as in his Diſcretion he ſhall think beſt, and as are commonly uſed in all our Armies by Sea and Land.

And we do alſo by theis Preſentes authoriſe the ſaid Sir Richard Hawkins to do perform and putt in Execution all other thinges which by our Inſtructions, ſigned with our Hande, the ſaid Sir Robert Maunſell is directed and appointed to doe execute and performe: ſtraightlie charginge and commaunding all and ſinguler Perſons to whome it ſhall appertaine, to be ayding and aſſiſting to the ſaid Sir Richard Hawkins or his Deputies reſpectivelie in the due Execution of the Premiſſes according to our Pleaſure before herein expreſſed.

Greeting,

Whereas, at the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, in the Firſt Yeare of the Reign of our dear Siſter Elizabeth late Queen of England, one Act was made, amongſt others, intituled,

An Acte reſtoreinge to the Crown the auntient Juriſdiction over the State Eccleſiaſticall and Spirituall, and aboliſhinge all forreigne Power repugnant to the ſame.

By which ſaide Acte (amongſt other things) it was eſtabliſhed and enacted,

That the ſaide late Queene, her Heires and Succeſſors Kings and Queenes of this Realme, ſhould have full Power and Authority, by Vertue of the ſaid Act, and by Letters Patents under the Great Seale of England to aſſign name and authoriſe, when and as often as the ſaide late Queene her Heires or Succeſſors ſhould thinke meete and convenient, and for ſuch and ſoe longe tyme as ſhould pleaſe the ſaid late Queene her Heires and Succeſſors, ſuch Perſon or Perſons, beinge naturall borne Subjects to the ſaide late Queene her Heires or Succeſſors, as the ſaide late Queen her Heirs or Succeſſors ſhould thinke meete, to exerciſe uſe occupie and execute, under the ſaid late Queen her Heires and Succeſſors, all manner of Juriſdictions Privileges and Prehemynences in any wiſe touchinge or concerning any ſpirituall or eccleſiaſticall Juriſdiction within theſe our Realmes of England and Ireland, or any other the Domynions or Countries of the ſaid late Queen; and to viſit reforme redreſſe order correct and amend all ſuch Errors Hereſies Schiſmes Abuſes Offences Contempts and Enormities whatſoever, which by any manner ſpirituall or eccleſiaſticall Power Authority or Juriſdiction could or might lawfully be reformed ordered redreſſed corrected reſtrayned or amended, to the Pleaſure of Almighty God, the Encreaſe of Virtue, and the Conſervation of the Peace and Unitie of this Realme. And that ſuch Perſon or Perſons to be named aſſigned authoriſed and appoynted by the ſaid late Queene her Heires or Succeſſors, after the ſaide Letters Patents to him or them made and delivered, as is aforeſaid, ſhould have full Power and Authority, by Vertue of that Act and of the ſaid Letters Patents, under the ſaid late Queen her Heires and Succeſſors, to exerciſe uſe and execute all the Premiſſes accordinge to the Tenor and Effect of the ſaid Letters Patents, tents, any Matter or Cauſe to the contrarie in any wiſe notwithſtandinge;

As in and by the ſaid Act, amongſt other thinges, more at large appeareth.

By the expreſs Wordes of which ſaid Act, authoriſing our ſaid dear Siſter her Heirs and Succeſſors to grant ſuch Commiſſions, when and as often and ſuch and ſo long tyme as ſhould be thought meet and convenient, it appeareth that the ſaid Parliament purpoſed plainly to repreſent and intimate unto our ſaid dear Siſter, and Kings of this Realme that ſhould ſucceed, as well the great Truſt that was repoſed in the Crown, as alſo their own Opynion and Intention that ſuch Commiſſions ſhould be of a temporary Nature, and that it was deſired and meant that they might be accommodated to the Accidents and Varieties of the tymes and Occaſions; we have now thought good, for divers weighty Cauſes, and of our Princely Care and Deſire to eaſe and content our loving Subjects as far as may ſtand with good Government and Juſtice, to grant forth a Commiſſion in Manner and Forme following.

Know ye therefore that we, for ſundrie, good, weighty and neceſſary Cauſes and Conſiderations us thereunto ſpecially moving, of our meer Motion and certain Knowledge by Force and Vertue of our ſupream Authority and Prerogatyf Royall, and of the ſaid Act, do by theis our Letters Patents under the Great Seal of England, give and graunt full free and lawfull Power and Authority unto you the ſaid Lord Archbiſhopp of York for the tyme being.

be carried and conveyed, or reddy to be carried and conveyed into any the Parts beyond the Seas, to the Intente to be there brought upp in Romiſh Religion as aforeſaid; and likewiſe to take and ſeize, or cauſe to be taken and ſeized, within the ſaid Province of Yorke, ſuch Money and other Things which ſhall be appointed to be carried and conveied into any the Parts beyond the Seas, to and for the Mayntenance either of the ſaid Children and other Perſons ſoe carried, or reddy to be carried or conveyed as aforeſaid, or of any other Perſon or Perſons brought upp or remayning in the foreſaide Semynaries or Schooles of Romiſh Religion, and the ſaid Children and other Perſons, which ſhall be taken as aforeſaid, to deteyne them in ſafe Cuſtody till ſome good Order may be taken for them.

And alſo wee doe give unto you, or any ſuch three or more of you as is aforeſaid, full Power and Authority to ſeize, or cauſe to be ſeized, within the ſaid Province of York, all Maſſinge Stuffe, Reliques or other Superſtitious Things, and to deface the ſame, or cauſe them to be defaced in ſuch manner as from thenceforth they may not ſerve for any Superſtitious Uſe, without deſtroying the Subſtance thereof, except otherwiſe it cannot be defaced.

And foraſmuch as there hath been divers lamentable Complaints and Petitions delivered, as well to our ſelf, as to our Privy Council, by many Wives againſt their Husbands, wherein they have ſuggeſted that without any juſt Cauſe of Offence given by them to their ſaid Husbands in that behalf, and notwithſtanding ſome of them have brought to their Husbands great Advancements; Yet, by their Husbands cruell and barbarous Uſage and Breach of the Bonds of holy Wedlocke and other their ungodly Demeanors, they have bene either caſt off or left by their Husbands, or forced to fly from them or leave their Cohabitation without fit Mayntenance given unto them, and that the Ordinary Eccleſiaſticall Courts did not afford them timely and fit means of Relief for ſundry Reaſons, and eſpecially becauſe their Neceſſities require, above all other Caſes of Grevance, a ſummarie Hearing, and ſpeedy Releefe, being otherwiſe often in Danger to periſh for Want; We therefore, to the end that, as well our ſelf as our Privy Councell, dayly employed in the higheſt Affairs of State, might be freed of this particular, and alſoe that the juſt Complaynts and diſtreſſed Eſtates of ſuch Wives, in the Caſes aforeſaid, may be with all convenient Expedition heard determyned and releived in a certayne Court whereunto in that behalfe they may ordinarily repaire for Juſtice; doe give unto you, and every ſuch three or more of you as is aforeſaid, full Power and Authority by theſe Preſents in that behalfe, upon every ſuch Complaynt made unto you, or any ſuch three or more of you as is aforeſaid, in all and every the Caſes aforeſaid, by any Wife, or in the behalfe of any Wife againſt her Husband, to ſend for by Letters Miſſive, or cauſe to be apprehended and brought before you, or any ſuch three or more of you as is aforeſaid, by Proces of Attachment (if need be) in Manner and Form aforeſaid, all and every ſuch Husbands inhabiting and reſiding within the Province of York, which, either by their cruell and barbarous Uſage, or by the Breach of holy Wedlocke, or other their ungodly Demeanor, have or ſhall caſt of or leave their Wives, or force or give their Wives juſt Cauſe to flye from them or leave their Cohabitation; And when any ſuch Husband or Husbands ſoe offendinge, or charged or accuſed as aforeſaid to have offended in the Caſes aforementioned, ſhall appeare or be brought before you, or any ſuch three or more of you as is aforeſaide, to proceed to the Examination thereof by all and every the lawful Waies and Meanes before mentioned with all convenient Expedition, according to the grave Wiſdomes and Diſcretions of you, or any ſuch three or more of you as is aforeſaid;

And we doe further give Power and Authority unto you, or any five or more of you, whereof the Lord Archbiſhopp of York for the tyme being, the Lord Chancellor of England or Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of England for the tyme being, the Biſhops of Durham, Carliſle, Cheſter or Man for the tyme being, to be alwaies one) finally to hear and determine in manner and forme aforeſaid the ſaid Complaintes and Accuſations made by or in the behalf of any Wife againſt her Husband in the Caſes aforeſaid, and yf you, or any ſuch three or more of you as is firſt abovementioned, ſhall not be able by your godly and grave Councells and Perſwaſions to reconcile the ſaid Husbands and Wives, and cauſe the ſaid Wives to remitt and forgive the Wrongs which which their Huſbands have offered unto them and to live together with their Huſbands as Man and Wife ought to do, then you, or any five or more of you (whereof the Lord Archbiſhopp of York for the tyme being, the Lord Chauncellor of England or Lord Keeper of the Great Seale of England for the time being, the Biſhops of Durham, Carliſle, Cheſter or Man for the time being, to be alwaies one) to ſett down ſuch Orders from tyme to tyme, as you, or any ſuch five or more of you as is aforeſaid, ſhall in your Diſcretions thinke meete for the competent and reaſonable Alimony and Mayntenance of everie ſuch Wife for ſo long time as you ſhall think meete, and during the tyme of her and her Huſbands neceſſary living aſunder, and for the defraying of the Expences of Suit which everie ſuch Wife hath or ſhall be at in the proſecuting of the ſaid Cauſe againſt her ſaid Huſband in the Caſes aforeſaid:

And likewiſe we doe give unto you, and every ſuch five or more of you as is aforeſaid full Power and Authority to take ſufficient Bonds or Recognizances, to our Uſe at your Diſcretions, of every ſuch Huſband ſoe accuſed as aforeſaid, as well for his and their Appearance from tyme to tyme before you, or ſuch of you reſpectively in manner and forme aforeſaid, as alſoe for the Performance of all and everie your Orders made in the behalfe of the ſaid Wife as aforeſaid; which Bonds or Recognizances, if they refuſe to enter into, or ſhall refuſe to performe your ſaid Orders, then we give unto you, or any ſuch five or more of you as is aforeſaid, full Power and Authority in that behalfe to puniſh the ſame Perſon or Perſons ſoe refuſing, or not performinge the ſame by Cenſures Eccleſiaſtical, or by reaſonable Fyne and Impriſonment, or by all or any the ſaide meanes according to your Diſcretions.

And whereas there were divers Cathedrall or Collegiate Churches, Grammar Schooles, or other Eccleſiaſticall Incorporations erected founded and ordeyned by the late King, of famous Memory, King Henry the eight, and by the late King Edward the Sixt, and by the late Queen Mary and the Lord Cardinall Poole, and alſo by the late Queen Elizabeth, where there are either noe Ordinances Rules and Statutes at all, or the ſame are altogether imperfect, or ſome of them made at ſuch tymes as the Crowne and Regyment of this our Realme was ſubject to the forraigne uſurped Authority of the See of Rome, ſoe as they cannot ſtand with the preſent State, being in divers Poynts uncertayne contrary divers and repugnant to the Dignity and Prerogative of our Crowne, the Lawes of this our Realme, and the preſent State of Religion now eſtabliſhed within the ſame, we therefore do give and graunt full Power and Authority to you, and everie ſix or more of you (of whom we will the Lord Archbiſhop of York for the tyme being, the Biſhopps of Durham, Carliſle, Cheſter and Man for the tyme being, alwaies to be one) to cauſe and command, in our Name, all and ſinguler the Ordinances Rules and Statutes of all and every the ſaid Cathedrall and Collegiate Churches, Grammar Schooles, and other Eccleſiaſticall Incorporations, within the ſaid Province of Yorke, together with their ſeverall Letters Patents and other Writinges touching or in any wiſe concerning their ſeverall Erections and Foundations, to be brought and exhibited before you, or any ſix or more of you as is aforeſaide, and uppon the exhibiting and diligent and deliberate View Search and Examination of the ſaid Statutes Rules and Ordinances Letters Patents and Writings as is aforeſaid, to purge alter and reforme the ſame, and alſoe where no Statutes are extant at all, or the ſame defective and unperfect, to deviſe and ſett down ſuch good Orders Statutes and Ordinances as you, or any ſuch ſix or more of you as is aforeſaid ſhall think meet and convenient, to be by Us confirmed, ratified, allowed and ſett forth for the better Order and Rule of the ſaid ſeverall Churches, Erections and Foundations, and the Poſſeſſions and Revenues of the ſame, as may beſt tend to the Honor of Almighty God, the Encreaſe of Piety Vertue Learning and Unity, and the publique Weal and Tranquillity of this Realm.

And further know ye, that we doe name aſſigne authoriſe depute and appoynt, and by theſe Preſents, doe give full Power Authority and Juriſdiction to you, and every three or more of you (whereof the Lord Archbiſhopp of Yorke for the time being, the Lord Preſident in the North for the time being, the Biſhops of Durham, Carliſle, Cheſter and Man for the time beinge to be one) to tender or miniſter within the ſaid Province of York, the Oath commonly called or known by the Name of the Oath

HAveing Occaſion at this tyme to deliberate upon divers great and weighty Affaires highly tending to the Contynuance and further Setling of the peaceable Government and Safety of this our Kingdom, whereof God hath given us the Charge, We have thought good, according to the laudable Cuſtome of our Progenitors, to crave the Adviſe and Aſſiſtance herein of our well affected Subjects, by calling a Parliament to begin upon the ſixteenth Day of Januarie next, and though there were no more to be had in Conſideration but the preſent Face of Chriſtendom ſo miſerably and dangerouſly diſtracted at this tyme, beſides a number of other great and waightie Affaires that we are to reſolve upon, we have more then ſufficient Reaſon to wiſh and deſire, if ever at any time eſpecially at this, that the Knights and Burgeſſes that ſhall ſerve in Parliament be according to the ould Inſtitutions choſen of the graveſt, ableſt and beſt affected Myndes that maie be found, and therefore out of the Care of the Common Good, whereof themſelves are alſo participant, we do hereby admoniſh all our loving Subjects that have Votes in the Elections, that Choiſe be made of Perſons approved for their Senceryty in Religion, and not of any that is noted either of Super-

James, by the Grace of God &c.
To our right truſty and right wellbeloved Councellor,

Frauncis Lord Verulam Lord Chauncellor of England,

And Sir Henry Mountague Knight our High Treaſorer of England,

And to our right truſty and right wellbeloved Cozens and Councellors,

George Marques of Buckingham our High Admirall of England,

William Earle of Pembroke Lord Chamberlayne of our Houſeholde,

Thomas Earle of Arundell,

And to our right truſty and welbeloved Councellors,

Sir Robert Nautnon Knight one of our Principall Secretaries of State,

Sir George Calvert Knight one other of our Principall Secretaries of State,

Sir Fulke Grevill Knight, Chancellor and Undertreaſorer of our Exchequer,

Sir Edward Coke Knight,

And Sir Lyonell Cranfeild Knight Maſter of our Court of Wardes and Liveries, Greeting.

As we have alwaies heretofore, with our contynuall Care and Endeavoure, ſought to preſerve our Realms and Domynions, and our loving Subjects thereof, in Peace and Quiet, and to prevent all Occaſions which might diſturbe the ſame; ſo we are conſtantly reſolved ſtill to purſue this our Purpoſe as the chief Part of our Regall Office; and therefore, being credibly informed of divers great and high Offences committed by ſundry Perſons unto the inſufferable Daunger of the Common Wealth, by tranſporting into forraigne Parts great Quantities of Braſen and Iron Ordinans, wherein we find that, notwithſtanding the good Laws and Statuts by the Wiſdom and Pollicie of our Predeceſſors heretofore made prohibiting the ſame, and the Orders and Ordinances lately ſett down with the Advice of our Privy Councell to that Purpoſe, and likewiſe the gracious Liberty and Licence we have given in ſome particuler Caſes to tranſport certayne moderate Quantities thereof to good Ends and Purpoſes, yet divers Perſons, for their private Lucre and Gayne, not regarding the ſaid Statuts and Ordinances, nor the Penalties thereof, have heretofore tranſported and daily do tranſport out of this Realme into forraigne Parts, without any lawfull or good Lycence or Warrant, great Quantities of Ordinans and diſpoſed them to the Service of forraigne Princes and Countries, which could not be effected but by the Connivency of ſome of our Officers of our Ports to whom the Care of reſtrayning ſuch and the like Abuſes is committed; And therefore we hold it requiſite and needful, for the Safety and publique Good of our Realme, ſpeedily to reform and carefully to prevent the ſaid Inconveniences and Dangers, and taking Notice how neceſſary it is for effecting a Buſineſs of ſuch Weight and Importance, as well to underſtand all materiall Circumſtances touching the ſame, whereby the like may hereafter be prevented as the Offendors themſelves, and the Quantitye and Quality of the Offences, to the end the Delinquents may receive condign Puniſhment. We are further reſolved to uſe all provident Care for diſcovering of the ſaid Abuſes, Corruptions, Connivences and Miſdemeanors, and whatſoever elſe may be of like dangerous Conſequence and to apply ſome fitting and lawfull Remedy thereunto.

Knowe ye therefore that we repoſing aſſured Truſt and Confidence in your approved Wiſdomes, Fidelities and Circumſpections, have aſſigned and appoynted you to be our Commiſſioners, and we do hereby give unto you, or any three or more of you, full Power and Authoritie, as well by Examination of any Witnes or Witneſſes upon Oath or without Oath, and by View of any Bookes, Entries or other Writings, as by any other waies or meanes which to you, or anie three or more of you, ſhall ſeem convenient to enquire, ſearch, examyne, diſcover and find out all Abuſes, Miſdemeanors, Corruptions, Deceipts, Negligences and Offences ſithence the beginning of our Raigne over this Realm of England, comitted or done by any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever in or concerning the Tranſportation out of this our Realme into any forraigne Parts of any Braſen or Iron Ordinans, contrary to the Tenor or Effect of any Lawes of this Realme, or of any Orders or Ordinances ſett down by our ſelf or our Privy Councell concerning the ſame; and to call before you, or any three or more of you, all and every ſuch Perſon and Perſons, Officer and Officers whatſoever, whom you ſhall think fitt, and as well by Examination of the Parties ſuſpected to offend, as by Examination upon Oath or without Oath of any Witneſſes or other Perſons by whom the Truth in the Premiſſes may appear, to examine diſcover and fynd out what Quantity of Braſen or Iron Ordinans hath, ſithence the beginning of our Raigne aforeſaid, bene tranſported out of this our Realme into any the Parts beyond the Seas, by any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever without Lycence or good Warrant? By whom the ſame hath bene tranſported? And to what Place or Places beyond the Seas? And for what Purpoſe? And by whoſe Meanes, Conſent or Procurement? And how the ſame being tranſported have bene ymployed or diſpoſed of? And what Quantity of Ordinans for Tranſportation, whereof there hath bene any Licence or Warrant hath bene diſpoſed of to any other End or Purpoſe then that for which they were ſo licenced to be tranſported, with the Certainty and Particularity and Circumſtances touchinge the ſame? And what indirect Pollicies, Sleights or Practiſes have, within the ſaid tyme bene uſed by any Perſon or Perſons by Cullour of any Licence or Warrant for Tranſportation of Ordinans, to carry, convey or tranſport into the Parts beyond the Seas any greater Quantity of Ordinans then by ſuch Lycence was warranted? What Connivency, Tolleration, Corruption or other Plotts, Practizes or Abuſes have bene committed done or uſed by anye Officer or Officers of any our Ports, or other Officer or Perſon any way truſted for Reſtraint of the Tranſportation of Ordinance, whereby any Ordinance have been ſuffered to be without Lycence or otherwiſe unduely tranſported? Or whereby anie greater Quantitie of Ordinans did or might paſs, by Cullour of any Licence or Warrant, then by the ſaid Licence or Warrant was permitted and allowed? What Orders or Ordinances ſett down by Us or our Privy Councell for reſtrayning the Tranſportation of Ordinans, or for reſtrayning any Miſdemeanor or Abuſe touching the ſame, have bene diſobeyed, broken or infringed, and by whom, and for what Cauſe? And what Somme or Sommes of Money or other Reward have bene given in any wiſe to any Perſon or Perſons? Or what other Corruption hath bene uſed in any manner of wiſe for or in Reſpect of any Connivency or Tolleration, Permiſſion or Abuſe in any Sort concerning the Premiſſes? And by and to whom any ſuch Somes of Money or Rewards have bene given or taken? And by or between whom any ſuch other Corruption as aforeſaid hath bene uſed, and by whom, and in whoſe Default, and with whoſe Conſent, Privity or Procurement? And for whoſe Benefitt, Advantage and Avail any of the Premiſſes were or have bene done or committed, and what Benifitt or Advantage any Man hath made thereby? And what Prejudice hath or is like to happen to Us or our Realm thereby? And of all and every other Matter, Circumſtance and Thing in any wiſe concerning the Premiſſes which to you, or any three or more of you ſhall be thought convenient. And likewiſe to conſider of propoſe and ſett down ſuch further Orders and Ordinances as to you, or any three or more of you, ſhall be thought fitt, whereby the like Inconveniences may be prevented for the tyme to come.

And to the end our Will and Pleaſure herein may be the better effected,

We do hereby give full Power and Authority unto you, or any three or more of you, to cauſe all and every Perſon and Perſons which you ſhall think good to bring and ſhew before you, or any three or more of you, all and ſinguler ſuch Warrants, Licences, Bookes, Entries or other Notes or Writings whatſoever, remayning in their Cuſtody, which you, or any three or more of you, ſhall think fitt to be produced for our better Service herein, whereby the Truth in the Premiſſes may the better and more plainly, be found out and diſcovered.

And to the end that no Perſon may have juſt Cauſe to complayne or be grieved at your Proceedings in this behalfe, our Pleaſure is that when and ſo often as any Examynation of any Perſon or Perſons, ſhall by Vertue of this Commiſſion, be taken upon Oath, that then and ſo often uppon Requeſt made by the Parties whom the ſame ſhall concerne, you, or any three or more of you, may examine the ſame or

A.D.1620. 18 Jac. 1. or any other Perſon, either uppon Oath or otherwiſe, for their Defence if you, uppon due Conſideration had, ſhall think it fitt,

And for your more Eaſe and Expedition in the Execution of this our Commiſſion, our will and Pleaſure is, and we do charge and commaund hereby, that ſuch of our Officers and Miniſters whom you, or any three or more of you, ſhall think fitt and requyre, ſhall be ready and attendant upon you, or any three or more of you, for the doing and performing any thing neceſſary to be done in the Execution of this our Service.

And our further Will and Pleaſure is, and we do hereby ſtraightly charge and commaund you our ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of you, to certify Us from tyme to tyme of your Proceedings herein, to the end we may give ſuch further Direction therein as to Juſtice ſhall apperteyne. A.D.1620. 18 Jac. 1.

And laſtly our Will and Pleaſure is, that this our preſent Commiſſion ſhall contynue in force, and we do hereby authorize you, or any three or more of you, to proceed in the Execucion thereof, and of all and every Matter and Thing therein conteyned from tyme to tyme and as often as you, or any three or more of you ſhall think convenient; albeit the ſaid Commiſſion be not from tyme to tyme contynued by Adjournement.

A.D.1620. Ibid p. 19. dorſ. Although the Commixture of Nations, Confluence of Ambaſſadors, and the Relation which the Affaires of our Kingdomes have had towardes the Buſines and Intereſts of forraine States, have cauſed, during our Regiment, a greater Openneſs and Liberty of Diſcourſe, even concernyng Matters of State, which are no Theames or Subjects fitt for vulgar Perſons or common meetings, then hath been in former tymes uſed or permitted;

And although in our own Nature and Judgement we do well allow of convenient Freedom of Speech, eſteeming any over curious or reſtrained Hand carried in that kind rather as a Weakneſs or els over much Severity of Government then otherwiſe, yet neverthleſs, foraſmuch as it is come to our Eares by common Report, that there is at this tyme a more licentious Paſſage of laviſh Diſcourſe and bould Cenſure in Matters of State then hath been heretofore, or is fitt to be ſuffered, We have thought it neceſſarie, by the Adviſe of our Privy Councell, to give forewarning unto our loving Subjectes of this Exceſs and Preſumption, and ſtraitly to commaund them, and everie of them from the higheſt to the loweſt, to take heed how they intermedle by Penn or Speech with Cauſes of State and Secretes of Empire either at Home or abroade, but containe themſelves within that modeſt and Reverent Regard of Matters above their Reach and Calling, that to good and dutifull Subjects appertaineth;

As alſo not to give Attention or any Manner of Applauſe or Entertainment to ſuch Diſcourſe, without acquainting ſome of our Privy Councell or other principall Officers therewithall, reſpective to the Place where ſuch Speeches ſhal be uſed, within the Space of fowre and twenty Howres under Pain of Impriſonment and our high Diſpleaſure; and lett no Man think after this our forewarning to paſs away with Ympunitie, in Reſpect of the multitude and generallity of Offendors in this kind, but know that it will light upon ſome of the firſt or forwardeſt of them to be ſeverely punyſhed for Example to others,

And if we ſhall be cenſible of this kind of Contempt, even towards ſuch of our loving Subjects as are obedient to our Lawes and conformable to our Proceedings in Church and Common Wealth, unto whom we cannot ympute it to proceed otherwiſe then out of Raſhneſs, evill Cuſtom, or too much Paſſion, much more lett them

A.D. 1620. 18 Jac. 1. looke to it, who in Reſpect that they are otherwiſe lyable to our Lawes, or of ſuſpected Affection toward our Government, may give Us juſt Cauſe to think that it proceedeth from the Overflow of a worſe or more corrupt Fountain;

Neither lett any Man myſtake Us ſo much as to think that, by giveing fair and ſpecious Attributes to our Perſon they can cover the Scandals which they otherwiſe lay upon our Government, but conceive that we make no other Conſtruction of them but as fine and artificiall Gloſſes, the better to give Paſſage to the reſt of their Imputations and Scandalls.

A.D.1621. Pat. 18. J. 1. p. 16. dorſ. JAMES, by the Grace of God, &c. To our right truſtie and right wellbeloved Councellor.

Frauncis Lord Verulam Lord Chauncellor of England, Greeting.

Wee will and requyer you and, by theis Preſents, do give unto you full Power and Authoritie to make out and award for Us and in our Name a Commiſſion, altogeather like unto this hereafter following under our Great Seal of England, and alſo to award for Us and in our Name from tyme to tyme other ſeverall Commiſſions under our great Seal of England, according to the Tenor and Effect of the ſaid Commiſſion in theis Preſents following to be directed to ſuch Juſtices, Officers and Miniſters, and to ſuch Portes of this our Realme of England (except the Port of London) as you ſhall think convenient, and theis Preſents ſhall be unto you a ſufficient Warraunt and Diſchardge in that behalfe:

JAMES by the Grace of God, King of England, Scotland, Fraunce and Ireland Defendor of the Faith &c. To our wellbeloved Subjects the Mayor and Recorder of our Cittie of Cheſter now being and that hereafter for the tyme ſhall be, and to the Cuſtomers, Comptrollers, Surveyors, Searchers and the Farmors Deputies in the Port of Cheſter now being and that hereafter for the tyme ſhal be, Greeting.

Whereas we, by our Proclamation dated at our Pallace of Weſtmynſter the nynth Day of July in the fifte Year of our Raigne of Great Brittain Fraunce and Ireland, did ſtraightlie prohibit and forbid all manner of Perſons, being naturall born Subjects of this our Realm or any of the Dominions of the ſame, of what Eſtate or Degree ſoever they were, that they or any of them (other then ſuch Perſons as were excepted in and by an Act of Parliament made in the firſt Year of King Richard the ſecond in the ſaid Proclamation mentioned, and other then Souldiers, Merchauntes, Marriners and their Factors and Apprentices) ſhould not at anie tyme hereafter without ſpeciall Lycence of us or of any fower or more of our Privy Councell, wheaeof our principall Secretarie for the tyme being to be one, paſs or depart out of this our Realm of England or anie the Dominions of the ſame, into the Kingdoms, Countries, Territories or Dominions of any forraigne King, Prince, State or Potentate, uppon ſuch corporall and other great and heavie Paines and Penalties as by our Lawes might be inflicted uppon ſuch as ſhould offend therein for their ſo heynous and unnaturall Offences againſt their naturall Liege Lord and Countrie in that behalfe, as by our ſaid Proclamation, amongſt other things, more fully and plainly appeareth.

And whereas there are divers Perſons, as well Women and Children under the Age of one and twentie Yeares as others, beſides the Perſons not reſtrayned by our ſaid Proclamation, whereof ſome have good and neceſſarie Occaſions to paſs beyond the Seas, who nevertheles cannot lawfullie paſs out of the ſame without ſuch Lycence as in our ſaid Proclamation is appointed in that behalfe; in which Caſes, for everie ſuch of our Subjects to obteyne Licence from our ſelf or fower of our Councell, whereof our principall Secretarie to be one, were verie inconvenient and, whereas divers of our Subjects being Perſons unknown and evill affected to the State of this our Kingdom, do oftentimes convey themſelves out of this Realm into the Partes beyond the Seas, and combyne themſelves with forraigne Enemies, thereby to make Trouble and Diſturbance to Us and our People.

Know ye now that wee, of our eſpeciall Grace, certain Knowledge, and meer Motion, for the Expedition of ſuch other our Subjects as ſhall have good and neceſſarie Occaſion to paſs over the Seas, and to quit our ſelf and our Privy Councell of that continuall Suit and Truble which thereby would happen unto Us and them, to the Hindrance of other our weightie Affaires, and alſo to prevent as much as we may all Daungers that may happen to Us or our Eſtate in the Caſes aforeſaid; truſting in your Fidelities, Wiſdomes and Circumſpections, have, and by theſe Preſentes do authoriſe and appoint you to be our Commiſſioners, and do give unto you, or any fower or more of you, full Power, Authoritie and Commaundement from tyme to tyme to Miniſter an Oath to all and everie Perſon and Perſons, as well Women and Children under the Age of one and twentie Yeares, being of convenient Age to take an Oath, as other Perſon and Perſons (other then the Perſons not reſtrayned as aforeſaid) as ſhall offer or deſire to go over the Seas att our ſaid Pert of Cheſter, to anſwer truly to ſuch Queſtions as you or any fower or more of you, ſhall ask of them, and uppon ſuch their Oath to ask and learn of them their Trade, Names and Surnames, and the Place of their Birth and Aboad, their State, Degree, Vocation, Myſterie or Occupation, and the true Cauſe or Cauſes of their goeing over, togeather with the Place or Places whither they intend or are to go, and the tyme that they intend and are like to ſtay and tarrie before their Retorne, and all other Queſtions that in your Diſcretions, according to the Occaſions you ſhall think fitt; of all which Perſons and their Aunſweres in the Poyntes aforeſaid, or what els in your Diſcretions you ſhall think fitt to demaund of them, and of the tyme of their Paſſage Wee will that you make orderly and perfect Entrie into a Book, and keep the ſame to be extant uppon all Occaſions.

And we do alſo by theis Preſents authorice and commaund you, or any fower or more of you as is aforeſaid to tender the Oath mentioned in one Act of Parliament made in the third Yeare of our Raign of England, Fraunce and Ireland, intituled,

An Act for the better diſcovering and repreſſing of Popiſh Recuſants, unto any ſuch Perſon or Perſons as you in your Diſcretion ſhall think fitt (except ſuch Perſons as are not reſtrayned by the ſaid Proclamation) which ſhall be deſirous to paſs over the Seas at the ſaid Port, uppon which Examinations, ſo by you taken and entered, and the ſaid Oath, ſo tendered in Caſe where you ſhall think it fitt as aforeſaid, ſuch of the ſaid Perſons intending to go over the Seas, as you ſhall find to go over for any good or lawful Occaſion, and which you ſhall not diſcover by ſuch their Examinations, or otherwiſe know or learn to be Gentlemen or Men of Value or publiqueli noted of anie diſloyal dangerous Action or Affection and ſhall alſo willinglie take the ſaid Oath mentioned in the ſaid Act of Parliament made in the ſaid third Year of our Raign of England, Fraunce and Ireland, in Caſe where you ſhall think good to myniſter the ſame as aforeſaid, you ſhall and may allow and ſuffer to paſs, and thereuppon you, or any fower or more of you, ſhall ſignifie under your Handes and Seales the ſame Perſons to be allowable to paſs over the Seas at the Port of Cheſter aforeſaid; of which your ſaid Teſtimonialls

JAMES by the Grace of God &c. To all Stationers, Printers, Bookſellers, and all other to whom theis Preſents ſhall come, Greeting.

Whereas our welbeloved Subject John Legate late Citizen and Stationer of London, and Printer to our Univerſitie of Cambridge, late deceaſed, did heretofore beſtow great Travaile, Coſtes and Charges, as well in and about the augmenting and enlarging as the new printing of a Dixionarye called Thomas Thomas Dictionary, collected, gathered and compoſed by the ſaid Thomas Thomas, and augmented by the ſaid John Legate, and then approved of the learned to be the beſt and beſt cheap unto our loving Subjects in Reſpect of other Dictionaries not ſo profitable, effectuall or fitt for the uſe of Schollers,

We to the end the ſaid John Legate might receive ſuch convenient Recompence and Reward, as well for his Charges and Travell therein, and for the common good which ſhould be thereby brought to the whole Realm, did heretofore, by Letters Patents under our Great Seal of England, grant ſole Priviledge unto the ſaid John Legate his Executors and Aſſignes, to imprint and ſell the ſaid Book for certain Yeares, ſome Part whereof are yet unexpired;

And whereas we are informed, by the humble Petition of John Legate Stationer, and of ten others his Brothers and Siſters all Children of the foreſaid John Legate firſt mentioned, that there ſaid Father is lately deceaſed, and hath left little els amongſt them towards their Education and Advancement but the Benifit accrewing by the printing of that Book, and did thereupon humblie deſire that we would be graciouſly pleaſed to comiſerate their Eſtate, and to renew the ſaid Graunt unto them for ſome longer tyme.

And the ſaid John Legate the Sonne, being ſole Executor of the laſt Will and Teſtament of the ſaid John Legate the Father, hath by his Deed in writing ſurrendered unto Us the ſaid former Graunt, and all his Intereſt and Term therein yet unexpired, Know ye that we, for the better Maintenance and Preferment of the ſaid John Legate the Sonne, and of his ſaid Bretheren and Siſters, and other good Conſiderations us hereunto moving, of our eſpeciall Grace, certaine Knowledge and mere Motion, have given and graunted and by theis Preſents for Us our Heires and Succeſſors, do give and grant full Power and Authoritie, Priviledge, and Licenſe unto the ſaid John Legate his Executors Adminiſtrators, Deputies and Aſſignes, to imprint and cauſe to be imprinted, within this our Realm of England and other our Domynions, the ſaid Book or Bookes called Thomas Thomas his Dictionarie, by whatſoever Name or Names the ſame Booke or Bookes or any of them are or ſhall be called, in what Form or Volume it ſhall ſeem moſt expedient unto him or them, and all the ſame Bookes to utter, bound and unbound to any of our Subjects, or anie other Perſons whatſoever within our Dominions, any Othe Privilege or Order heretofore made or taken to the contrarye notwithſtanding.

To have and to hold the ſaid Priviledge, Power, Licence and Authoritie unto the ſaid John Legate his Executors Adminiſtrators, Deputies and Aſſigns, for and during the Term of one and twentie Yeares next enſuing the Date hereof fully to be compleat and ended.

And moreover wee ſtraightly prohibit and forbid all other the Subjects of Us our Heires and Succeſſors whatſoever to imprint, utter or put to Sale any of the ſaid Book or Books called Thomas Thomas his Dictionarye collected gathered and compoſed by the ſaid Thomas Thomas, and augmented by the ſaid John Legate, other then ſuch as ſhall be by the ſaid John Legate his Executors, Adminiſtrators, Deputies or Aſſignes imprinted according to the meaning of theis Preſents, uppon ſuch Paynes and Penalties as may be inflicted uppon ſuch as diſobey our Royall Commaundement in our Privileges and Prerogative.

And for the better Execution hereof, we will and ſtraightlie commaunde all and everie the Officers and Subjects of Us our Heires and Succeſſors, as they tender our Pleaſure, that they and everie

Provided alwayes that theis Preſents, or any thing therein conteyned, ſhall not extend or be conceived to extend to prohibit any Perſon or Perſons to imprint, utter or ſell the Dictionaryes called Elliotts Dictionarye, Coopers Dictionarye, Riders Dictionarye or any other Dictionarye whatſoever, but onely the Dictionary of Thomas Thomas with ſuch Addition as is aforeſaid, but that ſuch other Dictionaryes may be imprinted, uttered and ſold as they might have bin before the making of theis Preſents, and the ſaid former Grant to the ſaid John Legate deceaſed.

Whereas Sir Giles Mompeſſon Knight, being convented before our Commons Houſe of Parliament, and there queſtioned for many hainous Offences and Miſdemeanors, to the intollerable Greevance of our good and loving Subjectes, the great Diſhonor of our Perſon, and Scandall of our Government hath out of the Guilt of his own Conſcience, as it is to be preſumed, whileſt he was there under Examination, and for fear of condigne Punyſhment which might be inflicted upon him for the ſame, made an eſcape out of the Cuſtody of the Serjeant of that Howſe, to whom by their Order he was comytted for Security of his Perſon to be forth coming upon Occaſion of further Triall.

De Proclamatione Regia pro Egidio Mompeſſon exterminando.

¶ A.D.1621. Pat. 19. J. 1. p. 14. n. 9.

WHereas Giles Mompeſſon late Knight, for great and inſufferable Crymes by him committed, to the Abuſe of his Majeſtie and grievous Oppreſſion of his Subjects, hath, by the High Court of Parliament, bene declared to be degraded of the Order of Knighthood, and ſentenced adjudged to ſuſteyn and bear other Puniſhments, as by the Record of the foreſaid Judgment appeareth:

The Kings moſt excellent Majeſtie,

Approving in all things the juſt Proceedings and Sentence of the ſame his High Court of Parliament, which to prevent the ſaid Mompeſſon, while the matters were in Examination, eſcaped from his Keeper and fledd, and is now not to be found, nevertheles his Majeſtie deſiring to aſſure all his loving Subjects how hatefull and offenſive it is to his Majeſtie that his People ſhould be ſo injured, moleſted, vexed or oppreſſed and willing by the ſeveritie of his Juſtice to deterr all others from any like Attempt or Enterprize hereafter,

Hath reſolved, over and beſides all the Puniſhments inflicted uppon the ſaid Mompeſſon by the Judgment of Parliament, to add this further Puniſhment in deteſtation of his Offences, utterly to baniſh and expell the ſaid Giles Mompeſſon out of his Realmes of England, Scotland and Ireland and all other his Majeſties Dominions, as a Perſon infamous and unworthy to partake of any the comforts of his Majeſties happy Government;

And therefore his Majeſtie doth hereby expreſly charge and command that the ſaid Giles Mompeſſon, if now he be abiding within any of his Majeſties Dominions, do forthwith, after the publication hereof, depart and withdraw himſelf out of the ſame, and that after ſuch his departure, or if he be now in any parts of his Majeſties Dominions, that he do not at any time hereafter retorne into the ſame or any of them, upon Pain to incurr not onlie the ſevereſt and uttermoſt Execution of the ſaid Sentence and Judgement of Parliament, but the forfeiture of whatſoever he may forfeit to his Majeſtie, and of all ſuch further Puniſhment as his Majeſtie in his Kinglie Power and Prerogative may inflict uppon him.

De Proclamatione Regia pro Abolitione Billarum Conformitatum.

A.D.1621. Ibid. n. 11.

WHereas divers Bills of Complaint, commonly called Bills of Conformitie, have of late Yeares been exhibited into his Majeſties Court of Chauncery and other his Courts of Equitie by ſundry Perſons againſt their Creditors, of purpoſe to inforce them either to accept leſſe than their juſt Debts and Damages, or to give longer Daies or Tymes of Payment and Forbearance then the ſaid Creditors were willing to do, pretending Inhabilitie and Nonſolvency, ſometymes by reaſon of ſuddayn and accidentall Loſs and Damage, ſometimes by Suretiſhippe, ſometimes by evil Debters, and ſundry other Suggeſtions and Pretences, tending to no other end or purpoſe but to defeat or delay their juſt and honeſt Creditors of their due Debts and Damages; which Bills have been exhibited ſometimes by the Debtors alone, and ſometimes by the Debtors and ſome of their their Creditors by Conſent or Connivency betweene them, and uppon ſuch Bills divers Decrees, Orders and Proceedings have paſſed to the great Damage of the Commonwealth, for that thereby hath enſued, as well the Imboldening of Debtors not to pay their Debts in due tyme, whereby many Men have bene diſappointed and not able to keepe their Credit with others to their extreme Detriment, as alſo the incouraging of willfull Bankrupts and deceitfull Perſons, and the Scarcitie of Mony, being the meaſure of all Bargains and Contracts between Man and Man, together with a general hindrance of Trade and Traffique, and many other Inconveniencies, which by reaſon of this late and dangerous Invention of Bills and Suits of conformmity have hapned, as by due and juſt Examination for the Reformation of ſo great an evill, and for his Majeſties Honor, hath bene found out and reſolved by the Houſe of Commons in this preſent Parliament: All which Inconveniencies by the ſaid Bills and Suits of Conformitie have encreaſed more and more ſithence his Majeſtie, out of his Princelie Providence, hath taken a more exact and carefull courſe touching Protections then had been formerlie accuſtomed, wherby many and great Delaies of Payment of Debts and Dueties, and of other juſt Cauſes of Suits have bene avoyded, which in former tymes had bene occaſioned by ſome kinds of Protections.

His Majeſtie, of his bleſſed Diſpoſition for the weale of his Subjects being carefull to ſtopp the current of this growing Evill, untill uppon mature Deliberation an exact and full Remedie may be provided by Parliament in that behalfe, doth hereby ſignifie and declare his moſt gracious Will and Pleaſure, and doth expreſlie charge and command, that all and every Judge and Judges in the ſaid Courts of Equitie where ſuch Bills of Conformitie do depend, for ſo much of the matter in thoſe ſeverall Bills conteyned as concerneth ſuch Conformitie as aforeſaid and for and concerning all ſuch Perſons Parties to thoſe Suits, which have not conſented thereunto, ſhall forthwith abſolutelie diſmiſs the ſame, and that the ſaid Defendants in ſuch Suits be not bound or preſſed to any further Attendance in that behalf, and that all Orders, Sentences, Decrees, Injunctions and other Reſtraints or Proces whatſoever, grounded uppon any ſuch Bill or Suit, to the Prejudice, Hurt or Hindrance of any Creditor or Creditors, not haveing conſented as aforeſaid, and the Execution of the ſame, be from henceforth fullie and whollie ſuſpended, and not to be putt in Execution untill Order and Proviſion by ſome Act of Parliament for a perpetuall Reformation thereof be had and taken in that behalfe.

And that no Bill or Suite of the effect or nature aforeſaid be hereafter received accepted or allowed in the ſaid Court of Chauncery or other Court of Equitie, untill ſuch Order as aforeſaid be taken in Parliament.

And that all and every Perſon and Perſons now being in Priſon or reſtreined of Libertie, or ſtanding uppon Bond, Baile or Maynpriſe by, or by reaſon of, any ſuch Order, Sentence, Decree, Injunction or other Reſtraint, and for no other Cauſe, uppon any Bill or Suite of the effect or nature aforeſaid in any of the ſaid Courts of Equitie whatſoever, by reaſon of any Proceeding thereupon, be forthwith by the ſaid Judge and Judges of the ſaid Courts of Equitie ſett at Libertie and freed from his or their Impriſonment or Reſtraynt, and be diſcharged of his and their Bonds, Recognizances, Bayle or Mainprize for Appearance, without Moleſtation, Vexation or Trouble for or by reaſon of any ſuch Order, Sentence, Decree, Injunction, Reſtraint, Bond, Recognizance, Bayle or Maynprize, untill ſuch further Order be taken in Parliament as aforeſaid,

And therefore his Majeſtie doth authoriſe and require, as well the Lord Chauncellor of England as all other his Majeſties Judges and Juſtices and other Perſons whatſoever, having any place of Judicature, and all and every his Officers, Miniſters and Subjects, that now be or hereafter ſhall be, to ſee and cauſe this his Majeſties Pleaſure duly with all convenient Expedition to be putt in Execution.

De Proclamatione Regia pro moderamine Propalationis verborum profuſorum in Materiis concernentibus ſtatum Reipublicæ.

A.D. 1621. Pat. 19. J. 1. p. 13. dorſ. n. 15.

WHEREAS WEE, by our Proclamation given at Whitehall the fouer and twentith Day of December laſt, did publiſh and declare our Royall Pleaſure againſt the licentious Paſſage of laviſh and bold Diſcourſe then grown too frequent, and did hereby forewarn and ſtraightly commaund all our loving Subjects, from the higheſt to the loweſt, to take heed how they did intermeddle by Pen or Speech with Cauſes of State and Secrets of Government either at home or abroad, but contayne themſelves within that modeſt and reverent regard of matters above their reach and calling that to good and dutifull Subjects appertayneth, as alſo not to give attention or any manner of Applauſe or Entertaynment to ſuch Diſcourſe without acquainting ſome of our Privie Councell or other Principall Officers therewithall, reſpective to the Place where ſuch Speeches ſhould be uſed, within the ſpace of fower and twenty Howers, under Payne of Impriſonment, and our high Diſpleaſure:

And yet we are given to underſtand that, notwithſtanding the ſtrictneſs of our Commaundement the inordinate libertie of unreverent Speech touching Matters of high Nature unfit for vulgar Diſcourſe doth daily more and more encreaſe; Wee have thought it neceſſary to redouble our Princelie Direction and ſtraight Charge in that behalfe, wiſhing all Men to reſt aſſured that, howſoever our own Nature hath byn alwaies prone unto Mildneſs and Clemency, yett we are and ſhall be ſenſible of ſuch Preſumption ſo highly and directly affronting us in our Royall Commaundement,

And therefore we do by theſe Preſents eſtſoones charge and commaund all manner of Perſons, of what Eſtate or Degree ſoever, that from henceforth they preſume not to offend againſt our former Proclamation, either by licentious and bold ſpeaking or writing, or by applauding enterteyning covering or concealing ſuch unfitting Diſcourſe upon Payne of our Indignation and Diſpleaſure, and whatſoever other Puniſhment ſhall be meet to inflict uppon ſuch Delinquents.

And we do further charg and commaund, not only our Officers and Miniſters, but all other our loving Subjects as they tender our Pleaſure and will aunſweare the contrary, that they uſe all Diligence to diſcover and bring to Juſtice all ſuch as ſhall offend in either kind; letting all men know that we will extend the like ſeverity towards the Remiſſnes of ſuch who ſhall conceale, as againſt the bouldneſs of audacious Pennes and Tongues ſo unreſpective of Duty to Government.

JAMES by the Grace of God, King of England Scotland France and Ireland Defendor of the Faith &c. To our right truſtie and right well-beloved,

John Williams Doctor in Divinitie, Deane of the Cathedral Church of Saint Peter of Weſtminſter, Lord Keeper of oure Greate Seale of England,

Henry Viſcount Maundevill our High Treaſurer of England,

Lionell Lord Cranfeild Maſter of oure Court of Wardes and Lyveries,

And to our truſtie and well-beloved,

Sir Thomas Coventry Knight, our Attorney Generall,

Sir Robert Heath Knight, our Sollicitor Generall,

Sir John Suckling Knight, one of our Maſters of Requeſts,

Sir Thomas Fowler, Knight,

Sir Thomas Grymes, Knight,

Sir George Paule, Knight,

Sir Henry Speller, Knight,

Thomas Fanſhawe, Eſquier,

And Robert Titchborne and Robert Seiliard, Gent. greeting.

Whereas we have byn informed by the humble Petition of our good and loving Subjects the Cittizens of our Cittie of London, that many good Lawes and Statutes have byn heretofore providentlie made and enacted, at ſeverall tymes in the Raignes of divers of our Predeceſſors Kings of this Realme, which yet ſtand in force, tending to this end, that Aliens and Strangers borne, reſorting hither and reſiding here, might be kindlie demeaned as the Law of Nations requireth, and yet ſhould be regulated within ſuch moderate Bounds as that the natural born Subjects might not be thereby prejudiced or diſcouraged; and eſpecially that the uſe of Manufactures and Handicrafts, and the libertie to ſell by Retaile and not in Groſſe, might not be communicated to Strangers, which have ever byn reſtrayned and appropriated to the naturall Subjects, thereby to ſet them on Worke and employ them.

And whereas Wee have with much importunitie been often ſollicited to take thoſe Lawes and Statutes into our princelie conſideration, together with the great prejudice which our naturall borne Subjects ſuſteyne by the neglect of the due Execution of them, and Wee [illegible]ng byn informed that in all the particulars prohibited by thoſe Lawes and Statutes, the Strangers uſe much more libertie then is allowed unto them by the ſaid Lawes and Statutes, eſpecially in the uſing and exerciſing of Handicrafts and manual Trades, and in ſelling by Retaile, which in no meaſure is allowed to our People reſiding as Straungers in forraine Parts, whereby our naturall borne Subjects are diſcouraged and impoveriſhed, and the Straunger enriched; Wee therefore, entring into due and ſerious Conſideration hereof, being bound in our Kinglie Office in the firſt place to be vigilant and carefull of the welfare and proſperous Eſtate of our owne People, eſpecially in thoſe Caſes where we ſhall fynd they cannot otherwiſe ſubſiſt, have at the laſt reſolved to take ſuch a courſe for the regulating of them as may ſtand with the fitt and convenient interteynment of the Straungers, and with the good and contentment of oure own People.

Knowe ye therefore that Wee, repoſing great truſt and confidence in your approved Wiſdomes and provident circumſpections, have authoriſed and appointed, and by theſe Preſents do authoriſe and appoint you the ſaid Lord Keeper of oure great Seale of England, our High Treaſorer, Maſter of our Court of Wards, our Attorney and Sollicitor Generall, Sir Thomas Fowler, Sir Thomas Grymes, Sir George Paule and Sir Henry Spiller, Thomas Fanſhaw, Robert Titchborne and Robert Seyliard, or any two of you (whereof our ſaid Attorney or Sollicitor Generall to be one) at ſuch tymes and places, and by ſuch waies and meanes as you in your Judgements and good Diſcretions ſhall hold moſt convenient, to enquire of all and every the Premiſſes, and to conſider of all the Lawes and Statutes any way touching the ſame and to treate with the Strangers reſideing

A.D. 1621. 19 Jac. I. ing in our ſaid Realme of England, and either to draw them to a Conformitie unto our ſaid Laws and Statutes, if they ſhall deſire to contynue their Habitations and Commorances amongſt us, or at leaſt ſo to moderate them as may beſt ſtand with their Conveniencies and the preſent ſtate of the Tymes, and the Good and welfare of our owne People: in the Performance of which our Command we will that you obſerve ſuch Directions as wee, under our Signe manuell, ſhall from tyme to tyme preſcribe unto you.

In all which our purpoſe is, that the Marchants of forraine Nations reſorting hither for Trade of Marchandize, be freelie enterteyned and uſed, and that the Straunger, who ſelleth by Retaile or uſeth any Handicrafte or manuall Trade, be moderated as in your Wiſdomes ye ſhall find to be moſt convenient.

And to the ende yee may the better be able to performe this our Service committed unto you, wee do further by theiſe Preſents authoriſe the ſaid Lord Keeper of the Greate Seale of England, our High Treſurer Maſter of our Court of Wards, our Attorney and Sollicitor Generall, Sir Thomas Fowler, Sir Thomas Grymes, Sir George Paule, Sir Henry Spiller, Thomas Fanſhaw, Robert Titchborn and Robert Seyliard, or any two of you (whereof our ſaid Attorney or Sollicitor Generall to be one) to nominate and appoint ſuch and ſo many fitt and ſufficient Perſons, as well in our Cittie of London, as in other Citties, Towns, and Places within our ſaid Realme of England as in your Wiſdomes you ſhall think fitt, to do execute and performe all ſuch Matters and Things tending to the effecting of our Pleaſure herein, as ye, or any two of you, (whereof our Attorney or Sollicitor Generall to be one) ſhall think requiſite, and from tyme to tyme under youre Hands in Writing ſett down direct and appoint. A.D. 1621. 19 Jac. I.

And our Will and Pleaſure is, that this our Commiſſion ſhall contynue in force, without any Adjournment, untill we by ſome other Writing under our Privie Seale or Greate Seale of England, reciting the Effect hereof, ſhall revoke or determyne the ſame.

+ De Proclamatione Regia pro Diſſolutione Conventionis Parliamenti.

A.D.1622.
Pat 19 J. 1. p. 14. n. 9. dor.

ALBEIT the Aſſembling contynuing and diſſolving of Parliaments be a Prerogative ſo peculiarly belonging to our Imperiall Crown, and the Tymes and Seaſons thereof ſo abſolutelie in our own Power that wee need not give Accompt therof unto any; yet, according to our contynuall cuſtome to make our good ſubjects acquainted with the Reaſons of all our publique Reſolutions and Actions, We have thought it expedient at this tyme to declare, not only our Pleaſure and Reſolution therin, grounded uppon mature Deliberation, with the Adviſe and uniforme conſent of our whole Privie Councell, but therewith alſo to note ſome eſpeciall Proceedings moving Us to this Reſolution and that chiefly to this end; that as God ſo the World may witneſs with Us that it was our Intent to have made this the happieſt Parliament that ever was in our tyme, and that the Lett and Impediment therof being diſcerned, all Miſunderſtandings and Jealouſies might be removed, and all our People may know and believe that we are as farr from imputing any of thoſe ill Accidents that have happened in Parliament to any want or Neglect of Dutie or good Affection toward us by them in generall, or by the greater or better Nomber of Parliament Men, as we are confident, the true Cauſes diſcovered, they will be farr from imputing it to any Default in Us, there having in the begining of this late Aſſemblie paſſed greater and more infallible Tokens of Love and Dutie from our Subjects to Us theire Soveraigne, and more remarkable Teſtimonies from Us of our Princelie Care and Zeale of their Welfare, then have [illegible]yn in any Parliament mett in any former Age.

THIS PARLIAMENT was by Us called, as for making good and Profitable Lawes, ſo more eſpecially in this tyme of miſerable diſtraction throughout Chriſtendom for the better ſetling of Peace and Religion, and reſtoring our Children to their auncient and lawfull Patrimony, which we attempted to procure by peaceable Treatie at our oun exceſſive Charge, thereby to ſave and prevent the effuſion of Chriſtian Bloud the miſerable effect of Warr and Diſſenſion; yet with full Purpoſe if that ſucceeded not to recover it by the Sword, and therefore as a neceſſary meanes conduceing to thoſe ends, the Supplie of our Treaſures was to be provided for.

A.D.1622.

THIS PARLIAMENT, begyning in January laſt, proceeded ſome Months with ſuch Harmony between Us and our People as cannot be parallelled by any former tyme, for as the Houſe of Commons at the firſt, both in the manner of their Supplie and otherwiſe ſhewed greater Love and more reſpect than ever any Houſe of Commons did to us, or as we think to any King before Us, ſo Wee uppon all their Complaints have afforded them ſuch memorable and rare Examples of Juſtice as many Ages paſt cannot ſhew the like; wherein, that Wee preferred the Weale of our People before all particular reſpects, the things themſelves do ſufficiently prove, our Juſtice being extended not only to Perſons of ordinary Rank and Qualitye, but even to the Prime Officer of our Kingdom; and although, after their firſt Receſſe, at Eaſter, We found that they miſpent a great deal of time, rather uppon the inlarging of the Lymitts of their Liberties, and divers other curious and unprofitable things, then upon the framing and proponing of good and profitable Lawes, yet we gave them tyme and ſcope for their Parliamentary Proceedings, and prolonged the Seſſion to an unuſuall length, contynuing it untill the eighth and twentith day of May before we ſignified our purpoſe for their Receſſe, and then We declared that wee would make a Receſſe on the fowerth day of June next following but only for a tyme, and in ſuch manner as might be without diſturbance to any their Buſineſſes in hand; expreſſing out of our grace, though though we needed not, the Cauſes of that our Purpoſe, which were the ſeaſon of the Yeare uſuallie hott and unfitt for great Aſſemblies, our Progreſs approaching, the neceſſitie we had to make uſe of our Councell attending in both Houſes, both to ſettle our waightie Affaires of State before Wee went, and to attend Us when we went our Progreſſe, the diſfurniſhing our ordinary Courts of Juſtice ſo many Termes together, the long abſence of Juſtices of Peace and Deputie Lieutenants, whoſe Preſence was needfull for making and retorning of Muſters, and for ſubordinate Government of the Country; And therefore we appointed to adjourne the Parliament on the fourth day of June, giving that warning longer then uſuall that they might ſett in order their Buſineſs, and prepare their Grievances which we promiſed both to hear and anſwere before that Receſſe; for preſenting whereof We appointed them a tyme;

This Meſſage, graciouſlie intended by Us was not ſo well enterteyned by ſome, who in a ſhort time diſperſed and ſpred their Jealouſies unto others and thereby occaſioned diſcontentment in the Houſe for being adjourned without paſſing of Bils, yet made not their Addreſſe to Us as byn meete, but deſired a Conference with the Lords, and at that Conference the nyne and twentyth of May, under colour of deſiring to petition Us for ſome further tyme to perfect and paſſe ſome ſpeciall Bills, were imboldned, not only to diſpute but to refell all the Reaſons that we had given for the Adjournement; which being made known unto Us, we again ſignified our Pleaſure to both Houſes that on the fowerth day of June the Parliament ſhould riſe, but we wold then give our Royall Aſſent to ſuch Bills as were or ſhould be ready and fitt to be then paſſed, contynuing all other Buſſineſſes in ſtate they were, by a ſpeciall Act to be framed for that Purpoſe.

The Lords with all Dutie and Reſpect ſubmitted to our Reſolution, paſſed the Acte, and ſent it with ſpeciall Recommendation to the Houſe of Commons, but they neither read it nor proceeded with Buſines, but, forgetting that the tyme was ours and not theirs, contynued their Diſcontent as they pretended for being ſo ſoon diſmiſſed;

Wee, though it were ſtraunge to obſerve ſuch averſeneſs for our reſolving upon ſuch weighty Reaſons, that wherein we needed not be meaſured by any other Rule but our oune Princelie Will, yet were contented to deſcend from our Right to alter our Reſolution, and to continue the Seſſion for a fourtnight more, wherein they might perfect ſuch publique Bills as were eſteemed of moſt importance, for which Purpoſe We our ſelf came in Perſon unto the higher Houſe of Parliament, and made offer thereof unto them, which, being in effect as much as the Commons had formerlie deſired, was no ſooner offered, but yeilding thanks to Us, the ſaid Commons reſolved the ſame Day directlie contrarie to their former deſire to refuſe itt, and to accept our firſt Reſolution of an Adjournement, but attending Us at Greenwich preſented no Grievances:

This Inconſtancy, as Wee paſſed by with a gentle Admonition, ſo for the matter of Grievances, as well of England as Ireland, we promiſed to take them into our oune Care though not preſented to Us, and really performed the ſame ſo farr forthe as tyme and the adviſe of our Councell of each Kingdom could enable Us, as is witneſſed by our ſeveral Proclamations publiſhed in both Realmes, as likewiſe in graunting at the ſame tyme thoſe three Suits which were propounded unto us by the Archbiſhop of Canterbury, att the Requeſt and in the Name of both the Houſes; but in Concluſion the Houſe of Commons making it their choiſe, Wee made a Receſſe by Adjournment of the Parliament the fowerth Day of June, though indeed we muſt do them this right, that at the ſaid Receſſe, taking into their ſerious Conſideration the preſent Eſtate of our Children abroade, and the generall afflicted Eſtate of the true Profeſſors of Religion in forrain Parts, they did with one unanimous Conſent in the Name of themſelves and the whole Body of the Kingdom, make a moſt dutifull and ſolemn Proteſtation that if our Pious Endeavours by Treatie to procure their Peace and Safety, ſhould not take that good Effect which was deſired in the Treatie, wherof they humbly beſought Us not to ſuffer any long delay; then, upon ſignification of our Pleaſure in Parliament they would be ready to the uttermoſt of their Powers both with Lives and Fortunes to aſſiſt Us, ſo as that, by the Divine Help of Almightie God, We might be able to do that by our Sword which by peaceable courſes ſhould not be effected.

But during the tyme of this long Receſſe, haveing to our great Charges mediated with the Emperor by the meanes of our Embaſſador the Lord Digbye, and having found thoſe hopes to faile which we had to prevaile by Treatie, we in Confidence of the Aſſiſtance of our People, thus freelie promiſed and proteſted in Parliament, did inſtantlie ſhorten the tyme of the Receſſe, which we had before appointed to contynue untill the eight Day of Februarie, and did re-aſſemble our Parliament the twentith Day of November laſt, and made known unto them the true ſtate and neceſſitie of our Childrens Affaires; declaring our Reſolution unto them of taking upon us the defence of our Childrens Patrimony by waye of Armes, ſince we could not compaſs it by an amicable Treatie, and therefore expected the fruite of that their Declaration whereby we were invited unto this courſe.

Wherein, howbeit we are well ſatisfied of the good inclination of moſt part of our Houſe of Commons, teſtified by their ready aſſent to the ſpeedy Payment of a Subſidie newlie to be graunted, yet uppon this occaſion ſome particuler Members of that Houſe tooke ſuch inordinate libertie, not only to treate of our High Prerogatives, and of ſondry things that, without our ſpeciall Direction, were no fitt Subjects to be treated of in Parliament, but alſo to ſpeak with leſs reſpect of forraine Princes our Allies then were fitt for any Subject to do of any anoynted King, though in Enmitie and Hoſtilitie with Us;

And when, upon this occaſion, we uſed ſome reprehenſion towards thoſe Miſcarriages, requiring them not to proceed but in ſuch things as were within the capacitie of that Houſe according to the contynuall Cuſtome of our Predeceſſors; then, by the means of ſome evill affected and diſcontented Perſons ſuch Heate and Diſtemper was raiſed in the Houſe that, albeit themſelves had ſued unto us for a Seſſion, and for a generall Pardon, unto both which at their earneſt Suite we aſſented, yet, after this fire kindled, they rejected both, and ſetting apart all Buſineſſes of conſequence and waight, notwithſtanding our Admonition and earneſt preſſing them to go forward, they either ſett as ſilent, or ſpent the tyme in diſputing of Privileges, deſkanting uppon the words and Sillables of our Letters and Meſſages, which for better clearing of Truth, and ſatisfaction of all men, we are about to publiſh in printe ſo ſoon as poſſible we can; and although in our Anſwer to their Petition we gave them full Aſſurance that we would be as carefull of the Preſervation of their Privileges as of our oun Royal Prerogative, and in our Explanation after ſent unto them by our Letters written to our Secretary, we told them that we never meant to deny them any lawfull Privileges that ever that Houſe enjoyed in our Predeceſſors tymes, and that whatſoever Privileges or Liberties they enjoyed by any Law or Statute ſhould ever be inviolablie preſerved by Us, and We hoped our Poſteritie would imitate our Footſteps therein, and whatſoever Privileges they enjoyed by long Cuſtome and uncontrolled and lawfull Preſidents, we would likewiſe be as carefull to preſerve them, and tranſmit the care thereof to our Poſteritie, confeſſing our ſelves in Juſtice to be bound to maynteyne them in their Rights, and in Grace that we were rather minded to increaſe then infringe any of them, if they ſhould ſo deſerve att our Hands, which might ſatisfie any reaſonable Man that we were farr from violating their Privileges.

And although by our Letters written to their Speaker wee adviſed them to proceed and make this a Seſſion, to the end our good and loving Subjects might have ſome taſt as well of our Grace and Goodneſs towards them by our free Pardon and good Laws to be paſſed, as they had both by the great and unuſuall Examples of Juſtices ſince this meeting and the ſo many Eaſes and Comforts given unto them by Proclamation, and although we had given Order for the Pardon to go on; and that in a more gracious and liberall manner then had paſſed in many years before, and ſignified our willingneſs that, rather then tyme ſhould be miſpent, they might lay aſide the thought of the Subſidie, and go on with an Act for contynuance of Statuts and the generall Pardon; but all this prevailed not to ſatisfie them, either for their pretended Privileges, or to perſwade them to proceed with Bills for the good of themſelves and thoſe that ſent them. But as the Seſſion and Pardon were by them well deſired at firſt, ſo were they

they as ill rejected at the laſt, and notwithſtanding the Sinceritie of our Proteſtations not to invade their Priviledges, yet by Perſwaſion of ſuch as had bene the cauſe of all theiſe Diſtempers they fall to carve for themſelves, and pretending cauſeleſly to be occaſioned thereunto, in an unſeaſonable Hower of the Day and a very thynne Houſe, contrary to their oune Cuſtomes in all matters of waight, conclude and enter a Proteſtation for their Liberties in ſuch ambiguous and generall Words as might ſerve for future tymes to invade moſt of our inſeparable Rights and Prerogatives annexed to our Imperiall Croune, whereof, not onlie in the tymes of other our Progenitors, but in the bleſſed Raigne of our late Predeceſſor that renouned Queen Elizabeth, we found our Croune actually poſſeſſed, an Uſurpation that the Majeſtie of a King can by no meanes endure.

By all which may appear that, howſoever in the generall Proceedings of that Houſe there are many footſteps of loving and well affected Dutie towards Us, yet ſome ill tempered Spirits, have ſowed Tares among the Corn, and thereby fruſtrated the hope of that plentiful and good Harveſt which might have multiplied the Wealth and Welfare of this whole Land, and by their cunning diverſions have impoſed upon us a neceſſitye of diſcontynuing this preſent Parliament without putting unto it the Name or Period of a Seſſion.

And therefore, whereas the ſaid Aſſemblie of Parliament was by our Commiſſion adjorned untill the eight Day of Februarie now next enſuing, we minding not to contynue the ſame any longer, and therefore not holding it fitt to cauſe the Prelates, Noblemen, and States of this our Realme, or the Knights Citizens and Burgeſſes of the ſame Parliament to travell thereabout, have thought fit to ſignifie this our Reſolution with the Reaſons thereof unto all our Subjects inhabiting in all parts of this Realme, willing and requiring the ſaid Prelates Noblemen and States, and alſo the ſaid Knights Citizens and Burgeſſes, and all others to whom in this caſe it ſhall appertayne, that they forbeare to attend at the Day and Place prefixed by the ſaid Adjornement, and in ſo doing they are and ſhall be diſcharged thereof againſt Us: and we do hereby further declare that the ſaid Convention of Parliament neither is, nor after the ceſſing and breaking thereof, ſhall be, nor ought to be eſteemed adjudged or taken to be or make any Seſſion of Parliament,

A.D.1622. 19 Jac. 1.

And albeit we are at this tyme enforced to break of this Convention of Parliament, yet our will and deſire is, that all our Subjects ſhould take notice, for avoyding of all ſiniſter Suſpitions and Jealouſies, that our Intent and full Reſolution is to govern our People in the ſame manner as our Progenitors and Predeceſſors Kings and Queens of this Realme of beſt Government have heretofore done, and that we ſhall be carefull both in our oune Perſone, and by charging our Privie Councell our Judges and other our Miniſters in their ſeverall Places reſpectivelie, to diſtribute true Juſtice and Right unto all our People, and that we ſhall be as glad to lay hold on the firſt occaſion in due and convenient tyme, which we hope ſhall not be long, to call and aſſemble our Parliament with Confidence of the true and hartie Love and Affection of our Subjects, as either we or any of our Progenitors have at any tyme heretofore.

Given att our Pallace of Weſtminſter the ſixt Day of January.

JAMES, by the Grace of God, King of England, Scotland, Fraunce and Ireland, Defender of the Faith &c. to our truſtie and welbeloved Sir Allen Apſley Knight, Lieutenant of our Tower of London, Greeting.

Whereas Sir Robert Carre Knight, commonly called Earle of Somerſett, and the Lady Fraunces his Wife, commonly called Counteſſe of Somerſett, are at this preſent Priſoners in your Cuſtodie within our Tower of London, wee willing to extend our Grace and Clemency to the ſaid Lady Fraunces in freeing her of her ſaid Impriſonment for the better recovery of her Health; and, not intending thereby to keepe Man and Wife aſunder, out of our greater Goodneſs and Favour towards her, are further pleaſed that her ſaid Husband ſhall receive the like Libertie and Freedome from his Impriſonment in the Tower as wee purpoſe to graunt to the ſaid Lady Fraunces: It being our full purpoſe nevertheles, that they ſhall both, after their Inlargement out of your Cuſtodie, remaine confined during our Pleaſure unto ſuch Place as ſhall be appointed by Order or Act of Councill in that behalfe, to be ſett downe by the Lords and others of our Privie Councell.

De Proclamatione Regia, prohibitoria de Carnibus tempore Quadrageſimali edendis.

A.D. 1622. bid n. 10. orſ.

WHEREAS, for the Benefitt and Commoditie of this our Realme of England; as well in the maintenance of our Navie and Shipping a Principall Strength of this Iſland, as for the ſparing and increaſe of Fleſh Victualls, divers good Lawes and Statutes have byn provided for the due Obſervation of Lent and other Daies appointed for Fiſh Daies, which from tyme to tyme have byn ſeconded and quickned by ſundrie our Proclamations and other Acts and Ordenances of State.

AND whereas, notwithſtanding the many good Proviſions hertofore had and made in that kynde, we yet fynd the inordinate libertie now uſually taken by all ſorts of People to kill dreſſe and eat Fleſh in the Lent-ſeaſon, and on other Daies and tymes prohibited by Law, is become an Evill of ſuch inveterate growth as it requireth more then ordinary Care to ſuppreſs the ſame.

WEE therefore, much affecting the Reformation of this ſo great an Evill and Enemie to the Plenty of our Kingdomes, have thought fitt eftſoones, and that thus tymelie the better, to take away the Excuſe and to prevent the Proviſions of Fleſh that uſually men make againſt the Lent ſeaſon, to expreſſe our ſelf and our Royall Commandement in this behalfe, wherin, without any future Declaration of our Pleaſure in this kinde, wee ſhall expect and require from all our Subjects that due Nottice be taken, and that a ſtrict and contynued Obedience and Conformitie ye yeelded thereunto in all ſucceding tymes

And therefore we do ſtrictlie charge and command all and every Perſon and Perſons whatſoever, to whom it may appertayne, carefully to provide and ſee that theiſe Orders following may be dulie obſerved and put in Execution, uppon Payne of our High Diſpleaſure, any ſuch Penalties as by the Lawes of this our Realme may be inflicted uppon the Offendors for their Contempt or Neglect of us and our Lawes, whereof we ſhall ſhew our ſelves moſt ſenſible.

And first, whereas Wee fynde that the chiefeſt Cauſe of theiſe Diſorders hath groun from the Licences that have byn granted to Butchers to kill and utter Fleſh, contrary to Law, and that by our Lawes noe Major Juſtice of Peace or other Perſon of what Degree or Qualitie ſoever, can grant any Licence in this kynde, and that the Lords and others of our Privy Councell do by our Direction forbeare to graunt the ſame or to give way thereunto; our Will and Pleaſure is, uppon the Penalties provided by Law, and ſuch further Puniſhment to be inflicted uppon the Offendors as ſhall be thought meete, that no ſuch Licence ſhall be granted for the killing or uttering of Fleſh, and that no Butcher or other Perſon whatſoever doe, by colour thereof, kill utter or put to Sale, any Fleſh contrary to the Lawes eſtabliſhed and provided in that behalfe; and for the avoyding of ſuch Inconveniencies hereafter, our Will and Pleaſure is that the Lord Major of our Cittie of London, and everie other Officer and Juſtice of Peace, ſhall call before them and ſend for any of the Servants of any Inholders Victuallers Cookes Alehouſe Keepers Taverners and Keepers of ordinarie Tables, and ſuch others that utter Victualls, and to examine them uppon their corporall Oathes what Fleſh is or hath byn during the Lent-ſeaſon, or other Daies prohibited by the Law, dreſſed killed uttered or eaten in their Houſes, which if they ſhall refuſe to do then to committ to Priſon the ſaid Servants ſo refuſeing uppon their Oathes to declare the Truth.

That the ſaid Lord Major ſhall alſo, yearelie before Lent, or att the begynning thereof, cauſe all Inholders, Keepers of ordinarie Tables, Victuallers, Alehouſe Keepers, and Taverners within the Cittie and Liberties thereof to appear before him, or ſuch Perſon as he appoint meet for that purpoſe, and ſhall take Recognizances with ſufficient Suerties of every of them in good Sommes of Money; videlicet, one hundred Pounds of the Principall, and their Suerties in thirtie Pounds a peece to our uſe not to dreſs any Fleſh in their Houſes in the Lent-tyme, or at other tymes prohibited for any reſpect, or ſuffer it to be eaten contrary to the Law; the like Recognizance with Suerties ſhall be taken of the like Parties upon like Penalties by the Juſtices of Peace of our Cittie of Weſtminſter and the Liberties thereof, and every of the ſaid Recognizances to be certified into our Exchequer.

A.D.1622.
19 Jac. I.

And for the Butchers and others that come with Victualls of Fleſh out of the Country to the Cittie, our Pleaſure is that the Lord Major ſhall cauſe certaine Perſons to watch at the Gates and other like Places in the Suburbs where Fleſh may be brought, to viewe and ſearch and to intercept the ſame, and if any of thoſe Watchmen ſhall be found negligent and corrupt in this Charge, then he to be committed to Priſon during the whole Lent.

And, to the end that Fiſhermen may imploy themſelves at Sea, with better Incouragement then heretofore, and that the Fiſhmongers may furniſh themſelves with ſuch Store from tyme to tyme hereafter as ſhall be expedient as well for the Proviſion of the Cittie as for ſelling the ſame at reaſonable Rates; we will that they take nottice of this our Commaundement and conſtant Reſolution for the Obſervance of Lent and Fiſh Daies both now and hereafter as by Law is required,

And Furthermore as we think it fitt that every man ſhould be a Rule of Order and Abſtinence in his own Houſe, as well in reſpect of the publique as of his private Eaſe and Benefit, ſo we ſtraightlie charge and command all Inholders Keepers of ordinary Tables, Victuallers, Alehouſekeepers and Taverners, not to make any Supper for any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever upon Friday-nights either in Lent or out of Lent, nor to ſuffer any meate to be then dreſſed uttered ſold or eaten in their houſes uppon Paine of ſuch Puniſhment as is due to thoſe that ſhall contemne our Royall Pleaſure and Commandement.

A.D.1622.
19 Jac. 1.

And forasmuch as, uppon further Advice and Conſideration had, that the reſtraint of killing and dreſſing of Fleſh is no ſufficient Remedy for the Miſchief, unles there be better Care taken alſo to ſuppreſſe the unlawfull and inordinate eating of Fleſh in the tyme of Lent and on other Days and tymes prohibited, wherewith our Subjects have accuſtomed themſelves rather for Delicacie then for Neceſſitie; it is therefore our Royall Will and Pleaſure, and accordinglie we do hereby ſtraightlie prohibit and forbid all our Subjects of what Degree or Qualitie ſoever within this our Realme, to eat any manner of Fleſh in the tyme of Lent, or on other Daies now uſually obſerved as Fiſh Daies, without a ſpeciall Licence firſt obteyned from the Biſhop of the Dioces, or ſuch other as by the Law, have Power to give Licence in that behalfe, which Wee will and command ſhall be ſparingly graunted and in Caſes of Neceſſitie only, uppon Paine of our high Diſpleaſure, and to be proceeded againſt by our Attorney Generall in our Court of Starchamber as Contemners of our Royall Commandement, and uppon ſuch further Penaltie as by the Lawes and Statutes of our Realme may be inflicted on thoſe which will willfully offend in this kynde.

And as theſe Orders are to be executed in the Cittie of London and Places near the ſame, ſo is our expreſſe Pleaſure and Commandement that our Juſtices of Peace in all Shires within their Rule and all other Mayors, Bayliffs and cheif Officers in Townes Corporate or in any Liberties within their Precincts, ſhall cauſe the ſame to be obſerved and performed in like manner, and that no manner of Tolleration Favour or Connivence be uſed by any Juſtice of Peace or other Officer contrary to the true meaning of this our Proclamation, as both they that ſhall preſume wittinglie ſo to tollerate the Offence, as alſo the Partie himſelf offending will anſwere the ſame at their uttermoſt Perills, our Commandement being that our Laws in this caſe ſhall be ſeverely executed upon all Offendors whatſoever.

Further charging and commaunding the Lord Mayor of our Cittie of London, the Juſtices of Aſſize in their ſeverall Circuits, the Mayors and chief Officers of all other Citties and Tounes Corporate, Juſtices of Peace, Lords of Liberties, and all other Officers and Miniſters within the ſeverall Counties of this our Realme, that they and every of them fully obey this our Pleaſure, and cauſe and compell the ſame to be obeyed and executed by others, as they will anſwere the contrary att their uttermoſt Perills.

A.D.1622.
19 Jac. 1.

And, for the due Execution of the Premiſſes in all other the Counties of this our Realme, as well as in our Citties of London and Weſtminſter, We do hereby ſtraightlie charge and command all our Juſtices of Peace within the ſame Counties, as well within Liberties as without, that yearlie and everie Year hereafter before Lent, they cauſe to come and appear before them all Inholders, Cookes, Taverners, Alehouſe Keepers, Butchers, and other Victuallers whatſoever, and to require and take of them to our uſe ſeverall Recognizances with Suerties for Obſervation of the Premiſſes; videlicet, the Principalls in ten Pounds, and their two Suerties in Five Pounds a peece, and if they ſhall refuſe or neglect to enter into ſuch Recognizances that then the ſaid Juſtices ſhall ſuppreſs ſuch Perſons ſo refuſeing from victualing any more, and ſhall alſo cauſe them forthwith to become bound by Recognizance with Suerties to our uſe, videlicet, the Principalls in twentie Pounds, and their two Suerties in tenn Pounds a peece, not to victuall or ſell Beer or Ale from thenceforth, which if they ſhall refuſe to do, then the ſaid Juſtices to committ to Priſon all ſuch Perſons ſo refuſeing to enter into ſuch Recognizance untill they ſhall ſubmit themſelves and become bound as aforeſaid; and further for all ſuch Inholders Cookes Taverners, Alehouſe-keepers Butchers and other Victuallers as ſhall not appear before the ſaid Juſtices as aforeſaid, that they ymediately ſend forth their Warrants, or graunte Proceſs againſt them and every of them ſo making Default, to appeare and anſwere their Contempt att the next general Seſſions of the Peace.

And Further, for the more due Puniſhment of Inholders, Keepers of ordinarie Tables, Cookes, Butchers Victuallers, Alehouſe-Keeepers, Taverners and ſuch like, who ſhall forfeit their Recognizances by killing or dreſſing of Fleſh, or ſuffering it to be eaten in their Houſes in the Lent time and other Fiſh Daies, and to the end the ſame may be, as well taken in due forme of Law as duly certified into our Exchequer, we do will and require quire all Juſtices of Peace, as well within Liberties as without, that at ſuch tymes as they ſhall meet within their ſeverall Diviſions for the taking of ſuch Recognizances, that they give notice to the Clerkes of the Peace or their Deputies to attend them for that purpoſe, of whom we will require a ſtrict Accompt for the legall taking and retorning of the ſame Recognizances into our ſaid Exchequer, the ſaid Clarkes of the Peace and their Deputies, taking for the making and certifying of the ſame Recognizances of all Innkeepers Taverners Cookes and Butchers the Fee of two Shillings ſix Pence, and of all Alehouſe Keepers the Fee of twelve Pence, as lymitted to be taken by the Clarke of the Peace of our Countie of Middleſex for every ſuch Recognizance and no more.

AND LASTLY, for that the Fiſhmongers uppon the Obſervation of the aforeſaid Orders may perhaps take occaſion thereby to enhance the Prices as well of Freſh as of Seafiſh, wee do therefore hereby further charge and command all Fiſhmongers whatſoever, that they ſell and utter their Fiſh att moderate and uſuall Rates and Prices and that all Juſtices of Peace, Mayors, Bayliffs and other our Officer's, as well within Liberties as without, to whome it ſhall appertayne, ſhall from tyme to tyme take ſuch Order with the ſaid Fiſhmongers that our Subjects be not grieved by any ſuch enhancement or increaſe of Prices uppon Fiſh, uppon Pain of our High Diſpleaſure, and ſuch further Puniſhment as may be inflicted uppon them by our Laws.

Given att our Court at Newmarkett, the fowerth Day of February.

Rites of the Romiſh Church, ſithence the begyning of the Raigne of our late dear Siſter Queen Elizabeth late Queen of England, being corrupted and brought upp ſeditiouſlie beyond the Seas or elſewhere, have afterwards bene ſent into this our Realme or imployed under colour of Religion to withdraw the Harts of our loving Subjects from their Allegiance towards us with whom notwithſtanding we have not proceeded ſo ſeverelie as by our Lawes we might and as their Demerits juſtly deſerved, hopeing that in tyme they might ſee their unnaturall and diſloyall courſes and reform themſelves.

And foraſmuch as we now underſtand that, not onelie manie of thoſe Jeſuites Seminarie Prieſts and other Prieſts and Perſons aboveſaid, being att lardge, but alſo divers of them being in Priſon deſiſt not, as much as in them lyeth, from the ſeduceing of divers and many of our Subjects, but alſo do enter into divers Practices againſt Us and our State, and nowe through our Moderation and Clemencie are growne to ſo great Inſolence and Wilfulneſs as, although ſome of them be impriſoned, yet they can hardlie be kept in order,

And furthermore underſtanding that divers other Jeſuits, Seminarie Prieſts and other Perſons aboveſaid, have come and dailie do come from the Parts beyond the Seas into this our Realm of England and other our Dominions to the like Intent, and to ſeek as much as in them lyeth to ſowe Sedition and ſtirr upp Rebellion within the ſame our Realmes and Dominions, and likewiſe that there be divers others, as well wandring and maſſing Prieſts;

In Conſideration of all which eminent Daungers and Inconveniencies, albeit by one generall and free conſent, as it were with one voice, of our whole Parliament repreſenting the whole Bodie of the Realme, it hath bene ordained and enacted by Authoritie of the ſame (amongeſt other thinges) that all and everie the Statuts heretofore made in the Raigne of the late Queen, of famous Memorie, Elizabeth againſt Jeſuites Seminarie Prieſts and other Religious or Eccleſiaſtical Perſons aboveſaid, ſhould be put in due and exact Execution.

Wee nevertheles, contynuing our ſaid gracious inclination towards them, deſiring (if God ſo pleaſed) their Converſion and Amendment, and repoſeing great Truſt and Confidence in you the ſaid Lords and others of our Privie Counſaile, have aſſigned and appointed you, and the ſaid Lord Archbiſhopp of Canterburie, Lord Chauncellor or Lord Keeper of our Great Seale of England, Lord Treaſurer, Lord Privie Seale and Principall Secretarie and Secretaries of State for the tyme being, to be our Commiſſioners, and we do for Us our Heires and Succeſſors give full Power Warrant and Authoritie, by vertue of theis Preſents, unto you and them, or any ſix or more of you and them (whereof two of you or them the Lord Archbiſhopp of Canterburie, Lord Chauncellor or Lord Keeeper of the Great Seale, Lord Treaſurer, Lord Privie Seale or one of the ſaid Principall Secretaries now being or that hereafter for the tyme being ſhall be, to be alwaies twoe) from tyme to tyme and at all tymes hereafter, by writeing under the hands of you and them, or any ſuch ſix or more of you or them as is aforeſaid to exile and baniſh out of and from theis our Realmes of England and Ireland and all other our Domynions belonging to the ſame, ſo many Jeſuits Semynarie Prieſts and other Religious or Eccleſiaſticall Perſons aboveſaid as now are in any ſort indicted convicted or attainted of or for any High Treaſon or other Offence whatſoever;

And alſo all other Jeſuits Semynarie Prieſts and Perſons Eccleſiaſticall or Religious aboveſaid, nowe being in Priſon.

And alſo all Jeſuits Seminarie Prieſts and other Perſons Eccleſiaſticall or Religious aboveſaid that nowe are or hereafter ſhall come or be within the Realme of England, whether they ſhall happen to be in Priſon or out of Priſon, as to you and them, or any ſix or more of you or them (whereof two of you or them the Lord Archbiſhopp of Canterburie, Lord Chauncellor or Lord Keeper of the Great Seale, Lord Treaſurer, Lord Privie Seale, or one of the ſaid Principall Secretaries nowe being or that hereafter for the tyme being ſhall be, to be two) ſhall be thought convenient or fitt to be ſo dealt with all, and that to be ſo done either generallie or perticularlie and in ſuch order manner and forme, and under ſuch Conditions Preſcriptions and Lymitations as you and they or any ſuch ſix or more of you or them as is aforeſaid, ſhall ſett down in writeing ſigned with the Handes of you and them, or anie ſuch ſix or more of you or them as is aforeſaid, according to the ſeverall qualities of their Conditions and Offences.

And we do further ſignify and declare that our Pleaſure is, and we doe by theis Preſents graunt that everie ſuch Perſon and Perſons which ſhall be ſo thought fitt and convenient, as is aforeſaid, to be exiled or baniſhed, ſhall by force of theis Preſents be exiled and baniſhed in ſuch manner and forme, and under ſuch Conditions Preſcriptions or Lymitations as you, or any ſuch ſix or more of you or them as is aforeſaid, ſhall ſett down in writeing as is aforeſaid,

And we do further give full Power and Authoritie by theis Preſents unto you or any ſix or more of you, or them (whereof two of you the ſaid Lord Archbiſhopp of Canterburie, Lord Chauncellor or Lord Keeper of the Great Seale, Lord Treaſurer, Lord Privie Seale, or one of the ſaid Principall Secretaries nowe being or that hereafter for the tyme being, ſhall be twoe) to ſignifie and declare in Writeing, ſigned as is aforeſaid, to each and every Gaoler or Keeper of Priſons, under whoſe Cuſtodie any ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo to be exiled or baniſhed now is or hereafter ſhall be, that he ſhall deliver out of his Cuſtodie the ſame Perſon and Perſons in ſuch order manner and form as you, or anie ſuch ſixe or more of you as is aforeſaid, ſhall thereby preſcribe and appoint; and our Will and Pleaſure is, and we doe by theis Preſents graunt that every ſuch Signification Declaration and Direction in that behalfe ſhall be by force of theis Preſents a ſufficient Warraunt and Diſchardge to every ſuch Goaler and Keeper of Priſon for the Deliverie of everie ſuch Perſon out of his Cuſtodie ſoe it be done according to ſuch ſignification and Direction as is aforeſaid,

And our Will and Pleaſure is, and we do by theſe Preſents graunt unto you and everie of you and them, that theis Preſents or th'Inrollment Exemplification or Duplicate thereof, ſhall be, as well unto you and them and everie of you or them, as to all other our Juſtices, Miniſters and Officers to whom, by the Order and Directions of you, or any ſuch ſix or more of you or them as is aforeſaid, in manner and forme aforeſaid, or otherwiſe it ſhall or may appertaine, a ſufficient Warrant and Diſchardge for the doing executing and performing of everie matter and thing in any wiſe about touching or concerning the Premiſſes or any of them, in ſuch order and ſort as by you, or any ſuch ſix or more of you or them as is aforeſaid, ſhall be ordered and ſett down or preſcribed.

A.D. 1622. 20 Jac. I.

And we do will and ſtraightlie chardge and commaund by theis Preſents all our Judges Juſtices Sheriffs Lieutenants Bayliffs Conſtables of any of our Caſtles, Goalers Miniſters and other Officers and all other our Subjects to whome it ſhall apperteyne, that they and everie of them be ayding and aſſiſting to the due Performance and Execution of the Premiſſes, and that they and every of them do allow of and perform the ſame in everie reſpect according to the Purport Effect and true meaning of theis Preſents; and theis Preſents or th'Inrollment Exemplification or Duplicate thereof, ſhall likewiſe be unto them and every of them a ſufficient Warraunt and Diſchardge, without any other Warraunt from Us our Heires or Succeſſors in that behalfe in any wiſe to be had or obteyned.

And our Will and Pleaſure is, and we do by theis Preſents ſtraightlie chardge and commaund that a true Noate and Certificate be from tyme to tyme made and certefied, by one of our Principall Secretaries for the tyme being, of and concerning all your Doeings and Proceedings in this behalfe into our Court commonlie called the Kings Bench, there to be entered and inrolled of Record by the Clarke of our Crowne in the Office called the Crown Office belonging to our ſaid Court; and theis Preſents or th'Inrollment Exemplification or Duplicate thereof, ſhall be as well to our ſaid Secretarie, and to the Cheif Juſtice, and other the Juſtices of our ſaid Court; as alſoe to the Clarke of our Crown for the tyme being, and to all other to whome it ſhall appertaine, a ſufficient Warrant and Diſchardge for the entring and inrolling of Record the ſaid Certificate or Noate by our ſaid Secretarie att any tyme or tymes hereafter to be ſent as is aforeſaid.

Robert Tichborne and Robert Seyliard Gentlemen,

Greeting,

Whereas we have bene informed, by the humble Petition of our good and loving Subjects the Citizens of our Cittie of London, that many good Laws and Statutes have been heretofore providently made and enacted att ſeverall tymes in the Raigns of divers of our Predeceſſors, Kinges of this our Realme of England, which yet ſtand in force, tending to this end that Aliens and Straungers borne, reſorting hither and reſideing here, might be kindly demeaned as the Law of Nations requireth, and yet ſhould be ruled and regulated within ſuch moderate Bounds as that the naturall born

A.D. 1622. 20 Jac. 1.

born Subjects might not be thereby prejudiced or diſcouraged, and eſpeciallie that the uſe of Handicrafts and Manufactures, and the libertie to ſell by Retaile and not in Groſs might not be communicated to Straungers, which have bene ever eſpeciallie reſtrayned to the naturall borne Subjects, thereby to ſet them on work and imploy them in honeſt and profitable Labors and Sciences.

And whereas wee have with much importunitie bene often ſolicited to take thoſe Lawes and Statuts into our Princelie Conſideration, together with the great Prejudice which our naturall borne Subjects ſuſteyne by the neglect of the due Execution of them,

And wee,

Findeing that, in all the perticulers prohibited by thoſe Lawes, the Straungers uſe much more Libertie then is allowed unto them by the Laws and Statuts of this our Realme, eſpeciallie in the uſing and exerciſeing of Handicrafts and Manuall Trades, and in ſelling by Retaile, which is not allowed to our People reſideing as Strangers in forraine Parts, whereby our naturall born Subjects are diſcouraged and the Straungers inriched,

Have thought fitt to enter into a ſerious Conſideration of theis thinges being bound by our Regall Office in the firſt Place to be vigilant and carefull of the Welfare and proſperous Eſtate of our own People, and yet with that reſpect towards the Straungers ſetled in this our Realme as that they may continue in their honeſt Imployments, as in a ſecond degree with Comfort and Protection,

Whereuppon we have att the laſt reſolved to ſettle ſuch a courſe between our owne naturall born Subjects and the Strangers born, not onlie in and about our ſaid Cittie of London, but alſo in all other Citties Towns and Places within this our Realme of England, for an Uniformity in all as may beſt ſtand with the fitt and convenient enterteynment of the Straungers, and yet with the Good and Contentment of our own People.

And to that end and purpoſe Wee have heretofore by our Commiſſion under our Greate Seale of England, bearing Date the fowerth Day of Auguſt now laſt paſt, given Authority and Commaundement to you our ſaid Lord Keeper, Lord Treaſurer, Lord Preſident of our Councell, Sir John Suckling Knight our Attorney, and Sollicitor General, and others, to take ſerious Conſideration of the ſaid Laws and Statuts touching Straungers borne, and to treat with the Straungers reſideing in our ſaid Realme, and either to draw them to a Conformitie unto our ſaid Lawes, if they ſhould deſier to contynue their Habitations and Commorances amongſt Us, or att leaſt ſoe to moderate them as may beſt ſtand with their conveniencies, the preſent State of the tymes, and the Good and Welfare of our own People:

Since the graunting of which our Commiſſion, our ſaid Commiſſioners have taken great Care and Paines in the Execution of our ſaid Service, and have given Us a good Account of their Indeavours therein, and our naturall borne Subjects now reſt in expectation of ſome good Succeſſe of our Princely Care for their good, and yet the Straungers themſelves may diſcerne our gracious inclination towards them to be ſuch as may rather give them (whoe are ſetled here already) good Aſſurance of our conſtant Reſolution to confirm their Peace, then cauſe of fear that they ſhould be diſturbed in their induſtrious and ſedulous Courſes, whereof we wiſh our own People would take Enſample.

Wherefore we, being deſirous to perfect that Work which we have thus begun, and to do it ſo as may beſt advance our own Honor and the Good of our People, which are the endes we have herein propoſed, and withall to preſcribe ſuch Directions to our Commiſſioners as may beſt guide their Judgments with leaſt trouble either to our ſelves or to them, but upon Occaſions of conſequence and importance,

Our Will and Pleaſure firſt is, and we do hereby declare that our former Commiſſion bearing Date the ſaid fowerth Day of Auguſt now laſt paſt, ſhall from henceforth be utterlie revoked and determyned.

And further we repoſing aſſured Confidence in your Wiſdomes and good Diſcretions, have authorized and appointed, and by theis Preſents doe authorize and appoint you the ſaid Lord Keeper of our Greate Seale of England, our High Treaſurer of England, the Preſident of our Councell, Sir John Suckling Knight, our Attorney and Solicitor Generall, Sir John Brooke, Sir Thomas Fowler, Sir Thomas Grymes, Sir George Paule and Sir Henry Spiller Knights, Thomas Fanſhawe Eſquier, Robert Tichborne and Robert Seyliard, or any three of you, to be our Commiſſioners from tyme to tyme to doe and perform our Will and Pleaſure in the due Execution of this our Service.

A.D. 1622. 20 Jac. I.

And firſt our Will and Pleaſure is, that by all good waies and meanes as ye in your Wiſdoms ſhall think fitteſt, ye ſhall once in everie year collect and cauſe a true Survey to be taken in Writeing of the Names, Quallityes and Profeſſions and places of Habitation of all ſuch Straungers borne, Denizen or not Denizen, as now are or from tyme to tyme hereafter ſhall be reſideing in England, and alſoe of all ſuch as have bene or ſhall be borne in England of Parents Straungers, and uſe either the Trade of Merchaundize or any other retailing manuell or handicraft Trade, ſuch only excepted which were borne in our Realme of Scotland before our Acceſs to the Crowne of England.

Further our Will and Pleaſure is, that ſuch Straungers borne as uſe the Feate or Trade of Merchaundize for Importation and Exportation of Commodities or Merchaundize, and do not ſell by retaile, nor imploy themſelves in buying and ſelling of the native Commodities of this Kingdome, may notwithſtanding this our Commiſſion contynue and enjoy ſuch Liberties and Freedomes as formerlie they have enjoyed by the Permiſſion of Us and our Predeceſſors; onely wee will that everie ſuch Marchant ſhall pay to our uſe ſuch annuall acknowledgment by way of Quarterage, as by a Scedule under our hand wee ſhall direct; or if we ſhall make noe ſuch direction, then they ſhall pay ſuch acknowledgment as our Commiſſioners, or three of them, ſhall ſett down under their handes, that ſoe it may appeare they enjoy this Freedome not by right but of our meer Grace and Favor.

Further our Will and Pleaſure is, that noe Straunger borne, or borne in England of Parents Straungers whoe have not trulie bene bound as Apprentices by Indenture for ſeaven yeares att the leaſt, and trulie ſerved their Apprentiſhood, ſhall hereafter utter or ſell any Wares or Merchandize by retaile but in groſſe onelie, nor ſhall ſell in groſſe at Faires or Markets out of the Citie or Towne where they dwell; and that all ſuch as now uſe any retayling Trade ſhall, within ſuch convenient tyme as our ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall think fitt, alter that their Courſe of Trade which doth ſoe apparantlie tend to the Depauperation of the Engliſh Shopkeepers who have bene Apprentices to their ſeverall Trades, as our Law requires.

A.D. 1622. 20 Jac. I.

And further our Will and Pleaſure is, that ſuch Straungers borne as are alreadie ſettled and have Families in or about our Cittie of London, or in any other Cittie Towne or Place of our Realme of England, and uſe any manuall Trade or handicraft, or the making of the new Draperies of the Woolls or mixt with the Woolls of our Kingdome, and ſhall deſier to contynue their abideings and commorances here, may quietlie ſo abide and contynue under theis conditions and cautions following, which may give Satisfaction to our own People that we putt a difference betweene them and Straungers, and may alſo aſſure the Straungers that our Proceedings againſt any of them are and ſhall be upon juſt and honorable groundes, and yet with moderation and favor; which Conditions and Cautions ſhall be theis following.

Firſt, that every of them reſpectively putt themſelves under our Royall Protection; that whereas by the Laws of this Realme they ought not to work at all or uſe ſuch Trades but as Servaunts to the Engliſh, they now inroll themſelves as Servants to our ſelves our Heires and Succeſſors, whereby they may by Law be freed and diſchardged from the Daunger and Penaltie of our Lawes which otherwiſe they are ſubject unto:

And further our Will and Pleaſure is that everie ſuch Straunger born, Denizen or not Denizen, or others born of Parents Straungers, and not haveing ſerved their Apprenticehoods as aforeſaid, who either uſe any manuell or handicraft Trade or the buying or ſelling of the home Commodities of our Kingdome, ſhall pay to our uſe as a thankfull acknowledgment of our Royall Favor ſuch Rates and Payments out of their earnings or gaines to be diſtributed and diſpoſed of for the Eaſe and Comfort of our own People as wee ſhall think fitt, as ſhall be directed by a Scedule to be ſubſcribed by our own hand, or in Default thereof ſuch Rates and Payments as our ſaid Commiſſioners under their hands, or under the hands of three of them, ſhall ſett downe, whereby our naturall born Subjects may diſcerne that we put a proportionable difference betweene them and the Straungers, ſuffi-

A.D.1622. 20 Jac. 1. cient to give them incouragement yf their own want of Induſtry or honeſt Workmanſhip be not the impediment.

Nevertheles our Pleaſure and Commaund is, that this Favor which we ſhall thus vouchſafe to extend to ſuch Strangers who have ſetled themſelves and their Families in this our Realme already, or to ſuch who by their Service according to our Lawes ſhall hereafter deſerve the like favor, ſhall not draw hither or contynue here any increaſing nomber of maſterleſs Men of handicraft Trades to the extreame hurt both of Engliſhe and Straungers, but that ſuch either ſpeedilie retorne into their own Countries, or putt themſelves to work as hired Servaunts according to the true meaning of our Lawes or els ſhall undergoe the Severitie of our Laws provided and in force againſt them.

Yet for the encouragement of all Straungers to bring new and profitable Trades or Manufactures into uſe and practiſe here which were not before uſed by any of our own naturall born Subjects, and to inſtruct our own People therein, our Will and Pleaſure and Commaund is, that everie ſuch Straunger who ſhall bring in any new and profitable Trade and ſhall inſtruct any of our naturall born Subjects therein whoe were not of Parents Straungers, but are meere Engliſh, ſhall and may freelie and without any reſtraint uſe ſuch newe Trade for the ſpace of tenne yeares after their firſt coming into this Realme,

And further our Will and Commaund is, that all ſuch Strangers born or others born of Parents Straungers, which ſhall be thus allowed to contynue the uſe of any Trade within this our Realme, ſhall ſubmitt themſelves to ſuch Government and Orders in the ſeverall Trades which they doe, or ſhall uſe or profeſſe, as our own naturall born Subjects uſeing the ſame Trades do ſubmit themſelves unto, and that they ſhall not retain or keep any greater nomber of Servaunts or Apprentices then the naturall borne Subjects uſing the like Trades doe reteyne and keep; and that noe Stranger borne doe at any one tyme retain or keepe above the nomber of two Jorneymen being Straungers borne;

And further, that noe Straunger borne, Denizen or not Denizen, ſhall reteine any Apprentice in any other manner then by Indenture or for leſſer tyme then for ſeaven yeares at the leaſt;

A.D.1622. 20 Jac. 1. And that noe Straunger borne, or Sonne of a Straunger borne, ſhall uſe any Trade within this Realme whereto he hath not ſerved as an Apprentice by Indenture for ſeaven yeares as the naturall borne Subjects by the Lawes of this Kingdome muſt ſerve, wherein if any ſhall offend he ſhall be eſteemed to be in the ſame degree as if hee were a meer Straunger borne:

Notwithſtanding our Will and Pleaſure is, that unto ſuch of the French Nation, whoe by reaſon of the late Troubles in that Kingdome have had their Refuge hither, there ſhall be ſhewed ſuch favor beyond the proportion of other Straungers as our Commiſſioners ſhall thinke fitt, if within a convenient tyme after thoſe Troubles ſhall be overblowne they ſhall retorne into their own Countreys again.

And further our Will and Pleaſure is, that if any Straunger borne, Denizen or not Denizen, or anie borne in this Realme of Parents Straungers whoe have not ſerved their Apprenticehoods according to the Lawe, which now is, or hereafter ſhall be, a Member of the Dutch or French Church within our Cittie of London, or any other Cittie or Town of this our Realme of England where a Church is allowed unto them for their Aſſemblies ſhall ſo miſgoverne or miſcarrie him or herſelfe as that the Miniſter and Elders of that Church whereof he or ſhe is a Member, or the greateſt number of them, ſhall make Complaint in Writeing unto our ſaid Commiſſioners, that then in everie ſuch caſe, everie ſuch Refractorie Perſon ſo complained of, ſhall from thenceforth be left open to the Daunger of the Lawes and Informations thereupon for uſeing ſuch Trades or Imployments within this Kingdome as if this our favor had never bene extended unto them, untill ſuch Perſon ſoe complayned of ſhal again conform him or herſelfe, and ſuch Conformitie ſhall be certefied unto our Commiſſioners by the Miniſter and Elders of that Church whereof he or ſhe is a Member or the greateſt nomber of them.

And laſtlie our Will and Pleaſure is, and we doe hereby for Us our Heires and Succeſſors grant and commaund, that noe Information or Indictment or other legall Proceeding ſhall be had or proſecuted, for or concerning any thing in and by theis Preſents mentioned and intended to be tollerated as aforeſaid, againſt

A.D.1622. 20 Jac. 1. againſt any Straunger borne or other Perſon before mentioned who ſhall ſubmit and conform him or her ſelf to theis our directions, for ſo long tyme as they ſhall contynue in ſuch Conformitie, and that the Certificate of our ſaid Cammiſſioners, or any three of them (whereof our Attorney or Solicitor Generall to be one) ſubſcribed with their handes ſhal be a ſufficient Warraunt in that behalfe (whereof we will and commaund all our Judges Juſtices Sheriffs Mayors Bayliffs and all other our Officers and Miniſters to take notice) but againſt all ſuch Perſons whoe, by not ſubmitting themſelves to our Pleaſure herein declared and publiſhed for the encouragement of our People and the furtherance of Trade, ſhall neglect our Grace and Favor extended unto them, and againſt all ſuch whether Engliſh, or Staungers whoe ſhall coulorablie or deceiptfullie uſe the name of any other, or ſuffer their names to be uſed in buying ſelling or other tradeing to evade from theis our directions, our Will and Commaund is, that our Attorney Generall that now is and for the tyme ſhal be, upon ſignification to be thereof made unto him in Writeing under the handes of three of our Commiſſioners ſhall forthwith and from tyme to tyme proceed by Information or otherwiſe according to the Rigor of our Lawes. Proclamatio contra Exportationem Bullionis.

A Proclamation for Reſtraint of Exportation Waſt and Conſumption of Coyne and Bullion.

A.D.1622. Pat. 20 J. 1. p. 16. n. 26. THE KINGES MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY conſidering the ſcarcity of Money and Coyne of late Yeares growen within the Realm, occaſioned partly by Tranſportation thereof out of this Kingdom, and partly by the unlawfull Conſumption thereof within the Land, whereof many unſufferable Inconveniences doe dayly aryſe, and more are like to enſue to the generall hurt and dammage of the whole Commonweale, if ſome tymely and good Statutes made in the tyme of his moſt Noble Progenitours and Predeceſſors Kings of this Realme, as alſo the ſeverall Proclamations publiſhed by his own Royall Authoritie ſince the begining of his moſt happy Reigne, notwithſtanding all which, and ſome remarkable Examples of Juſtice in his High Court of Star-Chamber againſt ſome principall Offendors in this kind, many covetous and greedy Perſons have and dailie doe with great Boldnes and Contempt contynue and proceed in thoſe unlawful and offenſive Courſes, tending to the exhauſting of the Treaſure of the Realme, and utter overthrow of Trade and Commerce within the ſame.

And therefore his Majeſtie, in his Princely Wiſdome and upon neceſſitie of ſtate, ſees it fit that from henceforth all Care and Diligence in the Diſcoverie, and all Severitie in the Correction and Puniſhment of ſuch Delinquents without favour to any ſhall be uſed; and to the end that all Men may take nottice hereof, his Majeſtie thinketh fit to publiſh this his Proclamation, to the end that noe Man upon hope of Impunity preſume hereafter to tranſgreſs his Majeſtie's Lawes or this his Royal Commandement in that behalfe; hereby ſtraightly charging and commanding that no Perſon or Perſons Alien, Denizen, or other Subject of what Eſtate Qualitie or Condition ſoever, doe at any tyme hereafter, without his Majeſtie's Licence, tranſport carry or convey, or attempt or indeavour to tranſport carrie or convey out of this Realme any Gould or Silver, either in Coyne, Plate, Veſſels, Jewels, Goldſmiths Worke, Bullion or other Maſſe, or otherwiſe howſoever, upon paine of his Majeſtie's heavie Indignation and Diſpleaſure, and of the ſevereſt Cenſure of his High Court of Starchamber, and ſuch further Paines Puniſhments and Impriſonments as by the Lawes and Statutes of this Realme may be inflicted upon them for ſuch their Offence.

And further, that no Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, upon the like Paines and Penalties, doe aide, aſſiſt, counſaile, or any wayes partake with any other Perſon or Perſons purpoſing or attempting to tranſport carry or convey out of this Realme, without his Majeſtie's Licence, any Gould or Silver in Coyne, Plate, Veſſels, Jewels, Goldſmiths Worke, Bullion or other Maſſe or otherwiſe howſoever, either by gathering or getting together ſuch Gould or Silver, or by packing up the ſame fitt for Tranſportation or conveying the ſame to or towards any Port Haven or other Place of Exportation, or by anie other waie meane or coulor whatſoever; and that all and ſinguler Gouldſmiths, Merchants and their Factors, Maſters of Shipps, Marriners, Paſſengers, and all other Perſons whatſoever that ſhall have any nottice of Gould or Silver in Coyne, Jewells Bullion Plate or Veſſels or otherwiſe howſoever, which hath bene already exported within the ſpace of three yeares laſt paſt, or ſhall be hereafter exported, or ſhall be ſhipped for Exportation, or ſhall be gathered and got together by Change Calling or otherwiſe with intention to export, or with intention to putt into the hands of them which ſhould export it, that they forthwith reveale the ſame to the Lord Treaſurer of England, the Lord Preſident of his Majeſties Privie Councell, the Undertreaſurer of th' Exchequer or to the Warden of the Cinque Ports or his Deputie, or to ſome of his Majeſties learned Councell, for which Diſcoverie they ſhall receive in Reward the one halfe of the ſaid Gould or Silver, or of the Value thereof being ſeized or recovered to his Majeſties uſe; and on the other part, if they ſhall not diſcover the ſame, they ſhall incurr and receive condign Puniſhment as by the Lawes of this his Majeſties Realme, or by his Prerogative Royall, ſhall be meete to be inflicted uppon them:

And for avoiding of all unneceſſarie Conſumption and Waſt of Silver and Gould within this Realme, which is much practiſed of late by ſome Gouldſmiths and Refyners and thoſe that uſe the Manufacture of Gould and Silver Thread, his Majeſtie doth hereby ſtraightly charge and command that noe Fyner of Gould or Silver, nor Parter of the ſame by Fier or Water, from henceforth allay no fine Silver nor Gold nor none ſell in any otherwiſe ne to any Perſon or Perſons but only to the Officers of his Majeſty's Mynts Changes and Goldſmiths within this Realm onely for the augmentation and amending of Coyne and Plate, and that no Finor nor Finors, Parter nor Parters ſell to noe Perſon any manner of Silver in Maſſe molten and allayed, and that noe Gouldſmith within this Realme melt or allay any fine Silver but onely for making of Amells and for amending of Plate to make it as good as Sterling, as by the Statute in that caſe is provided, nor that they ſell noe fine Silver nor other Silver allayed molten into Maſſe to any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, nor one Gouldſmith to another but that the Statute in this behalfe, made in the fowerth Yeare of his Majeſties moſt noble Progenitor King Henrie the ſeaventh, be in all points duly obſerved and kept, uppon Paine that everie Perſon offending to the contrarie ſhall incurr his Majeſties high Indignation and Diſpleaſure, and ſuch Puniſhment as by the Lawe, or by his Majeſties Prerogative Royall may be inflicted for ſuch Miſdemeanor and Contempt.

And for that the making of Gould and Silver Tredd is found to be a great Waſt and Conſumption of the Coyne and Bullion of the Realme, therefore his Majeſtie doth further prohibite and forbid all making of Gould and Silver Tred of what kinde ſoever, or by whatſoever name it be called within this his Majeſties Realm, and doth ſtraightlie charge and command that noe Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, from the Feaſt of Saint Michaell the Archangell next enſuing, ſhall preſume to buy or putt to Sale any Gould or Silver Thred made within any his Majeſties Dominions, uppon Paine to incurr the uttermoſt Severitie of the Cenſure and Puniſhments aforementioned.

Our Attorney and Sollicitor Generall and Attorney of our Dutchie of Lancaſter for the tyme being,
And to every of you and them, and to all others to whom it ſhall or may appertaine, greeting.

Whereas we were heretofore graciouſly pleaſed by our Letters, under our Privy Seale in the nynth Yeare of our Raigne of England, and by our Letters Patents, ſealed with our Greate Seale of England, in the twelveth Yeare of our Raigne of England, to beſtow uppon our wellbeloved Sir William Heydon Knight, by the name of William Heydon Eſquier, Servant to our deare Son the Prince, his Executors Adminiſtrators and Aſſignes, ſeverall Sommes of Money, amounting in the whole to the Somme of ſixteene thouſand Pounds of lawfull Engliſh Money, as the ſame ſhould grow due or ariſe unto us uppon Compoſitions to be made by him the ſaid William Heydon his Executors Adminiſtrators or Aſſignes as well with the pretended Owners of any Mannors Lands Tenements or Hereditaments, thentofore graunted by any our Progenitors or Predeceſſors Kings or Queenes of England or any others in Tayle, whereof the Reverſions or Remaynders were upon ſuch Entailes made, left in the Crown, or came ſithence ſuch Entayles to the Crown, which Entayles being ended and determyned either for want of Iſſue, or otherwiſe by Attainder of Treaſon, the Lands neverthelés ſo given had byn ever ſince the ſaid Entayles ended and determyned, as aforeſaid, holden and poſſeſſed by ſundry Perſons without any new Eſtate or Title from the Crown as if they had bene or were their own, without acknowledging the ſame to be ours and reverted or come to us, as in truth they were;

As alſo with the pretended Owners of any Mannors Lands Tenements or Hereditaments thereunto demiſed or leaſed by any our ſaid Progenitors or Predeceſſors, to any Perſon or Perſons for the Life or Lives or Yeares, which Demiſes or Leaſes ſo made, being then forty yeares runn out and determined, the Lands ſoe demiſed or leaſed were likewiſe, notwithſtanding ever ſithence the expiration or determination of the ſaid Demiſes and Leaſes, houlden and poſſeſſed by ſundry Perſons without any new Eſtate or Tytle from the Crowne as if they had byne or were their own, without acknowledging the ſame to be ours.

And likewiſe uppon Compoſitions to be made by the ſaid William Heydon his Executors Adminiſtrators or Aſſignes for any Mannors Lands Tenements or Hereditaments, thentofore graunted by any of our ſaid Progenitors or Predeceſſors Kings or Queenes of England or any others, to any Perſon or Perſons in Tayle, whereof the Reverſions or Remaynders were at the tyme of the making of the ſaid Letters Patents in the Crowne, and which Entayles were not then ſpent forfeited or determined, and wherein there ſhould be three Lives in being at the leaſt.

And for the better ordering thereof we did grant certeyne Letters Patents and divers Commiſſions under our Greate Seale to ſome of you and others, out of all which Compoſitions ſoe to be made we willed a tenth Part ſhould be from tyme to tyme to Us wholly reſerved, as by the ſaid Letters of Privy Seale, and Letters Patents and Commiſſions more at large appeareth.

And whereas by reaſon of our late Proclamation of Grace and Favour to our Subjects, the ſaid Sir William Heydon, having as yet received but parte of the ſaid Somme of ſixteen thouſand Pounds, ſoe as aforeſaid graunted or intended unto him, is diſabled to take any further Benefitt upon Compoſitions to be made for or in reſpect of Lands entayled, where the Entayles were ended for want of Iſſue, or by Attaynder of Treaſon, or for or in reſpect of Leaſes for Lives or yeares, forty yeares as aforeſaid expired, whereuppon we by our Letters Patents ſealed with our Greate Seale of England bearing Date with theſe Preſents, did ſignifie and declare, that we are gracouſlie pleaſed in favour to the ſaid Sir William Heydon, and the ſaid Sir William Heydon is well contented, that he his Executors and Aſſignes ſhall make and take upp and raiſe the remaynder of the ſaid Somme of ſixteene thouſand Pounds not yett receaved, by force of the ſaid former Privye Seales Letters Patents and Commiſſions uppon Compoſitions to be made for Reverſions or Remaynders uppon Eſtates Tayle in being, where there are three Iſſues at leaſt living, inheritable in ſuch manner and forme, and under and with ſuch Lymitations and Proviſions as hereafter in theſe Preſents, and in the ſaid Letters Patents bearing Date with theſe Preſents, are expreſſed, and whollie to deſiſt from all Proſecution for paſſing any Graunts of any the natures before mentioned, uppon any former Letters Patents Commiſſions Privye Seales or Warrants to the purpoſe aforeſaid, except only for paſſeing of Letters Patents of ſuch Lands as were formerly related to make upp the value of eleven thouſand two hundred ſeaventy and five Poundes ſixteene Shillinges and eight Pence, hereafter mentioned to be receaved by the ſaid Sir William Heydon, and which are not yet paſſed under the Greate Seale of England.

And whereas the ſaid Sir William Heydon hath, by vertue of the ſaid Letters of Privie Seale Letters Patents and Commiſſions, already raiſed and receaved the Somme of eleaven thouſand two hundred ſeaventie five Poundes ſixteen Shillings and eight Pence, and there remayneth as yett to be taken by the ſaid Sir William Heydon his Executors Adminiſtrators and Aſſignes to his and their their own uſe, the Somme of fower thouſand ſeaven hundred twenty fower Pounds three Shillings and four Pence,

And whereas we did, by our ſaid Letters of Privy Seale, Letters Patents and Commiſſions, will and appoint, that the tenth parte of the Benefitt ariſing by the ſaid Compoſitions ſhould be reſerved unto us though not to be accompted towards the filling up of the ſaid Somme of 16000 Poundes, ſo as aforeſaid mentioned or intended to be graunted to the ſaid Sir William Heydon, and our meaning and purpoſe at the tyme of the making of the ſaid Graunts or Warrants was, and yett is, that the Somme of one thouſand ſix hundred Pounds, being the tenth parte of ſixteene thouſand Pounds ſhould and ſhall be levyed by way of Compoſition as aforeſaid, to the uſe of Us our Heirs and Succeſſors, over and above the ſaid Somme of ſixteene thouſand Pounds intended to the ſaid Sir William Heydon, of which tenth part of the ſaid Compoſitions heretofore made nothing hath bene as yett paid unto us or to our uſe, which tenth parte, as well in reſpect of the Compoſitions heretofore made in manner aforeſaid, as hereafter to be made, we are further graciouſly pleaſed, and ſo alſo we ſignified our Pleaſure by the ſaid Letters Patents bearing Date with theſe Preſents, to accept and take in ſuch manner as we have afterwards herein and therein alſo limitted and appointed, ſo that to ſatiſfie the ſaid Sir William Heydon his Executor and Aſſigne the ſaid Some of fower thouſand ſeaven hundred twenty fower Poundes three Shillings fower Pence and our ſelf our Heires and Succeſſors the ſaid whole tenth part of the Somes before mentioned, amounting to one thouſand ſix hundred Poundes, there muſt be further raiſed the Somme of ſix thouſand three hundred twenty fower Poundes three Shillings and fower Pence, which we will ſhall be raiſed and taken as hereafter in theſe Preſents, and in the ſaid Letters Patents, bearing Date with theſe Preſents, is expreſſed and to that purpoſe we did by our ſaid Letters Patents, for Us our Heires and Succeſſors, give and graunte full Power and Authority unto the ſaid Sir William Heydon his Executors Adminiſtrators and Aſſignes or any of them, from tyme to tyme to compound and agree, for and on the behalfe of Us our Heires and Succeſſors, to and with any Perſon or Perſons, for any Mannors Lands Tenements or Hereditaments, as well within the Survey of our Exchequer as of our Dutchie of Lancaſter, heretofore graunted by any our Progenitors or Predeceſſors Kings or Queenes of England or any others, to any Perſon or Perſons in Tayle, in the tyme of the Raigne of King Henry the eight late King of England, or any tyme heretofore, whereof the Reverſions or Remaynders are now in the Crowne, and which Intayles are not yet ſpent forfeited or determined, and wherein there ſhall be three Iſſues in being at the leaſt living inheritable for new Graunts to be made from Us our Heires or Succeſſors of the ſaid Mannors Lands Tenements and Hereditaments ſo to be compounded for, unto the Perſon or Perſons ſoe compounding and his and their Heires or to ſuch other or others as he or they ſhall nominate and appoint and their Heires, with reſervation nevertheles of the former Tenures Rents and Services, until by and upon the ſaid Compoſitions the ſaid Somme of ſix thouſand three hundred twenty fower Pounds three Shillings and fower Pence be fully and wholly raiſed:

And we did further, by the ſame Letters Patents laſt mentioned, ſignifie our Pleaſure to be, that for the accomodating of the preſent occaſion of the ſaid Sir William Heydon, it ſhall be lawfull to and for the ſaid Sir William Heydon his Executors Adminiſtrators and Aſſignes from tyme to tyme, as the ſaid Money ſhall ariſe uppon Compoſitions to be made according to the true meaning of the ſaid Letters Patents, to have receave and take the ſame, to the proper and ſole uſe and behoofe of the ſaid Sir William Heydon his Executors Adminiſtrators and Aſſignes, untill he and they have fully receaved the Somme of fifteene hundred Pounds of lawfull Money of England, without any Allowance of a tenth or other parte thereof to Us our Heires or Succeſſors; nevertheles we did ſignifie our intent and meaning to be, and we did by the ſaid Letters Patents for Us our Heires and Succeſſors, conſtitute and appoint, and likewiſe charge and command, that uppon all enſueing Compoſitions from tyme to tyme to be made by vertue of the ſaid Letters Patents, the ſaid Some of fifteene hundred Pounds being firſt raiſed and paid to the ſaid Sir William Heydon his Executors Adminiſtrators or Aſſignes, the full whole and entire third part, in three partes to be divided, ed, ſhall be reſerved and from tyme to tyme, as the ſame ſhall ariſe, be anſweared and paid to the uſe of Us our Heires and Succeſſors in lieu of the tenth parte heretofore to Us reſerved by the former Letters of Privye Seale Letters Patents and Commiſſions and the other twoe parts thereof, together with the foreſaid Somme of fifteen hundred Pounds, we did thereby, for Us our Heires and Succeſſors, freely and abſolutely give to the ſaid Sir William Heydon his Executors Adminiſtrators and Aſſignes, and that after the ſaid Sir William Heydon his Executors Adminiſtrators and Aſſignes, ſhall have raiſed and received the ſaid Somme of fifteen hundred Pounds, no new Graunt to be in any wiſe then after paſſed under the Greate Seale to any Perſon or Perſons of any the ſaid Mannors Lands Tenements or Hereditaments, untill it ſhall be made knowne and appeare to the Lord Chauncellor or Lord Keeper of the Greate Seale of England for the tyme being by Conſtat or otherwiſe, from ſome of our Officer or Officers of our Exchequer, that the ſaid whole and entire third Part of the ſaid Compoſitions hereby reſerved, ſhall be well and truely paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer or otherwiſe, to the uſe of Us our Heirs and Succeſſors, according to the true meaning of the ſaid Letters Patents.

Knowe ye therefore that we, for the more orderly and full accompliſhment of all things neceſſarie to be done about the Execution of this our Pleaſure, do hereby conſtitute and appoint you and the ſaid Lord Chauncellor or Lord Keeper of the Greate Seale of England, Lord High Treſurer of England, Chauncellor Undertreaſurer and Barons of the Exchequer for the tyme being, Chauncellor of our Dutchy of Lancaſter, our Attorney and Sollicitor General and Attorney of our Dutchie of Lancaſter for the tyme being, to be our Commiſſioners, willing commaunding and authoriſing you and every of you, to permitt and ſuffer the ſaid Sir William Heydon his Executors Adminiſtrators or Aſſignes, to compound and agree with any Perſon or Perſons reſpectively at reaſonable Rates, to be allowed by you, or any fower or more of you (whereof the Lord Treaſurer of England and Chauncellor of the Exchequer for the tyme being, for Lands Tenements and Hereditaments within the Survey of the Exchequer, to be two, or in caſe of forraine Imployment Sickneſs or Vacancye of either of the ſaid Lord Treaſurer, or Lord Chauncellor of the Exchequer, the Lord Treaſurer or Chauncellor of the Exchequer reſident for the tyme being, to be one) and (the Chauncellor of the Dutchie of Lancaſter for the tyme being, for things within the Survey of the ſaid Dutchie to be one) for the Reverſions or Remainders of any the ſaid Mannors Lands Tenements, ſo as aforeſaid mentioned to be granted in Tayle in the tyme of the ſaid late King Henry the eight or at any tyme heretofore, and whereof the Reverſions or Remaynders are now in the Crowne, and which Entailes are not as yet ſpent forfeited or determined, and wherein there ſhall be three Iſſues in being and living inheritable, untill there ſhall be thereby raiſed the foreſaid Somme of ſix thouſand three hundred twenty fower Pounds three Shillings fower Pence, and the Moneys thereupon ariſing to detayne and keepe in the handes of the ſaid Sir William Heydon or his Aſſignes to his and their own proper uſe, untill he or they have receaved the Somme of fifteen hundred Pounds as before is mentioned, out of the firſt Moneys ariſing by the ſaid Compoſitions; and likewiſe to receave detaine and keep in his and their hands to his and their proper uſe two parts only of the Moneys ariſeing uppon all enſueing Compoſitions, and the third parte thereof we will you our ſaid Commiſſioners, or ſome of you, do from tyme to tyme take care to be paid to the uſe of Us our Heires and Succeſſors according to our Pleaſure before herein declared.

Whereas Wee have been informed that you have delayed to proceed judiciallye in ſome Cauſes before you dependinge in the Courte Marſhall, by reaſon of ſome Doubtes which have beene by ſome divulged, that the Earle Marſhall was but a Miniſter to ſee the Preceptes and Judgments of the Conſtable performed; in whiche reſpecte, thoughe for our ſelfe Wee never made the leaſt doubte of the abſolute Power of the Earle Marſhall when there was noe Conſtable, as alſoe that he alwaies was a Judge joyned with the Conſtable when there was one, Wee hold it fit in a Cauſe of ſoe greate Weighte to proceede with extraordinary Deliberation: And haveing nowe both by our ſelfe, and by the Bodye of our Privy Councell received ample Satiſfaction by many and cleer Proofes, that the Conſtable and Marſhall were joynt Judges together, and ſeverally in the Vacancye of either;

Wee do hereby authoriſe will and commaunde you our Earle Marſhall, that from henceforth you proceede in all Cauſes whatſoever, whereof the Courte of the Conſtable and Marſhall ought

A Proclamation for better furniſhing the Navy and Shipping of the Realme with able and ſkilfull Mariners.

A.D. 1622. Ibid. p. 16. n. 23.

THE KINGS MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY conſidering how much it importeth the Honour Safety and Wealth of this Realm, that the Navigation of the ſame be carefully contynued and maintayned, and that there be skilful Marriners and Seafaring Men at all times in readines to furniſh, as well his Majeſtie's oun Royall Navy upon all occaſions, as the Shipping of his Subjects; and underſtanding that the Marriners and Seafaring Men of this Realme have of late Years in great Nombers, without any Licence or ſufficient Warrant, put themſelves into the Service of forraign Princes and States, and of Strangers born, whereby his Majeſtie's Navy and the Realme in general are likely to be deprived of their Service when there ſhall be any needful uſe thereof, if ſome timely remedie be not provided to meet with ſo great an Inconvenience, and weighing that it is a principall part of the Allegiance and Duty of a Subject to attend the Service of his Liege Soveraigne and Countrie:

His Majeſtie doth therefore ſtraightly inhibite and forbid that noe Maryner or Seafaring Man Shipwright or Shipcarpenter whatſoever, being his Majeſtie's Subject, do at any time hereafter, without expreſs Licence of his Majeſtie, or of the Lord Admirall of England for the time being, in Writing, enter, or attempt or goe about to enter into the Service of any forraign Prince or State, nor to be employed out of this Realme in any Service whatſoever, unles it be in the Service of his Majeſtie or of ſome of his Highnes oun Liege Subjects, upon paine of his Majeſtie's Indignation and Diſpleaſure, and the uttermoſt Severitie of his Majeſtie's Lawes to be extended againſt them, that contrarie to their Duty to his Majeſtie and this their native Countrey, ſhall ſoe contemptuouſlie withſtand this his Royall Command in a manner of ſuch weighty conſequence, by withdrawing themſelves from that Duty and Service which, by the Lawes of God and Man, they owe to their Soveraign and Countrie.

And his Majeſtie doth likewiſe command all his Officers Miniſters and Subjects whatſoever, not only as much as in them is to hinder any ſuch as ſhall attempt any thing againſt this his Royal Proclamation, but from time to time to make knoun all ſuch Offences and Offendors to the Lord Admirall for the tyme being, that a ſpeedy courſe may be taken for the ſevere puniſhing of them to the Example of others.

Given at the Court at Winſor the ſixth Day of Auguſt, in the twentieth Yeare of his Majeſtie's Reign of England France and Ireland, and of Scotland the ſix and fiftieth.

Pat. 20. J. I. p. 7. n. 19.

JAMES, by the Grace of God &c. to our right truſty and right welbeloved Councellor, Lionell Lord Cranfeilde our High Treaſorer of England, Maiſter of our Court of Wardes and Liveries, and to our truſtie and welbeloved the Councell of the ſame Courte, and to the Maiſter and Councell of the ſaide Courte for the tyme being, Greeting.

Whereas We have heretofore publiſhed ſeveral Commiſſions with Inſtructions and Directions to you our Maiſter and Councell of our Court of Wardes and Liveries for compounding for Wardes Ideotts and Lunatiques, nowe that tyme and Experience have produced the Knowledge of ſondrye Defectes, that otherwiſe could not eaſilye have been foreſeene, which are to be ſupplied by alteration of ſome Pointes of the ſame our Inſtructions, according to our gracious purpoſe for the good of our loving Subjects, and our eſpecial Care for the true anſwering of our Revenues; and foraſmuch as it doth appeare by common Experience in the Courſe which hath been helde ſince the firſt erection of our Court of Wardes and Liveries, that partly by the Slacknes of the Freinds of the Wardes upon the Deceaſe of the Parentes or Aunceſtors, who have forborne to offer tymely Compoſition, ſometymes with Opinion that no Title could be found for us, and ſometymes with purpoſe to ſuppreſs the ſame, and partly by the Suite of other Men, the Cuſtody of the Bodies and Landes of our Wardes have been committed to ſuch Perſons, ſome for one reſpecte ſome for another, as notwithſtanding the Care and Providence of you the Maiſter and Councell of our Courte to bynde them in great Bondes and Covenantes for the well educating of the Children, and Preſervation of their Inheritance, have been careles of their Education, married ſome in meane Places, committed Waſts and Spoiles upon their Lands, and in the end have exacted greater Sommes of Money for the Marriages of ſuch Wardes then they ought to have done in Reaſon and Equity, notwithſtanding any their Diſburſements whatſoever for paſſing or procuring the ſame:

And whereas alſo We have been informed by you the Maiſter of the ſaid Courte, that by reaſon of the great Difficulties that have been founde by the Courte, upon the ſight of Offices and Surveies onely, to ſet doune Compoſitions for Wardſhippes, and Leaſes of Wardes Landes, with ſuch equalitie and moderation between Us and our Subjects as were juſte and reaſonable; and that through want of due Information in that behalfe, much of the Profit that might have been raiſed for Us hath beene diverted to divers Suitors Comittees, who by obſcureing the Truth of the Wardes Eſtate, and by Miſinforming of the Courte therein, have reaped greater Profitt then was intended, yf you coulde by ordinarie meanes have come by the Knoulege of their Values, ſo as both we have received leſs then otherwiſe we ſhould have done, and the Wardes found litle Eaſe in many Caſes. Wherefore for the preventing of theiſe and the like Inconveniences, and to the end that our loving Subjects may ſtand aſſured, that we deſire nothing more then that their Children and their Landes, that ſhall fall unto us by reaſon of Wardſhippes, might after their Deceaſſe be committed to their neereſt and truſtieſt Freinds, or to ſuch as they by Will or otherwiſe commit the Charge unto upon ſuch valuable Conſiderations as are juſte and reaſonable; And to the intent that the Parentes and Anceſtors may departe in greater Peace, in hope of this our gracious Favor, and their Freinds may ſee their Children brought up in Pietie and Learning, and may take ſuch care as is fit for the Preſervation of their Inheritance, yf they will ſeek the ſame in tyme, and by ſuch meanes as are fit and convenient, and that we may be truly anſwered from time to time all ſuch Profit as ſhall be made thereof, we have thought good hereby to require you the Maiſter and Councell of the ſaid Court for the time being, that in diſpoſing and committing of the Cuſtodye of the Bodies and Landes of ſuch our Wardes whoſe Anceſtors

Anceſtors are already deceaſſed, or ſhall dye from and after the Date of theiſe Preſents, and of ſuch Ideots and Lunatiques and their Eſtates as ſhall fall unto us from henceforth, and the Revenue thereof that ſhall appertain to us, you ſhall ſtrictly and carefully obſerve theiſe our Directions following.

FIRST, That noe Direction for the finding of any Office be given for Wardſhippe of the Bodye and Landes of any Warde untill the end of one Moneth next after the Death of the Anceſtor of the Warde, but to the neereſt and truſtieſt Freindes of the Ward, or other Perſons nomynated by the Anceſtors in the Wardes behalfe, who may in the mean time become Suitors for the ſame, amongſt whom choice may be made of the beſt and fitteſt; and yf none of the Wardes Freindes make Petition by the end of the Moneth, then yt ſhall be lawfull for any other to petition, and to finde the Office for the ſaid Wardſhip.

Alſoe that noe Compoſition Agreement or Promiſe of any Wardſhipp or Leaſe of Landes be made untill the Office be founde, and then ſuch of the Freindes to have Preferment as tendred their Petitions within the Month, they yeilding a reaſonable Compoſition; and in default of them ſuch others as were or ſhall be Suitors, yealding alſo reaſonable Compoſition.

Alſoe you ſhall doe your beſt Endeavours to enforme your ſelves as particularly as you may, by Commiſſion Survey or otherwiſe, of the Truth of the Wardes Eſtates, as well of his Inheritance as of his Goods and Chattells, and of the Eſtate of the Deceaſſed Anceſtors, and of all other due Circumſtances conſiderable to the end the Compoſitions may be ſuch as may ſtand both with our reaſonable Profit, and with the Abilitye of the Heires Eſtate.

That all Petitions for Wardſhipps Ideotts and Lunatiques ſhall be firſt delivered to the Maiſter of the Court of Wardes and Liveries, that the Maiſter, yf hee ſhall think fyt, may forthwith give Direction upon the ſame Petition for finding the Office and retorning thereof, and the Maiſters Secretarye ſhall make entry thereof, and of the verie Day the ſame ys delivered, and retorne the ſame Petition back to the Suitor, who ſhall enter the ſame with the Clerke of the Courte, who ys to enter yt without Fee, and the Partye to take no Benefit by the ſaid Direction untill he hath entered the ſaid Petition with the Clerke, and the Clerke of the Courte is to acquaint all the reſt of the Councell therewith at their nexte Sittings, and the Suitors to attend, at the time prefixed by the Maiſter, openly at the Councel Table of the Court of Wardes and Liveries, there to compound with the Maiſter and Councell of the ſaid Court for the Wardſhip of the Body and Lands, or otherwiſe to be ordered there as ſhall be thought fitt by the ſaid Maiſter and Councell, and as the Statute ordeyneth.

That everie ſuch Petition do expreſs the ſeveral Counties wherein the Anceſtors died ſeized of Lands.

That all Petitioners who have Warrant to find an Office, and appointed to attend at a certain Day, yf after they find no Office, nor do not attend before the Officers for theire Compoſition at ſuch tyme as was appointed, then they ſhall loſe the benefit of their Petition, and their Bond ſhall be put in Proces, and yt ſhall be in the Power of the Maiſter and Councell of the ſame Courte to graunte the ſame to any other that ſhall petition for the ſame; the ſame Grante to be ſubject to the Order of the ſaide Courte.

That any Feodarie doe appointe ſome certaine Perſon and Place in London, whether the Court may ſend Directions to be conveyed to the Feodaries contynually for our Service.

That the Feodaries ſhall repaire to the Clerke of the ſaid Court, or to the Maiſters Secretarie at the end of everie Term, and take Nottice and Directions out of the ſaid Petitions entered with the ſaid Clerk and Maiſters Secretary in what Counties our Tennants died ſeized of any Lands, and of the Lands of Ideots, and that the Feodaries accordingly ſend up their Certificat of the beſt approved Value of all the ſaid Lands lying in their ſaid ſeverall Counties by the firſt ſitting of the Officers the next Term following, for which noe Fee ſhall be payed.

That the Feodarie doe make his Certificat, by View or other ſpecial Information, of the beſt ymproved Value, with his Reaſons thereof, privately, without giving Knowlege to the Suitor or any for him, of any Value intended by him to be certefied, and without taking any Fee or Reward from the Suitor or any for him, for valuing the Lands or Perſonall Eſtate.

That the Feodaries doe name in their Certificates the Lands in order one after another as they lye in order in the Office, and to ſet downe in the one Margente of their Certificates the Value founde in the Office, and in the other Margent the ymproved Value certified to the Officers, and the ſame Valuations to be diſtributed according to the Eſtates founde in the Office.

That the Feodarie doe certifie all Copihoulde Leaſes, Value of Woodes, or other perſonall Eſtate that cometh to the Warde, or any immediate Poſſibility of any Eſtate of Lands, whereby his Marriage may be improved.

That the Feodarie ſhall not mention in his Certificate any thing committed out of the Office againſt the King to abate the Compoſition, but ſhall leave the ſame to be alledged by the Suitor, to be allowed, yf Cauſe be, upon proofe to be made thereof by them at the Compoſition.

That the Eſcheator and Feodarie and Commiſſioners ſhall provide that Offices be not confuſedly found, by joyning divers Mannors and Lands in one groſſe Value together.

That the Certificates of the Feodarie be delivered, by the firſt ſitting of the Officers in every Term, to the Clerk of the Court cloſe ſealed up, and ſo to remain with the Clerk unopened untill the next Sitting of the Maiſter and Councell after the receipt thereof, and then to be opened to the end the Maiſter and Councell may informe themſelves of the true ſtate of the Warde againſt the tyme of Compoſition; and yf it be delivered by the Hands of a Stranger, then he to deliver it upon Oath according to the uſual courſe of the Court in like caſes.

That the Feodaries do find Offices at the beſt Value that may appear uppon ſearch, of ancyent Offices or other Records, if there be no Record, then to be found by the Jury according to Evidence to be given, and in caſe of Surveys, that they do not certifie any Value leſſe then appears by any Record ſince the Erection of the Court, without mentioning the Cauſe of Abatement, leaving the Proofe thereof to be determyned by the Court.

That no Office be found within the Year after the Death of the Anceſtor againſt us, or a mean Tenure of us, not being Knights Service; for any Warde within Age untill the Feodarie or Eſcheator do firſt acquaint the Court for further Directions therein, which the Feodarie is enjoyned to do with all convenient Expedition.

That every Feodarie and Eſcheator, before the third Retorn of every Term, ſhall certifie into the Court a Note of all Offices found in the Vacation next before, and whether a Tenure be found for us in Capite or by Knight Service, and the Names of the Anceſtor and Heire and his Age, and the Clerke of the Courte ſhall certify the ſame to the Auditors before the begining of the next Term following.

That the Clerks of the Petty Bagge do file and tranſcribe all Offices that ſhall be brought to them, and not to reject or ſuppreſs the ſame; and the like courſe to be uſed in the Exchequer with Offices that be retorned into the Exchequer, and that all due Fees be forthwith diſcharged and paied unto the Clerks and Officers of the ſaid Courts; and yf any Perſon ſhall neglect or deny to pay any ſuch due Fees, then, upon the Petition of the ſaid Clerk to the Court of Wardes, order ſhall be taken for their Satisfaction.

That all Sales and Compoſitions for Wardſhipps of the Bodies and Leaſes of Lands (except the Leaſes for Concealments) and all Commitments of Ideots and Cuſtody of their Eſtates be made by the Maiſter and Councell of the ſame Courte openly in the Councell Chamber of the Court of Wardes, and by ſuch Perſons as are authorized by Statute in that behalf: nevertheles the Surveyor of the Liveries, the Attorney of the Wards, Receivor and Auditors, or any four of them, without the Maſter may treat with any to bring the ſaid Wardſhips, and the Leaſes of the Commitments of Ideots, to a Price openly in the Councell Chamber of the Court of Wardes, and acquaint the Maiſter therewith, in whoſe Power it ſhall be to allow or diſallow of the ſame according to the ſaid Statute.

That Leaſes of Wardes Lands (except the Caſes of Concealments) be made with little or no Fyne, and for the beſt ymproved yearly Rent that ſhall be offered, Conſideration being had of all due Cautions as is aforeſaid.

That Fellable Woods, and Fynes of Copyhold of Inheritance, be alſo reaſonably valued and demiſed with the Land for the beſt yearly Rent as aforeſaid, with proviſion for ſellable Woods that the Leſſees fell them by fit Portions.

That Fynes of Copyhoulds for Lives be made and raiſed to our Uſe, when and as often as the Court ſhall think good, By certain particular Commiſſioners to be appointed by the Maſter and Councell of our ſaid Court, which Commiſſioners ſhall be charged to make the beſt of ſuch Copyhoulds to be graunted, and truly to anſwer unto us into our Receipt of our ſaid Courte all ſuch Sommes, without Fraude or Covine, as by them ſhall have been received, due Conſideration being had of their Pains and Expences, or ells the ſame to be compounded for at the Councell Chamber of the Court of Wardes as in other Caſes of Compoſitions.

That the rated Somme agreed upon by the Commiſſioners for the Compoſition of any Ward or Leaſe, do ſtand and not be abated in the Compoſition, neither in the Fyne nor Rent.

That no Wardſhips of the Body or Land (except the Caſes of Concealments) ſhall be given or granted to any Perſon, or at his Suite, by way of Rewarde or Benefite, but the beſt Price and Value that ſhall be offered, ſhall be taken to our Uſe, ſo always as the neareſt and truſtieſt Frends, or Perſons nomynated by the Anceſtor, they ſeeking the ſame in tyme convenient as aforeſaid, and making fit Offer for yt, be preferred, and Conſideration had of the Wardes Eſtate, and of all due Circumſtances conſiderable in ſuch caſes.

And furthermore, we do hereby require and authoriſe you, that you give order that everie Perſon that ſhall proſecute ſuch Compoſition for the Cuſtody of a Ward, Ideott or Lunatique or Leaſe of their Land, or other Eſtate (except the Caſe of Concealments) ſhall before any Grant of the Body, or Leaſe of the Land, be delivered unto him under the Seale of our ſaid Court, take his Corporall Oath in open Court, or by Commiſſion, if the caſe ſhall ſo require, before three Commiſſioners at the leaſt, whereof one to be a Juſtice of the Peace, to be certified and retorned into the Courte before the Delivery of ſuch Grant or Leaſe in manner and form following; viz.

I A. B. do ſweare that neither I, nor any other to my Knowledge, have or hath given or promiſed, procured or conſented to give or to be given, any Gift or Reward directly or indirectly to any Officer or Officers of the Courte of Wardes and Liveries, or to any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, for procuring any Preferment to compounde before another, or for mitigation in the Price or Payment in any Compoſition or Contracte made or to be made for the Wardſhip of the Body of I. S. his Majeſties Warde, and the Leaſe of any the ſaid Wardes Lands, or for the ſigning or diſpatching of any Grants of them or any of them, or for the mitigation of the yearely value of any the Lands of the ſaid Warde, ordinary Fees only excepted, and that I will not give, nor any with my Conſent ſhall give or conſent to be given any Gift or Reward directly or indirectly for the Cauſes aforeſaid or any of them, and I do take the ſaid Wardſhip to the uſe of the ſaid Ward and the ſaid Leaſe to the uſe of A. B. and not in truſt for or to the uſe of any other Perſon or Perſons whatſoever.

So help me God.

That eſpeciall choice be made of the Commiſſioners that receive the Oath in the Country, ſo that the Oath may be truly and fully taken by the Committees Leſſees and Aſſignees and the Parties committing truſt to any other.

That the Oath be taken by thoſe that are Committes or Leſſees uppon neglect in hæc Verba.

I A. B. do ſwear that neither I nor any other to my Knowledge or as I believe or have heard, have or hath taken any courſe or uſed any practiſe or combynation directly or indirectly, by my ſelf or by an other, with any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, to ſtaye or hinder the Proſecution of and for the Compoſition for the Wardſhip of the Body of B. C. or the Leaſe of any the ſaid Wards Landes, with any purpoſe or intent whatſoever, that the ſaid Wardſhipp and Leaſe, or either of them, by ſuch neglect or default of Proſecution, might come to me or any other to my uſe, or by any meanes or Procurement or to my Knowledge,

So help me God.

That

That no Recuſante be admitted to compound or be Aſſignee of any Ward of Body or Lands or of Ideotts.

That all Rents of Wardes Landes be reſerved to be paid, either to the Receivor of the Court of Wardes and Liveries, or to the ſeverall Feodaries of the ſeverall Counties where the Lands doe lye, according as the Maſter in his Wiſdome and Diſcretion ſhall think fitt.

That all Tenders and Contynuances be firſt made with the Maſter of the Wardes and Liveries, and after with the Surveyor of the Liveries, and that no ymprovement of Fee be taken by either of them, but the ancyent Fee for the ſaid Tenders.

That the Feodaries ſhall make Surveys upon Liveries in caſes of full Age as well as in caſes within Age, and both according to the reaſonable value, having reſpect to the ymproved value, and that the values ſo certefied by Survey ſhall be conſidered openly at the Councell Table of the Court of Wardes and Liveries by the Maiſter and Councell at their Sittings, before the Liverie ſhall paſs, and in no caſe to certefie under the value that ſhall appere upon any Recorde.

But touching Lunatiques lett noe Compoſition be taken for the committing of them or their Eſtates, but let ſuch care be had therein as that they may be freely committed to their beſt and neereſt Friends that can receive no Benefitt by their Death, and the Committees bound to anſwere, not only the values found by Office, but the verie juſt value of their Eſtates uppon Accompts for the Benefitt of ſuch Lunatique, yf he recover, or of his next Heire Executors or Adminiſtrators, due regard being had to the Paines and Charges of ſuch Committees in keeping mayntayning governing and cureing of the ſaid diſtracted Perſons.

That the Receivors Accompte be taken and declared everie year, according to the Statute of triceſimo ſecundo Henrici octavi, before the Maſter of the Wardes Attorney, or one or both of the Auditors, and after the Determination of the ſaid Accompt, the Maiſter, Attorney, and the Auditor or Auditors, ſhall all of them ſett their handes to the Receivors Book of Accompts, which is and ſhall be for the Receivors Charge and Diſcharge as the caſe ſhall require.

That the Auditors do ingroſſe into Parchment all the Receavors Accompts, according to the expreſs tyme and direction of the Statute of triceſimo ſecundo Henrici octavi, and do yearely certify and retorn the ſame ingroſſed, with all the Warrants Acquittances and Debentures into the Treſury of the Courte of Wardes, there to remayne as Records of the Courte, according to the Statute and the ancient Courſe of the Courte.

That all the Accomptes of the Feodaries be declared and certefied every Hillary Term to the Maiſter and Councell of the Wardes openly at the Councell Table, that the Court may know how the Remaines upon their Accompts be ſatisfied and payed, and their Accompts to be accordingly retorned into the Court there to remain.

And becauſe our Purpoſe in this courſe which now is taken is to raiſe, with as little Grievance as may be to our loving Subjects, that reaſonable Benefitt which ought to come unto Us by the Marriages of our Wardes, and by their Leaſes of their Landes, whereof a great part hath been diverted by Grantes to Committees and otherwiſe, we do hereby declare that it is not our meaning to change the Courſe that hath been formerly held and uſed in finding Offices, nor to preſs the raiſing or ymproving of any Values or Rates in any Inquiſitions, other then as aforeſaid, neither will we have the Rentes which ſhall be reſerved upon ſuch Leaſes, or any ſuch Certificates Informations or Inſtructions, as ſhall by any meanes be given to appear of the values of ſuch Wards Landes or Eſtates, to be tranſcribed or tranſmitted to any other Courte Office Place or Perſon, or admitted or uſed as Preſidente Evidence or Inducement to charge our Subjects in any other Payments, now or hereafter anſwerable unto Us our Heires or Succeſſors.

Nevertheles we are well pleaſed and contented that, yf any Wardſhipp Leaſe of Landes, meane Rates before or after full Age, now be or hereafter ſhall be concealed from us, and no Suit ſhall be made, within one Yere next after our Tenauntes Death, for ſuch Wardſhip or Leaſe, that in ſuch Caſe the Maiſter of our Court of Wardes may may admitt any fit Perſon whatſoever, that ſhall make offer to diſcover our Right ſo concealed or ſought to be concealed and ſuppreſſed, uppon good Matter or Proof ſhewed for Us, and approved by the ſaid Maſter to proſecute the finding of an Office, and to paſs the ſaid Wardſhipp Leaſe or mean Rates, without reſtrayning or binding the ſaid Maiſter, or the Party proſecuting according to the directions above mentioned, but that the Maiſter may according to the Parties Travell Expences Adventure and Service done unto Us, reward him by granting ſuch Wardſhip, Leaſe, or meane Rates, in ſuch ſorte as others may be encouraged to ymploy themſelves in the like Service, and all Devyſes and Practiſes to deceive and defraud us of our due and juſt Right be better prevented, any thing in theis our Inſtructions or Directions to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Provided alwaies, and we do hereby declare yt to be our Will and Pleaſure, that where yt ſhall appear to you, that neither we nor our Progenitors have enjoyed any Benefitt by Wardſhipp, Livery, Primer Seizin, Releiſe, Reſpect of Homage, Fynes or meane Rates of any Landes within the ſpace of threeſcore Yeares laſt paſt, where ſuch Benefitt ought to have come to the Crowne yf ſuch Tenure had been acknowledged, in ſuch caſes, we are pleaſed to give Power and Autority to you our Maiſter and Councell of our Court, openly in the Councell Chamber as aforeſaid, to remitt and releaſe all ſuch Benefitt and Profitt as have or ought to have accrued unto Us or to our Progenitors by reaſon of any ſuch Tenure allowing to ſuch Perſons as have proſecuted in our behalfe ſuch part thereof as ſhall ſeeme good in your Diſcretion, ſaving to Us our Heires and Succeſſors the Right and Inheritance of our Tenures, and ſaving our Prerogative and Benefitt and Profitt of ſuch Tenures of Us or our Progenitors as doe expreſly appere by matter of Record, and alſo ſuch as have been created, or otherwiſe come unto us within the ſame tyme of threeſcore Yeares:

And where we are informed by you the Maiſter of our ſaid Court, that the Bonds for Performance of Covenants made, as well unto us upon the Grants of Wards Ideotts and Lunatiques and their Eſtates, as unto the Wardes Ideotts and Lunatiques themſelves do remaine in our ſaid Court of Wards and Liveries, and have not at any tyme heretofore been delivered up unto the ſaid Grantees, notwithſtanding they have truly performed their Covenants, which is a great diſcouragement to Men of ſufficiency to become Grauntees in ſuch caſes when as their Eſtates ſhall become ſo perpetually charged, we therefore in our Princely Care of ſuch our loving Subjects as has been heretofore ſo bound, or that hereafter ſhall become bound in any ſuch Bonds, are well pleaſed and contented that you the ſaid Maiſter and Councell of the ſaid Court for the tyme being, ſhall give direction at all tymes hereafter, upon the deſire of ſuch Grauntees their Heires Executors Adminiſtrators or Aſſignes, to deliver up all ſuch Bonds to be cancelled, unles within two Years after the Eſtates of ſuch Grauntees ended, there ſhall appeare unto you the ſaid Maiſter and Councell of the ſaid Court, that there is good cauſe to detain the ſaid Bonds.

And alſo that the Maiſter of the Wardes, Surveyor, Attorney, Receivor, Auditors, Clerk of the Court and his Deputy, Clerk of the Liveries and his Deputy, and all the Feodaries, and the Maiſters Secretary, and all other Officers and Perſons ymployed in his Majeſtie's Revenue of the Wards, ſhall take an expreſs Oath openly in the Councell Chamber of the Court of Wardes, in manner and forme following.

I A. B. do ſweare that neither I, nor any other Perſon for mee by appointment knowlege or conſent, ſhall take or receive of any Perſon any Guifte or Rewarde directly or indirectly for any Compoſition or Preferment, or cauſing any Perſon or Perſons to be preferred to compound before another, or to have any mitigation in the Price or Payment in any Compoſition or Contract at any time hereafter to be made for the Wardſhip of the Body or Leaſe of the Lands of any his Majeſtie's Wards, or for the Cuſtody of any his Majeſtie's Ideots or Lunatiques, or their Lands Goods or Chattels, or for the ſigneing or diſpatching of any Warrant for any Grant of them or any of them, excepting ordinary Fees.

SOE HELPE ME GOD.

That the Clerks of the Wards and of the Liveries mention the Date of all Fynes rated, and the tymes of Payment, and deliver the Bonds to the Receivor, and make a Certificate of the ſaid Fynes, tymes of Payment and Bondes, with the Parties bound and their

That Oppoſals of Sheriffs be effectually performed every Terme, and that ymmediatly after the Oppoſalls they pay in the Money that they have collected or ſhall be ympoſed upon them by the Courte upon their Oppoſalls.

That the Clerke of the Wardes do certifie the Auditors all Fynes and Amerciamentes ympoſed upon any Sheriff or others within twenty Dayes after the ende of everie Terme.

And now that we have ſo ſufficiently directed you, as we make little doubt but you will be carefull of our Proffit in the execution of your Places, ſo nevertheles wee let you know hereby that, ſeing our own Judgement tells us that there may fall into your Conſiderations many Circumſtances which muſt guide you in aſſeſſing the Fynes for the Marriages of our Wards, and Renting of their Landes, ſome ariſeing either out of the broken Eſtate of the deceaſſed, wante of Proviſion for his Wife, his great Charge of Children unprovided for, Infirmitye or Tendernes of the Heire, Incertaintie of the Title, or Greatnes of the Incumbrance upon the Landes, ſoe as ſome Heire that may in reſpect of his Degree Blood or Living in opinion of the World, be judged to deſerve a greater Rent of Fyne then ſome other Perſons more obſcure may; yet in regaird of the Cauſes above mentioned, or ſome other of like ſort, leſſe fit to have any greater Charge laied upon him: We doe therefore, notwithſtanding any thing conteyned in theis our Inſtructions, give you full Liberty, that as theiſe or any other the like Conſiderations ſhall offer themſelves unto you, you may uſe that good Diſcretion and Conſcience which is fyt, openly in the Councell Chamber as aforeſaid, in mitigating or abateing the Fynes or Rents upon the ſaid Grants or Leaſes to the Releiſe of ſuch Neceſſities, ſo alwaies as care be taken, that by any ſuch Pretences, that Profit which ſhould accrue to us, be not diverted to any others that ſhall ſeek to draw to themſelves a private Benefit out of this our gracious Care and Conſideration. And our Will and Pleaſure is, and we do hereby directe and authorize you the Maiſter and Councell of the ſaid Court, and Maiſter and Councell of the ſame for the tyme being, that with adviſe of our Judges Aſſiſtants of our ſaid Court, you diligently examine, ſearch out and reforme all fraudulent Deviſes and Practizes deviſed or to be deviſed, and put in uſe to deceive and defeat us of our Wardſhippes or Leaſes of our Wardes Lands, or of any due or juſt Benefit belonging unto us by reaſon of our Tenures.

A.D.1622. 20 Jac. 1.

Voyage to the Courts or Countries of the ſaid Great Mougoll or other Princes or States, People, Citties, Iſlands, Continents and Places whatſoever already diſcovered or not diſcovered, ſcituate lyeing or being in Northern or Sothern Latitude, betweene the Cape of Bon Speranza and the Straights or Paſſage of Jacob le Mayre to the Purpoſes aforeſaid, outeward and homeward, all ſuch and ſoe many of our loving Subjects, or any others Strangers as will become our loving Subjects, and live under our Obeyſance and Allegiance, and ſhall willinglie accompany them with twoe Shippes and their Furniture, and likewiſe all ſuch other Thinges, Fabricks, Veſſells, Proviſions, Furnanzes and Commodities as ſhall be neceſſarie the better to enable them in the ſaide Voyage to the purpoſes aforeſaid: And alſoe in the Countries Territories and Places aforeſaid to doe and put in practiſe all and ſinguler the Premiſſes, and whatſoever els the ſaid Sir William Heydon and Charles Glemham, by Inſtructions ſigned with our own Royall Hand, or the Handes of ſix or more of our Privy Councell, ſhall be directed and appointed to doe: And alſo at their Wills and Pleaſure to barter exchange ſell or put away in any of the Countreys Territories or Places aforeſaid, as well the Goods and Commodities which ſhall be by them ſo as aforeſaid exported, as any other Goods or Commodities which they or any of them ſhall lawfully obteyn get or come by in the aforeſaid Voyage: And alſo to return import exchange convey and bring into this our Kingdome of England or any other our Dominions, ſuch Gould Silver Pearles Bullion Jewells Novelties or other Commodities as they ſhall think fit and convenient, according to the true meaning of theſe Preſents: And the ſame being ſo returned imported conveyed or brought into this our Kingdome or any other of our Dominions, to have take keep retain, and convert to the only proper uſe and behoofe of the ſaid Sir William Heydon and Charles Glemham, and other Perſons Adventurers and Aſſiſtants with or to them, without the Let Interruption Moleſtation or Diſturbance of Us our Heires or Succeſſors, or any the Officers or Miniſters of Us our Heirs or Succeſſors; any Law Statute Act of Parliament Proviſion or Reſtraint, or any Right Title or Clayme of Us our Heirs or Succeſſors, or any other Matter or Thing whatſoever to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding: Paying and anſwering to Us our Heirs and Succeſſors ſuch Cuſtomes Subſidies and Duties as ſhal be due for or in reſpect of any Goods Commodities or other things whatſoever to be imported by the true meaning of theſe Preſents.

And further of our more eſpecial Grace, certain Knowledge and meer Motion, we do hereby ordeyne conſtitute and appoint the ſaid Sir William Heydon and Charles Glemham joyntly and ſeverally and the Survivor of them to be ſole Governors and Commanders, Governor and Commander, of all Perſons that ſhall travaile and be with them in the ſaid Voyage to the Courte or Countries of the ſaid Mogull, or other Parts Northerne or Southerne aforeſaid, diſcovered or undiſcovered lying between the foreſaid Cape of Bon Speranza and the ſaid Paſſage of Jacob le Mayre outward or homeward; and we do hereby give unto them joyntlie and ſeverallie and the Survivor of them full Power and Authoritie to correct puniſh pardon govern and rule them or any of them, according to ſuch Orders Ordinances Conſtitutions Directions and Inſtructions as by the ſaid Sir William Heydon and Charles Glemham joyntlie and ſeverally, or the Survivor of them ſhall be from tyme to tyme eſtabliſhed as well as in caſes Capitall and Criminall, both Maryne and other, ſo alwaies that the ſaid Statutes Ordinances and Proceedings, as near as conveuientlie may be, be agreeable to the Lawes Statutes Government and Pollicie of this our Realme of England and in noe ſort againſt the true Chriſtian Faith now profeſſed in the Church of England.

And becauſe that in ſuch and the like Enterpriſes and Voyages great Inconveniencies have growne by the mutinous and diſorderly Carriage of the Maryners and Saylors imployed in the ſame, for want of ſufficient Authoritie to puniſh them according to their Offences, we do therefore by theſe Preſents for Us our Heirs and Succeſſors, give full Power and Authoritie to the ſaid Sir William Heydon and Charles Glemham joyntlie and ſeverallie, and the Survivor of them, in caſe of Rebellion and Mutiny by Sea or Land to uſe and exerciſe Martiall Lawe uppon good ground and apparent neceſſitye, in as large and ample manner as our Lievetenant Generall by Sea or Land, or our Lievetenants in our Counties within our Realm of England have had or ought to have by force of their Commiſſion of Lievetenancie.

And we do further by theſe Preſents, give full Power and Authoritie to the ſaid Sir William Heydon and Charles Glemham joyntlie and ſeverallie and the Survivor of them, to elect nominate and appoint ſuch Captains and other inferior Commanders and Miniſters under them, as ſhall be requiſite for the better ordering and governing of their Company and the good of the Voyage.

And further by theſe Preſents, for Us our Heires and Succeſſors we ſtraightly charge and command as well our High Admirall of England, as the Warden of our Cinque Ports, and all the Viceadmiralls Cuſtomers Comptrollers Surveyors Searchers Wayters and other Officers and Miniſters of Us our Heires and Succeſſors for the tyme being, that they and everie of them do quietly permit and ſuffer the ſaid Sir William Heydon and Charles Glemham, and all Perſon and Perſons that ſhall be willing to travell and adventure with them in this ſaid Voyage with the two Shippes as aforeſaid, and with Munition Goods Proviſions and Commodities whatſoever, out of this our Realme or any other our Domynions to paſs into the Continent Parts and Places aforeſaid, and from thence to retorne and import into this our Realm or any other our Domynions, any Goodes or Commodities, and there to ſell or otherwiſe diſpoſe of the ſame to the beſt Benefit and Advantage, and to the onlie uſe and behoofe of the ſaid Sir William Heydon and Charles Glemham and ſuch other Perſons as ſhall be Adventurers with them in this Voyage, paying the Cuſtomes and Duties aforeſaid: and theſe Preſents, or the Inrollment thereof, ſhall be unto the ſaid High Admirall, Warden of the Cinque Ports, Viceadmiralls Cuſtomers Comptrollers and other the Officers aforeſaid for the tyme being, a ſufficient Warrant and Diſcharge in that behalfe.

And foraſmuch as at this preſent we are in Amitie with all Chriſtian Princes and States, and are unwilling that any our Subjects ſhould give occaſion of any Breach or Hinderance unto that League and Amitie which we hold with any our Confederates Friendes or Allies, or ſhould diſturb the quiet Trade of our Merchaunts, and endaunger and prejudice the Lifes and Safetie of their People or Goodes abroade, and becauſe we are not ignorant of the Emulation and Envie that doth accompany the Diſcovery of Countreys and Trades, and of the Quarrells and Contentions which do many tymes fall out amongſt the Subjects of diverſe Princes meeting the one with the other in forraigne and remote Countries in the Courſe and Proſecution of their Diſcoveries, and being deſirous that our Subjects ſhould forbear to move or begin any Quarrell or Contention upon the Subjects of our Confederates Friends or Allies, either in proceeding or returning upon or from any their Voyages: we do therefore ſtraightly charge and command the ſaid Sir William Heydon and Charles Glemham, and all others under their Government, that neither in their Voyage outward or homeward, nor in any Countrie Port or Place where they ſhall abide or come dureing the tyme of their being abroade out of our Kingdomes and Domynions, where they ſhall meet with any the Subjectes of our Confederates Friends or Allies, or of any other Prince State Nation or People, with whome our Merchaunts have any Amity or Trade, they doe not ſett upon take or ſurprize their Perſons Shippes Veſſells Goodes or Merchandizes, nor offer any Hoſtilitie Violence or Injurie to them, unleſs it be in the juſt Defence of their own Perſons Shippes Veſſels or Goodes, againſt or for the neceſſarie avoiding of any wrongfull Diſturbance or Hinderance offered unto them in their quiet courſe, or for Recompence or Recoverie of the Perſons Goods or Merchandizes of any of our Subjects or other like juſt cauſe, as they will anſwer the contrary at their utmoſt Perills.

Provided alwaies neverthleſs, and our Will Intent and Meaning is, and we do hereby, for Us our Heires and Succeſſors, conſtitute and appoint that the ſaid Sir William Heydon and Charles Glemham before their going into the ſaid intended Voyage, ſhall receive from the Lords and others of our Privie Councell, or ſix of them at the leaſt, a Schedule or Liſt, ſubſcribed by ſix at the leaſt of our ſaid Privie Councell, conteining what Goods Proviſions and Commodities they ſhall be prohibited and reſtrained to retorn and bring back into this Realme and other our Dominions, and that neither they or either of them, nor any of their Company Adventurers Aſſiſtants or others goeing in the ſaid Voyage, export any Goodes Wares Merchandizes or other thinges which by the aforeſaid Liſt or Schedule they ſhall be reſtrained or forbidden to import, any thing herein contain'd to the contrarie notwithſtanding:

And laſtly our Will and Pleaſure is and by theſe Preſents for Us our Heires and Succeſſors, we do graunt unto the ſaid Sir William Heydon and Charles Glemham, that theſe our Letters Patents or Commiſſion, or the Inrollment thereof, and all and ſinguler Grants Clauſes and things therein contained, ſhall be ſtrong ſufficient and effectuall according to our gracious Meaning and Pleaſure herein expreſſed; any Law Statute Acte Proviſion Ordinance or Reſtraint or any other Matter or Thinge to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Gentlemen,

Greeting.

Whereas we have underſtood, by the generall Complaints of our loveing Subjects, from all the Parts of this our Realme of England, as alſo by Information from our Miniſters imployed in

A.D.1622.
20 Jac. I.

in Parts beyond the Seas, that the Cloth of this Kingdom hath of late Yeares wanted that Eſtimation and Vent in Forraign Parts which formerlie it had, and that the Wools of this Kingdom have and are fallen much from their wonted Values, and Trade in generall to be ſo far out of Frame, that the Marchants and Clothiers of this Kingdom are greatlie diſcouraged, ſo that great Nombers of People ymployed by them, and depending on them, want Work, the beſt meanes of their Livlihood, the Landlords fail in their Rents and Revenues wherewith to maintain their ordinarie Charges, and the Farmors have not ſo good means whereby to raiſe their Rents as heretofore they had, and our ſelfe alſo finde the Defects thereof by the Decaie of our Cuſtomes and other Duties, and generallie the whole Commonwealth ſuffereth, ſo as it is high time to look into the cauſe of this great Decay of Trade and the Commodities of this our Kingdom, as alſoe how to have fit Remedies applied for the reſtoring the ſame to their former floriſhing Eſtate.

And whereas we, out of our Princely Care by all good meanes to encourage our People in their honeſt and induſtrious Courſes, and to advance the welfare and wealth of our Kingdomes and Domynions, have often and ſeriouſlie conſidered with our ſelfe, and adviſed with our Privie Councell, of the beſt meanes howe to redreſſe the many Inconveniences which theis things draw upon our State, for which purpoſe, by the Advice of our Privie Councell, we firſt made choiſe of twelve Perſons, to whoſe Care we eſpeciallie recommended theis things by way of Preparation for after Remedies to be thought of and reſolved upon; which Commitee having ſpent many Days in this important Service, and having had many Conferences, according to our Directions given unto them, with many Knights and Gentlemen of Qualitie of divers Counties of this Realme, with Merchants of ſeveral Companies and Societies, with the Clothiers of ſeveral clothing Sheires, and divers others of Underſtanding and Experience, at laſt retorned unto us and our Privie Councell a Certificate in Writing of their Opinions touching the Premiſſes.

Whereupon we, by the Adviſe of our Privie Councell, did preſentlie by our Royall Proclamation enter into a waie of Reformation of ſome things which for the Preſent we could doe; but becauſe we found that the Matters worthie of deliberate Conſideration in this ſo greate and weightie a Work are verie many, and that the Occurrents of Trade are variable, and muſt be directed and governed as tymes and occaſions ſhall ſerve or doe varie, and that it is impoſſible to forſee what may be the future event of theis things, or to ſet down ſuch conſtant Rules for Trade as ſhall not require an Addition or Alteration upon juſt Reaſons and Grounds.

A.D.1622.
20 Jac. I.

We have therefore, by the like Adviſe of our Privie Councell, thought fit and reſolved to have a ſtanding Commiſſion for theſe Cauſes, and to make choiſe of a convenient Nomber of Perſons of Qualitie, Underſtanding, Experience and Judgment, to be our Commiſſioners, to whoſe Judgement, Induſtrie and Care we might commit the further ſearching out and better diſcerning of the true Cauſes of the Decaie of Trade, and the findeing out of fit and convenient Remedies to be applied for the ſame; and that after they ſhall have with mature Deliberation prepared the ſame, they might from tyme to tyme certifie us and the Body of our Privie Councill of their Opinion, to the end that thereupon we might give ſuch order for Remedies herein as may be for our own Honour and the Wealth and Proſperitie of our People.

Knowe ye therefore that we, repoſing great Truſt and Confidence in your Wiſdomes Integrities and good Diſcretions, have authoriſed and appointed, and by theis Preſents do authoriſe and appoint you to be our Commiſſioners, and by theis Preſents do give unto you, or any ſix or more of you (the ſaid Henry Viſcount Mandevile Lord Preſident of our Privie Councell, Fulk Lord Broke, Sir John Suckling, Sir George Calvert our Principall Secretarie, and Sir Julius Cæſar Maſter of the Rolls, we will alwaies to be one) full Power and Authoritie, from tyme to tyme, to take into your Conſiderations and Cares the Cauſes aforeſaid, with theis particular Articles following.

FIRST, What are the true Cauſes whie the Wolls of this our Kingdom of England are ſo much fallen from their wonted Values? And to conſider what are the moſt probable meanes to raiſe them againe to their former Price and Eſtimation?

A.D.1622.
20 Jac. 1.

Secondlie, to adviſe of the beſt meanes how to prevent the Tranſportation of Wools, Woolfells, Wollen Yarne, Fullers Earth, and Wood Aſhes of this our Kingdom of England, into Forraign Parts, into our Kingdoms of Scotland or Ireland, and how the Offenders, contrarie to our Royal Proclamation lately made in that behalf, may be diſcovered and puniſhed? how the Wolls of our Kingdom of Ireland, not Draped there for the neceſſary uſe of the Inhabitants of that our Kingdom, or for Marchandize, if they ſhall hereafter ſoe ymploye the ſame may moſt commodiouſly be tranſported or brought into this Realme of England, and here from tyme to tyme be bought up at reaſonable and fit Priſes, and be here employed? how the Wolls of our Kingdom of Scotland not there draped, may alſo be brought into England, and here uſually ſold and converted into the Draperies of this Kingdom, that ſo all Parts of our Domynions may mutuallie be helpfull one to another, and further each others common Good?

And leaſt the drawing of ſo great Quantities of Wool from all Parts of our Dominions into this our Realme of England, and the great Quantities of Woolls of the proper Growth of this Realme, might bring ſo great a Glut of Wollen to this our Realme, as that our People ſhall not be able profitablie to convert the ſame into Cloath and other Manufactures, and ſo our Plenty of ſo Royal a Commoditie might vilifie the ſame; we would have you to conſider adviſedlie whither there will be in truth any ſuch Exceſs of Quantity, and if there be, or by this means ſhall be, how the Inconvenience which may growe thereby may be beſt prevented or avoided? That ye take into your ſpeciall Care how and by what meanes the Wolls of theis Kingdoms and Dominions may be converted and better employed unto the making of Cloth and Stuffs and other Manufactures to the beſt Profit and Advantage? and the ways and means how the Cloth and Stuff made of Woll may be well and truly made dyed and dreſſed, that ſo they may recover that ancient Eſtimation in Forraign Parts which by ill and deceiptful making dying and dreſſing they have of late Years loſt.

And becauſe there are now many Lawes in force concerning the making of Cloth, which for their Number and Contradiction do perplex and intangle the Makers of Cloth, and makes it hard to be diſcerned what the Law is in many Particulers; we would have you to collect and obſerve thoſe Laws which are moſt convenient and fit for the preſent tymes, to the end that thoſe may be ſpecially commanded to be obſerved, and that ſuch Lawes which are leſs fit for the Tymes may be ſpared from Execution, that they intangle not our People, and this to be obſerved untill, at a convenient Opportunitie, one clear and fit Law may be made in this Caſe, and all former Lawes which admit Contradiction or doubtfull Interpretation may be repealed.

A.D.1622.
20 Jac. 1.

And whereas there is yet no Statute Law made directing the true making and dreſſing of the Stuffs known by the Names of the new Draperies, our Will and Pleaſure is, that untill by Law they may likewiſe be regulated, that ye conceive and ſet down ſome fit and convenient Rules and Orders, whereby the true and ſubſtantial making and dreſſing of them may be enjoyned to all the Makers and Workers thereof, becauſe it is found by Experience that the ſlight and deceiptfull making of thoſe Stuffs hath brought them out of Requeſt, and exceedingly hindered their Sales in Forreign Parts where they were in good Eſtimation, and would have increaſed much more if the falſe making of them had not brought them into Diſcredit.

And that when good Rules and Orders ſhall be conceived and ſett down for the making dying and dreſſing of Cloth and Stuffs made of Wooll, that you forſee alſo the beſt and moſt probable waies how thoſe Rules and Orders may be putt into a due and conſtant Execution, and that thoſe which ſhall be truſted therewith be of ſuch Abilities and Skill, as that they can, and of ſuch Integritie and Honeſtie, as that they will, diligentlie and faithfullie perform that which ſhall be committed in Truſt to them.

And whereas the Brogers and Jobbers of Wools are in ſome Places complayned of, as a meanes to raiſe the Prices of Wool, and to falſifie the ſame by unhoneſt Mixtures, by their interpoſing before it come to the hands of the Clothier and Weaver whoe converteth the ſame, and in ſome other Places they are deſired to be continued as neceſſarie Inſtruments to convey Woolls by ſmaller Quantities to ſuch

Weavers or Clothiers as cannot conveniently furniſh themſelves imediatly from the Grower, ſo as they do not falſifie their Woolls before they ſell them again, we would have you to take into your conſiderations, whether there be any good uſe at all to be made of thoſe Jobbers or Broggers of Wool; and if there be, then to conſider in what Places and under what Conditions they are to be continued?

And becauſe the Prizes of died Clothes may be much enhanced by the deerneſs of the Dies, although the values of Woolls be not raiſed, we will you to enquire into the Cauſes how dying ſtuffs become dear, either upon Patents or Privilege obteined upon untrue or unfitt Suggeſtions for the ſole Importation of any ſorte or kinde of dying Stuffe, or by ingroſſing of dying Stuffes into a few hands, wherby they become overdeare to the Dyer or Clothier, or by what other meanes or practiſe the dying Stuffes are anie way endeared? and to forſee the beſt meanes you can for Remedy and Prevention thereof,

And whereas a ſuſpition hath been raiſed uppon the Societies and Companies of the Marchant Adventurers and other Marchants, and of ſome Companies of Handicrafts Men, that for their private Gaine and particuler Advantage they make and put in Execution divers Ordinances amongſt themſelves for ordering their Trades and Myſteries, which tend to the hurt of the publique, we will and command you, and hereby give you Power and Authoritie, upon any Complaint to be made unto you thereof, to enform your ſelves of the Ordinances Orders and Conſtitutions of ſuch Companies and Societies of Marchants and others for the ordering of their trade, to the end that if it ſhall appeare that any thing therein contayned be unfitt to be contynued, as tending to the generall hurt of others, either in making the Cloth, or other Marchandize and Wares of this Kingdom over deare or otherwiſe, that the ſame may be laid down, and that no new Orders or Ordinances be hereafter made and executed by the ſaid Companyes or any of them, before they be firſt peruſed and allowed by Us and our Privie Councell, or ſo many of them as we ſhall thereunto eſpecially appoint.

And becauſe it is conceived by many, that by reaſon of the Diſcouragements happened to Trade, the number of Marchants now applieing themſelves in courſe of Marchandize are of too ſmall a nomber to manage the ſame, and that if the Nomber of Traders were enlarged, Trade it ſelf would be enlarged, which is now ſaid by ſome to be ympriſoned, being for the moſt part confined to Companies and Societies of Marchants, and others excluded which are not Members of thoſe Companies, we will and require you to take into your conſiderations, whither it be neceſſarie to give waie to a more open and free Trade or not? and if it be, then in what manner it is fitteſt to be done? wherein we would alwaies have you take care that Government and Order in Trade may be preſerved, and Confuſion avoided, and that to be done which may be beſt for Us and our People; and, amongſt other things which we conceive to be Hinderances of a fair and free Trade, we will and require you to conſider how far it ſhall be fit to admitt of a Joint-ſtock in Companies or Societies of Marchants?

And alſo whether it be at all fitt to allow any Marchant to be alſo a Retayler, at leaſt of thoſe ſorts of Merchandize which himſelf retorneth from beyond the Seas?

And becauſe the Life of Commerce and Trade is Mony, whereof a greater Scarcitie is now found in this our Kingdom then hath been in former tymes, we will and require you with all Diligence and care to take into your conſiderations, what are the Principall Cauſes and Occaſions thereof? and by what means Coyne or Bullyon may be hereafter more plentifully brought into this Kingdome? and how the ſame may be here kept and preſerved from Exportation unles it be only in caſes neceſſarie and profitable for the State?

That to prevent an apparent Conſumption and Confuſion, which cannot otherwiſe be avoided, ye diligently obſerve the true Ballance of the Trade of this Kingdom, leaſt the Ymportation of Merchandize from forraign Parts, exceed the Exportation of our own native Commodities, and conſider of ſome fitting courſes to reduce the ſame to more equalitie, and to think upon the Gain or Loſſe that comes to our Kingdom by the courſe of Exchange now uſed by our Marchants.

And we require you likewiſe to take into your conſiderations the waies for the Improvement of the native Commodities of this Kingdom to the beſt Advantage;

A.D.1622.
20 Jac. 1.

And the avoiding of vain and unprofitable Retornes of the Commodities of forraign Kingdoms, in Superfluities and the waſtfull Conſumption thereof, which muſt needs exhauſt the Wealth and Treaſure of the Kingdom.

And for the better encreaſe of the Wealth of the Kingdom, and the Ymportation of Coyne and Bullion from forreign Parts, where we have Traffique and Commerce, we would have you conſider what native Commodities of this Kingdom are of that neceſſarie uſefulnes to our Neighbour Nations, that they may fitlie retorn home a Proportion of Coyne or Bullion for a Supply of Treaſure, and to adviſe in what manner that may be beſt done?

And becauſe the Maintenance of our Navie and the Shipping of our Kingdom, is a principal meanes to advance the Honor, Strength, Safetie, and Profitt therof, we will and require you, chieflie and above other thinges, ſeriouſlie and carefully to conſider by what good waies and meanes our Navy and the Shipping of this Kingdome may be beſt maynteyned and enlarged, and Mariners bredd upp and increaſed to furniſh the ſame, and to this end we require you to take into your beſt and moſt mature Conſiderations and Judgments theis thinges following, which our ſelf conceive to be verie good means to atain unto that end we eſpecially ayme at as aforeſaid.

Firſt and principally that the Herring fiſhing uppon the Seas and Coſts apperteyning to our own Realmes and Domynions, may be undertaken by our People for the common Good, for the Encouragement whereof we ſhall be alwaies readie to yield our beſt Aſſiſtance and Protection; the work in it ſelf being apparentlie profitable for the Undertakers of the ſame, and the conſequences thereof for the Good of Us and our People, being by God's Bleſſing ſuch and ſo many as no one Atchievement can equalize.

And to the end that the Shipping of other Nations may not be imployed for the bringing in of forrain Commodities, whilſt our own Shipping ſhall want Ymployment, we will and require you to take into your conſiderations how our Laws do now ſtand in force for the prohibiting of Merchandize to be ymported in Forrain Bottoms, and to adviſe what is fitt to be done therein?

A.D.1622.
20 Jac. 1.

And further to adviſe if it be not behoofful to putt in Execution our Laws and Statutes eſtabliſhed and contynuing in force, which enjoyn the Marchant Strangers, as well Denizens as not Denizens, to ymploy and beſtowe the Proceed of their Merchandize imported hither on the native Commodities of this Realme, to be exported by them, and by what means they may moſt fitly be done?

And to the end our Marchants may be encouraged and enabled to export the Cloth of our Kingdom, which they would doubtles perform more amply if they had better Advantages to make their Retornes uppon, we would have you to take into your conſideration, by what meanes to enlarge their Retornes, and with what ſorts of Merchandize? which may be moſt profitable for our Kingdom and to avoid thoſe things by which they are now ſtopped and prevented.

And becauſe our Merchants Tradeing into the Eaſtland Countries were wont to make good Retornes by Corn, which they have neglected of late to their own Hurt and the Hurt of the Kingdom, we would have you to conſider how to give them Encouragement in that Trade, and to do it ſo as our own Dominions may be ſupplied in tyme of Want, and yet in tyme of Plenty the Husbandry and Tillage of this Realm not to be diſcouraged?

Further, whereas our Eaſtland Marchants in former tymes did lade their Shipps with Hempe and Flax rough dreſſed in great Quantities, which did not onlie helpe them much in their Retornes, but did alſo ſet great Nombers of our People on work with dreſſing the ſame, and converting the ſame into Lynnen Cloth, which kind of Trade we underſtand is of late almoſt given over, by bringing in of Hemp and Flax ready dreſſed, and that for the moſt part by Strangers, we commend unto your care, by what meanes this hurtfull Error in Trade may be reformed, to the Help of our Marchants and the Releiſe of our poor Subjects.

And becauſe the Company of Marchants trading for the Eaſt Indies, have been much taxed by many for tranſporting the Coyne and Treaſure of this Realme to furniſh their Trade withall, or that which would otherwiſe wiſe have come in hither for the uſe of our Subjects, and that they do not retorne ſuch Merchandize from thence as doth recompence that Loſſe unto our Kingdome; we will and command, and by theiſe Preſents do authorize you, to enquire and ſearch whither that Company do juſtlie and trulie perform their Contract with us concerning the carrying out of Money? and to conſider by what meanes that Trade, which is ſpecious in ſhew, may really and truly be made profitable to the publique, without exhauſting the Treaſure of our Kingdome?

And becauſe we underſtand that a great Maſſe of Treaſure is yearly ſpent uppon Lynen Cloth, brought and bought from beyond the Seas at deare Rates, and for that it is conceived, if the fiſhing ſo much deſired by us be throughly undertaken, and our ſhiping increaſed, it will require much greater Proportion of Hempe for Cordage and other Uſes in the Craft or Myſterie of fiſhing, which would ſett an infinite nomber of our People on Work in preparing and making the ſame; we commend unto your Conſiderations the beſt waies how the ſowing of Hemp and Flax may be encouraged and undertaken within this Kingdom, whereby ſo much Good would redound unto us and our People?

And for that it is very fit to commend the wearing of the Cloth of our Kingdoms to other Nations by our own Example at home, we would have you to conſider by what meanes the Cloath and Stuffs made of the Wolls of theis our Kingdoms may be more frequentlie worne by our own Subjects? to what ſorts of People? to what Purpoſes? and in what manner it were fit the wearing thereof were enjoyned?

And generallie our Will and Command is, that with all Care and Diligence yee apply your ſelves to enform us and our Privie Councell, from tyme to tyme, of theis and all other things which in your Experiences, or out of your Jugements, ye finde or conceive may be a means to advance and quicken Trade, raiſe again the native Commodities of our Kingdom, encourage Traders Clothiers and the Wollgrowers and Manufactors, or to remove the Ympediments or Diſcouragements thereof, and to that purpoſe we hereby give you Power and Authoritie, to ſend for ſuch Perſons to attend you, and to have viewe of all Records and Writings, as you ſhall finde needfull for your better Information in any thing concerning this our Service.

In which your Traviles, or in the execution of this our Commiſſion, if any Complaints ſhall be preſented or offered unto you which concern the Intereſt or particular Grievance of any particular Perſons in points of Trades or Commerce, we will and require you to endeavour, by all good means, to mediate and perſuade with the Parties, as that ye may ſet a final End thereunto if ye can; or if ye ſhall find any wilfully ſtubborn or refractory, that you ſend both them and their Cauſes unto our Councill Board, there to be further ordered, that ſuch of our Subjects as ſhould intend their Trades be not delayed or diverted therefrom by unneceſſary Suits and unjuſt Vexations.

And our Pleaſure and Command is, That when, and as ſoon as ye ſhall maturely have conſidered and reſolved upon any material parts or points of theiſe our Inſtructions, that ye certifie the Body of our Privie Councell thereof from tyme to tyme, that by their Adviſes we may proceed to a preſent Reformation of the ſame as occaſion ſhall require, without the expectation of a total and abſolute Reformation of every part of theis our Inſtructions all at once, for that of neceſſitie muſt be the Worke and Labour of a long tyme, when tymely Redreſs may happily be given to ſome while others are in handling; And this our Commiſſion to ſtand and be in force until our Pleaſure be ſignified, under our Privie Seale or Great Seale, to determine and declare the ſame to be voyde.

Pat. 20. J. 1. p. 6. n. 21.

As it hath ever been held a principal Office of Chriſtian Kings to ſeek, by all pious meanes, the Advancement of Chriſtian Religion, ſoe the conſideration thereof hath bene a ſpeciall Motive unto us from tyme to tyme, as often as Cauſe hath required, to further by our Royall Authority the good Diſpoſition of any of our well affected Subjects that have a Will to attempt the Diſcovering and Planting in any parts of the World, as yet Savage, and unpoſſeſſed by the Subjects of any Chriſtian Prince or State; and nowe, for that, by God's ſacred Favor, there is likely to enſue great Advancement of his Glory, our Croune and State, by reaſon of our Graunt heretofore made to the Councell for the managing of the Affairs of New England in America, being in breadth from Forty Degrees of Northerlie Latitude from the Equinoctiall Lyne, to Forty eight Degrees of the ſaid Northerly Latitude, and in Length by all the Breadth aforeſaid throughout the main Land from Sea to Sea, we cannot but continue our eſpeciall Reſpect and Favor unto them in their Indeavors, and exerciſe our Royall Authority againſt the Hinderers thereof; wherefore having received certain Information of many and intollerable Abuſes offered by ſundrie Interlopers, irregular and diſobedient Perſons, that ſeeking principally their preſent and private Proffits, have not only impeached ſome of the Planters there of their lawful Poſſeſſions, but alſo taken from them their Tymber without giving any Satisfaction, as in Juſtice they ought to have done, and not therewith contented have ryned whole Woodes, to the utter Ruine of the ſame for ever after; as alſo, by caſting of their Ballaſt in the Harbors of ſome of their Iſlands, have almoſt made them unſerviceable; and yet not ſoe contented, by their promiſcuous Trading, as well Marriners as Maſters with the Savages, have overthroune the Trade and Commerce that before was had to the great Profit of the Planters, and which were indeed the principall Hopes for the Advancement of that Plantation, next unto the Commodities that Coaſt affords of Fiſhing, neither herewith ſatisfied, but as if they reſolved to omit nothing that might be impious and intollerable, they did not forbear to barter away to the Savages Swords, Pikes, Musketts, Fowling Peeces, Match, Powder, Shot, and other warlike Weapons, and teach them the uſe thereof, not only to their own preſent Puniſhment, divers of them being ſhortly after ſlaine by the ſame Savages whom they had ſoe taught, and with the ſame Weapons which they had furniſhed them withall, but alſo to the Hazard of the Lives of our good Subjects alreadie planted there, and, as much as in them laye, to the making of the whole Attempt it ſelfe, howe pious and hopefull ſoever, fruſtrate, or ſoe much the more difficult.

Wee for Reformation and Prevention of theis or the like Evils hereafter, and for the more cleare Declaration of our Kingly Reſolution and juſt Intents, both to maintain our Royall Grant alreadie made, and to uphould and encourage by all waies and meanes the worthy Diſpoſitions of the Undertakers of thoſe Deſigns, have thought fitt, and do hereby ſtraightlie charge and command, that none of our Subjects whatſoever, not Adventurers Inhabitors or Planters in New Eugland, preſume from henceforth to frequent thoſe Coaſtes, to trade or traffique with thoſe People, or to intermedle in the Woods or Freehould of any of the Plantors or Inhabitants, or otherwiſe then by the Licence of the ſaid Councell, or according to the Orders eſtabliſhed by our Privie Counſell, for the Relieſe or Eaſe of the Tranſportion of the Colonie in Virginia, uppon Paine of our high Indignation, and the Confiſcation Penalties and Forfeitures in our ſaid Royall Grant expreſſed; leaving it nevertheles in the mean tyme to the Diſcretion of the ſaid Councell for New

HIS MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTIE,

Taking into his Royall Conſideration that the Celebration of the Feaſt of Chriſtmas approacheth, and how needfull it is, eſpeciallie in this tyme of Scarſity and Dearth, to revive the ancient and laudable cuſtom of this Realme by Houskeeping and Hoſpitality, which in all Parts of this Realme is exceedingly decayed by the too frequent Reſort and ordinary Reſidence of Lords Spirituall and Temporal Knights and Gentlemen of Qualitie unto Cities and Towns, and chiefly unto or near about the Cities of London and Weſtmynſter, and willing to provide Remedie, as well for that as ſundrie other Inconveniencies which of neceſſitie muſt enſue by the Abſence of thoſe out of their Countries, upon whoſe Care a great and principall part of the ſubordinate Government of this Realme doth depend,

Doth hereby ſtrictly charge and command, as well all his Lords Spirituall and Temporall (except ſuch as are of his Privie Councell, or bear Office about the Perſon or Court of himſelf, or of his moſt dearly beloved Son the Prince) and likewiſe all Deputie Lievetenants and Juſtices of Peace and other Gentlemen of Quallitie, which have Manſion Houſes in the Countrie wherein they and their Families have uſually dwelt and aboade, that they and every of them, ymmediately upon the end of this preſent Moneth of November, depart from the Citties of London and Weſtminſter, and other Citties and Places, with their Families and Servants unto their ſeveral Countries to attend their Service there and keep Hoſpitalitie as appertayneth to their Degree and Calling, uppon Pain not only of his Majeſties heavy Indignation and Diſpleaſure; and Diſablement to hould any ſuch Places of Service or Truſt under his Majeſtie, but alſo of ſuch further Cenſure and Puniſhment as may be inflicted uppon them for ſuch their Diſobedience and Contempt or Neglect of this his Royal Commandement, whereof as his Majeſtie intendeth to take a ſtrict and ſevere Accompt, ſo he doth hereby requier and command, as well the Lords and others of his Privie Councell, as all other his Officers and Miniſters whom it ſhall any way concerne, to take order that all ſuch as ſhall offend may receive condign Puniſhment without Tolleration or Connivence.

A Proclamation for Relief of the Poor, and remedying the high Prices of Corne.

A.D. 1622. Ibid. n. 17.

THE King's most excellent Majestie, having taken Knowledge of the preſent Scarſity and Dearth, of the high Prices of Corne and Graine throughout all Parts of this Kingdom, hath been pleaſed, by his Proclamation lately publiſhed, to reſtrain the Reſidence of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall and of the Knights and Gentlemen of Quallitie, in and neer the Citties of London and Weſtminſter and other Citties and Townes, to return them unto their own Houſes and Habitations in their ſeverall Countries, that all Parts of the Kingdom might find the Fruits and feel the Comfort of their Hoſpitality and good Government, wherein as his Majeſtie is well pleaſed with the dutifull Obedience of great nombers, that according to his Royall Command have left the Citties of London and Weſtminſter and the Parts adjacent, ſo his Highnes hath great cauſe to condemn the obſtinacie of all ſuch as, in a time of ſuch general Conformitie, and againſt ſo many good Examples ſhall ſhewe themſelves refractorie to that his Royall Pleaſure grounded uppon important Reaſons of Juſtice and State, and therefore his Majeſtie doth eftſoones admoniſh them ſpeedily to ſubmitt themſelves to that his Royall Proclamation, or els to expect the Severitie of his Juſtice for their willful Contempt, and this his Majeſtie declares to be extended, as well unto ſuch as have repaired or ſhall repaire from their ordinarie Dwellings in the Countrie unto their Citties and Townes, as unto the Citties of London and Weſtminſter, and as well unto Widowes as Men of Qualitie and Eſtate, and to be contynued not only during the tyme of Chriſtmas now inſtant, but in that and all other tymes and ſeaſons of this and other Years untill his Majeſty declare his Pleaſure otherwiſe; his Majeſty intending to contynue this courſe hereafter for the generall Good of his People, yet allowing that Libertie which alwaies hath bene in Termes and otherwiſe to repair to London about their neceſſarie Occaſions, but not to remove their Wives and Families from their ordinarie Habitations in the Countrie, an Innovation and Abuſe latelie crept in and grown frequent.

And although his Majeſtie is perſuaded that by this way of reviving the laudable and ancient Houſekeeping of this Realme, the Poore and ſuch as are moſt pinched in tymes of Scarcity and Want, will be much relieved and comforted, yet that nothing may be omitted omitted that may tend to their Succour and Help, his Highnes in his Gracious and Princelie Care and Providence, hath cauſed certaine politique and good Orders heretofore made upon like occaſion to be reviewed and publiſhed; intituled, Orders appointed by his Majeſtie &c. By which the Juſtices of Peace in all Parts of the Realm are directed to ſtay all Ingroſſers Foreſtallors and Regrators of Corne, and to direct all Owners and Farmors, having Corn to ſpare, to furniſh the Markets rateablie and weeklie with ſuch Quantities as reaſonably they may and ought to do, and ſome one or more of them to be preſent in the Market according to the Orders, and to ſee divers other Articles obſerved and performed tending to the prevention and remedie of this Inconvenience.

Nevertheles becauſe his Majeſty doth well know, that the Life of theis his gracious godly and pollitique Conſtitutions dependeth upon the carefull and diligent Execution of the ſame, his Highnes doth therefore, by this his Proclamation, ſtraightly charge and command all Sheriffs, Juſtices of Peace, Mayors, Bayliffs, and other his Officers and Subjects whatſoever, that they take knowledge of the ſaid Orders, and obſerve and cauſe the ſame to be obſerved as ſhall appertain unto them, and that they uſe all poſſible indeavor, by execution of the aforeſaid Orders, and of the good and wholſome Lawes in that behalfe, and by all other good meanes, that the Markets may be ſupplied with plenty of Corn and at reaſonable Prices, and the Poor ſet on work and relieved; his Majeſtie declaring that, amongſt other Services which he expecteth from thoſe Perſons of Qualitie, who either before were, or upon this and his late Proclamation ſhall reſide in the Countrie, this before remembred is one of eſpecial Importance, and withall his Majeſtie having thus carefully provided for Relief of his poor ſort of Subjects, doth declaire and ſtrictly chardge and command that, if any under pretence of Povertie and Want ſhall leave their ordinarie Labor, or aſſemble together in unfit manner, or otherwiſe inſolently behave themſelves, that they be corrected and puniſhed according to their Demerits.

John Lord Biſhop of Lincolne Lord Keeper of our Greate Seale of England,
To our right truſtie and right welbeloved Cozens and Councellors, Lionell Earle of Middleſex our High Treaſorer of England,
And Henry Viſcount Maundevill Lord Preſident of our Councell,
And to our truſtie and right welbeloved Counſellor,
Sir John Suckling Knight Comptroller of our Houſhold,
And to our truſty and welbeloved,
Sir Thomas Coventrie Knight our Attorney General,
Sir Robert Heath Knight our Solicitor General,
Sir John Brooke Knight,
Sir Thomas Fowler Knight,
Sir Thomas Grymes Knight,
Sir George Paule Knight,
Sir Henry Spiller Knight,
Thomas Fanſhawe Eſquier,
Robert Tichborne,
And Robert Seyliard Gentlemen,
Greeting.

Whereas we have bene informed by the humble Petition of our good and loving Subjects the Citizens of our Cittie of London, that many good Laws and Statutes have been heretofore providently made and enacted att ſeverall tymes in the Raigns of divers of our Predeceſſors, Kinges of this our Realme of England, which yet ſtand in force, tending to this end, that Aliens and Straungers borne, reſorting hither and reſideing here, might be kindly demeaned as the Law of Nations requireth, and yet ſhould be ruled and regulated within ſuch moderate Bounds as that the naturall born Subjects might not thereby be prejudiced or diſcouraged, and eſpeciallie that the uſe of Handicrafts and Manufactures, and the libertie to ſell by Retaile and not in Groſs, might not be communicated to Straungers, which have bene ever eſpeciallie reſtrayned to the naturall borne Subjects, thereby to ſet them on work and imploy them in honeſt and profitable Labors and Sciences.

A.D.1622.
20 Jac. 1.

And whereas we have with much importunitie bene often ſolicited to take thoſe Laws and Statutes into our Princelie Conſideration, together with the great Prejudice which our naturall borne Subjects ſuſteyne by the neglect of the due Execution of them;

And wee,

Findeing that, in all the particulers prohibited by thoſe Lawes, the Straungers uſe much more Libertie then is allowed unto them by the Laws and Statuts of this our Realme, eſpeciallie in their uſing and exerciſing of Handicrafts and Manuall Trades, and in ſelling by Retaile, which is not allowed to our People reſideing as Strangers in forraine Parts, whereby our naturall born Subjects are diſcouraged and the Straungers inriched,

Have thought fitt to enter into a ſerious Conſideration of theis thinges being bound by our Regall Office in the firſt Place to be vigilant and carefull of the Wellfare and proſperous Eſtate of our own People, and yet with that reſpect towards the Straungers ſetled in this our Realme, as that they may continue in their honeſt Employments, as in a ſecond degree with Comfort and Protection,

Whereuppon we have att the laſt reſolved to ſettle ſuch a courſe between our owne naturall born Subjects and the Strangers born, not onelie in and about our ſaid Cittie of London, but alſo in all other Citties Towns and Places within this our Realme of England, for an Uniformity in all as may beſt ſtand with the fitt and convenient Enterteynment of the Straungers, and yet with the Good and Contentment of our own People:

And to that end and purpoſe Wee have heretofore, by our Commiſſion under our Greate Seale of England, bearing Date the fowerth day of Auguſt in the nyneteenth Yeare of our Raign of England, given Authority and Commaundement to you our ſaid Lord Keeper, Lord Treaſurer, Lord Preſident of our Councell, Sir John Suckling Knight, our Attorney and Sollicitor Generall, and others, to take ſerious Conſideration of the ſaid Lawes and Statutes touching Straungers borne, and to treat with the Straungers reſideing in our ſaid Realme; and either to drawe them into a Conformitie to our ſaid Lawes, if they ſhould deſier to continue their Habitations and Commorances amongſt Us, or att leaſt ſoe to moderate them as might ſtand beſt with their Conveniencies, the preſent State of the Tymes, and the Good and Welfare of our owne People:

A.D. 1622.
20 Jac. 1.

After the graunting of which our Commiſſion, our ſaid Commiſſioners have taken great Care and Paines in the Execution of our ſaid Service, and gave unto Us a good Account of their Endeavours therein, and our naturall borne Subjects now reſt in expectation of ſome good Succeſſe of our Princely Care for their good, and yet the Straungers themſelves may diſcerne our gracious inclination towards them to be ſuch as may rather give them (whoe are ſetled here already) good Aſſurance of our conſtant Reſolution to confirm their Peace, then cauſe of fear that they ſhould be diſturbed in their induſtrious and ſedulous Courſes, whereof we wiſh our own People would take Enſample.

Wherefore we, being deſirous to perfect that Work which we have thus begun, and to do it ſo as may beſt advance our own Honor and the Good of our People, which are the endes we have herein propoſed; and withall to preſcribe ſuch Directions to our Commiſſioners as may beſt guide their Judgments with leaſt trouble either to our ſelves or to them, but upon Occaſions of conſequence and importance,

Our Will and Pleaſure firſt is, and we do hereby declare that our former Commiſſion bearing Date the ſaid fowerth Day of Auguſt in the nyneteenth Yeare of our Raigne of England, ſhall from henceforth be utterlie revoked and determyned.

And further we, repoſing aſſured Confidence in your Wiſdomes and good Diſcretions, have authorized and appointed, and by theis Preſents doe authorize and appoint you the ſaid Lord Keeper of our Greate Seale of England, our High Treaſurer of England, the Preſident of our Councell, Sir John Suckling Knight, our Attorney and Solicitor Generall, Sir John Brooke, Sir Thomas Fowler, Sir Thomas Grymes, Sir George Paule and Sir Henry Spiller Knights, Thomas Fanſhawe Eſquier, Robert Titchborne and Robert Seyliard, or any three of you, to be our Commiſſioners from tyme to tyme to doe and perform our Will and Pleaſure in the due Execution of this our Service.

And firſt our Will and Pleaſure is, that by all good waies and meanes as ye in your Wiſdoms ſhall think fitteſt, ye ye ſhall once in everie year collect and cauſe a true Survey to be taken in Writeing of the Names, Quallityes and Profeſſions and places of Habitation of all ſuch Straungers borne, Denizen or not Denizen, as now are or from tyme to tyme hereafter ſhall be reſideing in England, and alſoe of all ſuch as have bene or ſhall be borne in England of Parents Straungers, and uſe either the Trade of Merchaundize or any other retailing manuall or handicraft Trade, ſuch only excepted which were borne in our Realme of Scotland before our Acceſs to the Crowne of England.

Further our Will and Pleaſure is, that ſuch Strangers borne as uſe the Feate or Trade of Merchaundize for Importation and Exportation of Commodities or Merchandize, and do not ſell by Retail, nor imploy themſelves in buying and ſelling of the native Commodities of this Kingdome, may notwithſtanding this our Commiſſion contynue and enjoy ſuch Liberties and Freedomes as formerlie they have enjoyed by the Permiſſion of Us and our Predeceſſors; onely wee will that everie ſuch Marchant ſhall pay to our uſe ſuch annuall acknowledgment by way of Quarterage, as by a Scedule under our hand we ſhall direct; or if we ſhall make noe ſuch direction, then they ſhall pay ſuch acknowledgment as our Commiſſioners, or three of them, ſhall ſett down under their handes, that ſoe it may appeare they enjoy this Freedome not by right but of our meer Grace and Favor.

Further our Will and Pleaſure is, that noe Straunger borne, or borne in England of Parents Straungers whoe have not trulie bene bound as Apprentices by Indenture for ſeaven yeares att the leaſt, and trulie ſerved their Apprenticehoods, ſhall hereafter utter or ſell any Wares or Merchandize by Retail but in Groſſe only, nor ſhall ſell in Groſſe at Faires or Marketts out of the Citie or Towne where they dwell; and that all ſuch as now uſe any retayling Trade ſhall, within ſuch convenient tyme as our ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall think fitt, alter that their Courſe of Trade which doth ſoe aparantlie tend to the Depauperation of the Engliſh Shopkeepers who have bene Apprentices to their ſeverall Trades, as our Law requires.

And further our Will and Pleaſure is, that ſuch Straungers borne as are alreadie ſettled and have Families in or about our Cittie of London, or in any other Cittie Towne or Place of our Realme of England, and uſe any manuall Trade or Handicraft, or the making of the new Draperies of the Woolls or mixt with the Woolls of our Kingdome, and ſhall deſier to contynue their Abiding and Commorances here, may quietlie ſo abide and contynue under theſe conditions and cautions following, which may give Satisfaction to our own People that we putt a difference betweene them and Straungers, and may alſo aſſure the Straungers that our Proceedings againſt any of them are and ſhall be upon juſt and honorable groundes, and yet with moderation and favor; which Conditions and Cautions ſhall be theis following.

Firſt, that every of them reſpectively putt themſelves under our Royall Protection; that whereas by the Laws of this Realme they ought not to work at all or uſe ſuch Trades but as Servaunts to the Engliſh, they now inroll themſelves as Servants to our ſelves our Heires and Succeſſors, whereby they may by Law be freed and diſchardged from the Daunger and Penaltie of our Lawes which otherwiſe they are ſubject unto:

And further our Will and Pleaſure is, that everie ſuch Straunger born, Denizen or not Denizen, or others born of Parents Straungers, and not haveing ſerved their Apprenticehoods as aforeſaid, who either uſe any manuall or handicraft Trade or the buying or ſelling of the home Commodities of our Kingdome, ſhall pay to our uſe as a thankfull acknowledgment of our Royal Favor, ſuch Rates and Payments out of their Earnings or Gains to be diſtributed and diſpoſed of for the Eaſe and Comfort of our own People as wee ſhall think fitt, as ſhall be directed by a Scedule to be ſubſcribed by our own hand, or in Default thereof ſuch Rates and Payments as our ſaid Commiſſioners under their hands, or under the hands of three of them, ſhall ſett downe, whereby our naturall born Subjects may diſcerne that we put a proportionable difference betweene them and the Straungers, ſufficient to give them Encouragement if their own want of Induſtry or honeſt Workmanſhip be not the Impediment.

Nevertheles our Pleaſure and Commaund is, that this Favor which we ſhall thus vouchſafe to extend to ſuch Strangers who have ſetled themſelves and

and their Families in this our Realme already, or to ſuch who by their Service according to our Lawes ſhall hereafter deſerve the like favor, ſhall not draw hither or contynue here any increaſing nomber of maſterleſs Men of handicraft Trades to the extreame hurt both of Engliſhe and Straungers, but that ſuch either ſpeedilie retorne into their own Countries, or putt themſelves to work as hired Servaunts according to the true meaning of our Lawes, or els ſhall undergo the Severity of our Laws provided and in force againſt them.

Yet, for the encouragement of all Straungers to bring new and profitable Trades or Manufactures into uſe or practiſe here, which were not before uſed by any of our own naturall born Subjects, or to inſtruct our owne People therein, our Will and Pleaſure and Commaund is, that everie ſuch Straunger who ſhall bring in any new and profitable Trade, and ſhall inſtruct any of our naturall born Subjects therein, whoe were not of Parents Straungers, but are meere Engliſh, ſhall and may freelie and without any reſtraint uſe ſuch newe Trade for the ſpace of tenne yeares after their firſt coming into this Realme.

And further our Will and Commaund is, that all ſuch Strangers born or others born of Parents Straungers, which ſhall be thus allowed to contynue the uſe of any Trade within this our Realme, ſhall ſubmitt themſelves to ſuch Government and Orders in the ſeverall Trades which they doe, or ſhall uſe or profeſſe, as our own naturall born Subjects uſeing the ſame Trades do ſubmit themſelves unto, and that none of them ſhall retain or keep any greater nomber of Servaunts or Apprentices then the naturall borne Subjects uſing the like Trades doe reteyne and keep; and that noe Stranger borne doe at any one tyme retain or keepe above the nomber of two Jorneymen being Straungers borne.

And further, that noe Straunger borne, Denizen or not Denizen, ſhall reteine any Apprentice in any other manner then by Indenture or for leſſer tyme than for ſeaven yeares at the leaſt;

And that noe Straunger borne, or Sonne of a Straunger borne, ſhall uſe any Trade within this Realme whereto he hath not ſerved as an Apprentice for ſeaven yeares by Indenture as the naturall borne Subjects by the Lawes of this Kingdome muſt ſerve; wherein if any ſhall offend he ſhall be eſteemed to be in the ſame degree as if hee were a meer Straunger borne:

A.D.1622. 21 Jac. 1.

Notwithſtanding our Will and Pleaſure is, that unto ſuch of the French Nation, whoe by reaſon of the late Troubles in that Kingdome have had their Refuge hither, there ſhall be ſhewed ſuch favor beyond the proportion of other Straungers as our Commiſſioners ſhall thinke fitt, if within a convenient tyme after thoſe Troubles ſhall be overblowne they ſhall retorne into their own Countrey again.

And further our Will and Pleaſure is, that if any Straunger borne, Denizen or not Denizen, or anie borne in this Realme of Parents Straungers, whoe have not ſerved their Apprenticehoods according to the Lawe, which now is, or hereafter ſhall be, a Member of the Dutch or French Church within our Cittie of London, or any other Cittie or Town within this our Realme of England, where a Church is allowed unto them for their Aſſemblies, ſhall ſo miſgovern or miſcarrie him or herſelfe, as that the Miniſter and Elders of that Church, whereof he or ſhe is a Member, or the greateſt number of them, ſhall make Complaint in Writeing unto our ſaid Commiſſioners, that then in everie ſuch caſe, everie ſuch Refractorie Perſon ſo complained of, ſhall from thenceforth be left open to the Daunger of the Lawes and Informations thereupon for uſeing ſuch Trades and Imployments within this Kingdome as if this our favor had never bene extended unto them, untill ſuch Perſons, ſoe complained of, ſhall again conform him or herſelfe, and ſuch Conformitie ſhall be certefied unto our Commiſſioners by the Miniſter and Elders of that Church whereof he or ſhe is a Member or the greater Nomber of them.

And laſtlie our Will and Pleaſure is, that we doe hereby for Us our Heires and Succeſſors grant and commaund, that noe Information or Indictment or other legall Proceeding ſhall be had or proſecuted, for or concerning any thing in and by theis Preſents mentioned or intended to be tollerated as aforeſaid, againſt any Straunger borne, or other Perſon before mentioned, who ſhall ſubmit and conform him or her ſelf to theis our Directions, for ſo long tyme as they ſhall contynue in ſuch Conformitie, and that the Certificate of our

A.D.1622. 20 Jac. 1. ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three of them (whereof our Attorney or Solicitor General to be one) ſubſcribed with their handes ſhal be a ſufficient Warraunt in that behalfe; whereof we will and commaund all our Judges Juſtices Sheriffs Mayors Bayliffs and all other our Officers and Miniſters to take notice; but againſt all ſuch Perſons whoe, by not ſubmitting themſelves to our Pleaſure herein declared and publiſhed for the encouragement of our People and the furtherance of Trade, ſhall neglect our Grace and Favor extended to them: And againſt all ſuch, whether Engliſh or Straungers whoe ſhall coulorablie or deceiptfullie uſe the name of any other, or ſuffer their names to be uſed in buying ſelling or other tradeing to evade from theis our Directions, our Will and Commaund is, that our Attorney Generall that now is and for the tyme ſhal be, upon ſignification to be thereof made unto him in Writeing under the handes of three of our Commiſſioners, ſhall forthwith and from tyme to tyme proceed by Information or otherwiſe according to the Rigor of our Lawes.

And becauſe we are given to underſtand, that many in our Cittie of London have caſt a Doubt, beyond our Expectation, whether the proceeding upon this our Commiſſion may not be extended to the Prejudice of the Libertie of our ſaid Cittie contrarie to our Intention; and that ſome Straungers have alſoe claymed the Priviledge of former Favors heretofore graunted unto them, which were but temporarie untill our Pleaſure ſhould be otherwiſe ſignified, becauſe we are reſolved to have the Work be equall and indifferent throughout all our Kingdome, and would alſoe have no Scruple remaine to any of our own People, our Will and Commaund is that not onlie the Maior of our ſaid Citty of London, and the Officers thereof, but alſo the Mayors of our Citties of Canterburie and Norwich, the Bayliffs of our Towne of Colcheſter, the Mayor and Jurats of our Town of Sandwich, and all other the Mayors Bailiffs and other Officers of any other of our Citties or Townes nowe being or which hereafter ſhall be, where any Straungers born now do or hereafter ſhall inhabite dwell or abide, ſhall take knowledge of our Pleaſure in this behalfe, and applie themſelves to obſerve and performe the ſame in all things: Nevertheles it is our expreſſe Will and Commaund that this our Commiſſion or any thing therein conteyned, nor the Execution thereof, which is intended by us for the Comfort and Encouragement of our naturall borne Subjects, and eſpeciallie of our Citizens of our Citie of London, ſhall not in any wiſe tend nor be conſtrued or extended to the Prejudice of our ſaid Citie, or the Freedom of the ſaid City, or the infringing of any the Liberties of the ſaid Citie, or of any Charter Cuſtom Act Ordinance Power Juriſdiction or Authoritie which the Mayor and Cominaltie and Citizens of our ſaid Citie, or any Guild Company or Fraternitie of or within the ſaid Citie, have do or may lawfullie uſe exerciſe or challendge; but that they the ſaid Mayor and Comminaltie and Citizens, and the ſaid Guilds Companies or Fraternities may doe uſe and exerciſe all and everie ſuch Acte and Acts, Thing and Things, as they might have done if theis our preſent Letters Patents had not bene made.

ALSOE it is agreed that this Bargain ſhall begin from the firſte Day of Januarie now laſt paſt, and ſhall continue until there ſhall be twelve Months notice given in Writing to the contrarie, either to them the ſaid Sir Allen Appſley and Sir Sampſon Darrell by the Lord Highe Treaſurer of England, in the behalf of his Majeſtie, for the tyme being, uppon the falling of the Prices of Victualls, or els take notice to be given by the ſaid Sir Allen Apſley and Sir Sampſon Darrell unto the ſaid Lord Treaſurer uppon the increaſing of the Prices of Victualls; and, uppon ſuch notice given uppon either part, the ſaid Bargain to be void, and from that time forwards the ſaid Sir Allen Apſley and Sir Sampſon Darrell to ſerve againe by vertue of his Majeſtie's Commiſſion upon Accompt or otherwiſe in ſuch ſort as it ſhall beſt pleaſe his Majeſtie.

Alsoe it is agreed that the ſaid Sir Allen Appſley and Sir Sampſon Darrell ſhall uppon the Determination of everie Years Accoumpt, pay into his Majeſties Receipte of the Exchequer at Weſtminſter, all ſuch Sommes of Monie as ſhall fall out due upon them, and if upon anie Accompte, from the laſt Day of December nowe laſt paſt, there ſhall remaine a Surpluſage to them, the Commiſſioners for the exerciſe of the Office of the Lord Treaſurer of England, or the Lord Treaſurer and Undertreaſurer of the Exchequer for the time being, ſhall give preſent Order that the ſaid Surpluſage ſhall be paid and anſwered to the ſaid Sir Allen Appſley and Sir Sampſon Darrell and their Aſſigns, without anie further Warrant to be had and obtained in that behalf.

Alsoe it is agreed, that in caſe the ſaid Sir Allen Apſley and Sir Sampſon Darrell, ſhall by order of the ſaid Lord Admirall or other the head Officers of the Navie aforeſaid, or anie twoe of them, for the tyme being, provyde for anie Service anie great Quantity of Beere or other Proviſions, which ſhall not be expended by reaſon of the ſuddaine Diſchardge of the Mariners or otherwiſe, that then the Loſs which ſhall growe, as well in the ſaid Beere or other Proviſions, as alſoe in the Caske Cowperage and Tranſportation thereof, if anie be, ſhall be borne by the ſaid Sir Allen Appſley and Sir Sampſon Darrell, but if the Proviſions that ſhall be ſoe made be to ſerve above five hundred Men three Months, upon the Approvement thereof by the Certificate of twoe of the Principall Officers of the Navie for the tyme being, or uppon the Oath of the ſaid Sir Allen Appſley or Sir Sampſon Darrell, the ſaid Sir Allen Appſley and Sir Sampſon Darrell ſhall have Allowance of the Loſſe from his Majeſty uppon their Accompt of all the Surpluſage that ſhall be for anie nomber above the ſaid five hundred Men three Months, and if it ſhall be thought meete uppon like good Teſtimonie of the ſaid Officers for the tyme being, that anie Part of the Victualls provided, whereof Loſs mighte growe, cannot convenientlie in anie reaſonable tyme be expended in Harborough, or otherwiſe ſould without Loſs, that then the Commiſſioners for the Office of the Lord Treaſurer of England for the tyme being, ſhall Licence the ſame to be tranſported beyond the Seas there to be ſould and uttered for the avoyding of his that Proviſion, and alſo they the better enabled to ſerve and perform the Covenants and Agreements in theis Preſents mentioned.

Forasmuch as the ſaid Surveyors are to bear the Overprices Waſts and Loſſes of Victuall and all Charges incident thereunto, his Majeſtie doth covenant and agree that they ſhall have one Servant or Deputy if they thinke good in each Ship that his Majeſtie ſendeth out unto the Seas, to be entred by the Clarke of the Checque into Victuals or Wages as one of the Ships Company, and ſhall be well uſed and intreated, to the end he may ſee the orderly ſtowage and expending of the Proviſions of Victuals, and witneſs ſuch Loſſes and Waſts as fall out at Sea; as alſoe, if uppon anie contrarie Winde or other occaſions the Ships be inforced to ſtaie out anie longer time then the firſt Appointment, the ſaid Perſon to make Proviſion of Victuals in ſuch Places and Ports as they ſhall happen unto, that the Ships be not diſtreſſed, nor his Majeſtie defrauded in demanding anie other Rates or Surchardge of Price of Victuals as heretofore in like caſes hath bin uſual.

And foraſmuch as the ſaid Surveyors do run a great Hazard to free his Majeſty of all Overprices Loſſes Waſts and Charges of Victuals, as in this Contract is before ſpecified, his Majeſtie's Pleaſure is, that the Captaines and Maſters of Ships do look unto the governing and well ordring of the Ships Companie, and to ſee to have the full Number; And his Majeſtie dothe covenant and agree that neither they, nor anie others, ſhall intrude or medle with victualling the Ships Companie; and, if they do, the ſaid Surveyors ſhall not be inforced to make Payment for the ſame, but it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Surveyors to uſe ſuch knowen ſufficient and honeſt Men of the Purſers or Stewards, in making anie ſupplie of the Proviſion of Victuall for the ſaid Ships as they might their own Servants; provided that if the ſaid Purſers or Stewards, ſo truſted or imployed, doe ſhorten the Saylors of their due and accuſtomed Allowances, or impoſe upon them anie unwholſome or corrupt Victuals, that then, upon good Proof thereof, the Lord Admirall ſhall forthwith diſcharge them of their Places, and inflict ſuch further Puniſhment upon them as he ſhall think meete for the Advauncement of his Majeſtie's Service.

Lastly, our ſaid Soveraigne Lord the Kinges Majeſty doth ſignifye it to be his Majeſtie's Pleaſure, that the ſaid Sir Allen Apſley and Sir Sampſon Darrell ſhall continue and enjoy during their Lyves the Names Places and Rooms and Offices of Generall Surveyors of the Victuals for his Majeſtie's Navie, according to his Majeſtie's Letters Patents, and to have the Fees Diets and Allowances during their ſaid Lyves from tyme to tyme as is contayned in the ſaid Letters Patents, in ſuch ſorte and manner as they now have the ſame out of the Receipte of the Exchequer, any thing in this Contract to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

In witnes whereof, to the one part of this Indenture, remayning with the ſaid Sir Allen Appſley and Sir Sampſon Darrell our ſaid Soveraigne Lord the King's Majeſtie, hath cauſed the Great Seal of England to be put, and to the other part of this Indenture, remayning with our ſaid Soveraigne Lord the Kinge in his Majeſtie's Treaſurie of the Exchequer, the ſaid Sir Allen Apſley and Sir Sampſon Darrell have put their Hands and Seales, the Day and Year firſt above written.

Proclamatio contra Mactationem & Comeſſationem Carnium tempore Quadrageſimali.

A Proclamation for reſtraint of killing dreſſing and eating of Fleſh in Lent or on Fiſh Dayes appoynted by the Lawe to be hereafter ſtrictly obſerved by all ſorts of People.

A.D. 1623. Pat. 20. J. 1. p. 16. n. 16. WHEREAS, for the Benefitt and Commoditie of this our Realme of England, as well in the Maintenance of our Navie and Shipping, a principall Strength of this Iſland, as for the ſparing and increaſe of freſh Victualls, divers good Lawes and Statutes have been provided for the due obſervation of Lent and other Dayes appointed for Fiſh Dayes, which from tyme to tyme have been ſeconded and quickned by ſondrie our Proclamations and other Acts and Ordinances of State,

And whereas, notwithſtanding the many good Proviſions heretofore had and made in that kind, wee yet find the inordinate Libertie now uſuallie taken by all ſorts of People to kill dreſs and eat Fleſh in the Lent Seaſon, and on other Dayes and Tymes prohibited by Lawe, is become an Evill of ſuch inveterate Growth, as it requireth more than ordinarie Care to ſuppreſſe the ſame.

Wee therefore, much affecting the Reformation of this ſo great an Evill and Enemie to the Plenty of our Kingdomes, have thought fit eſtſoones and that thus tymely the better to take away the Excuſe, and prevent the Proviſions of Fleſh that uſually Men make againſt the Lent Seaſon, to expreſſe our ſelf and our Royall Commandement in this behalfe, wherein without any future Declaration of our Pleaſure in this kinde, we ſhall expect and requier from all our Subjects that due nottice be taken, and that a ſtrict and contynued Obedience and Conformitie be yeilded thereunto in all ſucceeding tymes.

And therefore we do ſtraightly chardge and command all and everie Perſon and Perſons whatſoever to whom it may appertaine, carefully to provide and ſee that theis orders following may be duly obſerved and putt in Execution, uppon Paine of our high Diſpleaſure, and ſuch Penalties as by the Lawes of this our Realme may be inflicted uppon the Offendors for their Contempt or Neglect of Us and our Lawes, whereof wee ſhall ſhew our ſelves moſt ſenſible.

And firſt whereas we find that the chiefeſt cauſe of theis Diſorders hath grown from the Licences that hath been graunted to Butchers to kill and utter Fleſh contrarie to Lawe, and that by our Lawes noe Mayor Juſtice of Peas or other Perſon of what Degree or Qualitie ſoever, can grant any Licence in this kind, and that the Lordes and others of our Privie Councell doe by our Direction forbear to grant the ſame, or to give way thereto, our Will and Pleaſure is, upon the Penalties

Penalties provided by Lawe, and ſuch further Puniſhment to be inflicted upon the Offendors as ſhall be thought meete, that noe ſuch Licence ſhall be granted for the killing or uttering of Fleſh; And that noe Butcher or other Perſon whatſoever, do by coulor thereof kill utter or put to ſale any Fleſh contrarie to the Lawes eſtabliſhed and provided in that behalfe;

And for the avoyding of ſuch Inconveniences hereafter our Will and Pleaſure is, that the Lord Maior of our Citie of London, and everie other Officer and Juſtice of Peace, ſhall call before them and ſend for any the Servaunts of any Innholders Victuallers Cooks Alehouſekeepers Taverners and Keepers of Ordinarie Tables, and ſuch others that utter Victualls, and to examine them upon their corporal Oaths what Fleſh is, or hath been, during the Lent Seaſon, or other Days prohibited by the Lawe, dreſſed killed uttered or eaten in their Houſes, which if they ſhall refuſe to do, then to commit to Priſon the ſaid Servaunts ſo refuſing upon their Oaths to declare the Truth.

That the Lord Mayor ſhall alſo yearly before Lent, or at the begining thereof, cauſe all Inholders Keepers of Ordinarie Tables, Victuallers Alehouſekeepers and Taverners, within the Citie and Liberties thereof, to appear before him, or ſuch Perſon as he ſhall appoint meete for that purpoſe, and ſhall take Recognizances with ſufficient Suerties of everie of them in good Sommes of Money; videlicet, One hundred Pounds of the Principalls, and their Suerties Thirtie Pounds a piece, to our uſe, not to dreſſe any Fleſh in their Houſes in the Lent tyme, or at any other tymes prohibited for any reſpect, nor ſuffer it to be eaten contrarie to the Lawe.

The like Recognizance with Suerties ſhall be taken of the like Partners upon like Penalties by the Juſtices of Peace of our City of Weſtminſter and the Liberties thereof, and everie of our ſaid Recognizances to be certified into our Exchequer.

And for the Butchers and others that come with Victualls of Fleſh out of the Countrie to the Citie, our Pleaſure is, that the Lord Mayor ſhall cauſe certain Perſons to watch at the Gates and other like Places in the Suburbes where Fleſh may be brought, to view and ſearch and to intercept the ſame; and if any of thoſe Watchmen ſhall be found negligent and corrupt in his Chardge, then he is to be committed to Priſon during the whole Lent.

And to the end that Fiſhermen may imploy themſelves to Sea with better Encouragement then heretofore, and that the Fiſhmongers may furniſh themſelves with ſuch Store from tyme to tyme hereafter as ſhall be expedient, as well for the Proviſion of the Cittye as for ſelling the ſame at reaſonable Rates, we will that they take notice of this our Commandement and conſtant Reſolution for the Obſervation of Lent and Fiſh Dayes both now and hereafter as by Law is required.

And furthermore as we think it fit that everie Man ſhould be a Rule of Order and Abſtinence in his own Houſe, as well in reſpect of the publique as of his private Eaſe and Benefit, ſo we ſtraightly chardge and command all Innholders, Keepers of Ordinarie Tables, Victuallers, Alehouſekeepers and Taverners not to make any Supper for any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever upon Friday Nights, either in Lent or out of Lent, nor to ſuffer any Meat to be then dreſſed uttered ſould or eaten in their Houſes upon paine of ſuch Puniſhment as is due to thoſe that ſhall contemne our Royall Pleaſure and Commandement.

And foraſmuch as, upon further Adviſe and Conſideration had, that the reſtraint of killing and dreſſing of Fleſh is no ſufficient Remedie for the Miſchief, unles there be better Care taken alſo to ſuppreſs the unlawfull and inordinate eating of Fleſh in tyme of Lent, and on other Dayes prohibited, wherewith our Subjects have accuſtomed themſelves rather for Delicacy then for Neceſſity; It is therefore our Royall Will and Pleaſure, and accordingly Wee doe hereby ſtraightly prohibite and forbid all our Subjects of what Degree or Qualitie ſoever within this our Realme, to eat any manner of Fleſh in the tyme of Lent or on other Dayes now uſually obſerved as Fiſh Dayes, without a ſpecial Licence firſt obteyned from the Biſhop of the Dioces, or ſuch other as by the Lawe have Power to give Licence in that behalfe, which we will and command ſhall be ſparingly granted and in caſes of Neceſſitie only, upon pain of our high Diſpleaſure, and to be proceeded againſt by our Attorney Generall in our Court of Starchamber as Contemners of our Royall Commandement, and upon ſuch further Penalties as by the Laws

Laws and Statutes of our Realme may be inflicted on thoſe as ſhall wilfully offend in this kind.

And as theſe Orders are to be executed in the City of London and Places neere the ſame, ſoe is our expreſſe Pleaſure and Commandement that our Juſtices of Peace in all Shires within their Rule, and all other Mayors, Bayliffs and Cheife Officers in Towns Corporate, or in any Liberties within their Precincts, ſhall cauſe the ſame to be obſerved and performed in like manner, and that noe manner of Tolleration Favour or Connivency be uſed by any Juſtice of Peace or other Officers contrarie to the true meaning of this our Proclamation, as both they that ſhall preſume wittingly ſoe to tollerate the Offence, as alſo the Partie himſelf offending, will anſwere the ſame at their uttermoſt Perils, our Commandment being that our Laws in this caſe ſhall be hereafter ſeverely executed upon all Offendors whatſoever.

Further charging and commanding the Lord Mayor of our City of London, the Juſtices of Aſſiſe in their ſeveral Circuits, the Mayors and Cheif Officers of all other Cities and Towns Corporate, Juſtices of Peace, Lords of Liberties, and all other Officers and Miniſters within the ſeveral Counties of this our Realm, that they and everie of them fully obey this our Pleaſure, and cauſe and compel the ſame to be obeyed and executed by others as they will anſwere the contrarie at their uttermoſt Perills.

And for the due Execution of the Premiſſes in all other the Counties of this our Realme, as well as in our Citties of London and Weſtminſter wee doe hereby ſtraightlie chardge and commaund all our Juſtices of Peace within the ſame Counties, as well within Liberties as without, that yearly everie yeare hereafter before Lent, they cauſe to come and appeare before them all Inhoulders Cookes Taverners Alehouſekeepers Butchers and other Victuallers whatſoever, and to requier and take of them to our uſe, ſeverall Recognizances with Suerties for obſervation of the Premiſſes; videlicet, the Principall in ten Pounds, and their two Suerties in five Pounds a peece and if they ſhall refuſe or neglect to enter into ſuch Recognizances, that then the ſaid Juſtices ſhall ſuppreſſe ſuch Perſons ſo refuſing from victualling any more, and ſhall alſo cauſe them forthwith to become bound by Recognizance with Suerties to our uſe; videlicet, the Principalls in twenty Poundes and their Suerties in ten Pounds a peece, not to victuall or ſell Beere or Ale from thenceforth, which if they ſhall refuſe to do, then the ſaid Juſtices to commit to Priſon all ſuch Perſons ſoe refuſeing to enter into ſuch Recognizance untill they ſhall ſubmit themſelves and become bound as aforeſaid.

And further for all ſuch Inholders Cookes Taverners Alehouſekeepers Butchers and other Victuallers as ſhall not appeare before the ſaid Juſtices as aforeſaid, that they immediately ſend forth their Warrants, or grant Proceſs againſt them and everie of them ſo making Default to appear, and anſwere their Contempt at the next generall Seſſions of the Peace.
